2. The Commission's rules now permit the taking of a deposition in all cases only upon Commission order, issued pursuant to a motion. The rules also set certain fixed time limits in connection with the taking and filing of depositions. The Commission's experience indicates that in the majority of cases no opposition is made to motions for the taking of depositions. It follows, therefore, that the motions procedure presently prescribed by the rules results in unnecessary work on the part of the parties and the Commission. Accordingly, we believe that the requirement of a motion and order as a condition precedent to the taking of a deposition is unnecessary and should be deleted. We also believe that the fixed time limits presently prescribed by our rules impose unnecessarily rigid limitations upon the taking of depositions. The time within which depositions should be taken will depend on the facts and circumstances involved in the particular cases in which they are sought to be used. The rules adopted herein provide that depositions should be taken on reasonable notice.

3. The provision that depositions of "parties in interest" may only be admitted in evidence upon a showing that "the witness is dead or seriously ill or that the requirement to produce the witness at the hearing would cause undue hardship" was designed to exclude from our hearings, except in the circumstances enumerated, deposition testimony relating to controverted matters of persons with a substantial interest in or who hold positions of responsibility with a party to the proceeding. The term "parties in interest", however, may be defined to include within it a larger group of persons than was contemplated. In addition the present rule does not permit the admission into evidence of a deposition where in view of the nature of the testimony no useful purpose would be served by insistence upon oral presentation at the hearing. The rules adopted herein relating to the admissibility of such testimony have been in light of these considerations.

4. The Commission's rules relating to the taking of depositions have been amended in accordance with the above considerations. Other changes have also been made in these rules to make them more liberal and flexible.

5. The amendments to the Commission's rules adopted herein are procedural in nature, and, therefore, the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act with respect to notice of proposed rule making and prior publication are inapplicable, and the amendments may be effective immediately. The amendments are issued pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (r) and 409 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. In view of the foregoing, it is ordered that, effective immediately, the Commission's rules and regulations relating to the taking of depositions are amended as set forth below.

Adopted: October 29, 1952.

Released: October 30, 1952.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

1. Sections 1.821, 1.822, 1.825, and 1.826 are amended to read as follows:

§ 1.821 Depositions on notice—(a) Notice of examination: time and place. A party to a hearing desiring to take the deposition of any person shall give reasonable notice in writing to every other party. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition, the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs, and the matters with which the deposition will be concerned. On motion of any party upon whom the notice is served, the Commission may, for cause shown, enlarge or shorten the time.

(b) Orders for the protection of parties and deponents. After notice is served for taking a deposition, upon motion, seasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined, and upon notice and for good cause shown, the Commission may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice, or that it may be taken only on written interrogatories, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the action and their officers or counsel, or that after being sealed the deposition shall be opened only by order of the Commission; or that Commission may make any other order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment, or oppression.

§ 1.822 Persons before whom depositions may be taken. (a) Depositions shall be taken before any judge of any court of the United States, or any United States commissioner, or any clerk of a district court, or any chancellor, justice or judge of a supreme or superior court, mayor or chief magistrate of a city, judge of a county court, or court of common pleas of any of the United States, or any notary public, not being of counsel or attorney to any party, nor interested in the event of the proceeding.

(b) Record of examination; oath; objections. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall administer an oath or affirmation to the witness and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed, unless the parties agree otherwise. Any objection made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to such objection. In lieu of participating in the oral examination, parties served with notice of taking a deposition may transmit written interrogatories to the officer, who shall propound them to the witness and record the answers verbatim.

§ 1.825 Inclusion in the record; objections. (a) No deposition shall constitute a part of the record in any proceeding until received in evidence at a hearing. Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, objection may be made at the hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence, if the witness were then present and testifying.

(b) Objections to the competency of a witness, or to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(c) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath, or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

§ 1.826 Inclusion in record. The deposition of a person with a substantial interest in or holding a position of responsibility with a party to the proceeding will not be admitted in evidence unless it is shown that the witness is dead or seriously ill, or that such exceptional circumstances exist, or that the testimony proferred is of such character that in the interest of justice and with due regard to the importance of presenting the testimony of the witnesses orally, the deposition should be admitted.

2. Section 1.827 is deleted.

PART 2—FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS AND RADIO TREATY MATTERS; GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS:

PART 12—AMATEUR RADIO SERVICE

ALLOCATION OF FREQUENCIES

In the matter of amendment of §§ 2.104 (a) and 12.111 (a) (1) (i) of the rules and regulations of the Federal Communications Commission.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October 1952;

The Commission having under consideration its further notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter in which it was proposed to redesignate, geographically, areas in the United States, its territories, and possessions with respect to the sharing by radio amateurs of the frequency band 1800–2000 kc with the Loran system of radionavigation, to re-allocate segments of that band to these areas, and to respecify the operating limitations applicable in each such area;

It appearing, that in accordance with the requirements of section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, general notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter, which made provision for the submission of written comments by interested parties, was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 26, 1952 (17 F. R. 3748), and that the period provided for the filing of comments has now expired;

It further appearing, that comments were filed by some 18 individuals, amateur radio clubs and other amateur organizations and that 11 were in favor of adoption of the proposed amendment, three clubs and one individual from Minnesota, while not in opposition, requested use of all the segments of the 1800–2000 kc band in the State of Minnesota and, three individuals in Iowa were opposed to a change;

It further appearing, that the amendments herein contemplate division of the United States into relatively large geographical areas where a frequency segment can be used in the entire area without interference to Loran operation, and that to provide a different pattern of sharing for the benefit of a single state within such an area would therefore not be feasible;

It further appearing, that authority for the aforesaid amendment is contained in section 4 (i) and 303 (c) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, that, effective December 15, 1952, §§ 2.104 (a) and 12.111 (a) (1) (i) be and they hereby are amended as set forth below.

Released: October 30, 1952.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

1. Footnote NG23, § 2.104 (a), Table of frequency allocations, rules governing Frequency Allocation and Treaty Matters, is amended as follows:

NG23 (a) The amateur service may use, in any area, whichever bands, 1800–1825, 1875–1900, 1900–1925 or 1975–2000 kc, are not required for Loran in that area, in accordance with the following conditions:

(1) The use of these frequencies by the amateur service shall not be a bar to the expansion of the radionavigation (Loran) service;

(2) The amateur service shall not cause harmful interference to the radionavigation (Loran) service;

(3) Only types A1 and A3 emission shall be employed;

(4) Amateur operation shall be limited to:

Area	Bands, kc	DC plate input power in watts
		Day	Night
Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and States to the east of these States, including District of Columbia.	1800–1825, 1875–1900	500	200

Alaska, Guam, and other Territories and possessions of the United States not listed above.	None	No operation.	No operation.

(b) The provisions of (a) above shall be considered as temporary in the sense that they shall remain subject to cancellation or to revision, in whole or in part, by order of the Commission without hearing whenever the Commission shall deem such cancellation or revision to be necessary or desirable in the light of the priority within this band of the Loran system of radionavigation.

2. Section 12.111 (a) (1) (i), 1800 to 2000 kc, rules governing Amateur Radio Service, is amended to read as follows:

(i) 1800 to 2000 kc. Use of this band is on a shared basis with the Loran system of radionavigation. The amateur service may use, in any area, whichever bands, 1800–1825, 1875–1900, 1900–1925 or 1975–2000 kc, are not required for Loran in that area, in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) The use of these frequencies by the amateur service shall not be a bar to the expansion of the radionavigation (Loran) service.

(b) The use of these frequencies by stations in the amateur service shall not cause harmful interference to the Loran system of radionavigation. If an amateur station causes such interference, the station licensee shall, as directed by the Commission, immediately cease operation on the frequencies involved.

(c) Only type A1 or A3 emission shall be employed.

(d) Amateur operation shall be limited to the following areas, to the indicated frequency bands within each such area, and to the indicated maximum plate power input to the tube or tubes supplying energy to the antenna during day and night hours, respectively, on such frequencies:

Area	Authorized bands, kc	DC plate input power in watts
		Day	Night

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

REBROADCAST; ORIGINATING STATION

In the matter of amendment of §§ 3.191, 3.291, 3.591, 3.655, and 3.790 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

1. On May 14, 1952, the Commission adopted a report and order in the above-entitled proceeding (17 F. R. 4711) in which it set forth its interpretation of section 325 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, with respect to certain matters, and also adopted a new amendment to its rules and regulations.

2. Section 325 (a) provides in pertinent part: "• • • nor shall any broadcasting station rebroadcast the program or any part thereof of another broadcasting station without the express authority of the originating station."

3. As stated in the notice of proposed rule making issued herein on October 5, 1950, this proceeding arose out of a controversy between two television stations concerning the meaning of the term "originating station" in section 325 (a), which raised questions of general interest which the Commission believed should be the subject of rule making. Accordingly, it was proposed to amend §§ 3.191, 3.291, 3.591, 3.655 and 3.790 of the Commission's rules and regulations to clarify these rules with respect to the meaning of the term "originating station" in section 325 (a) of the Communications Act, to resolve any possible conflict between section 325 (a) and the Commission's rules against exclusivity, and to clarify the Commission's rules with respect to the necessity for securing the consent of foreign broadcast stations under section 325 (a).

4. In its report and order of May 14, 1952, the Commission, after considering the comments filed in response to the notice of October 5, 1950, set forth its interpretation of section 325 (a) in respect of the following matters:

(1) In the absence of an applicable treaty, the statute does not require the consent of the originating station before the rebroadcast of the program of a foreign broadcast station.

(2) The "originating station" is the station whose signal is received and transmitted, either simultaneously or at a later time.

(3) The statute does not confer upon the originating station an arbitrary right to refuse consent for a rebroadcast, without regard to the nature of the interests sought to be protected by a refusal and its effect upon the public interest. In addition to these interpretations of section 325 (a), an amendment of the rules was adopted providing for a report to the Commission in each instance of a refusal to grant permission for a rebroadcast.

5. Upon petitions seeking such relief, the Commission has twice postponed the effective date of the amendment to the rules for successive periods to, and including, October 31, 1952.

6. Petitions have also been received from Columbia Broadcasting System, Inc., National Broadcasting Company, Inc., National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters, and on behalf of stations KLOK, WKLO, KXRO, KLO, KING, KPQ, KPHO, WHEN, and WOW, seeking reconsideration of the Report and Order of May 14, 1952, and the amendments to the rules adopted on that date. These petitions have been opposed by Honorable Harry R. Sheppard, and by Gordon P. Brown of Radio Station WSAY, Rochester, New York.[1]

7. The petitions for reconsideration do not seek reconsideration of the Commission's determinations with respect to the need for consent from a foreign station or the meaning of the term "originating station." They do challenge the reporting requirement and the interpretation of the report and order with respect to the absolute right of a station to refuse consent for a rebroadcast.

8. The Commission finds, upon reconsideration, that the amendments to its rules requiring a report in each instance of a denial of consent for a rebroadcast are unnecessary. No facts have been presented to the Commission by those opposing the requirement concerning the probable extent of any possible burden which the reporting requirement might involve. Indeed, the reporting rule as finally adopted on May 14, 1952, was in almost the identical language as that proposed in the notice of proposed rule making which had been adopted on October 5, 1950. Yet none of the instant petitioners or any other persons who filed comments addressed to the proposed rule raised any question concerning the burdens which are now alleged.[3]

[1] The petition filed on October 9, 1952, on behalf of radio stations KLOK, WKLO, KXRO, KLO, KING, KPQ, KPHO, WHEN, and WOW has been considered only as it was directed to the amendments to the rules. It was not timely filed with respect to the interpretive aspects of the report and order. (Communications Act of 1934, section 405.) Gordon Brown's petition in opposition, filed on October 23, 1952, was also filed too late for consideration as an opposition thereto since it was filed more than 10 days subsequent to the filing of the petition it opposed. (Section 1.730 of the rules and regulations.) Gordon Brown's request, made in the same petition, that the Commission investigate an alleged conspiracy to restrain rebroadcasting, based upon an alleged unity of action in opposing the Commission's report and order herein, will be denied, since it is unsupported by facts sufficient to warrant an investigation.

9. Nevertheless, we find that many situations may be presented in the day-to-day operation of stations which raise difficult but bona fide questions as to the applicability of our rule. Thus, a station may frequently have difficulty in deciding whether particular types of inquiries are requests for rebroadcast privileges, or whether responses to such inquiries setting forth conditions for granting rebroadcast consent constitute "refusals." A station may thus act at its peril in failing to file a report which under a different interpretation of the circumstances involved might be deemed by the Commission to have been required under the rule. Moreover, an undeterminable number of requests to rebroadcast may involve situations which would not be thought to warrant a complaint or where a refusal would not be improper. We now recognize that these factors make it undesirable to deal with the problem by the rule adopted. Instead, the same purposes may be achieved by leaving it to the Commission to request explanatory statements from licensees in situations in which complaint is made by another licensee of an alleged refusal to permit a rebroadcast. The procedure in connection with such complaints would thus be similar to that followed in the case of other complaints. The amendments to the Commission's rules and regulations adopted on May 14, 1952, will therefore be deleted.

10. The petitions for reconsideration also argue, in substance, that section 325 (a) gives an absolute right of refusal, and that the Commission is legislating, contrary to the intent of the statute, when it declares that the right to refuse consent for a rebroadcast is not absolute. It is said that a refusal to grant consent cannot be made a relevant consideration in determining whether a station has operated in the public interest. The oppositions to the petitions for reconsideration support the Commission's previous interpretation of the statute. They also argue that the use of section 325 (a) to prevent a station from carrying a sponsor's program by means of a rebroadcast when the sponsor desires to have that station carry the program, involves a restraint of trade, and that rebroadcasts are valuable both to sponsors, independent stations, and the public.

11. In the report and order of May 14, 1952, we set forth our interpretation of the meaning and purpose of section 325 (a). We have carefully considered the comments received since the adoption of that report and order. They do not persuade us, however, that section 325 (a) of the Communications Act was intended as a lonely exception to the general principle that every broadcasting station is licensed to serve the public interest and that every station is accountable for such of its actions as affect that interest and the wider and more efficient use of the channels of interstate communications. We cannot, therefore, accept an interpretation of section 325 (a) which reads into that section the creation of an absolute right unqualified in any respect by the duties and responsibilities of stations under other sections of the act.

12. However, lest there be any misunderstanding, we wish to make clear that we have not said, and we are not saying, that legitimate property rights, recognized by law, may be freely appropriated by others through the mere device of demanding rebroadcast privileges. Moreover, we have not implied, nor are we implying, that many, if not most, cases in which request to rebroadcast a station's program is denied may not be justified under the circumstances there presented. It is clear, however, that a licensee may abuse its right to refuse rebroadcast privileges, just as it may abuse other rights. The principle involved is not novel. Thus, a broadcast station has a right to decide who shall use its facilities and for what type of program, but not the right to act arbitrarily in this respect without due regard to the public interest in a well-rounded program service. See, "In the Matter of Editorializing by Broadcast Licensees," 1 (Pt. 2) Pike & Fischer, R. R. p. 91:201. So too, even the holder of a copyright or patent cannot use it to unreasonably deter competition. See, e. g., Interstate Circuit v. United States, 306 U. S. 208, at 230.

13. We do not attempt here to define the scope and attributes of property interests in broadcast material which may legitimately be entitled to protection, or the effect of the antitrust laws in this field. Nor do we seek to specify here the situations where such refusal is justified or where it is unjustified. Such determinations will obviously depend upon the facts of particular cases and upon an evaluation of such factors as whether licensees of stations, through express or implied agreements or understandings, act in concert with each other or with other interests in refusing rebroadcast requests, whether requesting stations serve the same or a different area as the station whose program they wish to rebroadcast, whether the request is for permission to carry a simultaneous rebroadcast or to rebroadcast a program at some subsequent date, whether the requesting station has indicated a willingness to pay a reasonable share of the legitimate costs of the originating station, whether or not other persons having interests in the program have requested or agreed to the rebroadcast, and whether the program concerned has public service aspects that make its wide dissemination to the public clearly desirable.

14. Upon reconsideration, we believe, as above stated, that the reporting provisions which we adopted in our May 14, 1952, report are unnecessary and may be deleted. We believe that the interpretation of section 325 (a) of the Communications Act therein announced is correct and should be affirmed.

15. Accordingly, it is ordered, That the amendments to §§ 3.191, 3.291, 3.591, 3.655 and 3.790 of the Commission's rules and regulations adopted on May 14, 1952, are hereby deleted and rescinded and the report in this matter adopted on May 14, 1952, is, in all other respects, affirmed, and

16. It is further ordered, That the petition filed on October 23, 1952, by Gordon Brown requesting an investigation of an alleged conspiracy is denied.

[3] Section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act requires "either the terms or substance of the proposed rule or a description of the subjects and issues involved." The Commission's notice of proposed rule making, although directed chiefly to the problem of exclusivity, specifically stated "Such an amendment [to the rules] might require that an originating station which refuses permission to rebroadcast a program file with the Commission and with the station requesting such permission a written statement describing the grounds and reasons for the refusal; . . . In view of the importance of the subject matter it is desired that interested persons be afforded an opportunity to present their views in the matter before the Commission issues final amendments to the above sections of the Commission's rules. To accomplish that purpose the instant rule making proceedings are being instituted." The comments received by the Commission in the petitions for reconsideration which were directed to the reporting requirement should have been filed in response to the notice of proposed rule making. The burdens now claimed to result from the rule should have been as apparent to the petitioners when the rule was proposed as after it was adopted. Conceding that the final rule may have had a wider application than the proposal, its substance was exactly the same. It destroys the whole purpose of the Administrative Procedure Act requirement of notice to ignore a proposal because it is a "suggestion," when that very purpose is to provide an opportunity to comment on proposed rules, which, by statutory requirement, can only be suggestions. There is no magic terminology in proposing a new rule so long as the purpose is clear. It was abundantly clear here. This problem is mentioned here because a great deal of effort and misunderstanding might have been avoided if the opportunity to comment on the proposed rule had been properly availed of by those who now comment adversely upon it.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter N—Explosives or Other Dangerous Articles or Substances and Combustible Liquids on Board Vessels

[CGFR 52-41]

PART 146—TRANSPORTATION OR STOWAGE OF EXPLOSIVES OR OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES OR SUBSTANCES, AND COMBUSTIBLE LIQUIDS ON BOARD VESSELS

PART 147—REGULATIONS GOVERNING USE OF DANGEROUS ARTICLES AS SHIPS' STORES AND SUPPLIES ON BOARD VESSELS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

A notice regarding proposed changes in the regulations governing the transportation of inflammable solids and oxidizing materials, corrosive liquids, heaters for motor vehicles and certification of ships' stores and supplies was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated February 27, 1952, 17 F. R. 1728, as Items I to IV, inclusive, on the agenda to be considered by the Merchant Marine Council and a public hearing was held by the Merchant Marine Council on March 25, 1952, in Washington, D. C. All the comments submitted were considered and where practicable were incorporated into the regulations.

The purpose of the amendment to 46 CFR 146.08-11 is to permit the use of heaters on motor vehicles while being transported on board vessels subject to the provisions of R. S. 4472, as amended (46 U. S. C. 170). This regulation will permit heater installations on motor vehicles, which present similar hazards and will require similar safeguards as refrigerating equipment, which is presently permitted.

The purpose for amending 46 CFR 146.22-1 to 146.22-100, inclusive, regarding detailed regulations pertaining to inflammable solids and oxidizing materials, is to revise and bring up to date the applicable requirements. The regulations permit a number of new hazardous inflammable solids and oxidizing materials, which have become commercially important, to be shipped by water in increasing quantities. A number of new containers for inflammable solids and oxidizing materials are also allowed. The changes in the regulations are in agreement with the regulations prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission insofar as it is practicable for water transportation.

The purpose for amending 46 CFR 146.23-1 to 146.23-100, inclusive, regarding detailed regulations pertaining to corrosive liquids, is to revise and bring up to date the applicable requirements. The regulations will permit a number of new corrosive liquids, which have become commercially important, to be shipped by water in increasing quantities. A number of new containers for corrosive liquids are also allowed. All the changes in these requirements are in agreement with the Interstate Commerce Commission's regulations insofar as it is practicable for water transportation.

The purpose for amending 46 CFR 147.03-3 is to require the manufacturer of ships' stores and supplies to pay for the cost of any test required to determine if such article can be safely used on board merchant vessels. The purpose for amending 46 CFR 147.03-4 is to revise the requirements regarding the manufacturer's statement which must accompany the application for certification of a product as ships' stores and supplies. These changes are based on a request from the Bureau of the Budget. No objections were received in connection with the changes in the procedure to obtain certification.

The detailed regulations governing the transportation of inflammable solids and oxidizing materials and corrosive liquids have been completely revised and the sections renumbered to allow for future expansion, if necessary. For convenience, a table showing the old section number and the new section number assigned is printed below and the asterisk before a section number indicates that section has been revised:

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed which shall become effective 90 days after date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

SUBPART—HIGHWAY VEHICLES LOADED WITH DANGEROUS SUBSTANCES AND TRANSPORTED ON BOARD VESSELS

1. Section 146.08-11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 146.08-11 Motor vehicles having refrigerating or heating equipment. (a) Motor vehicles, fitted with refrigerating or heating equipment using an inflammable liquid or gas as fuel, may be accepted for transportation, and such refrigerating or heating equipment may be operated while the vehicle is on board a vessel, provided the installation conforms with the following requirements:

(1) The installation is rigidly mounted and free of any movement other than normal vibration of operation.

(2) A shut-off control, easily accessible to the operator of the vehicle, is fitted to the fuel and electrical supply of refrigerating or heating equipment.

(3) The fuel storage tank, the fuel lines and the carburetor or other device shall be tight and show no signs of leakage.

(b) Refrigerating or heating equipment not fitted with automatic starting and stopping devices shall, if the vehicle operator desires the equipment to operate while on board the vessel, be started before the vehicle is taken on board. It may continue in operation while the vehicle is on the vessel, but if for any cause the motor ceases to operate it shall not be restarted until after the vehicle leaves the vessel.

(c) Vessels on voyages exceeding thirty (30) minutes' duration shall provide a stowage for vehicles having refrigerating or heating equipment operated by internal combustion engines as will permit ready diffusion of exhaust gases to the open air. Passenger vehicles shall not be stowed in a position adjacent to vehicles operating internal combustion motors as would expose the occupants thereof to excessive concentrations of exhaust fumes from such motors.

(d) The master or person in charge of a vessel may, when he deems it necessary for any cause, require the vehicle operator to stop the operation of refrigerating or heating equipment attached to a vehicle while on board the vessel.

(R. S. 4405, as amended, 4472, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 170. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 1275)

2. Sections 146.22-1 to 146.22-100, inclusive, and sections 146.23-1 to 146.23-100, inclusive, are amended to read as follows:

SUBPART—DETAILED REGULATIONS GOVERNING INFLAMMABLE SOLIDS AND OXIDIZING MATERIALS

Sec.

146.22-1 Definition of inflammable solids and oxidizing materials.
146.22-5 Stowage on board vessels.
146.22-10 Limitation of "On deck" stowage.
146.22-15 Mixed stowages of oxidizing materials.
146.22-20 Stowage of charcoal.
146.22-25 Exemptions for inflammable solids and oxidizing materials.
146.22-30 Authorization to load or discharge ammonium nitrate.
146.22-100 Table E—Classification: Inflammable solids and oxidizing materials.

AUTHORITY: §§ 146.22-1 to 146.22-100 issued under R. S. 4405, as amended, 4472, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 170. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 1275.

regulations as a solid substance other than one classified as an explosive, which is liable, under conditions incident to transportation, to cause fires through friction, through absorption of moisture, through spontaneous chemical changes, or as a result of retained heat from the manufacturing or processing. An oxidizing material is defined by the I. C. C. regulations as a substance such as a chlorate, permanganate, peroxide, or a nitrate that yields oxygen readily to stimulate the combustion of organic matter. Such definitions are binding upon all shippers making shipments of inflammable solids and oxidizing materials by any vessel, and shall apply to the owners, charterers, agents, master, or other person in charge of a vessel and to other persons, transporting, carrying, conveying, storing, stowing or using inflammable solids or oxidizing materials on board any vessel subject to R. S. 4472, as amended, and the regulations in this subchapter.

§ 146.22–5 Stowage on board vessels. All inflammable solids and oxidizing materials offered for transportation on board vessels shall, when taken on board a vessel, be stowed in accordance with the provisions applying to the particular character of vessel as shown in the tables forming § 146.22–100, and with the detailed regulations of stowage.

§ 146.22–10 Limitation of "On deck" stowage. When "On deck in open" stowage is permitted for any substance by § 146.22–100 it shall apply only to the water-tight containers in which such substances are packed.

§ 146.22–15 Mixed stowages of oxidizing materials. The stowage of bichromates, chlorates, perchlorates, nitrates, and peroxides with explosives and other dangerous articles or substances shall conform to the following conditions:

(a) These substances shall not be stowed in the same compartment or hold in which explosives are stowed.

(b) These substances shall not be stowed in the same compartment or hold in which acids and other corrosive liquids (white label) are stowed.

(c) These substances shall not be stowed in the same compartment or hold in which inflammable liquids (red label) are stowed.

(d) These substances shall not be stowed in the same compartment in which cotton, sulfur in bulk, or charcoal are stowed, nor shall they be stowed in a hold over or under one in which sulfur in bulk is stowed.

(e) These substances shall not be stowed in proximity to readily combustible materials such as textile products or finely divided substances such as organic powder, etc.

§ 146.22–20 Stowage of charcoal. In the stowage of charcoal the following conditions shall be complied with:

(b) (1) Charcoal packed in bags and offered for transportation aboard vessels in quantities of more than 1 ton shall be so loaded that the bags are laid horizontally and so packed that there will be space for efficient air circulation. If the bags are not compactly filled and closed so as to avoid free space within, dunnage strips shall be laid between the bags both vertically and horizontally. Space for ventilating shall be maintained in the way of bulkheads, the shell of the vessel, the under deck, and the overhead deck.

(2) When stowage space permits, not more than 40 tons of charcoal shall be stowed in any one compartment or hold. If the arrangements of hold space require the stowage of larger tonnage, the arrangement for ventilating should be increased to assure sufficient venting effect.

(c) Broken bags shall be refused and loose material from broken bags accumulating in the hold during loading shall be removed. Bags may be repacked or have new closing means provided and then stowed.

(d) Charcoal "Screenings" packed in bags shall be so stowed as to provide spaces for air circulation between tiers regardless of the quantity being transported.

§ 146.22–25 Exemptions for inflammable solids and oxidizing materials. (a) Inflammable solids and oxidizing materials when packed in inside containers of not over 1 pound net weight each, and packed in outside containers not exceeding 25 pounds net weight each, are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements, unless otherwise provided by the regulations in this part.

(b) Inflammable solids and oxidizing materials total weight not over 16 ounces in any outside package, unless otherwise provided by the regulations in this part, are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements.

(c) Such limited quantity shipments may be accepted on board all vessels subject to the regulations in this part provided the bill of lading or other shipping paper correctly describes the article in accordance with the true name as shown in the commodity list. Stowage shall be "On deck under cover" or "Tween decks" in a compartment not subject to artificial heat.

(d) the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section do not extend to shipments of the following inflammable solids and oxidizing materials:

Acetyl benzoyl peroxide, solution.
Bags, nitrate of soda, empty and unwashed.
Benzoyl peroxide.
Burnt cotton.
Calcium chlorite.
Calcium phosphide.
Calcium, metallic, crystalline.
Calcium resinate.
Calcium resinate (fused).
Carbopropoxide, unstabilized.
Charcoal, wood, screenings.
Chlorobenzoyl peroxide ((para).
Coal, ground bituminous, sea coal and coal facings.
Cobalt resinate, precipitated.
Cotton waste, oily.
Fiber, burnt.
Fibers or fabrics, oily.
Fish scrap or fish meal.
Hair, wet.
Iron sponge.
Isopropyl percarbonate, unstabilized.
Lithium hydride.
Lithium metal.
Lithium silicon.
Matches, strike-anywhere.
Motion-picture film (exposed) and motion-picture film scrap (nitrocellulose base).
Motion-picture film, old and worn out (nitrocellulose base).
Paper stock, wet.
Paper waste, wet.
Phosphoric anhydride.
Phosphorus, amorphous, red.
Phosphorus pentachloride.
Phosphorus sesquisulfide.
Phosphorus, white or yellow.
Photographic film scrap.
Picric acid, wet, exceeding 16 ounces.
Potassium, metallic, and potassium, metallic liquid alloy.
Potassium peroxide.
Pyroxylin plastic scrap.
Rags, oily.
Rags, wet.
Sodium amide.
Sodium chlorite.
Sodium hydride.
Sodium, metallic, and sodium, metallic liquid alloy.
Sodium metallic, dispersion in organic solvent.
Sodium peroxide.
Sodium picramate.
Spent iron mass or spent iron sponge.
Spent oxide.
Tankage, garbage, tankage, fertilizers.
Tankages, rough ammoniate.
Tetranitromethane.
Textile waste, wet.
Thorium metal, powdered.
Titanium metal powder, wet.
Urea nitrate, wet, over 16 ounces.
Wool waste, wet.
X-ray film (exposed) and X-ray film scrap (nitrocellulose base).
Zinc ammonium nitrite.
Zirconium metallic, dry, wet or sludge.
Zirconium picramate.

§ 146.22–30 Authorization to load or discharge ammonium nitrate. (a) Shipments of ammonium nitrate or ammonium nitrate fertilizer in amounts exceeding 500 pounds shall not be laden on or discharged from any vessel at any point or place in the United States, its territories or possessions, not including the Panama Canal Zone, until authorization for such loading or discharging has been obtained by the owner, agent, charterer, master, or person in charge of the vessel from the District Commander or other officer of the United States Coast Guard designated by the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard for such purpose.

(b) Before such permit is issued the District Commander shall ascertain where it is proposed to load or unload the ammonium nitrate or ammonium nitrate fertilizer. If the District Commander finds that the proposed facility at which the vessel is to load or unload is in a congested area of the port, he shall withhold the issuance of a permit until the vessel secures the use of a facility in an area so remotely situated from populous centers that in the event of fire or explosions, loss of lives and property may be minimized. When the District Commander finds that the proposed facility is in a remote area, he is directed to make the use of such a facility a condition of the permit. The District Commander shall in the issuance of the permit observe the provision of § 146.01–12.

Shipping containers must have marked thereon the gross tare and net weight of the package.	When in powdered or crystalline form must be wet with at least 30% by weight of water. Check gross weight of container to ascertain if leakage has occurred. Reject leaking containers or ones that show signs of having leaked.
Burnt cotton (not repicked): The originating bill of lading or other shipping paper must bear the shipper's certifying statement that the bales of cotton have not shown evidence of fire for a period of ten days. NOTE: When burnt cotton is repicked and rebaled it is not subject to this regulation and may be shipped as "Cotton."	Cotton that has been on fire and from which the burnt portions have not been removed by repicking. The principal hazard is that the fire may rekindle.	Yellow	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck in open." Outside containers Not permitted unless securely baled. Calcium hypochlorite compounds, dry, containing more than 8.80% available oxygen (39% available chlorine). Lithium hypochlorite compounds, dry, containing more than 8.8% available oxygen (39% available chlorine).	White powder. Decomposed by moisture. If exposed to excessive heat, or to the rays of the sun, it may decompose spontaneously evolving vapor with sufficient pressure to rupture container. The vapors from ruptured containers have been known to ignite spontaneously. When exposed it gives off pungent vapors (chlorine) that are corrosive. May destroy textiles. Do not stow in the same compartment with corrosive liquids (white label) nor with turpentine. Stow well away from foodstuffs, living quarters, and all sources of artificial heat. Keep dry and cool.	Yellow	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck under cover." "Tween decks." Coal facings Ground bituminous coal. Sea coal.	Coal facings (foundry facing) is a term applied to ground or pulverized coal used in foundries in preparation of the molds. Ground bituminous coal is the name applied to bituminous coal that has been finely ground or pulverized for use as fuel. Sea coal is a term of Scottish origin, originally applied to coal mined at seaboard or from under the sea and in this country today is applied to differentiate between bituminous coal (soft coal) and anthracite coal. Ground bituminous coal and foundry facings are sometimes termed "Sea Coal." Coal in this form is liable to spontaneous heating under favorable conditions, especially if of high sulfur content. By storing the more finely ground material for some days after grinding before shipment, spontaneous heating is greatly reduced.	Yellow	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck under cover." 146.23-40 Spent sulfuric acid in bulk.
146.23-45 General requirements for sulfuric acid in bulk and spent sulfuric acid in bulk.
146.23-50 Hydrochloric acid in bulk.
146.23-100 Table F—Classification: Corrosive liquids.

AUTHORITY: §§ 146.23-1 to 146.23-100 issued under R. S. 4405, as amended, 4472, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 170. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 1275.

§ 146.23-1 Definitions of corrosive liquids. Corrosive liquids are defined by the ICC regulations as those acids, alkaline caustic liquids, and other corrosive liquids which, when in contact with living tissues, will cause severe damage of such tissues by chemical action; or in case of leakage, will materially damage or destroy other freight by chemical action, or are liable to cause fire when in contact with organic matter or with certain chemicals. Such definition is binding upon all shippers making shipments of corrosive liquids by common carrier vessels engaged in interstate or foreign commerce by water. This definition is accepted and adopted and forms part of the regulations in this subchapter applying to all shippers making shipments of corrosive liquids by any vessel, and shall apply to owners, charterers, agents or other persons transporting, carrying, conveying, storing, stowing, or using corrosive liquids on board any vessel subject to R. S. 4472, as amended, and this subchapter.

§ 146.23-5 Stowage on board vessels. All corrosive liquids permitted for transportation on board vessels shall, if taken on board a vessel, be stowed in accordance with the provisions applying to the particular character of vessel as shown in the tables forming § 146.23-100 and with the detailed regulations for stowage.

§ 146.23-10 General stowage requirements. In the stowage of corrosive liquids, the following conditions shall be observed:

(a) Corrosive liquids shall not be stowed in a compartment or hold in which explosives are stowed. (See: "Stowage on vessels carrying explosives.")

(b) Such liquids shall be stowed well away from living quarters, foodstuffs or cargo of an organic nature.

(c) Stowage shall be in such manner that the containers may be readily observed.

(d) Corrosive liquids shall not be stowed in proximity to or over other dangerous articles of cargo.

NOTE: This paragraph was declared inapplicable to the transportation of military explosives. See § 146.29-1.

(e) Corrosive liquids shall not be stowed over any combustible substance even though such substance is not dangerous by the regulations in this part.

§ 146.23-15 Stowage of glass carboys. Glass carboys containing corrosive liquids, unless completely boxed, shall not be stowed more than two tiers high. The transportation of acids and other corrosive liquids in glass carboys on board barges is not subject to this provision. The term "completely boxed carboys" may include regularly boxed carboys with neck protection extending to the sides of the carboy box; or of crate construction; either type to be of strength commensurate with the strength of the carboy box itself and to be sufficiently adequate to permit stacking one on top of the other.

§ 146.23-20 "On deck" stowage requirements. (a) Acids, alkaline caustic liquids, and other corrosive liquids permitted to be stowed "On deck" shall be so stowed that any leakage from a container will drain away from other cargo and readily reach an overboard scupper or freeing port. Such drainage shall not be permitted to enter an enclosed drainage system other than a direct overboard scupper. If such stowage is not possible to arrange, clean, hard, dry sand shall be placed under and around the lower tier of containers to absorb any leakage.

(b) Dunnage shall be provided on the deck and otherwise and so arranged that any appreciable leakage will be apparent.

(c) Any leakage occurring shall be washed down, using liberal quantities of water.

§ 146.23-25 Stowage on vessels carrying explosives. Acids, alkaline caustic liquids, and other corrosive liquids required by the regulations in this part to be stowed "On deck" shall not be transported on vessels carrying explosives except in conformity with the following provisions:

(a) When stowed "On deck" on vessels having machinery spaces amidship, the engine and boiler room spaces shall intervene between the holds which contain the explosives and the spaces over which the corrosive substances are stowed.

(b) When stowed "On deck" on vessels having machinery spaces aft, the bridge structural erection shall intervene between holds which contain explosives and the spaces over which the corrosive substances are stowed. The stowage shall not be utilized unless it provides a distance between the stowages of at least one complete hold space.

(c) When carried "Under deck" the engine and boiler room spaces, or one complete hold free of any explosive or inflammable liquid shall intervene between stowage of the explosives and the corrosive liquids.

NOTE: Paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) were declared inapplicable to the transportation of military explosives. See § 146.29-1.

§ 146.23-30 Exemptions for corrosive liquids. (a) Acids, alkaline caustic liquids, and other corrosive liquids in quantity not exceeding 1 pound in bottles, each enclosed in a metal can, and packed in outside containers, are exempt from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements unless otherwise provided by the regulations in this part.

(b) Such limited quantity shipments may be accepted on board all vessels subject to the regulations in this part provided the bill of lading or other shipping paper correctly describes the article in accordance with the true name as shown in the commodity list. Stowage shall be "On deck under cover" or "Tween decks" in a compartment not subject to artificial heat.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section do not extend to shipments of the following acids, alkaline caustic liquids, and other corrosive liquids:

Acid sludge.
Allyl chloroformate.
Amyl trichlorosilane.
Antimony pentafluoride.
Benzyl bromide.
Benzyl chloroformate.
Boron trichloride.
Bromine.
Bromine pentafluoride.
Bromine trifluoride. a-Bromotoluene.
Butyl trichlorosilane.
Chloracetyl chloride.
Chlorine trifluoride.
Diethyl dichlorosilane.
Difluorophosphoric acid, anhydrous.
Dimethyl sulfate.
Diphenyl dichlorosilane.
Electrolyte or alkaline corrosive battery fluid packed with storage batteries, battery chargers, or radio current supply devices.
Ethyl chloroformate.
Ethyl phenyldichlorosilane.
Fluosulfonic acid.
Hexafluorophosphoric acid.
Hexyl trichlorosilane.
Hydrazine, anhydrous.
Hydrazine solution containing 50 percent or less of water.
Hydrofluoric acid, anhydrous.
Hydrogen peroxide over 52 percent strength by weight.
Hypochlorite solution containing more than 7 percent available chlorine by weight.
Less-than-carload and less-than-truckload shipments of wet electric storage batteries.
Methyl chloroformate.
Mixtures of hydrofluoric and sulfuric acid
Monofluorophosphoric acid, anhydrous.
Nitrating (mixed) acid.
Nitric acid.
Nitrohydrochloric acid.
Nitrohydrochloric acid diluted.
Octyl trichlorosilane.
Phenyl trichlorosilane.
Phosphorus oxychloride.
Phosphorus tribromide.
Phosphorus trichloride.
Propyl trichlorosilane.
Spent acid (sulfuric or mixed).
Sulfur chloride.
Thionyl chloride.
Thiophosphoryl chloride.

(d) Other exemptions from specification packaging, marking other than name of contents, and labeling requirements are shown in the tables under the specific article.

§ 146.23-35 Sulfuric acid in bulk. Sulfuric acid may be transported in bulk on board cargo vessels in conformity with the following provisions:

(a) In tanks forming an integral part of the structure of the vessel:

(1) Provided the sulfuric acid is of a specific gravity of not less than 1.8125 (65° Baumé) or of greater strength.

(2) Sulfuric acid of a specific gravity of not less than 1.7059 (60° Baumé) and of greater strength, up to but not exceeding 1.8068 specific gravity (64.75° Baumé) provided the acid has been treated with an inhibitor that renders its corrosive effects on steel no greater than that of 66° Baumé, commercial sulfuric acid.

(3) Integral tanks shall be constructed and tested to meet the requirements of the rules of the American Bureau of Shipping.

(4) Integral tanks used for the stowage of the types of sulfuric acid in bulk permitted by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall be vented to the atmosphere to prevent development of internal pressure. The vent pipe shall be at least equal in diameter to that of the tank filling line and of a thickness not less than that of standard weight pipe. No openings shall be permitted in a tank below deck, except such openings as are required for access or maintenance purposes, and these openings shall be fitted with bolted plate covers and gaskets. The gaskets shall be of a material resistive to the action of sulfuric acid. Filling and discharge lines shall terminate above the weather deck and be fitted with suitable stop valves.

(5) The exhaust end of the vent line shall terminate above the weather deck in a location clear of obstruction and away from any source of open flame. The outlet of the vent shall be fitted with a gooseneck bend and flame screen made of corrosive-resistant wire of at least 30 x 30 mesh for a single screen, or two screens of corrosive-resistant wire at least 20 x 20 mesh, placed not less than 1 inch or more than 1½ inches apart. No stop valve or frangible disk shall be fitted in a vent line.

(6) An outage space of not less than 1% of the capacity of the tank shall be maintained at time of filling.

(7) Air pressure shall not be used to discharge cargo from tanks forming an integral part of the structure of the vessel.

(b) In tanks (pressure-vessel type) independent of the structure of the vessel, acid of 52° Baumé minimum strength or over may be transported without restriction: Provided:

(1) The acid is stowed in independent tanks which shall be designed for a pressure of not less than 50 pounds per square inch and shall be fabricated, inspected, and tested in compliance with the requirements for Class III arc-welded unfired pressure vessels, as set forth in Parts 50 to 57 inclusive, of this chapter (Subchapter F—Marine Engineering).

(2) Independent tanks used for the stowage of the type of sulfuric acid in bulk permitted by paragraph (b) of this section shall be fitted with vent pipes discharging to the atmosphere. The vent shall be fitted with a frangible rupture disk to permit the use of air pressure in discharging the cargo and to prevent development of internal pressure in the tank of above 30 pounds per square inch. The vent shall be at least equal in diameter to that of the tank filling line, and of a thickness of not less than that of standard weight pipe. No openings shall be permitted in a tank below deck, except such openings as are required for access or maintenance purposes, and these openings shall be fitted with bolted plate covers and gaskets. The gaskets shall be of a material resistive to the action of sulfuric acid. Filling and discharge lines shall terminate above the weather deck and be fitted with suitable stop valves.

(3) The outlet of the vent line shall terminate above the weather deck in a location clear of obstruction and away from any source of open flame. The outlet of a vent line shall be fitted with a gooseneck bend and flame screen made of corrosive-resistant wire of at least 30 x 30 mesh, for a single screen, or two screens of corrosive-resistant wire at least 20 x 20 mesh, placed not less than 1 inch or more than 1½ inches apart. The vent shall be closed with a frangible disk of lead or other suitable material of a thickness that will hold a pressure of 30 pounds per square inch for a period of 1 hour but will rupture within 8 hours. No stop valve shall be fitted in a principal vent line. An auxiliary vent for use in relieving pressure or vacuum in the tank during filling or discharge of cargo may be taken off a vent pipe between the tank and the frangible disk, provided such vent discharges above the weather deck and provided further the outlet of the vent is fitted with a gooseneck bend and flame screen or screens, as described in this subparagraph. The auxiliary vent shall be fitted with a stop valve.

(4) An outage space of not less than 1 percent of the capacity of the tank shall be maintained at time of filling.

(5) Independent tanks shall be so installed in the vessel that sufficient space is provided between any structure of the vessel and the tank itself for purpose of inspection. Such space must be sufficient to permit unobstructed examination.

(6) Special approval of the Commandant may be obtained where more than 30 pounds per square inch pressure is required to discharge the cargo: Provided, That the tank is designed and constructed for the appropriate pressure and meets the requirements for Class II, arc-welded unfired pressure vessels (Subchapter F—Marine Engineering).

§ 146.23-40 Spent sulfuric acid in bulk. Spent sulfuric acid may be transported in bulk on board cargo vessels in conformity with the following provisions:

(a) In independent, rubber-lined tanks (pressure-vessel type) or in "built-in" rubber-lined tanks. Approval by the Commandant is required for "built-in" type of construction.

(b) Independent tanks shall be designed for a pressure of not less than 50 pounds per square inch and shall be fabricated, inspected, and tested in compliance with the requirements for Class III arc-welded unfired pressure vessels, as set forth in Parts 50 to 61, inclusive, of this chapter (Subchapter F—Marine Engineering).

(c) Independent tanks used for the stowage of spent sulfuric acid in bulk shall be fitted with vent pipes discharging to the atmosphere. The vent pipes shall be fitted with a frangible rupture disk to permit the use of air pressure in discharging the cargo and to prevent development of internal pressure in the tank of above 30 pounds per square inch. The vent pipes shall be at least equal in diameter to that of the tank filling line and of a strength at least equivalent to that of the tank. No openings shall be permitted in a tank below deck, except such openings as are required for access or maintenance purposes, and these openings shall be fitted with bolted plate covers and gaskets. The gaskets shall be of a material resistive to the action of sulfuric acid. The cargo filling line shall terminate above the weather deck and shall be fitted with a stop valve. The cargo discharge line may terminate above the weather deck, provided in the latter case such piercing of the vessel's hull shall conform to the rules and requirements of the American Bureau of Shipping.

(d) For independent tanks, the vent and its fittings, such as gooseneck, flame screen, frangible disk, stop valve, and the auxiliary vent, shall be installed in compliance with the provisions of § 146.23-35, Sulfuric acid in bulk.

(e) An outage space of not less than 1 percent of the capacity of the tank shall be maintained at time of filling.

(f) Independent tanks used for the stowage of spent sulfuric acid shall be so installed in the vessel that sufficient space is provided between any structure of the vessel and the tank itself for purpose of inspection. Such space must be sufficient to permit unobstructed examination. This provision shall not apply to "built-in" tanks when approval is given to permit parts of the structure of a vessel to be used to form a part or parts of the tank.

(g) "Built-in" tanks shall be fitted with pipes discharging to the atmosphere. The vent pipe shall be at least equal in diameter to that of the tank filling line, and of a thickness of not less than that of standard weight pipe. No openings shall be permitted in a tank below deck except such openings as are required for access or maintenance purposes, and these openings shall be fitted with bolted plate covers and gaskets. The gasket shall be of a material resistive to the action of sulfuric acid. The cargo filling line shall terminate above the weather deck or through the shell of the vessel, provided in the latter case such piercing of the vessel's hull shall conform to the rules of the American Bureau of Shipping.

(h) The outlet of the vent shall terminate above the weather deck in a location clear of obstruction and away from any source of open flame. The outlet of the vent shall be fitted with a gooseneck bend and flame screen made of corrosive-resistant wire of at least 30 x 30 mesh for a single screen, or two screens of corrosive-resistant wire at least 20 x 20 mesh, placed not less than 1 inch or more than 1½ inches apart. No stop valve or frangible disk shall be fitted in a vent line.

(i) An outage space of not less than 1 percent of the capacity of the tank shall be maintained at time of filling.

(j) Air pressure shall not be used to discharge cargo from "built-in" tanks.

(k) Rubber-lined tanks shall have their interior surfaces prepared to receive the lining. Welds shall be chipped or ground smooth. The interior surface shall be thoroughly cleaned and maintained free of all foreign matter during the lining process. The rubber used for lining shall be of a type resistive to dilute sulfuric acid, and shall be of a thickness of not less than ¼ inch and shall be bonded to the plating. Joints shall overlap at least 1½ inches and the edges shall be beveled to an angle of approximately 45° and vulcanized in place. Filling and discharge lines shall be rubber lined or otherwise lined or coated with material resistive to dilute sulfuric acid. Vent lines shall be rubber lined at least to the height of the frangible disk.

§ 146.23–45 General requirements for sulfuric acid in bulk and spent sulfuric acid in bulk. (a) Where applicable the provisions of this section shall be complied with in the handling and transportation of sulfuric acid in bulk and spent sulfuric acid in bulk.

(b) All inclosed compartments in which acid tanks are installed shall be provided with efficient means of ventilation. Pump rooms and compartments containing machinery to handle acid cargo shall be ventilated.

(c) All cargo pumps, piping, valves and fittings used for handling acid shall be made of material resistive to the corrosive effects of the type acid being handled, or shall be suitably protected against corrosion.

(d) In handling sulfuric acid or spent sulfuric acid in bulk no naked light shall be permitted in the vicinity of the operation. Smoking shall be prohibited and the master or person in charge of the vessel shall post "No Smoking" signs. All artificial lights other than electric lights or portable battery lights are prohibited from use during the operation. A water hose shall be connected and ready for use and any leakage of acid shall be immediately washed down. Tools necessary in loading or unloading operations shall be of the nonsparking type. Fire or other naked light shall not be applied to any tank for the purpose of liquefying congealed sulfuric acid. The only means permitted to liquefy frozen or congealed sulfuric acid shall be a steam-heated coil or coils.

§ 146.23–50 Hydrochloric acid in bulk. (a) Hydrochloric acid may be transported in bulk on board cargo vessels when laden in rubber or other approved lined tanks (pressure-vessel type) independent of the structure of the vessel. Tanks shall be designed for a pressure of not less than 50 pounds per square inch, and shall be constructed, inspected, and tested in compliance with the requirements for Class II arc-welded, unfired pressure vessels, as set forth in Parts 50 to 57, inclusive, of Subchapter F (Marine Engineering) of this chapter, or in compliance with the requirements of Interstate Commerce Commission specification 103B or 103BW. (See also § 146.02–18.)

(b) An application for approval to engage in the transportation of hydrochloric acid in bulk on board vessels shall be made to the Commandant of the Coast Guard. Such application shall include plans of the structure of the vessel; plans of the design of the tank (except Interstate Commerce Commission approved tanks) showing thereon complete data covering materials to be used and method of fabrication; plans of the design indicative of the manner in which the tank is to be installed and secured on board the vessel; plans showing layout of piping, valves, and fittings forming part of the tank, and also piping, valves, and fittings to be installed on the vessel for use in loading or unloading hydrochloric acid in or from the tank. Plans shall be in sufficient detail to provide complete information with reference to the vessel, the tank, and the system of piping, valves, and other appurtenances.

(c) Independent tanks shall be so fitted as to provide sufficient space between the tank and any fixed structural part of the vessel, or in lieu thereof, the installation shall be such as it will be practicable to move said tanks, for inspection of the structure of the vessel and the tanks.

(d) Prior to the installation of the rubber or other approved lining, hydrochloric acid tanks shall have their interior surfaces prepared to receive the lining. Welds shall be chipped or ground smooth. The interior surface shall be thoroughly cleaned and maintained free of foreign matter during the lining process. The rubber or other approved lining shall be of a type resistant to hydrochloric acid and shall be bonded to the plating. Piping forming the loading or discharge line, if of steel, shall be lined with rubber or other approved material to withstand the action of the lading. Flange connections shall be adequately protected from acid coming in contact therewith by means of rubber or other approved lining.

(e) (1) Piping, valves, and fittings used in the loading or unloading of hydrochloric acid shall be of material that will withstand the severe corrosive action of the acid.

(2) Piping may be one of the following materials:

(i) Steel pipe, with approved lining, not less than 2" inside diameter before lining.

(ii) Strong, acid resistant, pressure-suction type hose.

(iii) Hard rubber pipe.

(3) The flange connections, if of steel, shall be adequately protected from acid coming in contact therewith by means of rubber or other approved lining.

(f) (1) When air pressure is used for unloading acid, the air line shall include fittings installed in the following order:

(i) An "ell" having a flange on one end to connect with the air inlet flange on the tank with a full faced soft rubber gasket. The opposite end of the "ell" may consist of a flange or ordinary pipe connection to take either a pipe or flexible hose.

(ii) When desired an acid-resistant flexible hose of optional length may be installed between the "ell" and the fixed air piping leading to the compressor.

(iii) A bleeder valve to release air pressure.

(iv) A pop valve set to blow at 30 pounds pressure.

(v) An air gauge.

(vi) A pressure-reducing valve set at 30 pounds.

(vii) An air shutoff valve.

(viii) A water separator or trap.

(2) When it is desired to install these fittings as part of the shore system, the only portion of this assembly that is required to be part of the vessel's equipment shall consist of the "ell", the bleeder valve to release air pressure, the pop valve set to blow at 30 pounds per square inch pressure, and an air shutoff valve which shall be located at the dome of each tank.

(g) (1) Upon satisfactory completion of tests and inspection the following marking, at least ⅜'' high, shall be stamped into the metal of the tank, or stamped into a noncorrodible name plate permanently attached to the tank by means of welding.

(Name and address of fabricator)
---p. s. i. ---p. s. i.
(Design pressure) (Shop test pressure)

(Inspector's number, initials, and CG symbol)

(Fabricator's serial number)
---U. S. gallons (Water capacity)

(Date of manufacture)

(2) In addition to the markings required by this subparagraph and by the regulations in Parts 50 to 57, inclusive, in Subchapter F (Marine Engineering) of this chapter, the legend "Hydrochloric acid only" shall be stenciled or painted in block letters (such stenciling or lettering to be at least 2" high) upon the dome or upper portion of the tank in a position plainly visible under operating conditions. Lettering must be maintained legible at all times.

(h) Tanks approved for the transportation of hydrochloric acid shall not be used for the transportation of any other commodity, except upon specific authorization of the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

(i) [Reserved].

(j) Spent hydrochloric acid or hydrochloric acid adulterated by other chemicals, inhibitors, oils, solvents, water, etc., shall not be accepted or transported in bulk on board vessels in containers approved for the transportation of hydrochloric acid, except upon specific authorization of the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

(k) Loading or unloading of hydrochloric acid may be accomplished by use of acid pump, siphon, or compressed air method. Gravity loading is also permissible, provided the tank on the vessel is not subjected to a pressure greater than 30 pounds per square inch.

(l) Filling and discharge pipe connections shall be kept disconnected at the tank and the outlets shall be blanked off at the tank, except when actually loading or unloading the tank: Provided, however, That such piping need not be disconnected when an efficient stop valve is fitted in the line in a location as close to the tank as is practicable.

(m) Filling or discharge connections shall not be detached until pressure in the tank and in the line has been completely released.

(n) If air pressure is used in either filling or discharging the lading of the tank, said air pressure shall not be in excess of 30 pounds per square inch at any time.

(o) Compressed air used for unloading shall be as free as possible from oil, moisture, or other foreign matter. To insure this the air supply shall be taken from the top of the air receiver (reservoir). This reservoir shall be drained at regular intervals. Compressor shall be disconnected from air lines at all times except when actually being used to fill or discharge contents of tank. The air lines shall be thoroughly blown out in a reverse direction before making connections to discharge acid. The open end of the air line at the point of connection to the shore system and tank shall be kept clean and so used as to prevent damage to the lining of dome closures, piping, or fittings. A hammer or chisel shall not be used for loosening dome fittings, for connecting or disconnecting in contact with the lining. Connecting flanges of lined pipe shall, "when broken," be protected from the action of sunlight.

(p) The interior of the tank shall be protected from the weather. Water or other liquids shall not be introduced into tanks, except upon permission of competent authority. Persons shall not be permitted to enter tanks, except upon permission of competent authority.

(q) Gauging rods, if used, shall be of wood. The lower end of such rods shall be equipped with a soft rubber plug.

(r) Tools, bolts, nuts or other material dropped in a tank through dome openings shall be removed from the tank before the next loading.

(s) Organic solvents, oils, and greases, even in the most minute quantity, shall never be used where they come in contact with the coated surfaces of the tank, dome, opening covers, or discharge lines. To lubricate nuts or bolts, a mixture of flake graphite and glycerol shall be used.

(t) Tanks shall normally be kept closed to prevent sunlight from coming

Sulfur trioxide, stabilized.	A corrosive liquid possessing a pungent odor. Fumes strongly in contact with air. Crystalizes at about 60° F. Liquid at higher temperatures. Decomposed by water with evolution of much heat and sometimes with explosive violence. Has a destructive effect upon organic materials similar to sulfuric acid but to a stronger degree. Irritating to mucous membrane and caustic to the skin. Do not stow over other cargo. Observe special requirements for stowage on board vessels also transporting explosives. Keep dry.	White	Stowage: "On deck protected." "On deck under cover." Sulfuric acid, fuming (oleum) (Nordhausen) (not permitted to be stowed "under deck").	Stow well away from organic materials. Observe containers for any signs of leakage and reject any which are found leaking. In event of spillage, flush with large quantities of water. Do not accept for transportation if packed in the same container with any other substance. Must not be transported on any vessel carrying Class A or Class B explosives. Observe special requirements for stowage on board vessels which are also transporting Class C explosives. SUBPART 147.03—DETAILED REGULATIONS GOVERNING CERTIFICATION OF SHIPS' STORES AND SUPPLIES

3. Sections 147.03–3 and 147.03–4 are amended to read as follows:

§ 147.03–3 Procedure to obtain certification. A manufacturer desiring to secure certification of his product for use as an article of ships' stores or supplies on board domestic vessels shall submit to the Commandant of the Coast Guard a statement setting forth all essential information with regard to the product. The statement shall be sworn to, or affirmed by an owner, partner, president or secretary of the company, partnership, corporation or association submitting the statement. Such oath or affirmation shall attest to the truth and accuracy of the statement. The manufacturer shall also submit with the application for certification the original report of an independent testing laboratory acceptable to the Commandant, covering paragraphs (g), (h), (i), (m), (n), and (o) of § 147.03–4. Charges incurred for any test relating to certification shall be borne by the manufacturer.

(R. S. 4405, as amended, 4472, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 170. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. 1275.)

§ 147.03–4 Information required in statement. The statement accompanying the application for certification of a product shall contain such of the following information as may be applicable:

(a) Name and address of the manufacturer.

(b) Trade name under which the product will be marketed.

(c) When properly described by a true chemical name, give such name.

(d) If a compound or mixture, state the true chemical names of the various ingredients and the percentages of each.

(e) A complete description of the individual container or containers in which the product is marketed.

(f) Describe any outside container in which two or more individual containers are shipped and give the gross and net weight of the package.

(g) If possessing flash and fire points state the points in degrees Farenheit as determined by Tagliabue's open cup method. (If the product is not susceptible to fire and flashpoint determination, so state.)

(h) State whether the product gives off explosive, inflammable, corrosive, or toxic vapors within a temperature range up to 150° F.

(i) State what reaction, if any, accompanies the addition of water to the substance or article.

(j) State if the product is liquid, semi-solid or solid.

(k) If of a solid or semi-solid form, what is the melting point of the substance.

(l) If an article is composed in part of an explosive ingredient, state the percentage of the explosive ingredient present.

(m) If an article is composed in part of a gas, state the maximum pressure possible at a temperature of 130° F.

(n) If an article is composed in part of poisonous ingredients, state the percentage of each kind of poison present.

(o) State if the product is or is not subject to spontaneous heating as determined by the Mackey Apparatus Method.

(p) If an article depends upon a factor of force or the addition of another product for its operation, state the method of application or use.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR Part 58]

SWISS CHEESE

U. S. STANDARDS FOR GRADES[1]

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of standards for grades of Swiss cheese pursuant to the authority contained in the Agriculture Marketing Act, 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.).

Standards for grades of Swiss cheese were first issued as proposed rule making on December 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 12399).[2] In view of the widespread interest in the proposed standards and the many comments and suggestions received, it has been considered advisable to incorporate the suggested changes and to again publish the standards for grades as proposed rule making. All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the revised proposed standards should file the same, in duplicate, with the Director, Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 30th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 58.301 Swiss cheese. (a) "Swiss cheese" is the cheese defined and identified in § 19.540, of the Definitions and Standards for Food of the Food and Drug Administration, 21 CFR Part 19 (15 F. R. 5676).

(1) The Swiss cheese in these standards shall mean the Swiss cheese of the rind type.

(b) Nomenclature of U. S. grades. The nomenclature of the U. S. grades is as follows: (1) U. S. Grade A; (2) U. S. Grade B; (3) U. S. Grade C; (4) U. S. Grade D.

(c) Basis for determination of U. S. grades. The U. S. grades of Swiss cheese shall be determined on the basis of flavor, body, eyes and texture, finish and appearance, salt and color. From a drum type cheese, at least two full trier plugs, one from each flat face of the cheese at opposite points on circles located approximately one-half the distance from the center of the flat face to the edge of the same, shall be drawn with a No. 8 trier from each cheese. If necessary, the drum cheese may be tried elsewhere to determine the correct grade, but not more than four full trier plugs shall be drawn. Not more than two triers from the opposite sides of the cheese shall be taken from other styles of rind type cheese.

(d) U. S. Grade A. U. S. Grade A Swiss cheese conforms to the following requirements:

(1) Flavor. Is free from off-flavors.

(i) Current make. May be lacking in characteristic Swiss cheese flavor.

(ii) Cured. Has a characteristic Swiss cheese flavor.

(2) Body. Is uniform, firm, and smooth, and is not dry and coarse, spongy, weak, pasty, or gassy.

(i) Current make. Is flexible and resilient.

(ii) Cured. Is flexible.

(3) Eyes and texture. A full plug drawn from the cheese appears free from glass, pinholes, and over-developed eyes; may have picks and checks within 1 inch from the surface; may have a limited number of picks and checks beyond 1 inch from the surface; shows not less than one and not more than eight eyes indicated to a trier. The eyes are round or slightly oval; majority of the eyes are at least one-half inch in diameter and are evenly distributed.

(i) Current make. May have an occasional dull glossy or shell eye. Shall be free from dead eyes.

(ii) Cured. May have dull glossy or shell eyes. May have some dead eyes.

(4) Finish and appearance. Is well-shaped and has a clean, sound, dry rind. Shall be free of mold that cannot be removed without injuring the commercial value of the cheese.

(5) Salt. Is uniform.

(i) Current make. May be deficient in salt.

(ii) Cured. Is not deficient in salt.

(6) Color. Is uniform.

(e) U. S. Grade B. U. S. Grade B Swiss cheese conforms to the following requirements:

(1) Flavor. May possess off-flavors.

(i) Current make. May be lacking in characteristic Swiss cheese flavor; may have only slight off-flavors. Is free from objectionable flavors.

(ii) Cured. Has a characteristic Swiss cheese flavor; may lack the fineness in flavor required in Grade A, and may have definite off-flavors. Is free from objectionable flavors.

(2) Body. Is not dry and coarse, spongy, pasty, or gassy.

(i) Current make. Is flexible and resilient; may be slightly weaker than Grade A.

(ii) Cured. Is flexible; may be slightly weak.

(3) Eyes and texture. A full plug drawn from the cheese appears free from glass, pinholes, over-developed eyes, and may be moderately over-set and have a limited amount of picks and checks; is not blind. The majority of the eyes are not less than five-sixteenths of an inch in diameter.

(i) Current make. May have dull glossy or shell eyes. May have occasional dead eyes.

(ii) Cured. May have dull glossy or shell eyes. May have some dead eyes.

(4) Finish and appearance. May be slighty uneven in shape; but the rind is clean and dry. Shall be free of mold that cannot be removed without injuring the commercial value of the cheese. Cheese of Grade B quality whose rind is not damaged more than 25 percent shall remain Grade B but shall be marked as having a "damaged rind."

(i) Current make. Surface may be slightly rough.

(ii) Cured. Surface may be rough.

(5) Salt. Is uniform.

(i) Current make. May be deficient in salt.

(ii) Cured. May be deficient in salt or slightly over-salted.

(6) Color. Is uniform.

(f) U. S. Grade C. U. S. Grade C Swiss cheese conforms to the following requirements:

(1) Flavor. May possess off-flavors.

(i) Current make. May be lacking in characteristic Swiss cheese flavor; may have definite off-flavors. Is free from offensive flavors.

(ii) Cured. Has a characteristic Swiss cheese flavor; but may have pronounced off-flavors that are not offensive.

(2) Body. May be slightly dry and coarse. May be slightly gassy, but is not bloated or spongy. May be weak.

(3) Eyes and texture. A plug drawn from the cheese may be over-set, shell or dead-eyed; have glass, picks, checks, pinholes; may have over-developed eyes, but they must not be more than three inches in diameter. It is not totally blind or totally pinholey.

(4) Finish and appearance. May be definitely uneven in shape and have a rough surface. Shall be free of mold that cannot be removed without injuring the commercial value of the cheese. Cheese of Grade C quality whose rind is not damaged more than 25 percent shall remain Grade C but shall be marked as having a "damaged rind."

(5) Salt. Is uniform.

(i) Current make. May be flat or deficient in salt.

(ii) Cured. May be flat or deficient in salt or may be oversalted.

(6) Color. May be slightly uneven in color.

(g) U. S. Grade D. U. S. Grade D Swiss cheese conforms to the following requirements:

(1) Flavor. May possess off-flavors. Is free from offensive flavors.

(2) Body. May be dry and coarse or spongy and weak.

(3) Eyes and texture. May be totally blind or totally pinholey; may have glass, picks and checks, and may have overdeveloped eyes.

(4) Finish and appearance. May be uneven in shape and have a rough unattractive surface. Shall be free of mold that cannot be removed without injuring the commercial value of the cheese. There shall not be defects in the rind to the extent that more than 25 percent of the cheese is damaged.

(5) Salt. May be uneven, deficient, or over-salted.

(6) Color. May be definitely wavy or mottled or otherwise uneven in color.

(h) General—(1) Current make. Not less than 60 days old.

(2) Cured. Usually more than 6 months old.

(i) With respect to flavor—(1) Slight. Detected only upon critical examination.

(2) Definite. Not intense but detectable.

(3) Pronounced. So intense as to be easily identified.

(4) Objectionable flavors. Flavors, such as, fruity, sour, and yeasty.

(5) Offensive flavors. Weed flavors, such as, peppergrass, french weed, wild onion, or garlic and other off-flavors such as fruity, sour, and yeasty to a pronounced degree.

(6) Fruity. A sweetish fruit flavor.

(7) Sour. Strong acid flavor.

(8) Yeasty. Indicating yeast fermentation.

(j) With respect to body—(1) Dry and coarse. Feels rough and sandy.

(2) Firm and smooth. Feels solid; not soft or weak; not rough.

(3) Flexible. Not dry or brittle.

(4) Gassy. Undesirable gas formation.

(5) Pasty. When worked between the fingers, becomes sticky; a paste-like consistency.

(6) Resilient. Springs back to its original form when compressed.

(7) Spongy. A predominance of open eyes or holes, having characteristics of a sponge.

(8) Weak. Requires little pressure to mash; not firm.

(k) With respect to eyes and texture—(1) Indicated. A whole eye or a part or fraction of an eye.

(2) Limited amount. May appear on two triers.

(3) Limited number. Appears on not more than one trier.

(4) Occasional. Not more than one on a trier.

(5) Blind. No eye formation present.

(6) Checks. Small short cracks.

(7) Dead eyes. Developed eyes that have completely lost their glossy or velvety appearance; may be rough.

(8) Dull glossy. Eyes that have lost some of their bright shiny luster.

(9) Glass. Sizable cracks, usually in parallel layers and usually clean cut.

(10) Over-developed eyes. Large holes, commonly known as blow holes, usually in excess of 2 inches in diameter.

(11) Over-set. Too many eyes.

(12) Picks. Small irregular or ragged openings.

(13) Pinholes; pinholey. So-called because the holes are numerous and very small and give the appearance of pinholes.

(14) Shell. Nutshell appearance on wall surface of the eyes.

(l) With respect to finish and appearance—(1) Sound rind. Free of checks or cracks that enter the body of the cheese.

HANDLING OF HOPS GROWN IN OREGON, CALIFORNIA, WASHINGTON, AND IDAHO AND OF HOP PRODUCTS PRODUCED THEREFROM IN THESE STATES

ORDER DIRECTING THAT A REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED; DESIGNATION OF REFERENDUM AGENTS TO CONDUCT SUCH REFERENDUM; AND DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD

Pursuant to § 986.107 of Order No. 86, as amended (17 F. R. 6625), and the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among the producers who, during the period beginning January 1, 1952, and ending November 26, 1952 (which is hereby determined to be a representative period for the purpose of such referendum), were engaged, in the States of Oregon, California, Washington, and Idaho, in the production of hops for market to determine whether producers favor termination of said amended Order No. 86. W. J. Broadhead, R. H. Eaton, and R. P. Callaway of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as agents of the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct said referendum jointly or severally.

The procedure applicable to this referendum shall be the "Procedure for the Conduct of Referenda Among Producers in Connection with Marketing Orders (Except those applicable to Milk and its Products) to Become Effective Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as Amended" (15 F. R. 5176), except that for the purpose of this referendum:

A. Paragraph (c) (1) shall read as follows:

(1) Conduct the referendum in the manner herein prescribed, by giving an opportunity to producers, who during the period January 1 through November 26, 1952 (which period is determined to be a representative period) have been engaged, within the specified production area, in the production of hops for market, to cast their ballots relative to the termination of Amended Order No. 86 (17 F. R. 6626).

B. Paragraph (c) (5) shall read as follows:

(5) Make available to producers and the aforesaid cooperative associations instructions on voting, and appropriate ballot and other necessary forms.

C. Paragraph (d) (3) shall read as follows:

(3) Distribute ballots and other necessary forms to producers and receive any ballots which are cast; and

Copies of Amended Order No. 86, and of the aforesaid procedure (15 F. R. 5176), and of this order may be obtained in the Office of the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., at the Western Marketing Field Offices, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture; 515 SW. Tenth Avenue, Portland 5, Oregon; 335 Fell Street, San Francisco 2, California; and Rooms 300–302, 701 K Street, Sacramento 14, California. Ballots to be cast in the referendum and other necessary forms and instructions will be mailed to all hop growers of record, who produced hops in the aforesaid States during the representative period, and may be obtained at said offices, or from any referendum agent or appointee.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 8]

[Docket No. 10332]

STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICE

FREQUENCIES ABOVE 156 MC FOR BUSINESS AND OPERATIONAL PURPOSES

In the matter of amendment of § 8.360 of the Commission's rules, Docket No. 10332.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. The Commission has received a proposal from the Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Department of the Army, for the use of the frequencies 156.8 Mc, for calling, and 156.6 Mc, for working, by the United States Corps of Engineers operating the locks of the St. Marys Falls Canal, Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. The frequencies would be used for communication with non-government ship stations on board vessels using the locks and would supplement frequencies currently being used in the 2 Mc band for this purpose. Section 8.360 of the Commission's rules, however, provides for the use on the Great Lakes of 156.6 Mc for intership communication only. Accordingly, it is proposed to amend the Commission's rules to permit the use of 156.6 Mc for the desired purpose on the Great Lakes and also to designate that frequency for similar usage in areas other than the Great Lakes. The proposed amendments are set forth below:

3. This proposed amendment is issued under authority contained in sections 303 (b) (c) (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

4. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or not adopted in the form set forth, may file with the Commission on or before December 5, 1952, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. At the same time, any person who favors the rules as set forth may file a written statement in support thereof. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments or briefs may be filed within five days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. The Commission will consider all comments, briefs, and statements presented before taking final action in the matter.

5. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.784 of the Commission's rules, an original and fourteen copies of statements, briefs or comments filed shall be furnished to the Commission.

Adopted: October 29, 1952.

Released: October 30, 1952.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

1. Section 8.360 (a) is amended by changing the listing concerning 156.6 Mc to read as follows:

156.6 Mc: All areas;[a] except that on Great Lakes limited to intership and communication with Government stations concerning passage of vessels through locks.

2. Section 8.360 (c) (3) is amended to read as follows:

(3) For assignment to ship stations on board any class of vessel for communication solely in connection with harbor or port operations, including docking, lighterage, pilotage, dredging, towing, ship repair, port development, maintenance of navigable channels, and for communication concerning the passage of vessels through locks under governmental control.

3. Section 8.360 (d) (4) is amended to read as follows:

(4) For assignment to ship stations on board any class of vessel for communication between tugboats and between tugboats and other vessels concerning the maneuvering of ships and docking operations primarily in harbor or port areas and for communication with Government stations concerning the passage of vessels through locks under governmental control.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Parts 230, 239, 249]

EXEMPTION FOR SHARES OF STOCK ISSUED PURSUANT TO RESTRICTED STOCK OPTIONS AND PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF INSTRUCTIONS TO FORM 8–A

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal to adopt, pursuant to the provisions of sections 2 (3), 3 (b), and 19 (a) of the Securities Act of 1933 (i) a rule excluding for the purposes of section 5 only from the definition of "sale," "offer to sell," or "offer for sale" in section 2 (3) the issuance in certain circumstances of restricted stock options within the meaning of section 130A of the Internal Revenue Code, and (ii) a conditional exemption from the registration requirements of the act for the issuance, not exceeding $300,000 in any one year, of shares of stock pursuant to such options.

The proposed exemption would be available only for shares of optioned stock of those issuers which have stock of the same class already listed and registered on a national securities exchange, and only so long as the shares issued pursuant to the options are limited to certain events such as the death, retirement or termination of service of the grantee. The purpose of the proposed regulation is to provide an exemption from registration for the limited number of shares that might be issued, in the specific circumstances indicated.

The proposed regulation would require the filing with the principal office of the Commission of a letter of notification. The filing date would be fixed to conform to the requirements for the filing of an application on Form 8–A (17 CFR 249.208a) for the registration under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 of the additional shares upon notice of issuance. A proposed amendment to Form 8–A would permit a copy of the letter of notification to be incorporated in that form in lieu of separate answers to certain items of that form.

Further conditions to the availability of the exemption would require the issuer to furnish to option holders such reports and other information as it furnishes to its stockholders generally. Periodic reports as to the issuance and exercise of the options would also be required so long as any of the options are being issued and exercised pursuant to the exemption.

Upon compliance with the terms and conditions of the regulation, the occasional issuance of shares upon the contingencies specified in the regulation would be exempt from registration, and, in general, the offering of shares subject to such restricted options which would require registration would not be deemed to occur until the permissible amount of shares under § 230.601 (Rule 601) is about to be exceeded or shares are about to be issued for purposes other than those specified in Rule 601 (a) (2).

It is anticipated that the proposed regulation will result in savings of effort and expense on the part of issuers. In the instances in which the exemption will be available, registration will not ordinarily become necessary until the approximate date of the public distribution of the shares subject to the restricted options. In this way registration would afford the maximum protection to investors purchasing the shares and provide for a more timely submission of information to the investing public.

The proposed amendment to the instructions to Form 8–A reads as follows:

Instruction 7—Privilege of Filing Letter of Notification. If the securities being registered are to be sold pursuant to a letter of notification under Regulation E, the registrant may, if it so desires, file in lieu of the information required by items 1 to 9, inclusive, of this form, copies of the letter of notification concurrently filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 603 of Regulation E. If this procedure is followed, the letter of notification shall be physically substituted for the items of this form and the answers thereto and the text to the items shall be omitted from the application.

The Commission invites comments and suggestions on the foregoing proposals from all interested persons. Comments and suggestions should be submitted in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, N.W., Washington 25, D. C., on or before December 1, 1952.

A copy of the proposed regulation is set forth below.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] ORVAL L. DUBOIS,
Secretary.

NOVEMBER 4, 1952.

REGULATION E—EXEMPTION OF SHARES OF STOCK ISSUED PURSUANT TO RESTRICTED STOCK OPTIONS

§ 230.600 Definitions of terms used in this regulation E. As used in this regulation E, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

(a) An "affiliate" of an issuer is a person controlling, controlled by or under common control with, such issuer. An individual who controls an issuer is an affiliate of such issuer.

(b) A "domestic corporation" is a corporation which is incorporated under the laws of any State or Territory of the United States or the District of Columbia and which has its principal place of business in any such State, Territory, or the District of Columbia.

(c) A "predecessor" of an issuer is a person who took an important part in the organization of such issuer, the acquisition of its assets or the distribution of its securities.

(e) A "restricted stock option" means such an option as defined in paragraph (d) of section 130A of the Internal Revenue Code.

§ 230.601 Securities exempted. (a) Except as provided in this section, nonassessable shares of stock issued by any domestic corporation pursuant to a restricted stock option plan and in accordance with the terms and conditions of this regulation shall be exempt from registration under the act: Provided:

(1) The aggregate of the following amounts of securities shall not exceed $300,000 during any period of 1 year:

(i) The aggregate proceeds of all securities of the issuer and its affiliates sold under this regulation;

(ii) The aggregate proceeds of all securities of such persons sold in violation of section 5 (a) of the act;

(2) Such stock is issued only upon (i) the death of the employees to whom the options were granted, (ii) the retirement of such employees, (iii) the termination of such employees' services with the issuer and its affiliates, or (iv) any similar contingency specifically provided for in the option plan; and

(3) Other shares of stock of the same class are listed and registered on an exchange which is registered as a national securities exchange pursuant to section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934;

(b) For purposes of paragraph (a) (1) (i) of this section, the aggregate proceeds shall be computed on the basis of the market price of the securities on the date of exercise of the option.

(c) Upon compliance with the terms and conditions of this Regulation E, the issuance of restricted stock options shall not for the purposes of section 5 of the act be deemed a "sale," "offer to sell," or "offer for sale" of the shares subject to the options so long as the shares issued pursuant to such options are limited in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

§ 230.602 Securities excluded from exemption. (a) No exemption under this Regulation E shall be available for any of the following securities, unless cause be shown that it is not necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors that the exemption be denied in a particular case:

(1) Shares of stock of any issuer if such issuer or any of its predecessors or affiliates:

(i) Has filed a registration statement which is the subject of pending public proceedings under section 8 (b), (d) or (e) of the act or is subject to an order entered under any such section; or

(ii) Is subject to pending proceedings under § 230.607 or to an order entered thereunder.

(2) Shares of stock of any issuer if such issuer or any of its directors, officers, affiliates or predecessors, or any of its promoters presently connected with it in any capacity:

(i) Has been convicted within 5 years preceding the filing of the letter of notification required by § 230.603 of any crime or offense involving the purchase or sale of any security or arising out of the conduct of the business of a broker or dealer;

(ii) Is subject to any order, judgment or decree of any court entered within 5 years prior to the date of such filing, enjoining or restraining such person from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security; or

(iii) Is subject to a United States Post Office fraud order.

(3) Shares of stock of any issuer, if any of its directors, officers or affiliates, or any of its promoters presently connected with it in any capacity, participated in or was connected with any offering of securities of any other issuer which has been at any time subject to:

(i) An order under section 8 (b) or (d) of the act;

(ii) An order under § 230.607; or

(iii) A United States Post Office fraud order.

(b) The exemption provided by this Regulation E shall terminate, as to any securities remaining unsold, if the issuer or any of its directors, officers, or affiliates or any promoter presently connected with it in any capacity (1) shall be convicted of any crime or offense involving the purchase or sale of any security or arising out of the conduct of the business of a broker or dealer, or (2) shall be enjoined from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(c) The exemption provided by this Regulation E shall be suspended, and no securities may be offered hereunder, during the pendency of (1) any indictment of any person specified in paragraph (b) of this section for any crime or offense involving the purchase or sale of any security or arising out of the conduct of the business of a broker or dealer, or (2) any proceeding initiated by the Commission for the purpose of enjoining any such person from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security, or (3) any public proceeding under section 8 (b), (d) or (e) of the act with respect to the issuer or any of its affiliates.

§ 230.603 Letter of notification. At least 30 days prior to the date on which the restricted options are to be granted, or such shorter period as the Commission may authorize upon a showing of good cause therefor, there shall be filed with the principal office of the Commission in Washington, D. C., three copies of a letter of notification on Form S–3b–3 [1] signed by the issuer and by the grantor of such options, if other than the issuer.

§ 230.604 Information to be furnished optionees. No securities shall be exempt under this Regulation E unless the issuer thereof shall furnish to all holders of the restricted options all reports, proxy statements and other information which the issuer furnishes to its stockholders generally. Such information shall be furnished to such option holders as and when it is furnished to stockholders.

§ 230.605 Material to be filed. Three copies of every prospectus or other written communication prepared or authorized by the issuer or any of its affiliates which is proposed to be used at the time of the issuance of the options or intended to be sent or given thereafter to more than 10 persons shall be filed at least 5 days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays) prior to any use thereof, with the principal office of the Commission.

§ 230.606 Prohibition of certain statements. No prospectus or other written or oral communication used in connection with any offering under this regulation shall contain any language stating or implying that the Commission has in any way passed upon the merits of, or given approval to, the securities offered or the terms of the offering, or has determined that the securities are exempt from registration, or has made any finding that the statements in any such prospectus or other communication are accurate or complete.

§ 230.607 Denial and suspension of exemption. (a) The Commission may, at any time after the filing of a letter of notification, enter an order temporarily denying the exemption, or if the options have been issued, it may enter an order temporarily suspending the exemption, if it has reason to believe that:

(1) No exemption is available under this Regulation E for the shares purported to be offered thereunder;

(2) The letter of notification or any prospectus or other written communication contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading;

(3) Any device, scheme or artifice to defraud would be or is being employed in connection with the offering or sale of the shares, or the offering would be or is being made in such manner as to operate as a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser, or

(4) The issuer or the grantor of the restricted options, if other than the issuer, has otherwise failed to comply with any of the terms and conditions of this Regulation E.

(b) Upon the entry of an order under paragraph (a) of this section, the Commission will promptly give notice to the issuer and to the grantor of the restricted options, if other than the issuer, (1) that such order has been entered, together with a brief statement of the reasons for the entry of the order, and (2) that the Commission will, upon receipt of a written request, set the matter down for hearing within 20 days after the receipt of such request at a place to be designated by the Commission, the order shall remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the Commission. Where a hearing is requested or is ordered by the Commission, the Commission will, after notice of and opportunity for such hearing, either vacate the order or enter an order permanently denying or suspending the exemption.

(c) The Commission may at any time after notice of and opportunity for hearing, enter an order permanently suspending the exemption for any reason upon which it could have entered a temporary suspension order under paragraph (a) of this section. Any such order shall remain in effect until vacated by the Commission.

(d) All notices required by this section shall be given to the issuer and to the grantor of the restricted options, if other than the issuer, by personal service, registered mail or confirmed telegraphic notice at the addresses of such persons given in the letter of notification. In addition, all such notices will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 230.608 Reports of sales under this Regulation E. Within 30 days after the end of each 6-month period following the granting of the options pursuant to which the securities covered by the letter of notification are to be issued, the issuer shall file with the Commission three copies of a report on Form S–3B–3A containing the information called for by such form. A final report shall be made within 30 days after the completion or termination of the issuance of the securities covered by the letter of notification.

National Production Authority

[Suspension Order 42; Docket No. 35]

WARNER MFG. CORP., ET AL

SUSPENSION ORDER

A hearing having been held in the above-entitled matter on September 15 and September 16, 1952, and October 2 and October 3, 1952, at New York City, N. Y., before the Honorable James M. Fawcett, a hearing commissioner of the National Production Authority, on a statement of charges made by the General Counsel, National Production Authority in accordance with the National Production Authority General Administrative Order 16–06 (16 F. R. 8628), and Implementation 1 to National Production Authority General Administrative Order 16–06 (16 F. R. 8799) which has been redesignated as RP–1, Rules of Practice Before Hearing Commissioners (16 F. R. 8894), and the National Production Authority having appeared by William E. Kennedy, attorney, and the respondents being represented by Samuel H. Nelson, an attorney-at-law of Newark, N. J.; and

The respondents, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, Lewis Warner as president of said corporate respondent and individually, Jacob Lipman as vice-president of said corporate respondent and individually, and Leonard M. Lipman as secretary and treasurer of said corporate respondent and individually, all of 859 Communipaw Avenue, Jersey City, N. J., having been duly apprised of the specific violations charged and the administrative action which may be taken thereon, and having been informed of the rules and procedures which govern such proceedings, and an answer having been filed on behalf of all of the respondents substantially denying all of the allegations set forth in the statement of charges and setting up special defenses on behalf of said respondents; and

The statement of charges having been amended at the hearing to indicate the proper name of the corporate respondent as Warner Mfg. Corp. instead of Warner Manufacturing Corporation, and charges 4, 6, and 7 being amended to indicate different figures than set forth in the statement of charges which amendments were made by consent of the attorney for the respondents; and

Evidence and testimony having been submitted by the National Production Authority to sustain the charges set forth in the statement of charges, and the respondent having submitted testimony and evidence in opposition to the charges, and upon oral argument by William E. Kennedy and Samuel H. Nelson, attorneys as aforementioned, and upon a written brief presented on behalf of the respondents and an informal reply brief having been submitted on behalf of the National Production Authority, It is hereby determined:

Findings of fact: 1. The corporate respondent herein, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, committed acts prohibited by section 26.25 (b) of NPA Order M–7, dated November 13, 1950 (15 F. R. 7764), as amended December 1, 1950 (15 F. R. 8576), and section 5 (c) of NPA Order M–7 as amended March 9, 1951 (16 F. R. 2337), March 31, 1951 (16 F. R. 2922), April 6, 1951 (16 F. R. 3118), May 1, 1951 (16 F. R. 3916), and June 1, 1951 (16 F. R. 5259); and CMP Regulation No. 1, section 19 (f) dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860); and CMP Regulation No. 1, section 17 (b) issued May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860), in that said individual respondents owning, dominating, managing, and controlling the corporate respondent during the time the violations were committed, directed, and supervised the commission of the aforementioned violations.

Conclusion: During the period beginning January 1, 1951, and ending March 31, 1952, the respondents herein, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, Lewis Warner, Jacob Lipman, and Leonard M. Lipman, violated tioned respondent by said sections of NPA Order M–7.

2. The National Production Authority failed in the proof that the respondent failed to maintain accurate records of allotments received and procurement pursuant to all allotments in violation of CMP Regulation No. 1, section 23 (a) dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860).

3. The corporate respondent herein, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, committed acts prohibited by CMP Regulation No. 1, section 19 (f) dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860), in that the said corporate respondent, during the calendar quarter commencing October 1, 1951, and during the calendar quarter commencing January 1, 1952, placed authorized controlled materials orders in excess of the allotments received by it for said periods by placing orders for 420,406 pounds of aluminum when entitled to order only 142,335 pounds, thereby ordering 278,071 pounds in excess of the related allotments received by said respondent.

4. The corporate respondent herein, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, committed acts prohibited by CMP Regulation No. 1, section 17 (b) issued May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860), in that said corporate respondent, having received authorized allotments of aluminum during the periods, July 1, 1951, through September 30, 1951, October 1, 1951, through December 31, 1951, and January 1, 1952, through March 31, 1952, of 253,800 pounds, 107,055 pounds, and 35,280 pounds respectively, to be used in fulfillment of its authorized production schedules in the said periods, the said corporate respondent used the said allotments to obtain and use a greater quantity of aluminum, to wit, 509,554 pounds, 439,813 pounds, and 304,012 pounds in the respective periods, which was more than required to fulfill the authorized production schedules to the total extent of 857,246 pounds.

5. The individual respondents herein committed acts prohibited by section 26.25 (b) of NPA Order M–7, dated November 13, 1950 (15 F. R. 7764), as amended December 1, 1950 (15 F. R. 8576), and section 5 (c) of NPA Order M–7 as amended March 9, 1951 (16 F. R. 2337), March 31, 1951 (16 F. R. 2922), April 6, 1951 (16 F. R. 3118), May 1, 1951 (16 F. R. 3916), and June 1, 1951 (16 F. R. 5259); and CMP Regulation No. 1, section 19 (f) dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860); and CMP Regulation No. 1, section 17 (b) issued May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860), in that said individual respondents owning, dominating, managing, and controlling the corporate respondent during the time the violations were committed, directed, and supervised the commission of the aforementioned violations.

Conclusion: During the period beginning January 1, 1951, and ending March 31, 1952, the respondents herein, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, Lewis Warner, Jacob Lipman, and Leonard M. Lipman, violated the provisions of National Production Authority regulations, orders, and directives as hereinabove cited by ordering 278,071 pounds of aluminum in excess of the related allotments received by said corporate respondent and by using at least 1,461,165 pounds of aluminum more than was authorized or permitted by the said provisions.

In order to correct the unauthorized ordering and use of aluminum occasioned by the violations found herein and in order to prevent future violations of National Production Authority's regulations, orders, and directives by these respondents,

It is accordingly ordered: 1. That all priority assistance be withdrawn and withheld from Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, its successors and assigns, Lewis Warner, Jacob Lipman, and Leonard M. Lipman, for a period beginning on the date hereof until June 30, 1953.

2. That all allocations and allotments of controlled materials and materials under control of the National Production Authority be withdrawn and withheld from Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, its successors and assigns, Lewis Warner, Jacob Lipman, and Leonard M. Lipman, for a period beginning on the date hereof until June 30, 1953.

3. That all privileges of self-certification now granted or hereafter to be granted by the National Production Authority with respect to controlled materials and materials under control of the National Production Authority be withdrawn and withheld from Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, its successors and assigns, Lewis Warner, Jacob Lipman, and Leonard M. Lipman, for a period beginning on the date hereof until June 30, 1953.

4. That the respondents, Warner Mfg. Corp., a corporation of the State of New Jersey, its successors and assigns, Lewis Warner, Jacob Lipman, and Leonard M. Lipman, be prohibited from acquiring, using, or disposing of controlled materials and materials under control of the National Production Authority for a period beginning on the date of this order until June 30, 1953.

Issued at New York City, N. Y., this 28th day of October 1952.

Office of Price Stabilization

[Delegation of Authority 80]

DIRECTOR OF REGION XII

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO ISSUE AREA PRICE ADJUSTMENT OF AUTOMOTIVE REPAIR SERVICE CEILING PRICES IN SACRAMENTO, CALIF.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Director of Price Stabilization, pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (64 Stat. 798, 803; 65 Stat. 131), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization General Order No. 2, as amended (16 F. R. 738, 11626), this delegation of authority is hereby issued.

The Office of Price Stabilization has instituted a Local Price Stabilization Board Program aimed at increasing the participation of businessmen and consumers in the stabilization effort. A situation presently exists in the automotive repair service industry in the Sacramento, California, area which offers an excellent opportunity for testing this new program. This limited delegation of authority to issue an area ceiling price regulation is therefore being made to carry out the new OPS program on an experimental basis.

1. Authority to adjust ceiling prices of certain sellers of automotive repair services. Authority is hereby delegated to the Director of Region XII of the Office of Price Stabilization to issue an area ceiling price regulation adjusting ceiling prices of sellers of automotive repair services located in Sacramento, California, in accordance with the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, and applicable supplementary regulations thereto.

This delegation of authority shall take effect on November 7, 1952.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

FINDING AND DETERMINATION OF CRITICAL DEFENSE HOUSING AREAS UNDER DEFENSE HOUSING AND COMMUNITY FACILITIES AND SERVICES ACT OF 1951

NOVEMBER 12, 1952.

Upon a review of the construction of new defense plants and installations, and the reactivation or expansion of operations of existing defense plants and installations, and the in-migration of defense workers or military personnel to carry out activities at such plants or installations and the availability of housing and community facilities and services for such defense workers and military personnel in the area set forth below, I find that all of the conditions set forth in section 101 (b) of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 139, 82d Cong., 1st sess.) exist.

Accordingly, pursuant to section 101 of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951 and by virtue of the authority vested in me by paragraph number 1 of Executive Order 10296 of October 2, 1951, I hereby determine that said area is a critical defense housing area.

The Dalles, Oregon, Area: (The area consists of The Dalles City and the precincts of Rowena, West Dalles, South Dalles, Eight Mile, Dufur, Boyd, Thompson, Columbia, and East Dalles, all in Wasco County, Oregon; and 1950 Census Divisions 9 and 10, Klickitat County, Washington.)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of KCRA, Inc., Sacramento, California, Docket No. 10294, File No. BPCT-669; Harmco, Inc., Sacramento, California, Docket No. 10295, File No. BPCT-975; Sacramento Broadcasters, Inc., Sacramento, California, Docket No. 9012, File No. BPCT-411; for construction permits for new television stations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of October 1952;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Sacramento Broadcasters, Inc., requesting a construction permit for a new television station to operate on Channel 3 in Sacramento, California; and

It appearing, that said application is mutually exclusive with the above-entitled applications of KCRA, Inc., and Harmco, Inc., both of which also request construction permits for television stations to operate on Channel 3 in Sacramento, California; and

It further appearing, that the applicant, Sacramento Broadcasters, Inc. was advised on October 8, 1952, that its proposal was mutually exclusive with those of the other above-entitled applications and was requested to file any reply within 10 days, and that this time has now expired and the said conflict has not been resolved;

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the application of Sacramento Broadcasters, Inc. be designated for hearing in the same consolidated proceeding with the other above entitled applications to commence at 10:00 a. m. on November 17, 1952, at Washington, D. C. upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical and other qualifications of the applicants to construct and operate the proposed stations.

2. To determine the type and character of the program services proposed to be rendered and whether they would meet the needs of the communities and areas within the Grade A and Grade B field intensity contours.

3. To determine whether the construction and operation of the proposed stations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and regulations governing television broadcast stations.

4. To determine whether the installation and operation of any of the stations proposed in the above-entitled applications would constitute a hazard to air navigation.

5. To determine on a comparative basis which, if any, of the above-entitled applications should be granted.

COLUMBIA GAS SYSTEM, INC., AND HOME GAS CO.

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND INSTALLMENT PROMISSORY NOTES BY SUBSIDIARY AND ACQUISITION THEREOF BY PARENT COMPANY

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

The Columbia Gas System, Inc. ("Columbia"), a registered holding company, and Home Gas Company ("Home"), a subsidiary company of Columbia, having filed a joint application and an amendment thereto, with this Commission pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9, and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Home proposes to issue and sell and Columbia proposes to acquire 18,000 shares of common stock, par value $25 per share ($450,000), and a maximum of $600,000 principal amount of 3⅝ percent Installment Promissory Notes. Home represents that the proceeds in the amount of $1,050,000 to be derived from Columbia would be used to finance, in part, its 1952 construction program estimated to cost $1,108,236. Columbia states that it would first purchase common stock, at par, when and as funds are required up to a maximum amount of 18,000 shares, and thereafter it would purchase 3⅝ percent Notes of Home as funds are needed up to a maximum principal amount of $600,000. It is further stated that Home would not issue or sell any such common stock or 3⅝ percent Notes subsequent to March 31, 1953.

The 3⅝ percent Notes to be issued by Home would be registered in the principal amounts thereof and would be payable in twenty-five equal annual installments on February 15 of each of the years 1954 to 1978, inclusive. Interest on the unpaid principal amount of said Notes would be payable semiannually on February 15 and August 15.

The issuance and sale of the common stock and Notes by Home having been expressly authorized by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York by order dated October 7, 1952; and

Said application having been filed on May 6, 1952, an amendment thereto having been filed on October 23, 1952, notice of said filing having been given in the form and manner required by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, the Commission not having received a request for hearing within the time specified in said notice, or otherwise, and the Commission not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder are satisfied and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers that said joint application, as amended, be granted, effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, that said joint application, as amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted, effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

NORTH AMERICAN CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RESPECTING TAX RECITALS AND FINDINGS

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

The Commission having issued an order on April 14, 1942, pursuant to section 11 (b) (1) of the act, in proceedings concerning the North American Company ("North American") and its subsidiary companies, directing North American, to dispose, among other things, of its "direct and indirect ownership, control and holding of securities issued and properties owned, controlled or operated by" North American Utility Securities Corporation ("NAUS") and Pacific Gas & Electric Corporation ("P G & E"); and

The Commission having by order dated July 23, 1959, approved a plan under section 11 (e) of the act for the liquidation and dissolution of NAUS, which was ordered enforced by the United States District Court for the District of Maryland, and pursuant to which North American has received as a liquidating distribution 78,684 shares of the common stock of P G & E; and

North American having notified the Commission, pursuant to Rule U-44 (c), that in compliance with the aforementioned order dated April 14, 1942, it proposes, upon entry of the order to be entered herein, to sell to Blyth & Co., Inc. said 78,684 shares of the common stock of P G & E at a price of $36.50 per share; and

The record having been completed with respect to the counsel fees to be paid by North American of $4,500 to Sullivan & Cromwell and $1,000 to Chickering & Gregory in connection with the proposed sale of the 78,684 shares of the PG & E common stock and certain related matters, as to which fees jurisdiction has heretofore been reserved; and

North American having requested with respect to said sale of the 78,684 shares of the common stock of PG & E that the Commission enter its order containing the findings, recitals and orders hereinafter set forth and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest and the interests of investors and consumers that said request be granted, and the Commission finding that the counsel fees to be paid by North American, as set forth above, are not unreasonable:

It is ordered and recited and the Commission finds, That the sale by North American (in its own name or that of its nominee Burntull & Co.) to Blyth & Co., Inc., and Dean Witter & Co., at a price of $36.50 per share, of 78,684 shares of the common stock of PG & E, $25 par value

(being comprised of certificates for 9,800 shares numbered NC193929 to 194026 inclusive; a certificate for 56,900 shares numbered NF184234; a certificate for 5,690 shares numbered NF317251; a certificate for 6,259 shares numbered NF388155; and a certificate for 35 shares numbered NF461258), in connection with and as a part of the final liquidation and dissolution of NAUS and as authorized and permitted by the order of this Commission dated July 23, 1952, and in obedience thereto, is necessary and appropriate to the integration of the holding company system of which North American and NAUS are members and is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be and hereby is reserved to enter such other or further orders, conforming to the requirements of Supplement R of Chapter 1 and section 1808 (f) of Chapter 11 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, as may appear to the Commission to be appropriate.

It is further ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved over the fees to be paid by North American, aggregating $5,500, for legal services in connection with the proposed sale of 78,684 shares of common stock of PG & E and certain related matters be, and the same hereby, is released.

By the Commission.

WISCONSIN PUBLIC SERVICE CORP.

NOTICE OF FILING REGARDING PROPOSED ISSUANCE OF SHORT TERM BANK LOAN NOTES

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission by Wisconsin Public Service Corporation ("Wisconsin"), a public utility subsidiary of Standard Power and Light Corporation and Standard Gas and Electric Company, both registered holding companies. Declarant has designated sections 6 (a) and 7 of the act as applicable to the proposed transactions, which are summarized as follows:

Wisconsin presently has outstanding $6,500,000 of 3 percent five and one-half month bank loan notes maturing November 25, 1952. Wisconsin proposes, on or prior to November 25, 1952, to issue and sell $6,300,000 of new bank loan notes ("new notes"), maturing June 1, 1953, to the same banks which hold the presently outstanding notes. The participation of each bank and the interest rate will be supplied by amendment. Wisconsin will have the privilege of prepaying the new notes without premium.

The declaration states that the net proceeds to be derived from the sale of the new notes, together with treasury cash, will be used in payment of the presently outstanding notes, the proceeds of which were used for construction purposes. Wisconsin also states that it will undertake permanent financing, prior to the due date of the new notes, and use a portion of the proceeds of such permanent financing for the payment of the new notes.

It is represented that no State Commission or any other Federal Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

Wisconsin estimates that the expenses in connection with the proposed transactions will not exceed $500 and it requests that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 20, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after November 20, 1952, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

By the Commission.

OHIO EDISON CO.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION TO AUTHORIZE ADDITIONAL SHARES OF PREFERRED STOCK AND INCREASE PAR VALUE OF COMMON STOCK

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the act by Ohio Edison Company ("Ohio"), a registered holding company and a public utility company. The filing has designated sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (e) of the act and Rule U-62 promulgated thereunder as being applicable to the transactions described therein.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration, which is on file in the the offices of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Ohio's construction program for 1953 anticipates expenditures approximating $57,000,000. In addition, Ohio has obligated itself to invest approximately $3,300,000 in the common stock of the Ohio Valley Electric Corporation, a new corporation formed by various public utility companies to provide the Atomic Energy Commission with its electric energy requirements for its proposed plant near Portsmouth, Ohio. Ohio estimates that based upon the present level of earnings and current expectations as to the progress of the construction program additional securities will be sold to the public in 1953 for approximately $30,000,000. Ohio believes that it would be desirable, assuming favorable market conditions, to raise the necessary funds for 1953 by the public sale, early in the year, of 150,000 additional shares of preferred stock and, at or about the same time, of an additional 479,846 shares of common stock on a rights offering.

Ohio states that under its Articles of Incorporation it has only 13,700 shares of authorized but unissued preferred stock. The Articles also provide that additional shares of preferred stock may be issued only if the excess of the aggregate par value of the outstanding common stock (which presently has a par value of $8 per share) over $14,366,776 is equal to the product of $75 times the number of shares of preferred stock outstanding (including the shares to be issued) in excess of 200,000. This provision would, so long as the par value of the common stock is $8 per share, limit the number of additional shares of preferred stock issuable at present to approximately 34,000 shares and the number of such shares issuable after the sale of an additional 479,846 shares of common stock to approximately 85,000 shares.

In order to enable Ohio to issue and sell additional shares of preferred stock in 1953, as contemplated, the company proposes to submit to the common stockholders a proposed amendment to the Articles of Incorporation which will:

(a) Increase the authorized number of shares of preferred stock, par value $100 per share, from 500,000 to 1,000,000; and

(b) Increase the par value of the shares of common stock from $8 per share to $12 per share.

Ohio proposes to submit to its common stockholders, at a special meeting to be called for that purpose, the proposed amendment to its Articles. For the amendment to become effective, it must be approved by the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock. In connection with such special meeting, Ohio proposes to solicit proxies to be voted in favor of the proposed amendment and it further proposes, if it shall become necessary or advisable in its opinion, to employ professional proxy solicitors.

To reflect the proposed increase in the par value of its presently outstanding common stock, Ohio proposes to transfer to Common Stock Capital an amount equal to $4 per share of common stock outstanding, such transfer to be made from Premium on Common Stock Account and from Capital Surplus Account of $12,010,452 and $7,183,388, respectively.

The declarant's expenses are estimated at not to exceed $10,500 for printing and mailing, $1,500 for counsel fees, $1,500 for solicitation costs, and if professional proxy solicitors are employed $10,000 for expenses and compensation of such solicitors.

Declarant states that no State or other Federal Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions and the company requests that the Commission issue its order herein on or before November 24, 1952, permitting said declaration to become effective forthwith.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than November 20, 1952, at 5:30 p. m., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time after said date, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 and Rule U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed to: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 17 1934 NUMBER 223

Washington, Friday, November 14, 1952

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2996

THANKSGIVING DAY, 1952

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

In the cycle of the seasons, another year marked by the abundance of God's gifts is nearing its end. At such a time we are wont to turn to Him and with humble hearts to offer thanks as a Nation for His manifold blessings.

We are moved by the inspiring autumnal beauty of our land, which uplifts the hearts of men. We are thankful for the natural and human resources which have enabled us not only to enjoy high material and spiritual standards ourselves but also to help others in the effort to achieve or protect their well-being.

We are grateful for the privileges and rights inherent in our way of life, and in particular for the basic freedoms, which our citizens can enjoy without fear. This year it is especially fitting that we offer a prayer of gratitude for the spirit of unity which binds together all parts of our country and makes us one Nation indivisible.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, conforming to our hallowed custom, and in consonance with the joint resolution of Congress approved on December 26, 1941, do hereby call upon all our people to celebrate Thursday, November 27, 1952, as Thanksgiving Day. On that day let us, with a full awareness of our privileges and a deepening sense of the obligations which they entail, each in his own way, but together as a whole people, give due expression to our thanks, and let us humbly endeavor to follow the paths of righteousness in obedience to the will of Almighty God.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this eighth day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

DAVID BRUCE,
Acting Secretary of State.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10409

AWARD OF THE PURPLE HEART TO PERSONS SERVING WITH THE NAVY, MARINE CORPS, OR COAST GUARD OF THE UNITED STATES

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States and as Commander in Chief of the armed forces of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. The Secretary of the Navy shall award the Purple Heart, in the name of the President of the United States, to any person who while serving in any capacity with the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States has been, or may hereafter be, wounded (a) in any action against an enemy of the United States, (b) in any action with an opposing armed force of a foreign country in which the armed forces of the United States are engaged, or (c) as the result of an act of any such enemy or opposing armed force.

2. The Secretary of the Navy shall award the Purple Heart posthumously, in the name of the President of the United States, to any person who while serving in any capacity with the Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States after April 5, 1917, has been, or may hereafter be, killed, or who has died or may hereafter die subsequent to being wounded, (a) in any action against an enemy of the United States, (b) in any action with an opposing armed force of a foreign country in which the armed forces of the United States are engaged, or (c) as the result of an act of any such enemy or opposing armed force.

3. The wound for which the award is made must have required treatment by a medical officer.

4. The Purple Heart shall be forwarded to the nearest of kin of any person entitled to the posthumous award, regardless of whether a previous award has been made to such person, except that if the award results from service prior to December 7, 1941, the Purple Heart shall be forwarded to such nearest of kin upon his application therefor to the Secretary of the Navy.

5. Except as authorized in paragraph 4 hereof, no more than one Purple Heart shall be awarded to any one person, but for each subsequent justification for such an award a Gold Star, or other suitable device, shall be awarded to be worn with the Purple Heart as prescribed by appropriate regulations.

6. If so authorized by the Secretary of the Navy, the award of the Purple Heart may be made by the Commander in Chief of a fleet, or by such other appropriate officer or officers as the Secretary of the Navy may designate.

7. The Secretary of the Navy may issue such regulations as he may deem appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this order. The regulations of the Secretary of the Navy and the regulations of the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of the Air Force with respect to the award of the Purple Heart shall, so far as practicable, be of uniform application, and shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of Defense.

8. This order shall supersede Executive Order No. 9277 of December 3, 1942, entitled "Award of the Purple Heart to Persons Serving with the Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard of the United States", but existing regulations issued pursuant to that order shall, so far as they are not inconsistent with this order, remain in effect until modified or revoked by regulations issued by the Secretary of the Navy pursuant to this order.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 22, Amdt. 9 to Supplementary Regulation 7]

CPR 22—MANUFACTURERS' GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

SR 7—MODIFICATIONS AND ALTERNATIVE PROVISIONS FOR MANUFACTURERS OF CHEMICALS

CARBON TETRACHLORIDE, TECHNICAL GRADE

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 9 to Supplementary Regulation 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Amendment 9 to Supplementary Regulation 7 makes certain changes in the ceiling prices established by Amendment 8 to Supplementary Regulation 7 for sales of carbon tetrachloride by manufacturers.

Amendment 8 established a ceiling price of $0.0772 per pound for "spot sales" of carbon tetrachloride, technical grade, in tank car lots. The term "spot sales" was meant to include sales made at scheduled or list prices, as distinguished from sales made at specially negotiated prices. Sales of carbon tetrachloride to manufacturers of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants have customarily been made at such negotiated prices which have traditionally been lower than the scheduled prices at which other sales of carbon tetrachloride were made. The ceiling price established by Amendment 8 for such sales to manufacturers of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants was the $0.0772 per pound ceiling price established for the types of sales made at scheduled prices, minus the differential which the manufacturer had in effect between the two types of sales during his Ceiling Price Regulation 22 base period. (The Statement of Considerations accompanying Amendment 8 incorrectly referred to this period as the period December 19, 1950, to January 25, 1951, inclusive. The text of the amendment itself, which governs, correctly provided that the period in question is the Ceiling Price Regulation 22 base period).

The ceiling prices established by Amendment 8 replaced the manufacturers' ceiling prices determined under Ceiling Price Regulation 22. A uniform ceiling price of $0.0772 per pound for sales to purchasers other than those who used the carbon tetrachloride in the manufacture of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants was established in order to restore the practice of uniform prices for sales to such purchasers. This practice had been changed by the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 22, which required manufacturers to determine their ceiling prices on the basis of their individual cost experience. The making of this $0.0772 ceiling price the basis, however, for determining ceiling prices for sales of carbon tetrachloride to manufacturers of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants is now believed to be in error. Sales prices to such purchasers had been customarily determined by means of individual negotiations and were, therefore, not uniform among the various manufacturers selling to these purchasers. Moreover, in the averaging process used to determine the $0.0772 ceiling price to other classes of purchasers, the prices for sales to manufacturers of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants and the volume of these sales were not included. Accordingly, it was not appropriate for the ceiling price of $0.0772, which resulted from the averaging process, to be the basis for determining the ceiling prices for sales to manufacturers of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants. This amendment, therefore, excludes sales to manufacturers of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants from the scope of Amendment 8 and restores the ceiling prices for such sales to the level which existed immediately prior to the effective date of Amendment 8. Because it is believed that it was erroneous to include such sales within the scope of Amendment 8 originally, the restoration of the ceiling prices in effect immediately prior to the effective date of Amendment 8 is made retroactive to that effective date.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 10 of Supplementary Regulation 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is amended as follows:

1. Add the following sentence at the end of paragraph (a): "However, this section does not apply to your sales of this commodity to purchasers who use the commodity in the manufacture of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants."

2. Paragraphs (b) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

(b) Your ceiling prices for your sales of carbon tetrachloride, technical grade, to all classes of purchasers except to purchasers who use such carbon tetrachloride in the manufacture of halogenated hydrocarbon refrigerants are as follows:

(1) For sales in tank car lots, $0.0772 per pound, with minimum transportation allowed east of the eastern borders of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico.

(2) For a sale in less than tank car lots, or for a sale for delivery west of the eastern borders of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, and New Mexico, your ceiling price is that determined by applying to the ceiling price set forth in paragraph (b) (1) of this section the differential required or permitted by section 3 of Ceiling Price Regulation 22. If section 3 of Ceiling Price Regulation 22 cannot be applied in your case because you did not make such a sale in your base period or prior thereto, your ceiling price for such sale is the price determined in accordance with section 33 or section 34 of Ceiling Price Regulation 22.

(c) For the purposes of section 32, 33 or 34 of Ceiling Price Regulation 22 the ceiling prices established by this section shall be deemed to be ceiling prices established by Ceiling Price Regulation 22.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This Amendment 9 to Supplementary Regulation 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is effective as of July 12, 1952.

Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 22, Amdt. 1 to Supplementary Regulation 35]

CPR 22—MANUFACTURERS' GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

SR 35—ADJUSTMENTS TO REFLECT INCREASED OUTBOUND TRANSPORTATION RATES

CORRECTION OF COVERAGE

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to Supplementary Regulation 35 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

SR 35 to CPR 22 provided methods whereby manufacturers under CPR 22, including those who have adjusted their ceiling prices under SR 17 or 18 to CPR 22 or under GOR 20 or 35, might adjust their delivered ceiling prices to reflect increases in their outbound transportation costs resulting from increased transportation rates authorized by any federal or state regulatory agency since the "cut-off" date to which increases in costs had previously been recognized. As issued, SR 35 specifically stated that it was inapplicable to ceiling prices established under SR 30 and certain other supplementary regulations to CPR 22.

As seems apparent from the Statement of Considerations of SR 35, the exclusion of ceiling prices established under SR 30 from the applicability of SR 35 was an inadvertent error. SR 30 was issued on July 14, 1952 to provide a method whereby manufacturers of specified commodities might apply for delivered ceiling prices to replace their f. o. b. ceiling prices established under CPR 22 or any supplementary regulation to CPR 22. This privilege was designed to put the applicant on the same basis with respect to outbound transportation costs as his competitors who had been selling on a freight-delivered basis during the CPR 22 base period. Consequently the adjustment permitted by SR 30 was upon the basis of freight costs as of March 15, 1951 or, if the applicant had elected to determine adjustments under SR 17 to CPR 22 or SR 18 to CPR 22, as of July 26, 1951. SR 35 was not intended to bar relief to manufacturers who, by operation of SR 30 were required to absorb increases in outbound transportation costs since the cut-off dates fixed in SR 30. As issued, SR 35 results in unintended discrimination against manufacturers who had secured adjusted ceiling prices under SR 30.

Accordingly this amendment deletes the exclusionary reference to SR 30 to CPR 22 in section 1 of SR 35.

Deletion from section 1 of the exclusionary reference to SR 30 necessitates a minor amendment in section 9 (b). That section now provides for use of the July 26, 1951, base date if the ceiling prices to be adjusted under SR 35 "were determined" under the supplementary regulations implementing the Capehart amendment or under GOR 20. In order to make that section applicable to ceiling prices which include an adjustment under these regulations but which were determined under SR 30, it will be necessary to substitute for the words "were determined" the words "include an adjustment".

Because of the nature of this amendment the Director has not found it necessary or practicable to consult with industry representatives, including trade association representatives.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 35 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is amended as follows:

1. The third sentence of section 1 is amended by deletion of the letters and figures "SR 30;", so that it shall read as follows: "This supplementary regulation does not apply to ceiling prices established under the following supplementary regulations to CPR 22: SR 28; SR 29; SR 31; SR 32; or SR 34."

2. The second sentence of section 9(b) is amended by deletion of the words "were determined" and substitution therefor of the words "include an adjustment," so that it shall read as follows:

However, if the ceiling prices which you adjust under this supplementary regulation include an adjustment under SR 17 or SR 18 to CPR 22 or GOR 20, your base date is July 26, 1951, or any later date you select for any particular shipment if on such later date the July 26, 1951 rate or a higher rate was in effect.

Effective date. This amendment is effective November 13, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 24, Amdt. 22]

CPR 24—CEILING PRICES OF BEEF SOLD AT WHOLESALE

COMBINATION DISTRIBUTOR

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 2, Delegation of Authority by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to meat, as amended, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 5, Revision, this Amendment 22 to Ceiling Price Regulation 24, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

The accompanying amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR) 24 broadens the definition of combination distributor. Prior to Amendment 7 to CPR 24, sellers could qualify as combination distributors, if, among other things, they sold during a specified period 25 percent of their total meat, by weight, to purveyors of meals. The definition did not restrict the percentage of meat which such sellers could sell to ultimate consumers and still qualify as combination distributors. Amendment 7, however, limited combination distributors to those who, in addition to having sold 25 percent of their total meat, by weight, to purveyors of meals, sell not more than 50 percent to ultimate consumers. As explained in the Statement of Considerations to Amendment 7, the purpose of such change was to exclude as combination distributors sellers who are normally considered retailers. Such sellers were provided with a pricing technique for their sales to purveyors, or eating places, in Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR) 25. Their ceiling prices on sales to purveyors of meals were established by CPR 25 to reflect the overall margin they customarily obtained. The cuts priced in CPR 25 were those generally sold by such sellers. However, since the definition of combination distributor in CPR 24 did not exclude retailers, many retailers selling to eating places chose, in instances where the cuts in CPRs 24 and 25 were similar, to sell that cut which under either regulation had the higher ceiling prices.

It has, however, come to the attention of the Director of Price Stabilization that certain sellers who customarily sell over 50 percent of their meat to ultimate consumers have historically made a substantial amount of sales to purveyors of meals. On sales to purveyors of meals such sellers do not differ from combination distributors selling less than 50 percent to ultimate consumers. Both groups have customarily sold the same cuts at the same prices. Accordingly, section 50 (g) has been amended to remove the restriction on sales to ultimate consumers. Section 50 (g) has further been amended to redefine combination distributors as those sellers who currently sell 25 percent to purveyors of meals as well as those who have sold such percentage during past stated periods. Sellers, therefore, who no longer meet the 25 percent requirement and thus are primarily retailers, will no longer be able to sell to purveyors of meals at the ceiling prices provided for combination distributors. However, to eliminate the opportunity of sellers, qualifying as retailers under CPR 25 and as combination distributors under CPR 24, to choose the higher prices of each regulation, a new prohibition has been added to section 11. By virtue of this prohibition, any seller choosing to qualify as a combination distributor under CPR 24 must make all his sales to purveyors of meals under that regulation and cannot sell under Ceiling Price Regulation 25. This change will permit individual sellers to elect the regulation which shall apply to all their sales to purveyors and, therefore, to make their sales to such class in accordance with their historic practice.

In formulating this amendment the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted as far as practicable with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment the provisions of this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

It is not believed that this amendment will cause any substantial changes in business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution; however, to the extent that such changes may be compelled, they are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of Ceiling Price Regulation 24, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 24 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 11 is amended by adding a new paragraph (g) to read as follows:

(g) Sales by combination distributors. If you are a combination distributor, you shall make all your sales and deliveries of all beef products to purveyors of meals at or below the ceiling prices established for combination distributors by the provisions of this regulation, and shall not sell or deliver to purveyors of meals any beef product at higher prices. You shall not, moreover, sell to purveyors of meals any beef products not permitted to be sold under Ceiling Price Regulation 24.

2. Section 50 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) "Combination distributor" means any establishment which sold or delivered to purveyors of meals during the year 1950 (or, if no sales were made in 1950, during the period from January 1, 1951 to April 30, 1951) and which sells or delivers to purveyors of meals during

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 22—SERVICE CHARGES FOR BANKS

FILING OF APPLICATIONS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment to Supplementary Regulation 22 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Supplementary Regulation 22 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, provides for filing applications thereunder with the OPS District Office for the district in which the bank is located, rather than the National Office.

It is the policy of this office to delegate to its field offices the authority to process applications of local sellers whenever it is feasible to do so. The OPS District Office in the proximate area of the seller is usually better aware of the local situation and problems than the National Office. In addition, the burden on the applicant is often substantially lessened by dealing with the local office in that it is more convenient than dealing with the National Office in Washington, D. C. Most banks operate within a limited geographical area and their problems in most cases can best be handled by local OPS offices.

It is therefore the opinion of the Director of Price Stabilization that applications for change in banking practices or for the establishment of ceiling prices by banks on their depositors' checking accounts should be handled by the OPS district offices.

The technical nature of this amendment has made formal consultation with industry representatives impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 22 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, is amended by deleting the phrase "Director of Price Stabilization, Attention: Chief, Service Trades Branch, Washington 25, D. C.," wherever it appears in sections 3, 4 (a), 5 (b), 6 (a), 7 (a), 8 (a), and 8 (b) of Supplementary Regulation 22 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, and inserting in lieu thereof, the phrase "appropriate OPS District Office."

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment is effective November 18, 1952.

COMBINATION DISTRIBUTOR

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 2, Delegation of Authority by the Secretary of Agriculture with respect to meat, as amended, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 5, Revision, this Amendment 17 to Ceiling Price Regulation 74 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

The accompanying amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR) 74, amends the definition of combination distributor to conform with a similar change made by Amendment 22 to CPR 24, issued concurrently herewith.

In formulating this amendment, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted so far as practicable with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all the applicable standards of the act.

It is not believed that this amendment will cause any substantial changes in business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution; however, to the extent that such changes may be compelled, they are necessary to prevent circumvent on or evasion of Ceiling Price Regulation 74, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 74 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 60 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) "Combination distributor" means any establishment which sold or delivered to purveyors of meals during the year 1950 (or, if no sales were made during 1950, during the period from January 1, 1951, to September 25, 1951), and which sells or delivers to purveyors of meals during each calendar quarter beginning on or after January 1, 1953, not less than 25 percent of the total volume by weight of all meats including sausage, variety meats and edible by-products sold or delivered by it, excluding sales to defense procurement agencies.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

The accompanying amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR) 101 amends the definition of combination distributor to conform with a similar change made by Amendment 22 to CPR 24, issued concurrently herewith.

In formulating this amendment, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted so far as practicable with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment, the provisions of this regulation are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all the applicable standards of the act.

It is not believed that this amendment will cause any substantial changes in business practices, cost practices or methods, or means or aids to distribution; however, to the extent that such changes may be compelled, they are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of Ceiling Price Regulation 101, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 101 is amended in the following respect:

1. Section 50 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) "Combination distributor" means any establishment which sold or delivered to purveyors of meals during the year 1950 (or, if no sales were made in 1950, during the period from January 1, 1951 to December 4, 1951) and which sells or delivers to purveyors of meals during each calendar quarter beginning on and after January 1, 1953, not less than 25 percent of the total volume by weight of all meats including sausage, variety meats and edible by-products sold or delivered by it, excluding sales to defense procurement agencies.

GCPR, SR 118—CEILING PRICES FOR SALES BY MANUFACTURERS AND BRAND OWNERS OF NEW REPLACEMENT SECOND LINE TIRES

CEILING PRICES FOR MAIL-ORDER SALES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment to Supplementary Regulation 118 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 5424) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

The statement of considerations which accompanied Supplementary Regulation 118 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is incorporated herein by reference. The effect of this amendment will be to make the ceiling prices for sales of second line low pressure tires 75 percent of the manufacturers' or brand owners' ceiling prices to all their various classes of purchasers for the same size first line low pressure tires.

When Supplementary Regulation 118 was originally issued, consideration was not given to the fact that the term "reference or retail list prices" as used in the regulation refers not only to manufacturers' and brand owners' suggested retail prices and actual retail prices for sales through retail outlets but to catalogue prices of mail order tire-sellers as well. These catalogue prices are net prices, less freight, to the consumer and are determined by the sellers concerned on the basis of circumstances peculiar to this type of tire sale. In many respects, these circumstances are quite different from those upon which tire manufacturers determine their retail outlet list prices. The purchaser of a mail order tire gets no trade-in allowance on his old tire. He gets no service such as having the new tire mounted for him. The manufacturers' retail list tire prices take into account the fact that considerable variability is possible in the price a retail dealer will pay for a trade-in tire, what he will charge for various services, and, in fact, how much free service he will perform for the purchaser. Accordingly, some sellers have ceiling prices for their sales made at retail through regular outlets, and these are expressed in terms of a retail list price less discounts, trade-in allowances, services, etc., and also have a separate catalogue ceiling price to mail order customers.

Since the issuance of Supplementary Regulation 118 it has come to the attention of the Director that the catalogue prices of certain mail order sellers of first line low pressure passenger car tires in effect 30 days prior to September 10, 1952 were reduced below their catalogue ceiling prices. Manufacturers' retail list prices for first line low pressure tires, on the other hand, have generally been maintained at their January 1951 levels. Accordingly, the voluntary reduction in catalogue prices yielded, under the regulation, lower second line low pressure tire ceiling prices for those sellers who reduced their prices of first line low pressure tires to mail order customers. This amendment removes the possibility of discrimination which might have resulted from the application of the 75 percent factor to prices in effect at the date of the regulation rather than to ceiling prices.

Although accomplishment of this objective will result in somewhat higher ceiling prices for some sellers, it will preserve the relationship between each seller's ceiling prices on first and second line low pressure tires.

In the judgment of the Director the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable and are proper in the administration of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amendment special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 118 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (a) of section 2 is amended by adding a new sentence after the word "regulation" so that the paragraph now reads as follows:

(a) Your ceiling prices to your various classes of purchasers for all your sales of second line low pressure tires are your reference or retail list prices computed under paragraph (b) of this section less the same discounts off list, allowances and services, other than those of a temporary nature and which had a specified termination date, which you extended to each of those classes of purchasers in your sales of second line tires during the 30-day period preceding the issuance of this regulation. However, your ceiling prices for sales of second line low pressure tires to mail order catalogue customers, if any, are 75 percent of your ceiling prices for your sales of the same size first line low pressure tires to your catalogue customers.

2. Paragraph (b) of section 2 is amended so as to read as follows:

(b) Your reference or retail list price for any size second line low pressure tire is 75 percent of your retail ceiling price for the same size first line low pressure tire.

Effective date. This amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 118 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation shall become effective November 18, 1952.

Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

GOR 4—EXEMPTIONS AND SUSPENSIONS OF CERTAIN CONSUMER SOFT GOODS

EXEMPTION OF ACADEMIC, ECCLESIASTICAL AND FRATERNAL ORDER VESTMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 10 to General Overriding Regulation 4, Revision 1, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment adds to the list of commodities exempted from price control academic, ecclesiastical and fraternal order vestments. As used herein, the word "vestments" means garments or insignia of ceremony or office. Among the articles covered by the amendment are academic gowns, caps and hoods; pulpit and choir gowns, albs, amices, birettas, cassocks, chasubles, cottas, dalmatics, maniples, miters, palliums, rochets, stoles, surplices, tunicles and similar ecclesiastical garments; robes, coats, capes, mantles, headdresses, gauntlets, leggings, sashes, symbolic aprons and similar fraternal order garments. The amendment is not applicable to the rental of these articles or other services rendered in connection with them.

According to reliable estimates, annual sales of academic, ecclesiastical and fraternal order vestments amount to something less than $5,000,000, consequently they constitute a negligible proportion of all apparel. These garments are purchased by only a few persons for very special and limited uses, many of them are made to order and specification, repeat orders are rare, and the demand for them is inelastic. It is thus clear that they do not enter significantly into the cost of living or into business costs, and that their decontrol will not result in the diversion of materials or labor to their manufacture.

This amendment exempting sales of academic, ecclesiastical and fraternal order vestments from price control is therefore being issued. For the same reasons, the Office of Price Administration also decontrolled most of these commodities, by Amendment 42 to Supplementary Order No. 126, effective June 28, 1946.

To the extent practicable under the circumstances, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted with representatives of the industry involved and has given consideration to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISION

Section 2 of General Overriding Regulation 4, Revision 1, as amended, is further amended by adding the following paragraph:

(j) Academic, ecclesiastical, and fraternal order vestments.

GOR 9—EXEMPTIONS OF CERTAIN INDUSTRIAL MATERIALS AND MANUFACTURED GOODS

EXEMPTION OF HIGH TEMPERATURE ALLOYS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 27 to General Overriding Regulation 9 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to General Overriding Regulation 9 exempts from price control sales by producers of high temperature alloys.

High temperature alloys are characterized by their heat-, corrosion- and creep-resistant properties at extremely high temperatures. They were developed primarily for use in jet aircraft engines and superchargers, and approximately 95 percent of the total production of all such alloys (which is relatively small) is used for military purposes in such critical applications as jet engines, turbo-superchargers and guided missiles. For reasons indicated below, it is difficult to determine the exact cost of production, but, generally speaking, the cost of producing these alloys is relatively high because the materials entering into these alloys (such as cobalt, tungsten and columbium) are relatively high and because the man-hours required to produce and "work" these alloys are about four times that of tool and stainless steels.

These two factors of limited use and costly production have led to continuous experimentation to reduce the amount of critical and strategic materials required in them and to improve their physical properties so as to facilitate improved design and performance of the military matériel in which the alloys are incorporated. This extensive developmental work is also required to gain experience in processing these alloys. Furthermore, substantial losses occur because of lack of familiarity with the melting and rolling and heat treating techniques required to meet the specifications for these high temperature alloys. The experimentation is an expensive operation, adds to the present high cost of the alloys and, with the other factors mentioned, precludes an accurate determination of costs. This, in turn, makes the establishment of ceiling prices extremely difficult, if not impossible. As is true for other items manufactured principally for military uses, a brake on excessive prices is afforded by the renegotiation requirements of existing laws on the procurement of military items.

The preparation of high temperature alloys sold for purposes other than military is so small that the continuance of price control on such sales is not warranted. The administrative burdens involved are disproportionate to the benefits to be derived from continued control. It is deemed advisable to exempt from price control all of the high temperature alloy steel production.

In view of the nature of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable, and will in no way defeat or impair the price stabilization program or the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

General Overriding Regulation 9 is amended in the following respects:

Section 2 (a) is amended by adding thereto a new subparagraph numbered (28) and reading as follows:

(28) Sales of high temperature alloys. Sales of high temperature alloys by producers thereof. "High temperature alloys" are those metallic mixtures which are designed for use principally in buckets and rotors of turbo-superchargers and jet engines, which contain less than 50 percent iron and which are designed to give the necessary resistance to heat, corrosion and creep at the extremely high temperatures produced by turbo-superchargers and jet engines.

[General Overriding Regulation 32, Special Order 9]

GOR 32—ADJUSTMENT OF CEILING PRICES FOR MATERIALS TO THE MINIMUM PRICES FIXED BY STATE LAWS

SO 9—SELLERS OF CIGARETTES IN KANSAS

CEILING PRICES RAISED TO CONFORM WITH THE KANSAS UNFAIR PRACTICES ACT

Statement of considerations. This special order raises the ceiling prices of Kansas cigarette sellers above those previously established under regulations of the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) where necessary to conform to the minimum prices required to be charged by the Kansas Unfair Practices Act. This action does not presently affect ceiling prices of Kansas cigarette sellers which are at or above the minimum prices required by that Act on the effective date of this special order. Provision is also made for the adjustment of ceiling prices of cigarette sellers subject to the Kansas Unfair Practices Act in the event of a change in the minimum prices computed pursuant to that Act and in some instances for the establishment of ceiling prices for new brands of cigarettes sold in Kansas.

This special order is issued pursuant to section 5 of General Overriding Regulation (GOR) 32. That regulation was issued by the OPS to conform to the requirements of section 402 (1) of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. GOR 32 sets forth certain facts which must be shown to exist in a particular State before the OPS is required by the above-noted statutory provision to raise ceiling prices to the minimum prices required by the law of that State.

It appears from the information contained in the application of the Attorney General for the State of Kansas that the Kansas Unfair Practices Act was in effect and enforced on June 30, 1952, and on September 3, 1952 (the date of application); that the act has not been held invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction; and that the ceiling prices of some cigarette sellers in the State of Kansas are lower than the minimum sales prices required to be charged by that Act.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to section 5 of GOR 32 this special order is hereby issued.

1. Ceiling prices of cigarette sellers subject to the Kansas Unfair Practices Act, hereinafter referred to as the Kansas Act, which are below the minimum sales prices computed pursuant to that Act, as specified in paragraph 5 hereof, are hereby raised to those minimum sales prices.

2. If the minimum prices for brands of cigarettes sold in Kansas on September 3, 1952, have increased after that date pursuant to the Kansas Act, such higher minimum prices shall become ceiling prices as hereinafter specified in this paragraph, upon the sending of a report by the Attorney General for the State of Kansas, hereinafter referred to as Attorney General, by registered mail to the Grocery Products Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C. That report will indicate the reason for the change as well as the computations by which the new required minimum prices have been determined and will list the new prices for various brands of cigarettes. The higher minimum prices so reported shall be established as ceiling prices for the sellers affected by paragraph 1 hereof and any other seller subject to the Kansas Act whose ceiling prices would, as a result of such change, be below the new required minimum prices. If the minimum prices for brands of cigarettes sold in Kansas on September 3, 1952, are decreased after that date pursuant to the Kansas Act, ceiling prices of the sellers affected by paragraph 1 hereof shall be established at the new required minimum prices. However, where such lower minimum prices are below the ceiling prices in effect immediately prior to the date of this special order, these ceiling prices shall be in effect after such change in the minimum prices.

3. If new brands of cigarettes are sold in Kansas after September 3, 1952, the cigarette sellers subject to the Kansas Act who are unable to compute ceiling prices for the new brands pursuant to section 5 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation (because their comparison brands are not priced under section 3 of the General Ceiling Price Regulation but are priced under paragraph 1 or 2 of this special order) shall take as their ceiling prices for such new brands the minimum sales prices computed for them in accordance with the Kansas Act. These prices will be established as ceiling prices for such cigarette sellers upon the sending of a report by the Attorney General by registered mail to the Grocery Products Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C. This report will set forth the brand names of the cigarettes and the minimum sales prices required to be charged for them in accordance with the Kansas Act and will indicate how these minimum prices were computed.

4. Nothing in this special order shall prevent a cigarette seller subject to the Kansas Act whose ceiling prices would be affected by the Attorney General's filing the report set forth in paragraph 2 or 3 hereof, from filing such report in his own behalf. The individual seller may use as his ceiling prices the minimum prices required by the Kansas Act upon his mailing of such report unless and until such seller is notified by the OPS that the reported prices are disapproved or that further information is required. In the event of a request for further information, the reported minimum prices shall not be used as ceiling prices until such further information is sent by registered mail to the Grocery Products Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

5. As used in this special order, the term "Kansas Unfair Practices Act" means that Act as amended up to June 30, 1952 (General Statutes of Kansas, 1949, Sections 50-401 to 50-408, inclusive).

6. This special order or any provision hereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization.

Effective date. This special order is effective November 14, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this special order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Overriding Regulation 39]

GOR 39—CEILING PRICES ON STATE CONTROLLED SALES OF FLUID MILK PRODUCTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong., Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong., Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this General Overriding Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This general overriding regulation makes the recent amendments to section 402 (d) (3) of the Defense Production Act pertaining to fluid milk self executing. Basically, it provides that the prices fixed by State regulatory bodies for the sale of fluid milk products shall be the effective ceiling prices. Section 402 (d) (3) of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, reads in part as follows:

Where a State regulatory body is authorized to establish minimum and/or maximum prices for sales of fluid milk, ceiling prices established for such sales under this title shall (1) not be less than the minimum prices, or (2) be equal to the maximum prices, established by such regulatory body, as the case may be: And, provided further, That in the case of prices of milk established by any State regulatory body, with respect to which price parties may be deemed to contract, no ceiling price may be maintained under this title which is less than the price so established.

The Office of Price Stabilization has carefully reviewed the statutes, common law, and regulations pertaining to this problem in the States having milk price control agencies. It appears that all of these State regulatory bodies are bound to establish prices which are at least as high as the level of ceiling prices required under the Defense Production Act. Moreover, a survey of representative markets shows that where these State regulatory bodies fix minimum resale prices, these prices are almost universally the actual market prices.

This regulation does not, however, fix these State prices as ceiling prices for every level of distribution. Thus, sales in bulk by producers are not covered because the legal minimum prices provided for producer sales in the Defense Production Act are in many instances higher than their State prices. State prices for sales in retail stores are not automatically made the ceiling prices because the pre-Korea margins for some retail stores, particularly small stores with credit and delivery facilities, sometimes appear to have been higher than these State minimum margins. Where the State price is higher than the ceiling prices determined under any other regulation, the State price becomes the applicable ceiling price. Finally, in a few isolated instances, these State prices are obsolescent because the State prices have not been revised for some time. It is believed that the delay between the issuance and effective dates of this regulation will enable the State regulatory bodies themselves to obviate this latter problem.

In short, this regulation provides that ceiling prices for sales of fluid milk products, except for bulk sales by producers, shall be the applicable State minimum, maximum, or implied contract prices. When these prices rise, the ceiling prices rise; when these prices decline, the ceiling prices decline. Implied contract prices refer to the State price schedules in effect in Georgia. Of course, for areas and milk products not covered by this regulation, the presently controlling GCPR or AMPR still apply.

FINDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PRICE STABILIZATION

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the ceiling prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable, are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and comply with all the applicable standards of that Act. Special circumstances have made it impracticable to consult with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, before the issuance of this regulation.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this regulation does.
2. Ceiling prices established by this regulation.
3. Exemption.
4. Definitions.
5. Incorporation of General Ceiling Price Regulation by reference.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This regulation establishes ceiling prices for most sales of fluid milk products for which selling prices are validly fixed by State regulatory bodies pursuant to authority conferred on them by State statutes in effect on June 30, 1952. Producer-sales of bulk raw milk and farm-separated cream are excluded from the coverage of this regulation as well as any other OPS regulation. Sales of fluid milk products not subject to price limitations so fixed by a State regulatory body shall either remain subject to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (GCPR), as amended, or, to the extent that the GCPR is superseded by Area Milk Price Regulations (AMPR's), subject to those AMPR's.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices established by this regulation. Until December 15, 1952, your ceiling price for the sale of a "fluid milk product," as defined in section 3 below, is the higher of your ceiling prices as determined under the GCPR or an AMPR, whichever is applicable, or as determined under the applicable paragraph of paragraphs (a), (b), or (c) of this section. After December 15, 1952, your ceiling price for the sale of a "fluid milk product" shall be determined solely in accordance with the following paragraphs of this section.

(a) State minimum prices. If you sell fluid milk products subject to minimum prices validly fixed by a State regulatory body under the provisions of a State statute in effect on June 30, 1952, your ceiling prices for sales of those products, are the applicable minimum prices so fixed.

(b) State maximum prices. If you sell fluid milk products subject to maximum prices validly fixed by a State regulatory body under the provision of a State statute in effect on June 30, 1952, your ceiling prices for sales of those products are the applicable maximum prices so fixed.

(c) Implied contract prices. If you sell fluid milk products subject to prices validly fixed by a State regulatory body under the provisions of a State statute in effect on June 30, 1952, with respect to which prices parties may be deemed to contract, your ceiling prices for sales of those products are the prices so fixed.

SEC. 3. Exemptions. This regulation does not apply to the following:

(a) Sales of fluid milk products by operators of retail stores, except to the extent that applicable State minimum, maximum, or implied contract prices are higher than ceiling prices established by other OPS regulations;

(b) Producer-sales of bulk raw milk and farm-separated cream.

SEC. 4. Definition. The term "fluid milk products" as used in this regulation means products of which cow's milk is an ingredient for which a State regulatory body prescribes selling prices pursuant to authority established under a State statute in effect on June 30, 1952. "Fluid milk products" does not include raw cow's milk or farm-separated cream when sold by the producer thereof.

SEC. 5. Incorporation of General Ceiling Price Regulation by reference. Each person subject to this regulation shall be subject to all of the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation (or of any applicable AMPR) which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this regulation, including, but not limited to, the enforcement, penalty and record-keeping provisions thereof.

Effective date. This general overriding regulation is effective November 18, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 3—VETERANS CLAIMS

PART 4—DEPENDENTS AND BENEFICIARIES CLAIMS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. In Part 3, paragraphs (e), (m), and (o) of § 3.1 are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.1 Persons included in the acts in addition to commissioned officers and enlisted men. • • •

(e) Commissioned officers, Public Health Service. Officers of the Public Health Service who were detailed for duty with the Army or Navy are included as officers in the active service. On or after November 11, 1943, commissioned officers of the Public Health Service, regular and reserve, who (1) are detailed for duty with the Army, Navy, or Coast Guard; (2) are serving in time of war outside the continental limits of the United States or in Alaska, regardless of whether the disability or death was suffered prior or subsequent to November 11, 1943: Provided however, That benefits may not be awarded for any period prior to November 11, 1943; or (3) perform active service in time of war and following the issuance of an Executive order declaring the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service a part of the military forces of the United States are also included. In regard to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the Executive order was published on June 29, 1945, effective July 29, 1945. Hence, on and after the latter date and to and including July 3, 1952, the above-described commissioned officers of the Public Health Service, with respect to active service performed, shall be considered as in active military or naval service and included within the acts administered by the Veterans' Administration: Provided however, That if disability was incurred after July 25, 1947, and prior to May 11, 1951, the rates payable and criteria are those provided by Part II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12). On and after May 11, 1951, the rates payable and criteria are those provided by Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, including those who incurred disability after June 26, 1950. (Sec. 212, Public Law 410, 78th Congress; Public Law 28, 82d Congress; E. O. 9575, June 21, 1945; E. O. 10349, April 26, 1952; E. O. 10356, May 29, 1952; E. O. 10362, June 14, 1952; E. O. 10367, June 30, 1952).

• • • • • •

(m) Cadets and midshipmen. Cadets and midshipmen (Army, Navy, and Coast Guard) suffering from disabilities incurred in the line of duty while assigned to duties constituting war service, which includes practice cruises at sea but excludes practice maneuvers at West Point, during the period of one of the hostilities enumerated in Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12) (limited in the case of the Coast Guard to service on or after January 28, 1915), or during service within the purview of Public Law 28, 82d Congress, are entitled to compensation for such disability at the rate provided in Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, if otherwise entitled. Cadets and midshipmen (Army, Navy, and Coast Guard) who are disabled by reason of a wound or injury received or a disease contracted while pursuing the prescribed course of instruction at the academies and in line of duty (limited in the case of the Coast Guard to such courses of instruction on or after January 28, 1915) are entitled to compensation at the rate prescribed in Part II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), if otherwise entitled. Midshipmen (Navy and Coast Guard) assigned to practice cruises, or cadets or midshipmen otherwise actually assigned to active duty for a total of at least 90 days during a period of hostilities enumerated in Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (limited in the case of the Coast Guard to service on or after January 28, 1915), or during service within the purview of Public Law 28, 82d Congress, who are now suffering from a disability permanent and total in degree, but which is not connected with any period of service, are entitled to a pension at the rate prescribed in Part III, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), if otherwise entitled. Service as a cadet at the United States Military Academy, or as a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy, or as a cadet at the United States Coast Guard Academy on or after December 7, 1941, and before 12 o'clock noon, December 31, 1946, shall be considered active military or naval service in World War II for the purposes of laws administered by the Veterans Administration. (Sec. 10, Public Law 144, 78th Congress.) However, such service on and after June 27, 1950, does not by virtue of Public Law 28, 82d Congress, confer entitlement to disability compensation at the rates provided by Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended.

• • • • • •

(o) Women citizens of the United States. Women citizens of the United States who were taken from the United States by the United States Government and who served in base hospitals overseas, including reconstruction aides and stenographers who so served, are included for disability compensation purposes. However, such persons are not eligible for disability pension under Part III, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12).

2. Section 3.130 is revised to read as follows:

§ 3.130 Statutory award for loss of use of creative organ. Under the last paragraph of section 202 (3) of the World War Veterans' Act, as amended July 3, 1930, as reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress, and as subsequently amended, any veteran shown to have suffered the loss of the use of a creative organ as the result of an injury received in the active service in line of duty between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be entitled to a statutory award of $47 per month, independently of any other compensation which may be payable under said act: Provided however, That if such disability was incurred while the veteran was serving with the United States military forces in Russia, the dates herein stated shall extend from April 6, 1917, to April 1, 1920. This statutory award shall be payable from the date the loss of the use of the creative organ is shown to exist, subject to the provisions of Part I, Veterans Regulation 2 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), and when payable shall be added to any other compensation payable to the veteran.

(Sec. 202, 43 Stat. 618, as amended, sec. 20, 48 Stat. 309, as amended, sec. 2, 60 Stat. 910, Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 471a–3, 473, 722)

3. In § 3.131, the headnote, introduction, paragraphs (b), and (f) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.131 Principles for determining entitlement to the statutory award for the anatomical loss or loss of use of a creative organ. The following principles governing a rating as to entitlement to the statutory award provided by section 202 (3), World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended July 3, 1930, as reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress, and as subsequently amended, or as provided by paragraph II (k), Parts I and II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), for the "loss of use of a creative organ" will be observed:

• • • • • •

(b) The loss being apparent or the loss of use having been properly demonstrated, the additional statutory award of $47 monthly will be authorized when it is established by the official records of the service departments or other competent evidence that the loss or loss of use is the result of trauma (includes disease), and, as to the World War Veteran's Act, as amended, that it was incurred in the line of duty in the military service between the specified dates or had its inception in and therefore is directly attributable to disease incurred in the line of duty in the military service within the dates specified: Provided moreover, That the statutory award will not be granted under the World War Veterans' Act, as amended, when the antecedent disease is service-connected by statutory presumption. For the purposes of paragraph II (k), Parts I and II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), the requirements of line of duty, incurrence (or aggravation) between specified dates, and the requirement of direct service connection as contrasted with service connection by statutory presumption do not apply.

• • • • • •

(f) Cases wherein there is uncertainty as to whether the veteran is entitled to the statutory award for the loss or loss of use of a creative organ will be submitted to the director of the service concerned, central office, for determination.

(Sec. 202, 43 Stat. 618, as amended, sec. 20, 48 Stat. 309, as amended, sec. 2, 60 Stat. 910, Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 471a–3, 473, 722)

4. Section 3.132 is revised to read as follows:

§ 3.132 Payment of statutory award of $67 per month for arrested tuberculosis. Under the third paragraph of section 202 (7), World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended July 2, 1926, as reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress, and as subsequently amended, and under paragraph II (q), Part I or Part II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), any veteran having had a service-connected active tuberculous disease of compensable degree, which has reached a condition of complete arrest, whose aggregate disabilities, including that resulting from tuberculosis, evaluated in percentage terms in accordance with the Schedule for Rating Disabilities, 1945 Edition, entitle him to a monthly award of compensation of less than $67, shall be entitled to a statutory award of not less than $67 per month as compensation in full for all disabilities, including that resulting from tuberculosis. However, for any period during which the veteran's disabilities, including that resulting from the tuberculous disease, evaluated in accordance with the Schedule for Rating Disabilities, 1945 Edition, entitled him to an aggregate award of $67 or more per month, the provisions of this section regarding the statutory award for arrested tuberculosis will be met by awarding the veteran the amount determined in accordance with the schedule and extensions thereto. Provided however, That the statutory award under section 202 (3) of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, is payable in addition to the statutory award for arrested tuberculosis under section 202 (7) thereof, where the loss or loss of use is due to tuberculosis. However, the special monthly compensation under subparagraph (k), paragraph II, Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (or the corresponding peacetime rate), is not payable in addition to the award under subparagraph (q) thereof. The greater benefit is payable. In no event will disability compensation be awarded under subparagraph (q), paragraph II, Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (or the corresponding peacetime rate), prior to August 1, 1952.

(Sec. 202, 43 Stat. 618, as amended, sec. 20, 48 Stat. 309, as amended, sec. 2, 60 Stat. 910, Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 471a–3, 473, 480, 722)

5. In § 3.133, a new paragraph (d) is added as follows:

§ 3.133 Effect of diagnoses of active tuberculosis. • • •

(d) When in a hospitalized case, a rating as permanently and totally disabled under Part III, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), on account of active pulmonary tuberculosis is in effect and there is a change in classification from active, the rating will be continued until discharge from the hospital. At hospital discharge, the narrative summary and the records in the claims folder will be examined to ascertain whether there is any evidence of active tuberculosis including any positive sputum in the past 6 months, and, if there is such evidence, reduction will be deferred pending examination in 6 months with absence of evidence of active tuberculosis during the period.

6. In § 3.135, paragraph (a) (1) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.135 Determination of "complete arrest" in tuberculosis. (a) (1) The requirement for application of the statutory ratings authorized by section 2, Public Law 339, 81st Congress, or of the statutory award authorized by section 202 (7), World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, as reenacted in part by Public No. 141, 73d Congress and by paragraph II (q), Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), is "complete arrest" of the disease. For these purposes a veteran determined to have had active pulmonary tuberculosis will be held to have reached a condition of complete arrest when the diagnosis is other than active: Provided, That for a period of 6 months preceding the date of examination or hospital report, there has been no evidence of local or constitutional symptoms, or of an unstable lesion or cavity, or of tubercle bacilli in the sputum or gastric contents.

• • • • • •

7. Section 3.136 is revised to read as follows:

§ 3.136 Rating of arrest in nonpulmonary tuberculosis. Disabilities in different body parts or organs resulting from arrested tuberculosis will be separately evaluated and combined for rating purposes in accordance with the Schedule of Disability Ratings, 1945, and extensions thereto. The rating of disability from nonpulmonary forms of arrested tuberculosis will be in accordance with the terms of the Schedule of Disability Ratings, 1945, and extensions thereto, as applied to resulting ankylosis, limitations of motion of joints, degree of fixation or angulation of the vertebral column, etc. Where, by surgical intervention, it has been possible completely to extirpate a tuberculosis focus, as in nephrectomy, adenectomy, orchidectomy, amputation of a part, etc., leaving no other tuberculosis focus, the rating and statutory award of not less than $67 per month for arrested tuberculosis will be applicable in accordance with the foregoing.

(Sec. 202, 43 Stat. 618, as amended, sec. 2, 60 Stat. 910, Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 471a–3, 480)

8. Section 3.150 is revised to read as follows:

§ 3.150 General principles as to effective disability evaluations under the Schedule for Rating Disabilities, 1945 Edition. Within the limits mentioned in §§ 3.148 and 3.149, the question of evaluating disabilities based on applications for monetary benefits must be determined on the facts in the individual case for consideration. If the disability is static in nature and the information in connection therewith furnished in the VA Form 8–526 or in the service records (claim filed within 1 year from date of discharge) is substantiated by a subsequent examination, the percentage evaluations in accordance with the terms of the rating schedule will be applicable from the date of claim or date following date of discharge. Where the disease or injury is not static in nature but is disclosed on examination within such a reasonable time after the filing of the claim or date of discharge from service (claim filed within 1 year from date of discharge) that the exercise of sound medical judgment would permit a determination that the condition was existent at the time the claim was filed, or at the time of discharge, the effective date of the evaluations assigned in accordance with the terms of the rating schedule will be the date of claim or the date following the date of discharge. Accordingly, when in the exercise of sound medical judgment the evidence is considered sufficient to establish an evaluation of the disability from the date of the original application, or date of discharge from the service (claim filed within 1 year of discharge), an appropriate rating will be made and payments authorized effective from the date of application, or date of discharge, if otherwise in order.

9. In § 3.155, paragraph (e) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.155 Combined ratings. • • •

(e) The satutory allowance provided by section 202 (3), World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, and reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress, even though predicated upon a no percent rating under the 1925 Schedule of Disability Ratings, may be added to the compensation payable for disability incurred in a peacetime enlistment or in World War II and paid as one award. Where there is entitlement under the cited section of the World War Veterans' Act, and also entitlement under subparagraphs (k) through (p), paragraph II, Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), to a special monthly allowance for one of the other conditions enumerated therein, additional compensation of $47 monthly will be awarded under Public No. 141, 73d Congress. However, if there is no entitlement under section 202 (3), only one statutory award or special allowance may be authorized.

• • • • •

(Sec. 202, 43 Stat. 618, as amended, sec. 20, 48 Stat. 309, as amended, sec. 1, 62 Stat. 1219, as amended, Vet. Reg. 1 (a), as amended. Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 473, 489, 722, 740, ch. 12)

10. In § 3.235, paragraphs (b) (1) and (3), (c), and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.235 Statutory awards, section 202, World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, as reenacted by Public No. 141, 73d Congress. The statutory awards provided in section 202 of the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, are payable under section 27 or 28, Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as follows:

• • • • •

(b) Under section 202 (3):

(1) First paragraph, the statutory rates for specified conditions as provided therein and as amended.

• • • • •

(3) Third paragraph, the additional compensation of $47 monthly for the loss of the use of a creative organ or for the loss of the use of one or more feet or hands, independent of any other compensation (Public No. 866, 76th Congress and Public Law 662, 79th Congress and Public Law 427, 82d Congress).

(c) Under section 202 (5) an allowance not exceeding $67 per month for a nurse or attendant.

(d) Under section 202 (7), an award of not less than $67 per month to a person shown to have had an active tuberculous disease of a compensable degree which has reached a condition of complete arrest; and compensation under the minimum rating of 25 percent for arrested or apparently cured tuberculosis.

(Sec. 202, 43 Stat. 618, as amended, sec. 20, 48 Stat. 309, as amended, sec. 27, 48 Stat. 524, sec. 2, 60 Stat. 910, Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 471a, 471a–3, 473, 476, 478, 480, 722)

11. In § 3.236, the title and paragraphs (a), (b) (2), (c) (1), (2), and (3), and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.236 Special monthly compensation specified by or fixed pursuant to paragraph II, Parts I and II, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), as amended by Public Laws 182, 659, and 662, 79th Congress, and Public Law 427, 82d Congress—(a) Special monthly compensation provided by paragraph II (k), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate provided by paragraph II, Part II. The special monthly compensation provided by paragraph II (k), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate is applicable but once in any one case, when payable in addition to the compensation provided in paragraph II (a) to (j), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate. In other words, if the veteran has suffered the anatomical loss of one eye and one hand, his monthly compensation under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended, will be increased by $47 and not by $94 or by $37.60 and not by $75.20, if the disabilities were incurred in wartime service or peacetime service, respectively. The additional allowance may be based upon an anatomical loss or loss of use included in the requirements for the basic rate. The additional allowances under paragraph II (k), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate are now payable in addition to compensation payable under paragraph II (l) to (n), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, and such additional allowance is payable for each anatomical loss, loss of use, or blindness of one eye having only light perception, when existing in addition to the requirements for these basic rates, provided the total does not exceed $400 in Part I cases, independent of additional compensation for dependents provided by section 1, Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended, or $320 in Part II cases, independent of additional compensation for dependents provided by section 2, Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended. For example, a war veteran who has suffered the loss of use of both hands, one foot, and one eye (light perception only) will be compensated at $266 plus two allowances of $47 each or $360 under the second part of paragraph II (k), Part I.

(b) Helplessness. • • •

(2) The rate of $313 provided under paragraph II (m), Part I, on account of helplessness requiring regular aid and attendance applies only in cases entitled on account of blindness of both eyes. A veteran having suffered the loss, or loss of use, of both hands, feet, or one hand and one foot, and having no other compensable disability will be rated according to the level of amputation or loss of use. Entitlement to a higher rate on account of helplessness requiring regular aid and attendance must be based on such need resulting from pathology other than the anatomical loss or loss of use of two extremities. When so based, i. e., upon pathology other than the anatomical loss or loss of use of two extremities, the rate will uniformly be $400 (or $320) monthly.

(c) Intermediate rates fixed pursuant to law. The authority contained in paragraph II (p), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate to allow the next higher rate or an intermediate rate will be administered as follows:

(1) With the anatomical loss, or loss of use, of one hand or one foot, and anatomical loss, or loss of use, of another extremity at a level or with complications preventing natural elbow or knee action with prosthesis in place, the rate will be $290 (or $232.00), and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $313 (or $250.40), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $333 (or $266.40).

(2) With the anatomical loss, or loss of use, of one extremity at a level or with complications preventing natural elbow or knee action with prosthesis in place, and the anatomical loss of another extremity so near the shoulder or hip as to prevent the use of a prosthetic appliance, the rate will be $333 (or $266.40), and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $353 (or $282.40), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $377 (or $301.60).

(3) With the anatomical loss, or loss of use, of one hand or one foot, and the anatomical loss of another extremity so near the shoulder or hip as to prevent the use of a prosthetic appliance, the rate will be $313 (or $250.40), and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $333 (or $266.40), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $353 (or $282.40).

(d) Ratings for specific conditions—(1) Rating of binocular blindness of different degrees. (i) With blindness of one eye with 5/200 visual acuity or less and blindness of the other eye having only light perception, the rate will be $290 (or $232.00), and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $313 (or $250.40), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $333 (or $266.40).

(ii) With blindness of one eye having only light perception and anatomical loss, or blindness, having no light perception accompanied by phthisis bulbi, evisceration, or other obvious deformity or disfigurement, of the other eye, the rate will be $333 (or $266.40), and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $353 (or $282.40), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $377 (or $301.60).

(iii) With blindness of one eye having 5/200 visual acuity or less and anatomical loss, or blindness, having no light perception accompanied by phthisis bulbi, evisceration, or other obvious deformity or disfigurement, of the other eye, the rate will be $313 (or $250.40), and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $333 (or $266.40), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $353 (or $282.40).

(2) Rating of blindness of both eyes having no light perception. The rate under paragraph II (n), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, $353 (or $282.40) per month, will be assigned when there is a total blindness of both eyes having no light perception accompanied by phthisis bulbi, evisceration, or other obvious deformity or disfigurement, and with additional disability (single permanent disabilities or combinations of permanent disabilities with the usual prohibition against pyramiding) independently ratable at 50 percent or more, the rate will be $377 (or $301.60), or with additional disability (single disabilities of permanent nature) independently ratable apart from any consideration of individual unemployability, at 100 percent, the rate will be $400 (or $320).

(3) Entitlement under paragraph II (o), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate. Entitlement to the maximum rate of $400 (or $320) per month on account of entitlement to two of the rates provided in one or more of subparagraphs (l) to (n), inclusive, paragraph II, Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, must be based upon separate and distinct disabilities so entitling.

If the loss, or loss of use, of two extremities or being permanently bedridden renders the person helpless, increase to $400 (or $320) per month is not in order on account of this helplessness. Under no circumstances will the combination of "being permanently bedridden" and "being so helpless as to require regular aid and attendance" without separate and distinct anatomical loss, or loss of use, of two extremities, or blindness, be taken as entitling to $400 (or $320) per month. The fact, however, that two separate and distinct entitling disabilities, such as anatomical loss, or loss of use, of both hands and of both feet, result from a common etiological agent, for example, one injury or rheumatoid arthritis, will not preclude entitlement to the maximum rate.

(Par. II, Parts I and II, Vet. Reg. 1 (a), as amended, sec. 2, 60 Stat. 910, Pub. Law 427, 82d Cong.; 38 U. S. C. 471a–3, ch. 12)

12. In § 3.237, paragraphs (a) and (b) (1), (4), (5), (6), and (7) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.237 Additional allowance or increased compensation or pension for nurse and attendant and adjustment of awards during institutionalization—(a) General. If and while a veteran is so helpless on account of a service-connected compensable condition or non-service-connected condition as to be in need of a nurse or attendant or regular aid and attendance (see §§ 3.176, 3.177, and 3.178), there will be allowed in addition to the compensation payable under Title III, Public No. 141, 73d Congress, as amended, the sum of $67 per month or an increased statutory rate under Public No. 2, 73d Congress, as amended, or under Public Law 149, 82d Congress, as amended.

(b) Reductions during hospitalization. Where a veteran in receipt of additional or increased compensation or pension based upon the need for a nurse or attendant, or regular aid and attendance, other than on account of transverse myelitis or paraplegia involving paralysis of both lower extremities together with loss of anal and bladder sphincter control, or on account of Hansen's disease, is being furnished hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the Veterans' Administration and is being furnished with nursing or attendant's service, the award of compensation or pension will be the amount authorized by the rating decision exclusive of any additional or increased amount on account of the need for a nurse or attendant, or regular aid and attendance. In the excepted cases a uniform rate of $400 ($320 or $129) per month will be maintained, without deduction on account of being furnished aid and attendance in kind. Due to the different additional amounts to which veterans may be entitled under Public Law 182, 79th Congress, as amended, on account of helplessness requiring regular aid and attendance, and consequent different amounts of reductions when being furnished regular aid and attendance in kind, when institutionalized by the Veterans' Administration, it is necessary to give careful attention to the exact basis of entitlement:

(1) The general rule as to reductions of special monthly compensation of $266 (or $212.80) per month or more or pension of $129 monthly based upon the need for regular aid and attendance when the veteran is being furnished nursing or attendant's service while receiving hospital treatment, institutional or domiciliary care by the Veterans' Administration is that reduction will be in the additional amount based upon the need for regular aid or attendance. When the pension is being paid under Public Law 149, 82d Congress, the award will be the basic $63 or $75 monthly rate authorized by the rating decision exclusive of the additional amount on account of the need of regular aid and attendance. Corrected visual acuity of 5/200 or less, both eyes, or concentric contraction of the visual field to 5 degrees or less, qualifies for the $129 rate without a showing of the need for aid and attendance. There will be no reduction thereof on account of institutionalization by the Veterans' Administration.

(4) The reduction in the case of a veteran entitled only under paragraph II (l), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, on account of helplessness will be in the amount of $93.50 (or $74.80).

(5) When any veteran is entitled to one of the rates under paragraph II (l), (m), or (n), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, by reason of anatomical losses or losses of use of extremities, blindness, having 5/200 visual acuity or less, or anatomical loss of both eyes, and is also entitled to another rate under paragraph II (l), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, on account of being so helpless as to be in need of regular aid and attendance, no condition being considered twice in the determination, the rate of pension while not being maintained and furnished aid and attendance in kind will be $400 (or $320) per month. This amount is subject to reduction to $313 (or $250.40) or $353 (or $282.40) per month according to which the veteran is entitled apart from helplessness. No case will arise in which reduction from $400 to $266 will be in order, for the reason that the condition entitling to the second rate on account of rendering the person helpless will necessarily be totally disabling, thus entitling, if the basic entitlement is under paragraph II (l) or (m), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, to one of the rates specified in the preceding sentence. Note that if the basic entitlement is under paragraph II (n), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, the additional disability rendering the person helpless is necessarily ratable at 100 percent; consequently, the rate of pension will be $400 (or $320) per month whether or not being furnished aid and attendance in kind.

(6) In the special case of entitlement under paragraph II (m), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, only on account of blindness of both eyes, rendering him so helpless as to be in need of regular aid and attendance, the reduction will be $47 (or $37.60) per month.

(7) Additional pension of $47 (or $37.60) per month under paragraph II (k), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, or on account of 50 percent disability or 100 percent disability in excess of the conditions entitling under paragraph II (l), (m), or (n), Part I, or the corresponding peacetime rate, is not subject to reduction on account of being furnished nursing or attendant's service.

The reduced rate of compensation or pension in such instances will be effective as of the beginning of the maintenance of the disabled veteran in an institution by the Veterans' Administration. The compensation or pension in all cases contemplated herein is subject to the limitations contained in § 3.255.

13. In § 3.310, the introduction and paragraph (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.310 Apportionments authorized. Disability pension, disability compensation (including additional compensation for dependents provided by Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended by section 4, Public Law 339, 81st Congress), emergency officers retirement pay, and on and after October 17, 1940, service pension and pension for service prior to April 21, 1898, amounting to more than $31.50 monthly, will be apportioned according to the table provided in § 3.311, except where otherwise authorized or provided in this section.

* * * * *

(d) In those cases where an incompetent veteran with a wife, child, or dependent parent, and for whom no guardian or other legal fiduciary has been appointed, is maintained in an institution by the United States or a political subdivision thereof, the disability pension payable under Part III, Veterans Regulation 1 (a) (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), unless paid in the discretion of the Administrator to the wife of such veteran for the use of the veteran and his dependents, will be apportioned, if otherwise in order, in accordance with the schedule set out in this paragraph. Prior to authorizing an apportionment of disability pension as provided in this section adequate development will be accomplished for the purpose of determining the need therefor, and the evidence to establish the marital status, relationship, and dependency in the case of a parent, will be secured. In any case where there is doubt as to the propriety of the contemplated action or where, after all feasibly available evidence is secured, there is doubt as to the marital status or relationship, the case will be submitted, together with a full statement of the pertinent facts, to the director, veterans claims service, central office, for an advisory opinion or such other action as may be deemed appropriate.

Where there is (are)—

A wife but no child or where all children are in her custody, portion to wife, $53.40 monthly.

A child but no wife, portion for child, $42.60 monthly.

Two or more children but no wife, portion for children (to be divided equally between them), $53.40 monthly.

A dependent parent but no wife or child, portion for parent, $42.60 monthly.

Two dependent parents but no wife or child, portion for parents (to be divided equally between them), $53.40 monthly.

Any increase in pension by reason of the veteran having attained the age of 65, having been rated permanently and totally disabled and in receipt of or having qualified for pension under Public Law 149, 82d Congress, as amended, pension for a continuous period of 10 years or more will be added to the amount allowed the dependents as hereinabove described. There will be paid to the manager, if a Veterans' Administration hospital or center, or such other proper official in charge of the institution any sum remaining unawarded. When the apportionments provided in this section are believed to work a hardship upon one or more parties in interest, recourse then may be had to the provisions of § 3.315 for a special apportionment under the approved procedure relating thereto. Running awards not consistent with the foregoing provisions will not be automatically reviewed for such purpose but will be adjusted when the particular case otherwise requires award action.

14. In § 3.311, paragraphs (c) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.311 Table of apportionments.

(c) Where the evidence of record shows that the veteran and his wife are separated, the whereabouts of the wife is unknown, and all reasonable means to locate the wife have been unsuccessful or where she states in writing that she desires no share of the award, or fails for 90 days or more to respond to correspondence from the Veterans' Administration informing her of her rights, which is not returned unclaimed, there will be no apportionment on her account except that amount authorized by Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended by section 4, Public Law 339, 81st Congress, to be paid on her account at such time as her whereabouts may be ascertained. If there are children not in the veteran's custody, the award will be apportioned according to the table provided in paragraph (a) of this section on the basis of the disabled person and child or children until such time as the whereabouts of the wife may be ascertained or she expresses a desire to claim her share of the award. In such event the award will be reapportioned on the basis of the disabled person, wife, and child or children.

(d) That part of the benefit which is payable to a veteran under Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended by section 4, Public Law 339, 81st Congress, by virtue of his having a dependent father or mother, or both, will be apportioned and paid directly to the dependent when it appears that the claimant has neglected or refused to contribute to his, her, or their support in substantially the amount which he, she, or they would receive if apportionment were made: Provided, That no apportionment will be made where the duly appointed guardian under orders of the court of appointment makes or has made like contribution for the support of the parent or parents (sec. 1 (B), Public Law 662, 79th Congress).

(Sec. 3, 54 Stat. 1195, sec. 1, 60 Stat. 908, secs. 1, 2, 62 Stat 1219, as amended; 38 U. S. C. 49a, 739, 740, 741)

15. In § 3.312, paragraphs (a), (b) (1), (e), and (g) are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.312 Apportionment not authorized. No apportionment will be authorized:

(a) Where the wife of a disabled person has been found guilty of conjugal infidelity by a court of competent jurisdiction, except the additional amounts specifically authorized by Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended by section 4, Public Law 339, 81st Congress, to be paid on her account.

(b) (1) Where the child of the disabled person has been legally adopted other than by the disabled person, except the additional amount specifically authorized by Public Law 877, 80th Congress, as amended by section 4, Public Law 339, 81st Congress, to be paid on account of the child. This provision is not applicable to death benefits.

* * * * *

(e) Under § 3.310, where the monetary benefit payable is $31.50 monthly or less.

* * * * *

(g) Of the additional amount authorized by the last paragraph of section 202 (3) or section 202 (5), World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, or the additional amount payable under paragraph II (k), Part I, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, or the corresponding peacetime rate; or in those cases where an amount in excess of that provided for total disability is payable, of any amount in excess of the rate prescribed for total disability. Where pension is being paid under Public No. 323, 71st Congress (act of June 9, 1930), as amended, no amount in excess of $96.75 monthly will be subject to apportionment, and where pension is being paid under Public No. 299, 71st Congress (act of June 2, 1930), as amended, or under Public No. 541, 75th Congress, as amended, no amount in excess of $96.75 monthly will be subject to apportionment.

16. In Part 4, § 4.55 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 4.55 Contested claims—(a) Scope of term. The provisions of this section are applicable to claims filed by two or more persons for the same death benefit where the allowance of one claim would necessitate disallowance of the other claim, and one claimant contests the allowance of that benefit to the other claimant. A contest arises automatically upon the filing of two claims alleging legal widowhood, and claims by two or more persons alleging to have been the last in the same parental line to have stood in place of a parent to the veteran. A contest also arises when there is received a protest from one claimant or payee against the allowance of the benefit to another claimant or payee where the allowance of the second claim would affect payments to the first claimant. This includes, but is not limited to, contests arising when one parent protests the allowance of the same benefit to a parent in the other parental line and claims for accrued where the person who seeks reimbursement for expenses of last sickness and burial alleges that a person claiming the accrued on the basis of relationship did not bear the relationship claimed.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 127—INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICE: POSTAGE RATES, SERVICE AVAILABLE, AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAILING

a. In § 127.204 Algeria amend paragraph (a) (5) to read as follows:

(5) Air mail service. Postage rates: Letters, letter packages and post cards, 15 cents per half ounce. Air letter sheets, 10 cents each. Other regular-mail articles 48 cents for the first 2 ounces and 28 cents for each additional 2 ounces. (See § 127.20.)

b. In § 127.268 Great Britain and Northern Ireland (England, Scotland and Wales; also Northern Ireland), make the following changes in paragraph (a) (8):

1. Delete present subdivision (vi).

2. Redesignate present subdivisions (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), and (v) as subdivisions (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), and (vi), respectively, and insert new subdivision (i) to read as follows:

(i) (a) Paper money which is or has been legal tender in Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

(b) All securities regardless of issue, whether canceled or not, and documents certifying to the loss, destruction or cancellation thereof, except for authentic "Registered Certificates" relating to securities on which the interest or dividends are not payable by coupons.

(c) Treasury notes.

c. In § 127.341 Rumania amend paragraph (b) (5) by adding new subdivision (viii) to read as follows:

(viii) Parcels containing used clothing must be accompanied by a certificate of disinfection.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR Part 29]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

EXCLUSION FROM GROSS INCOME OF CERTAIN DEATH BENEFITS PAID BY EMPLOYERS AND TO TAXABILITY OF JOINT AND SURVIVOR ANNUITIES, RESPECTIVELY

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

[SEAL] JUSTIN F. WINKLE,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to sections 302 and 303 of the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.22 (b) (1)-1 the following:

SEC. 302. PAYMENTS TO BENEFICIARIES OF DECEASED EMPLOYEES (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Amendment of section 22 (b) (1). Section 22 (b) (1) (relating to exclusion of life insurance proceeds from gross income) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) Life insurance, etc. Amounts received—

(A) Under a life insurance contract, paid by reason of the death of the insured; or

(B) Under a contract of an employer providing for the payment of such amounts to the beneficiaries of an employee, paid by reason of the death of the employee; whether in a single sum or otherwise (but if such amounts are held by the insurer, or the employer, under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income). The aggregate of the amounts excludible under subparagraph (B) by all the beneficiaries of the employee under all such contracts of any one employer may not exceed $5,000.

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950.

PAR. 2. Immediately following § 29.22 (b) (1)-1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5515, approved May 16, 1946, there is inserted the following new section which represents the basic provisions of regulations regarding the interpretation of section 302 of the Revenue Act of 1951:

§ 29.22 (b) (1)-2 Death payment by employer; amounts paid by reason of the death of an employee. (a) Amounts, not in excess of $5,000, paid by an employer in pursuance of an express contract to the estate or to a beneficiary (individual, partnership, or corporation) of an employee by reason of the employee's death shall be excluded from the gross income of such beneficiary if received during a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1950. Where such death payments are made by more than one employer, including former employers of the decedent, the $5,000 exclusion applies to the total payments made by each employer or former employer of the decedent. Where the aggregate payments by an employer, under an express contract, to the beneficiaries of the deceased employee exceed $5,000, the $5,000 exclusion shall be proportioned among the beneficiaries in the same proportion as the amount payable to or received by each under such contract bears to the total death payment the employer is contractually obligated to make. It is immaterial whether the proceeds are received in a single sum or otherwise. If, however, the proceeds are held by an employer under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payment must be included in gross income.

Example. The M Corporation, the employer of A, who died on November 30, 1950, was liable under an express contract to pay a death payment of $15,000 to the beneficiaries of A, to be distributed as follows: $5,000 to the widow of A; $2,500 each to the parents of A; and $1,000 each to five children of A. Each of the beneficiaries of A, except his widow, received such payment in a lump sum in January 1951. The widow of A elected to receive her share of the death payment in monthly installments of $100 beginning with the month of January 1951. All of the beneficiaries filed income tax returns on a calendar year basis. Apportioning the $5,000 exclusion in the same proportions as the total death payment the employer is contractually obligated to make, the widow of A shall exclude $1,666.67 of the monthly payments made to her (one-third of $5,000); each of A's parents shall exclude $833.33 of their death payment (one-sixth of $5,000); and each of the five children shall exclude $333.33 (one-fifteenth of $5,000). In the case of the widow, $1,200 of her monthly payments shall be excluded from her income tax return for the year 1951 and the balance of $466.67 from her return for the year 1952.

(b) Where a payment is made on account of the death of an employee by a welfare fund or a trust, including a pension trust exempt under section 165 (a), in pursuance of an agreement entered into by an employer of the deceased employee, the payment shall be considered to have been made by the employer for the purpose of this section. Any part of a death payment which is attributable to the contributions of the employee shall be disregarded in determining the amount paid by an employer.

(c) An express contract requiring payment by an employer to the beneficiaries of a deceased employee by reason of the latter's death shall be deemed to exist only if (1) the employer and employee had entered into a written contract, not revoked before the employee's death, which required such payment or (2) the employer had an established plan (or program having the effect of a plan) making provision for such payments in the case of his employees generally, or for a class or classes of his employees. In the latter case, the contract will be deemed to exist between the employer and the members of the class or classes of employees to whom the plan applies, provided such plan had been communicated to such employees and had not been rescinded prior to the death of the employee to whom the particular death payment relates.

(d) The exclusion from gross income provided by this section is limited solely to those amounts paid by or on behalf of an employer which, by the terms of the contract with the employee or by the provisions of the plan providing for such payments, are specifically designated and intended as a death benefit, paid only by reason of the death of the employee, in an amount determined without reference to any reserve or liability for other benefits which might be provided by the plan or contract. The exclusion does not apply to payments to a survivor or estate of a deceased employee under a plan or contract of amounts primarily intended to be used to provide benefits for the employee himself at some future time if he had lived. For example, the exclusion does not apply to distributions of profits, as such, made to a beneficiary of a deceased employee which were accumulated for payment to the employee under a profit-sharing plan. Also, the exclusion does not apply to amounts paid by or on behalf of an employer to the survivor of a deceased retired employee as a survivor's annuity. Another example of a type of payment to which the exclusion does not apply is the payment to a beneficiary of a deceased employee of an amount representing the value of the unused leave of the employee.

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.22 (b) (2)–1 the following provisions of the Revenue Act of 1951:

SEC. 303. JOINT AND SURVIVOR ANNUITIES (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Amendment of section 22 (b) (2). Section 22 (b) (2) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subparagraph:

(C) Joint and survivor annuities. For purposes of subparagraphs (A) and (B) of this paragraph, where amounts are received by a surviving annuitant under a joint and survivor's annuity contract and the basis of such survivor annuitant's interest is determined under section 113 (a) (5) the consideration paid for such survivor's annuity shall be considered to be an amount equal to such basis.

* * * * *

(c) Effective dates. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable to taxable years ending after December 31, 1950.

PAR. 4. Section 29.22 (b) (2)–2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5384, approved January 7, 1949, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting immediately after paragraph (a) the following undesignated paragraph:

If, in the case of amounts received under a joint and survivor's annuity, the value of any part of the survivor's interest is required to be included in the gross estate of a decedent annuitant dying after December 31, 1950, under the provisions of section 811 (whether or not such estate exceeds $60,000 so as to require the filing of an estate-tax return under section 821 (a) (1)), the basis of such interest to the survivor annuitant is considered to be the value of the life annuity to the survivor at the time of the decedent's death as determined under section 113 (a) (5). Such valuation shall be substituted, effective upon the date of death of the first annuitant, in lieu of the consideration previously used, if any, for purposes of determining the taxable amounts of the annuity payments received after such date of death. Likewise, the amount of consideration determined in accordance with this rule shall, with respect to survivor annuity payments made after the death of the first annuitant, be substituted for the amount of consideration, if any, that may be recovered without inclusion in gross income.

(B) By adding the following examples after example (3) thereof:

Example (4). H and W on August 1, 1947, each contributed $90,000 toward the purchase of a joint and survivor's annuity of $12,000 a year, payable in monthly installments. On August 15, 1952, H died. There is includible in his estate under the provisions of section 811 the amount of $30,000 attributable to the decedent's interest in the annuity contract. The value of the annuity payments to be received by W subsequent to H's death (i. e., the cost of providing an annuity of $12,000 a year during the remaining life of W) is determined, under the provisions of section 113 (a) (5), to be $60,000. This amount is deemed to be the consideration paid by W, effective August 15, 1952, for the annuity payments to be received by her subsequent to that date. Therefore, of the monthly payments made to W following H's death, W shall include the sum of $150, being such portion of the installment as is not in excess of 3 percent of $60,000 (the consideration deemed to have been paid) divided by 12. The full amount of the annuity will not become includible in gross income until $60,000 shall have been recovered.

Example (5). H, an employee of the M Corporation, retired on January 1, 1952. Under the company's retirement plan H was entitled, upon retirement, to elect to receive a life annuity of $2,400 annually or a reduced annuity with a provision that his wife would receive $1,200 annually during her lifetime if he should predecease her. The M Corporation inaugurated its retirement plan in 1949 and paid the entire cost of all annuities. H elected to take the reduced annuity. He died on November 1, 1952, and thereafter his wife W received $1,200 annually in equal monthly installments. By reason of H's election to accept a reduced annuity with survivor payments for his widow, there is includible in his estate under the provisions of section 811 the amount of $12,000. This is the same valuation, as determined under section 113 (a) (5), placed on the annuity payments receivable by W subsequent to H's death. Therefore, W shall include in her gross income with respect to each monthly annuity payment received subsequent to November 1, 1952, the sum of $30, being such portion of the installment as is not in excess of 3 percent of $12,000 (the consideration deemed to have been paid) divided by 12. The full amount of the annuity payments will not become includible in gross income until $12,000 of the annuity payments received after H's death shall have been excluded from income. It is immaterial that H had no cost basis with respect to his annuity and had to include the full amount thereof in his gross income.

PAR. 5. Section 29.22 (b) (2)–5, as amended by Treasury Decision 5853, approved August 29, 1951, is further amended by striking the first sentence of paragraph (c) thereof and substituting the following: "Except as provided in § 29.22 (b) (2)–2 with respect to joint and survivor annuity payments received subsequent to the death of an annuitant who died after December 31, 1950, if upon the death of a retired employee, the widow or other beneficiary of such retired employee is paid, in accordance with the terms of the annuity contract relating to the deceased employee, an annuity or other death benefit, the amounts received by or made available to her shall be included in her income to the extent that they would have been included in the income of the deceased employee had he lived and received such payments."

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.113 (a) (5)–1 the following:

SEC. 303. JOINT AND SURVIVOR ANNUITIES (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * *

(b) Amendment of section 113 (a) (5). Section 113 (a) (5) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "For the purposes of this paragraph, the survivor's interest in a joint and survivor's annuity shall be considered to be property 'acquired by bequest, devise, or inheritance' from the decedent if the death of the decedent was after December 31, 1950, and if the value of any part of such interest was required to be included in determining the value of the decedent's gross estate under section 811."

(c) Effective dates. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable to taxable years ending after December 31, 1950.

PAR. 7. Section 29.113 (a) (5)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, approved February 16, 1949, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph (h):

(h) Joint and survivor annuities. If, with respect to an annuitant who dies after December 31, 1950, the value of any part of a survivor's interest in a joint and survivor's annuity is required to be included in the gross estate of the deceased annuitant (whether or not such estate exceeds $60,000 so as to require the filing of an estate tax return under section 821 (a) (1)), the basis of such interest to the survivor annuitant is considered to be the value at the time of the decedent's death. As to the taxability of survivor annuity payments in accordance with this rule, see § 29.22 (b) (2)–2.

PAR. 8. Section 29.165–6, as amended by Treasury Decision 5853, is further amended as follows:

(A) By striking the first sentence of paragraph (c) and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "Except as provided in § 29.22 (b) (2)–2, if pension or annuity payments are continued after the death of a retired employee to his beneficiary, such beneficiary will be required to include such pension or annuity payments in income to the same extent that the deceased employee would have been required to include such payments in income had he lived to receive such payments."

(B) By adding immediately following paragraph (d) thereof the following new paragraph (e):

(e) See also § 29.22 (b) (1)–2 as to the limited exclusion from income of death benefits made by or on behalf of an employer in pursuance of an express contract and paid by reason of the death of an employee.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

ALASKA

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAT OF SURVEY

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

Notice is given that the plat of original survey of the following described lands, accepted July 23, 1951, will be officially filed in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska, effective at 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this notice:

U. S. Survey No. 2989, lots 1–3 inclusive, containing 2.45 acres.

U. S. Survey No. 2991, lots 26–30 inclusive, containing 1.93 acres.

U. S. Survey No. 2992, lots 31–38 inclusive, containing 7.83 acres.

The above-described land is located at Lat. 55°20′ N., Long. 131°39′ W., and is situated in Tongass Narrows about three-eighths of a mile southwest of the main business district of Ketchikan. Pennock Island can be reached only by boat from Ketchikan. It is approximately 2.50 miles long and 0.75 mile wide at the widest point. The island is accessible at almost all points by small boat, which seems to provide adequate transportation at all times for the present residents of the island. The interior of the island is accessible only by foot, there being at present no roads on the island.

The shore of the island is composed of sand and gravel beaches with occasional rocky promontories with boulder and cobble beaches. The land rises gently from the beach, and a belt of Sitka Spruce and Western Hemlock up to three feet in diameter line the shore for a distance of from 100 to 200 yards. This cover gives way to scrub lodgepole pine interspersed with small muskegs. Soil is very thin to absent on all parts of the island, and is very acid.

At the hour and date specified above the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this notice shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the small tract act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, home or headquarters site under the act of May 26, 1934 (48 Stat. 809, 48 U. S. C. 461), by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) applications under any applicable public land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under the paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this notice shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a .m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this notice, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this notice, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statement in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office at Anchorage, Alaska, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the extent such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead and homesite laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 64, 65 and 166 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Part 257 of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office.

VIRGIL O. SEISER,
Manager.

ORDER OF TRANSFER OF JURISDICTION OF INTEREST; CORRECTION OF LAND DESCRIPTION

NOVEMBER 5, 1952.

There was published in the September 17, 1952, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 8366), an Order of Transfer of Jurisdiction of Interest to the Office of Territories, Department of the Interior, in and to a certain tract of land described by metes and bounds in the East Addition to Kodiak Townsite, U. S. Survey No. 2538 (A).

It has been noted that the description of the boundary of the tract is incomplete and is hereby amended by deleting after the word "beginning" in the seventh line of the description, the following words, "thence go North 34° 34′ West, 1,990.56 feet to a point," and inserting in lieu thereof, "thence North 34° 43' West, 263.75 feet, thence North 34° 34' West, 1,990.56 feet to corner No. 2 of U. S. Survey No. 2538 (A)."

CALIFORNIA

NOVEMBER 3, 1952.

Notice is given that the plat of survey of the following described lands, accepted January 2, 1951, will be officially filed in the Land Office, Los Angeles, California, effective at 10:00 a. m. on December 8, 1952.

The lands affected by this notice are described as follows:

SAN BERNARDINO MERIDIAN

T. 10½ N., R. 26 W.
Fractional sections 31 to 36 inclusive, exclusive of patented Tracts 37 and 38.
T. 10½ N., R. 27 W.
Fractional sections 34, 35 and 36.

The area described aggregates 1,038.66 acres.

Available information indicates the land is rough and mountainous.

Title to fractional section 36, T. 10½ N., R. 26 W., and fractional section 36, T. 10½ N., R. 27 W., S. B. M., subject to any prior existing rights, vested in the State of California as of the date of acceptance of the plat of survey. All remaining lands shall be subject to the following provisions of this order.

At the hour and date specified above the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this notice shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the desert-land laws, or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m., on the 35th day after the date of this notice shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m., on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m., on the 126th day after the date of this notice, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m., on the 126th day after the date of this notice, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office, Los Angeles, California, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the desert-land laws and the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Los Angeles, California.

[SEAL] PAUL B. WITMER,
Manager, Land Office.

CALIFORNIA

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAT OF EXTENSION SURVEY AND DEPENDENT RESURVEY

NOVEMBER 3, 1952.

Notice is given that the plat accepted January 2, 1951, of (1) resurvey of a portion of T. 10 No., R. 26 W., S. B. M., California, delineating a retracement and reestablishment of the lines of the original survey as shown upon the plat approved Sept. 29, 1879, and (2) extension survey including lands hereinafter described, will be officially filed in the Land Office, Los Angeles, California, effective at 10:00 a. m. on December 8, 1952.

The lands affected by this notice are described as follows:

SAN BERNARDINO MERIDIAN

T. 10 No., R. 26 W.
Sec. 1,
Fr. sections 2 and 3,
Sec. 4, Lots 5, 6, 7, 8.

The area described aggregates 1,941.31 acres.

Available information indicates the described lands are rough and mountainous.

At the hour and date specified above the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this notice shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the desert-land laws or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m., on the 35th day after the date of this notice shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m., on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m., on the 126th day after the date of this notice, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m., on the 126th day after the date of this notice, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office, Los Angeles, California, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the desert-land laws and the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Los Angeles, California.

Notice for Filing Objections to Order Withdrawing Public Lands for Colorado River Storage Project, Utah

Notice is hereby given that for a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause to object to the terms of the above order withdrawing certain public lands in the State of Utah, for use in connection with the proposed Flaming Gorge Reservoir, Colorado River Storage Project, may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and should be filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent, and extent. Should any objection be filed, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

G. W. LINEWEAVER,
Assistant Commissioner.

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

On July 21, 1952, Cities Service Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, and supplements thereto, on September 4, September 26, and October 6, 1952, respectively, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in the application and supplements on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds:

(1) This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest, or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 9, 1952 (17 F. R. 7318).

(2) For good cause, the date fixed for hearing is less than 15 days required by § 1.20 of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on November 17, 1952, at 9:30 a. m., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application and supplements: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 7, 1952.

[Docket No. G-2084]

UNITED NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER SUSPENDING PROPOSED TARIFF SHEETS

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

On October 7, 1952, the United Natural Gas Company (United) filed with the Commission First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5 to its FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1.

First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5, as filed, propose an increase in the rates for natural-gas service which would result in annual increased payments by United's customers amounting to $1,749,000, which is an increase of 21 percent based on estimated sales for the year ending October 31, 1953. United states that the rate increase is necessitated in part by the proposed increases by United's suppliers, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, and Manufacturers Light and Heat Company. Such higher rates of United's suppliers, have been, however, suspended by orders of the Commission. Additionally, certain accounting adjustments and other items advanced in support of the proposed rate increase have not been shown to be justified.

The New York State Public Service Commission requests that the proposed rates be suspended pending investigation.

The increased rates and charges provided in said First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5, have not been shown to be justified and may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing, pursuant to the authority contained in section 4 of such act, concerning the lawfulness of United's FPC Gas Tariff, as amended by First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5 and that said First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5 be suspended as hereinafter provided and the use thereof be deferred pending hearing and decision herein.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in section 4 of the Natural Gas Act, a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by further order of the Commission concerning the lawfulness of rates, charges, and classifications contained in the aforesaid United Natural Gas Company's FPC Gas Tariff as amended by First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, First Revised Sheets Nos. 4 and 5 of United Natural Gas Company's FPC Gas Tariff, Original Volume No. 1, be and the same are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until April 10, 1953, and until such further time as they may be made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 6, 1952.

[Project No. 2000]

POWER AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

ORDER FIXING HEARING

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

On July 16, 1948, the Power Authority of the State of New York filed an application for a license under the Federal Power Act for a proposed hydroelectric development, Project No. 2000, to be located in and along the International Rapids Section of the St. Lawrence River on the United States side of the international boundary line in St. Lawrence County, New York. The application was supplemented in September 1948 and after hearings and recommendations by a hearing examiner the Commission, on December 22, 1950, by Opinion No. 203 and an accompanying order, denied the application for license and referred the matter to Congress.

The Authority filed a petition for review of the Commission's order in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, last August joining with the Commission in a motion requesting the Court to dismiss the petition and to remand the proceeding for further consideration by the Commission. The Court of Appeals granted the joint motion and remanded the proceeding to the Commission. During the 82d Congress consideration was given by the Senate and House Committees to legislation for the combined seaway and power development of the International Rapids Section but no legislation was enacted.

On June 30, 1952, the Governments of the United States and Canada submitted to the International Joint Commission, under the provisions of the Boundary Waters Treaty of January 11, 1909, applications requesting approval by that commission for the construction of certain works in the International Rapids Section for the development of power (IJC Docket No. 68). Section 2 of the applications state that it is the intention of Canada to undertake construction, on the Canadian side of the international boundary, of certain navigable waters to provide a 27-foot waterway in the section of the St. Lawrence River in which the power works applied for are to be constructed. This was said to be pursuant to an exchange of notes dated June 30, 1952 for the provision of deep-water navigation to the standards specified in the agreement of March 19, 1941, and in accordance with the specifications of the joint Board of Engineers dated November 16, 1926. The International Joint Commission issued its order of approval on October 29, 1952.

On September 22, 1952, the Power Authority of the State of New York filed an amendment to its prior application under the Federal Power Act and now seeks a license for those power development works which would be similar to the facilities referred to in March 19, 1941, agreement between the United States and Canada, with the exception of the navigation features which are excluded.

Public notice of the filing of the application as supplemented and amended has been given and some protests and petitions to intervene and requests for hearing have been received.

The Commission finds that: The proposed project is of widespread interest and it is desirable and in the public interest to hold a hearing respecting the matters involved and the issues presented in this proceeding.

It is ordered that:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by the Federal Power Act, and particularly sections 4, 6 and 308 thereof, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held on the 9th day of December 1952 commencing at 10:00 a. m. in the hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

(B) That no further petitions to intervene be accepted and filed after December 1, 1952.

Date of issuance: November 7, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, as Amended, Section 11 (d), Special Order 2]

WASHINGTON, D. C., METROPOLITAN AREA

AREA ADJUSTMENT OF TANK WAGON CEILING PRICES OF FUEL OIL DISTRIBUTORS

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the tank wagon ceiling prices for Heating Oils (Kerosene, No. and No. 2 Oil, Furnace Oil, Range Oil, and Stove Oil) sold by tank wagon distributors in the Washington, D. C., metropolitan area, which area is based on the geographic boundaries of the free delivery zone, namely, Washington, D. C., Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties, Maryland, Arlington and Fairfax Counties and the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

Ceiling Price Regulation 17, as amended, section 11 (d), authorizes the Director of Price Stabilization to make area adjustments in the tank wagon ceiling prices of light fuel oil distributors sufficient to restore the distributors' net operating earnings to the level of the fiscal year ending May 31, 1950. The Director of Price Stabilization, pursuant to Delegation of Authority 72, delegated to each Regional Director of the Office of Price Stabilization authority to issue area adjustments by special order under provisions of section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, as amended. Region 4, by Redelegation of Authority No. 41, subsequently redelegated this authority to the Directors of the District Offices of the Office of Price Stabilization.

The Washington District Office of Price Stabilization was requested to adjust the tank wagon ceiling prices of fuel oil distributors in the Washington, D. C., metropolitan area by Griffith Consumers Company, John P. Agnew & Company, the Oil Heat Institute, et al., acting on behalf of the fuel oil distributors of the Washington, D. C., retail marketing area. This District Office took cognizance of the request, since it has jurisdiction over the communities with the largest population in the Washington metropolitan area, and the majority of the fuel oil distributors are located in the District of Columbia.

Following consultations with fuel oil distributors and investigations by the Washington, D. C., District Office of the Office of Price Stabilization, the District Director of that Office was satisfied that sufficient evidence existed to suggest that distributors are suffering hardship in that their present net operating earnings are below the level of the fiscal year ended May 31, 1950. Copies of OPS Public Form No. 151 were then distributed to all known independent light fuel oil distributors within the Washington, D. C., metropolitan area. An analysis of these Forms showed that current net earnings of fuel oil distributors from the sales of Heating Oils were in fact below that level.

The adjustment granted by this special order does no more than restore net earnings to the level of the fiscal year ended May 31, 1950. It is therefore consistent with the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations, and pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, as amended, It is ordered:

1. That the tank wagon ceiling price for Heating Oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and No. 2 Oil, Furnace Oil, Range Oil and Stove Oil) sold by tank wagon distributors in the Washington, D. C., metropolitan area, may be increased $0.001 per gallon.

2. For the purposes of this special order, the marketing area is the geographic boundaries of the free delivery zone of the Washington metropolitan area, namely, Washington, D. C., Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties, Maryland, Arlington and Fairfax Counties and the City of Alexandria, Virginia.

3. This order shall apply to all tank wagon distributors of heating Oils in the above defined marketing area.

4. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, as amended, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order, shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

5. This order may be amended, modified or revoked by this office at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective November 8, 1952.

VINCENT A. HOLMES,
District Director.

SUBPART B—UNITED STATES STANDARDS[1]

CANNED GRAPEFRUIT

On October 4, 1952 a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 8920) regarding a proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following revised United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1953 (Pub. Law 451, 82d Cong., approved July 5, 1952).

The Department finds that it is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest to give a 30-day notice of the effective date of the standards herewith published for the reasons that:

(1) The packing season for canned grapefruit is about to begin;

(2) The industry had been properly apprised through rule making of the revisions;

(3) No additional preparation on the part of industry is required;

(4) The revisions create no hardships; therefore, the effective date of the standards issued will be ten (10) days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 52.363 Canned grapefruit. Canned grapefruit, commonly known as canned grapefruit sections, is prepared from sound, mature grapefruit (Citrus paradisi) which have been properly washed; the segments thereof have been separated; and the core, seeds, and major portions of membrane have been removed. The product is packed with or without the addition of water, grapefruit juice, or sweetening ingredients and is sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically sealed containers.

(a) Grades of canned grapefruit. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned grapefruit that possesses a drained weight or average drained weight, as the case may be, of not less than 58 percent of the capacity of the container in containers smaller than the equivalent of No. 2 cans and of not less than 60 percent of the capacity of the container in containers the equivalent of No. 2 cans and larger; that consists of not less than 75 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit which is in whole segments or almost whole segments; that possesses a good color; that is practically free from defects; that possesses a good character; that possesses a good flavor and odor; and that scores not less than 90 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of canned grapefruit that possesses a drained weight or average drained weight, as the case may be, of not less than 55 percent of the capacity of the container regardless of the size of the container; that consists of not less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit which is in whole segments or almost whole segments; that possesses a reasonably good color; that is reasonably free from defects; that possesses a reasonably good character; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; and that scores not less than 80 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "U. S. Broken" is the quality of canned grapefruit that possesses a drained weight or average drained weight, as the case may be, of not less than 55 percent of the capacity of the container; that consists of less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit which is in whole or almost whole segments; that possesses a reasonably good color; that is reasonably free from defects; that possesses a reasonably good character; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; and that scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(4) "Substandard" is the quality of canned grapefruit that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice and U. S. Broken.

(b) Recommended designations of liquid media and Brix measurements. "Cut-out" requirements for liquid media in canned grapefruit are not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since sirup or any other liquid medium, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that canned grapefruit have the following indicated "cut-out" Brix measurement for the respective designation, which designations include, but are not limited to, the following:

Designation of liquid media:	Brix measurement
Heavy sirup	18° or more.
Light sirup	16° or more, but less than 18°.
Slightly sweet	12° or more, but less than 16°.

(c) Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that each container of canned grapefruit be filled with grapefruit as full as practicable without impairment of quality and that the product and packing medium occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume of the container.

(d) Ascertaining the grade. The grade of canned grapefruit is ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of drained weight, wholeness, color, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

Factors:	Points
(1) Drained weight	20
(2) Wholeness	20
(3) Color	20
(4) Absence of defects	20
(5) Character	20
Total score	100

(e) Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "18 to 20 points" means 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Drained weight. The drained weight of canned grapefruit is determined by emptying the contents of the container upon a United States Standard No. 8 circular sieve of proper diameter containing 8 meshes to the inch (0.0937-inch, ±3 percent, square openings) so as to distribute the product evenly, inclining the sieve slightly to facilitate drainage, and allowing to drain for two minutes. The drained weight is the weight of the sieve and the grapefruit less the weight of the dry sieve. The grapefruit thus drained is referred to in this section as "drained grapefruit" or "drained weight." A sieve 8 inches in diameter is used for the equivalent of No. 3 size cans (404 x 414) and smaller, and a sieve 12 inches in diameter is used for containers larger than the equivalent of the No. 3 size can. "Capacity of the container" means the weight of distilled water at 68° Fahrenheit which the sealed container will hold.

(i) Canned grapefruit in containers smaller than the equivalent of No. 2 cans that possesses a drained weight of not less than 58 percent of the capacity of the container may be given a score of 18 to 20 points for the respective containers as outlined in Table I; canned grapefruit in containers the equivalent of No. 2 cans and larger that possesses a drained weight of not less than 60 percent of the capacity of the container may be given a score of 18 to 20 points for the respective containers as outlined in Table II. Whenever more than 1 container of the product is being graded, the score for drained weight of each container is determined by averaging the drained weights of the containers. If the average drained weight indicates a score of 18 to 20 points (in accordance with Table I or II) such score will be assigned to each container: Provided, That the drained weight of no individual container indicates a score of less than 16 points. However, if any individual container scores less than 16 points, each container will be assigned the score for its own drained weight.

(ii) If the drained weight of the canned grapefruit in containers smaller than the equivalent of No. 2 cans is less than 58 percent of the capacity of the container, or if the drained weight of the canned grapefruit in containers the equivalent of No. 2 cans and larger is less than 60 percent of the capacity of the container but in either case the drained weight is not less than 55 percent of the capacity of the container, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given for the respective containers as outlined in Table I or II. Whenever more than 1 container of the product is being graded, the score for drained weight of each container is determined by averaging the drained weights of the containers. If the average drained weight indicates a score of 16 or 17 points (in accordance with Table I or II) such score will be assigned to each container: Provided, That the drained weight of no individual container indicates a score of less than 14 points. However, if any individual container scores less than 14 points, each container will be assigned the score for its own drained weight. Canned grapefruit that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(iii) Canned grapefruit that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Wholeness. (i) "Whole" or "whole segment" means any grapefruit segment that retains its apparent original conformation and is not excessively trimmed.

(ii) "Almost whole" or "almost whole segment" means any portion of a grapefruit segment that is not less than 75 percent of the apparent original segment size.

(iii) "Broken" or "broken segment" means (a) any portion of a grapefruit segment that is less than 75 percent of the apparent original segment size, (b) a "whole segment" or "almost whole segment" that is excessively trimmed, and (c) portions of segments that are joined together only by a "thread" or membrane.

(iv) Canned grapefruit that consists of not less than 75 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit in whole segments or almost whole segments may be given a score of 18 to 20 points.

(v) If the canned grapefruit consists of not less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit in whole segments or almost whole segments, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that not more than 15 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit may be damaged units; and that for each 20 ounces of net weight there may be present:

(a) Not more than 1 small piece of harmless extraneous material;

(b) Not more than 12 seeds including not more than 3 large seeds; and

(c) Not more than an aggregate area of 3 square inches on the units covered by tough membrane or albedo.

(vi) If less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit is in whole segments or almost whole segments, a score of 0 to 15 points may be given. Canned grapefruit that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Broken, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Color. (i) Canned grapefruit that possesses a good color may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Good color" means a practically uniform, bright, typical color free from any noticeable tinge of amber.

(ii) If the canned grapefruit possesses a reasonably good color, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means a fairly bright color which may be variable in color but is not off color for any reason.

(iii) Canned grapefruit that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(4) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from harmless extraneous material, from seeds, from portions of albedo, from portions of tough membrane, and from damaged units.

(i) "Harmless extraneous material" means leaves, portions of leaves, small pieces of peel, and other similar material that is harmless.

(ii) "Seed" means any seed or any portion thereof, whether or not fully developed, that measures more than 3/16 inch in any dimension. A "large seed" is one that may be plump and measures more than 3/8 inch in any dimension.

(iii) "Damaged unit" means any grapefruit segment or portion thereof that is damaged by pathological injury, by lye peeling, by discoloration, or by similar injury or that is damaged to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(iv) Canned grapefruit that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Practically free from defects" means that no harmless extraneous material is present; that not more than 5 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit may be damaged units; and that for each 20 ounces of net weight there may be present:

(a) Not more than 4 seeds including not more than one large seed; and

(b) Not more than an aggregate area of 2 square inches on the units covered by tough membrane or albedo.

(v) If the canned grapefruit is reasonably free from defects, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that not more than 15 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit may be damaged units; and that for each 20 ounces of net weight there may be present:

(a) Not more than 1 small piece of harmless extraneous material;

(b) Not more than 12 seeds including not more than 3 large seeds; and

(c) Not more than an aggregate area of 3 square inches on the units covered by tough membrane or albedo.

(vi) Canned grapefruit that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (v) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(5) Character. The factor of character refers to the structure and condition of the cells of the grapefruit and reflects the maturity of the grapefruit.

(i) Canned grapefruit that possesses a good character may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Good character" means that the grapefruit is moderately firm and fleshy; that the segments or portions thereof possess a juicy, cellular structure free from dry cells, or "ricey" cells, or fibrous cells that materially affect the appearance or eating quality of the product; and that the product is reasonably free from loose floating cells.

(ii) If the canned grapefruit possesses a reasonably good character, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the grapefruit may be affected, but not seriously affected, by dry cells, "ricey" cells, or fibrous cells that materially affect the appearance or eating quality of the product.

(iii) Canned grapefruit that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(f) Explanation of terms. (1) "Good flavor and odor" means that the product has a distinct and normal flavor and odor typical of canned grapefruit and is free from objectionable odors and objectionable flavors of any kind.

(2) "Fairly good flavor and odor" means that the product may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(3) "Brix" means the degrees Brix of the liquid media surrounding the canned grapefruit when tested with a Brix hydrometer calibrated at 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.). If the liquid media is tested at a temperature other than 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.) the applicable temperature correction shall be made to the reading of the scale as prescribed in the "Official Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists." The degrees Brix of the liquid media may be determined by any other method which gives equivalent results.

(g) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned grapefruit, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Sugar Requirements and Quotas

[Sugar Reg. 814.8, Amdt. 1]

PART 814—ALLOTMENT OF SUGAR QUOTAS

DIRECT CONSUMPTION PORTION FOR PUERTO RICO, 1952

Basis and purpose. This amendment is issued under section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948 (7 U. S. C., Sup. 1115 (a)) for the purpose of revising Sugar Regulation 814.8 (17 F. R. 2480) to reallot deficits in the allotments of certain allottees.

Except for a quantity of 533 short tons of sugar, raw value, set aside as an unallotted reserve for marketing of raw sugar for direct consumption, the direct-consumption portion of the 1952 sugar quota for Puerto Rico, amounting to 126,033 short tons, raw value, was allotted to five Puerto Rican refiners in Sugar Regulation 814.8. One of the allottees, the Estate of Arturo Lluberas y Sobrinos, has notified the Department in writing that it will be unable to fill its 1952 allotment by an amount of 1,035 short tons of sugar, raw value. The Central Aguirre Sugar Company, a trust, and Western Sugar Refining Company have notified the Department in writing that they are not in a position to ship more than their original allotments. The other two allottees have notified the Department that they will be able to fill more than their original allotments during the calendar year 1952. In order to afford interested parties an opportunity to market the full amount of that portion of the Puerto Rican sugar quota which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, it is necessary to reallot the quantity released.

Since section 205 (a) of the act requires that any amendment or revision of an allotment order be made on the same basis as the original allotment, the Department has asked for and obtained from each of the interested parties a waiver of its right to a public hearing in regard to the amendment made herein. A quantity equal to that released, less five tons, is added proportionately to the allotments of the Central Roig Refining Company and the Porto Rican American Refinery, Inc. The five tons is added to the allotment of Central Aguirre Sugar Company, a trust, to make it equal the outturn weight, in raw value, of sugar already shipped.

In order to afford interested parties adequate opportunity to ship the additional sugar allotted herein, and to protect the interest of consumers of sugar, it is essential that the revised allotments be made effective as soon as possible. Accordingly, it is hereby found that compliance with the effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest and this amendment shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by section 205 (a) of the Sugar Act of 1948, paragraph (a) of § 814.8 (17 F. R. 2480) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 814.8 Allotment of the direct-consumption portion of 1952 sugar quota for Puerto Rico—(a) Allotments. The direct-consumption portion of the 1952 sugar quota for Puerto Rico (126,033 short tons, raw value) is hereby allotted as follows:

Refiner	Direct consumption allotment (short tons, raw value)
Arturo Lluberas, Estate of, y Sobrinos	224
Central Aguirre Sugar Co., a trust	5,787
Central Roig Refining Co	20,170
Porto Rican American Refinery, Inc	79,728
Western Sugar Refining Co	19,591
Total	125,500
Unallotted Reserve for marketing of raw sugar for direct consumption	533
	126,033

(Sec. 205, 61 Stat. 926; 7 U. S. C. Sup. 1115)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Orange Reg. 225]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.596 Orange Regulation 225—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than November 17, 1952. Shipments of oranges, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until November 17, 1952; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to November 16 was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on November 11; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time of this section, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of oranges; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of the persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 17, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., December 1, 1952, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet; or

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than $2^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit, except that a tolerance of 10 percent, by count, of oranges smaller than such minimum size shall be permitted, which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerances, specified in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges (§ 51.302 of this title; 17 F. R. 7879): Provided, That in determining the percentage of oranges in any lot which are smaller than $2^{10}/_{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on those oranges in such lot which are of a size $2^{1}/_{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller.

(2) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 17, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 31, 1953, no handler shall ship any Temple oranges, grown in Regulation Area I or Regulation Area II, which grade U. S. No. 2 Russet, U. S. No. 3, or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade

(3) As used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall each have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the term "U. S. No. 1 Russet" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Oranges (§ 51.302 of this title; 17 F. R. 7879).

[Grapefruit Reg. 170]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.597 Grapefruit Regulation 170—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than November 17, 1952. Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until November 17, 1952; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to November 16, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on November 11; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time of this section, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 17, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., December 1, 1952, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit of any variety, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2;

(ii) Any seeded grapefruit, other than pink grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 70 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(iii) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(iv) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "variety," and "ship" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "U. S. No. 2," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit (§ 51.193 of this title; 17 F. R. 7408).

[Tangerine Reg. 127]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.598 Tangerine Regulation 127—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of tangerines, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than November 17, 1952. Shipments of tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, are presently subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, and will so continue until November 17, 1952; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to November 16 was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on November 11; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time of this section, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such tangerines; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of tangerines; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date of this section.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., November 17, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., December 1, 1952, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, that do not grade at least U. S. No. 2; or

(ii) Any tangerines, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than the size that will pack 210 tangerines, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a half-standard box (inside dimensions $9\frac{1}{2} \times 9\frac{1}{2} \times 19\frac{1}{8}$ inches; capacity 1,726 cubic inches).

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "U. S. No. 2," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Florida Tangerines (§ 51.417 of this title; 17 F. R. 8377).

[Lemon Reg. 461]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.568 Lemon Regulation 461—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified in this section was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on November 12, 1952; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time of this section.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 16, 1952, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 23, 1952, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 207 carloads;

(iii) District 3: 13 carloads.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2" and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

PART 989—RAISINS PRODUCED FROM RAISIN VARIETY GRAPES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

APPROVAL OF MINIMUM GRADE REQUIREMENTS FOR PROCESSED RAISINS

Notice was published in the September 24, 1952, issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 8519) that the Secretary of Agriculture was considering approval of proposed superseding minimum grade requirements for processed raisins, which were submitted for his approval by the Raisin Administrative Committee in accordance with the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 109 and Order No. 89 (17 F. R. 1255, 1555) regulating the handling of raisins produced from raisin variety grapes grown in California. The said marketing agreement and order are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). In the notice it was stated that the proposed minimum grade requirements for processed raisins will, if they are made effective, supersede the minimum grade requirements for processed raisins now set forth as Exhibit B (§ 989.97) to Marketing Agreement No. 109 and Order No. 89. It was stated, also, it is contemplated that a conforming change will be made in § 989.201 (a) (3) of this part, in which there are set forth the companion minimum grade requirements for natural condition raisins, in that the words therein reading "and to meet the minimum grade requirements set forth in § 989.97 (Exhibit B)" will be changed to read "and to meet the minimum grade requirements set forth in § 989.205 of this part."

In said notice, opportunity was afforded all interested persons to file any data, views, or arguments with respect to the proposed minimum grade requirements. No such data, views, or arguments were filed within the period provided therefor.

After consideration of all relevant matters pertaining thereto, it is concluded by me on behalf of the Secretary of Agriculture that the superseding minimum grade requirements for processed raisins set forth in the aforesaid notice, revised so as to clarify their meaning and to correct minor and obvious discrepancies, should be, and they hereby are, approved. In addition, it is concluded by me on behalf of the Secretary of Agriculture that present § 989.201 of this part should be, and it hereby is, amended to include the conforming change in paragraph (a) (3) as aforesaid.

1. Said § 989.201, with the indicated revision of paragraph (a) (3) thereof, is as follows:

§ 989.201 Minimum grade requirements for natural condition raisins. The minimum grade requirements for natural condition raisins are as follows:

(a) Natural condition raisins shall have been prepared from mature grapes properly dried and cured and shall meet the following requirements:

(1) Shall be practically free from damage by sugaring, infestation, mold, imbedded dirt, or other foreign matter, fermentation, or mechanical or other similar damage.

(2) Shall be reasonably free from immature (skinny) raisins and shall have a normal characteristic color, flavor and odor of properly prepared raisins.

(3) The moisture content shall not exceed 16 percent, as determined by Dried Fruit Moisture Tester Method, and the raisins shall be of such quality and condition as can be expected to withstand storage as provided in the Marketing Agreement and Order (§§ 989.1 to 989.97), and to meet the minimum grade requirements set forth in § 989.205 after normal processing operations.

2. The above-mentioned superseding minimum grade requirements for processed raisins for future use in lieu of the minimum grade requirements for processed raisins set forth in Exhibit B (§ 989.97) to the said marketing agreement and order are as follows:

§ 989.205 Minimum grade requirements for processed raisins[1]—(a) Definitions—(1) Processed raisins. Processed raisins are dried grapes of the Vinifera varieties—Thompson Seedless (Sultanina), Muscat of Alexandria, Muscatel Gordo Blanco, Sultana, Black Corinth, or White Corinth—which have been properly stemmed, capstemmed, and cleaned.

(b) Types and varieties. (1) Type I—Thompson Seedless (Sultanina):

(i) Unbleached (natural or sun-dried);

(ii) Sulfur Bleached and Golden Bleached;

(iii) Soda Dipped.

(2) Type II—Muscat:

(i) Seeded (seeds removed);

(ii) Unseeded (loose);

(iii) Soda Dipped Unseeded (Valencia).

(3) Type III—Sultana.

(4) Type IV—Zante Currants:

(i) Black Zante (Black Corinth);

(ii) White Zante (White Corinth).

(c) Moisture content. (1) Muscat Seeded raisins shall contain not more than 19 percent, by weight, of moisture. All other processed raisins shall contain not more than 18 percent, by weight, of moisture.

(d) Minimum requirements for varietal types—(1) Thompson Seedless raisins. Thompson Seedless raisins shall possess similar varietal characteristics, possess a fairly good typical color in unbleached and Soda Dipped raisins and fairly well-bleached color (or extra choice color) in Sulfur Bleached and Golden Bleached raisins, possess a fairly good flavor, show development characteristic of raisins prepared from fairly well-matured grapes, and meet the following additional requirements:

(i) Not more than 35 capstems and not more than three pieces of stem per pound of raisins may be present;

(ii) Not more than three percent, by weight, of raisins may be poorly developed, blowovers;

(iii) Not more than five percent, by weight, of raisins may be damaged;

(iv) Not more than 15 percent, by weight, of raisins may be visibly sugared; and

(v) Not more than five percent, by weight, of raisins may be affected by mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation (no live insects are permitted), imbedded dirt, or other foreign material: Provided, That not more than two percent, by weight, may be affected by decay.

(2) Muscat raisins. Muscat raisins shall possess similar varietal characteristics, possess a fairly good typical color with not more than 20 percent, by weight, of raisins consisting of dark reddish-brown berries in Muscat Soda Dipped Unseeded (Valencia) raisins, possess a fairly good flavor, show development characteristic of raisins prepared from fairly well-matured grapes, and meet the following additional requirements:

(i) Not more than 20 capstems and not more than three pieces of stem per pound of raisins may be present;

(ii) Not more than 20 seeds per pound of raisins in Muscat Seeded raisins may be present;

(iii) Not more than three percent, by weight, of raisins may be poorly developed, blowovers;

(iv) Not more than five percent, by weight, of raisins may be damaged;

(v) Not more than 15 percent, by weight, of raisins may be visibly sugared; and

(vi) Not more than five percent, by weight, of raisins may be affected by mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation (no live insects permitted), imbedded dirt, or other foreign material: Provided, That not more than two percent, by weight, may be affected by decay.

(3) Sultana raisins. Sultana raisins shall possess similar varietal characteristics, possess a fairly good typical color, possess a fairly good flavor, show development characteristic of raisins prepared from fairly well-matured grapes, and meet the following additional requirements:

[1] The minimum grade requirements with respect to the color of Sulfur Bleached and Golden Bleached Thompson Seedless raisins are those specified for "Fairly well-bleached color" or ("Extra Choice Color") in United States Standards for Grades of Processed Raisins (§ 52.608 of this title), effective May 26, 1952. The remaining minimum grade requirements, including those with respect to moisture content, are those specified in the said United States Standards for Grades of Processed Raisins, with respect to U. S. Grade C for raisins other than Zante Currants, and in United States Standards for Grades of Dried Currants (§ 52.288 of this title), effective October 20, 1952, with respect to U. S. Grade B for Zante Currants.

(i) Not more than 65 capstems and not more than three pieces of stem per pound of raisins may be present;

(ii) Not more than three percent, by weight, of raisins may be poorly developed, blowovers;

(iii) Not more than five percent, by weight, of raisins may be damaged;

(iv) Not more than 15 percent, by weight, of raisins may be visibly sugared; and

(v) Not more than five percent, by weight, of raisins may be affected by mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation (no live insects are permitted), imbedded dirt, or other foreign material: Provided, That not more than two percent, by weight, may be affected by decay.

(4) Zante Currant raisins. Zante Currant raisins shall possess similar varietal characteristics, possess a reasonably good typical color, possess a good characteristic flavor, show development characteristic of dried currants prepared from reasonably well-matured grapes, and meet the following additional requirements:

(i Not more than three pieces of stem per pound of dried currants may be present;

(ii) Not more than two percent, by weight, of dried currants may possess capstems;

(iii) Not more than two percent, by weight, of dried currants may be poorly developed, blowovers;

(iv) Not more than three percent, by weight, of dried currants may be damaged;

(v) Not more than 10 percent, by weight, of dried currants may be visibly sugared; and

(vi) Not more than two percent, by weight, of dried currants may be affected by mold, decay, fermentation, insect infestation (no live insects are permitted), imbedded dirt, or other foreign material: Provided, That not more than one percent, by weight, of dried currants may be affected by decay.

(e) Explanation of terms. (1) "Capstems" means small woody stems exceeding one-eighth inch in length which attach the raisins to the branches of the bunch. A currant for each capstem which is not attached to a currant is included and weighed with "currants with capstems" in ascertaining compliance with the allowance permitted.

(2) A "piece of stem" means a portion of the branch or main stem.

(3) "Seeds" refers to the whole, fully developed seeds which have not been removed during the processing of Muscat Seeded raisins.

(4) "Poorly developed, blowovers" refers to raisins (berries) other than Zante Currants that are immature, contain practically no flesh, are very light in weight, and have very coarse wrinkles. With respect to Zante Currants, the term refers to currants that are immature or hard, contain practically no flesh, are very light in weight, and have very coarse wrinkles.

(5) "Damaged" raisins means raisins affected by insect injury or injury from sunburn, scars, mechanical or other means which seriously affects the appearance, edibility, keeping quality, or shipping quality of the raisins. In Muscat Seeded raisins, mechanical injury resulting from normal seeding operations is not considered damage.

(6) "Visibly sugared" means the accumulation of crystallized fruit sugars in the flesh of the raisin or on the surface which is readily apparent.

(7) "Mold" means mold filaments or spores (often characterized by a condition wherein the skin of the raisin appears to have been dissolved, leaving a slimy or sticky appearance, and often resulting in a positive reaction when submerged in a three percent hydrogen peroxide solution).

(8) "Affected by insect infestation" means that the raisins show the presence of insects, insect fragments, or excreta. No live insects are permitted.

(9) "Fairly well-bleached color" (or "Extra Choice color") in Sulfur Bleached and Golden Bleached Thompson Seedless raisins means that the raisins are fairly uniform in color and may range from yellow or greenish yellow to amber or light greenish amber and that not more than six percent, by weight, of all the raisins may be definitely dark berries. "Definitely dark berries" means raisins which are definitely darker than dark amber and characteristic of naturally "raisined" grapes.

(f) Effective time and supersedure. The minimum grade requirements for processed raisins set forth in this section shall become effective on the date of the publication of this section in the FEDERAL REGISTER and thereupon shall supersede the minimum grade requirements for processed raisins set forth in Exhibit B (§ 989.97) to Marketing Agreement No. 109 and Order No. 89 of this part.

It is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for not postponing the effective time of § 989.201, as amended, and § 989.205 for 30 days, or any lesser period, after publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER (see sec. 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.), in that: (1) Handlers already have acquired substantial quantities of raisins since the beginning of the 1952–53 crop year; (2) the minimum grade requirements are applicable to the reserve and surplus portions of handlers' acquisitions of raisins when such tonnages are delivered to the Raisin Administrative Committee or any person designated by it; (3) it is necessary to have the new minimum grade requirements in effect before reserve or surplus tonnage raisins are delivered to the committee to prevent two different sets of requirements applying during the same crop year; and (4) handlers will have adequate time to make any preparation they may need to comply with § 989.201, as amended, and § 989.205 after such sections are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and before they are required to deliver reserve or surplus tonnage raisins. In these circumstances, this document must be made effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of November 1952, to become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Director,
Fruit and Vegetable Branch.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 22, Supplementary Regulation 6, Revision 1, Amdt. 2]

CPR 22—MANUFACTURERS' GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

SR 6—CEILING PRICES FOR MANUFACTURERS FOR THE SALE OF PAINTS, VARNISHES, AND LACQUERS

POSTPONEMENT OF EFFECTIVE DATE; DELETION OF ARTISTS' OILS AND WATER COLORS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 2 to Revision 1 of Supplementary Regulation 6 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment further postpones the effective date of SR 6, Revision 1, to December 15, 1952. Amendment 1 to the Revision previously postponed the effective date from October 13 to November 13, 1952. The considerations for that action are equally applicable in this instance.

This amendment also removes from the revision reference to artists' oils and water colors. These commodities were exempted from price control by virtue of the issuance of Amendment 4 to GOR 5, Revision 1.

Due to the nature of this amendment, special circumstances have made consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 6, Revision 1, to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2, paragraph (a) is amended by deleting subparagraph (7) which reads "(7) Artists' oils and water colors;"

2. The last paragraph of the regulation (effective date) is amended to read as follows:

Effective date. The effective date of this supplementary regulation is December 15, 1952, or such earlier date between August 13, 1952, and December 15, 1952, as you may select. If you select such earlier date, this supplementary regulation becomes effective as to you upon that date for all your commodities covered by this supplementary regulation.

This Amendment 2 to Supplementary Regulation 6, Revision 1, is effective November 13, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Amdt. 12 to Supplementary Regulation 13]

GCPR, SR 13—COKE, COAL CHEMICALS AND COKE OVEN GAS

EXTENSION OF ADJUSTABLE PRICING

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 12 to Supplementary Regulation 13 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Supplementary Regulation 13 provides for an extension of 15 days in the adjustable pricing period granted by Amendment 11, effective October 1, 1952.

Since the issuance of Amendment 11, a survey of the by-product coke oven industry has been completed and it has been determined that the industry is entitled to relief under the Industry Earnings Standard.

Owing to the complexity of the industry, additional time is required to permit the agency to prepare the necessary amendment to SR 13 granting the relief. This will take the form of an overall adjustment on ceiling prices of coke and coal chemicals produced in by-product coke ovens, plus a pass-through on the increased delivered cost of coal. Producers will be permitted to allocate 70 percent of the allowable increase to coke and 30 percent to coal chemicals, subject to a maximum limitation on the increase in price on any one product.

In the formulation of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

So far as practicable, the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the National effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Supplementary Regulation 13 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation, as amended is further amended in the following respect:

Section 9 is amended by substituting the date "November 27, 1952" in place of "November 12, 1952", so that that section will read as follows:

SEC. 9. Adjustable pricing. From September 29, 1952, to November 27, 1952, inclusive, producers and distributors of coke subject to Supplementary Regulation 13 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation, are authorized to sell or agree to sell coke at prices not in excess of ceiling prices at the time of delivery, but by agreement between seller and buyer, such prices may be subject to adjustment upwards retroactively to the date of such agreement, in accordance with such order or orders which the Director of Price Stabilization may issue subsequent hereto.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective November 13, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 179]

CPR 179—FORGINGS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes ceiling prices for ferrous and non-ferrous forgings. All sales of rough forgings upon which no further operations have been performed except basic cleaning, sizing, trimming, coining, rough drilling, and rough grinding and machining only for the purpose of inspecting or cleaning, are covered by this regulation. Also covered are sales of forgings which have been finished by heat treating, welding, machining, plating, or other similar operations to meet the buyer's specifications. Forgings which are components, repair parts, or subassemblies of a machine sold by the manufacturer of the machine are not subject to this regulation.

The products covered by this regulation are used as component parts in tanks, guns, and other weapons; in automobiles, trucks, motorcycles, tractors, machine tools, and aircraft; in road building, construction and railroad equipment; in the electrical, shipbuilding, mechanical, and heavy industries; in agricultural, household and industrial machinery of all kinds; and in many articles used by individual consumers. Most of the products are "tailor made" to fit the requirements of the individual customer. They are made from many different metals and alloys by a number of different processes; they may be relatively simple or highly intricate in design; and their weight may be measured in terms of ounces or tons. Although a few large producers of automotive and railroad equipment and industrial machinery own plants in which they produce forgings for their own use, most firms are engaged principally or solely in the business of producing forgings for sale. These range in size from one hammer shops to large companies with many millions of dollars in assets and several thousands of employees.

Because of the many different kinds of commodities in which the products covered by this regulation are used and the fact that their cost is generally an important element in the total cost of producing such commodities, their prices have a direct impact upon the cost of the defense program and seriously affect the cost of living, and it is imperative that such prices be kept from rising to unreasonable levels. It is equally important however, that this price regulation does not hinder the production of forgings essential to the defense program or the civilian economy.

Ceiling prices for forgings were first established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation and later by Ceiling Price Regulation 30. At present producers of forgings have the option of pricing under either GCPR or CPR 30. However, the provisions of these regulations are not well adapted to the traditional formula pricing technique prevailing in this industry. Since only slight changes in specifications will often require substantially different methods of production and marked changes in costs the "comparison commodity" pricing methods of GCPR cannot be used with facility and it is difficult for manufacturers of these products to determine their material and labor costs under CPR 30.

Ceiling prices for forgings which are the same as a forging which was included on a published price list in effect on January 25, 1951, are established by adjusting the prices on the price list to reflect changes in metal costs to July 30, 1951, and to reflect labor costs in effect on March 15, 1951. Ceiling prices for forgings which are merely modifications of forgings included on a base date price list are to be determined by adjusting the price for the unmodified forging to reflect the net increase or decrease, in labor and metals costs resulting from the change in design or specifications. Most forgings producers, however, ordinarily use a formula in pricing their products. They are required to use the formula which they had in effect on January 25, 1951, as the basis for determining their ceiling prices using the March 15, 1951, labor and July 30, 1951, metal cut-off dates. Producers of non-ferrous forgings who do their own alloying must determine their metal cost factor by using the ceiling price for the metal involved established as of July 30, 1951 by the applicable OPS regulation.

When the formula pricing method is used, a producer, in calculating the ceiling price for forgings which are the same as a forging which was produced within thirty days prior to the effective date of the regulation, must use his actual production experience in determining the time and material required. For forgings which are not the same as one produced within thirty days prior to the effective date of this regulation he may use estimates of time and material but the ceiling price must be recomputed after completion of the first order or after thirty days on the basis of actual production experience. If standard rates or factors are used, the recomputation procedure is optional but if any price which has been determined by using standard rates and factors is recomputed all such prices must be recomputed.

The regulation exempts from price control producers whose total net sales of forgings in 1951 did not exceed $100,000 and it provides for exemption, upon application, for any producer whose total net sales fall below that figure in any year subsequent to 1951. Any producer so exempted will be automatically subject to the pricing provisions of the regulation if his total net sales of forgings in any calendar quarter ending after December 31, 1951, rise above $30,000. The total output of forgings of the firms thus affected is extremely small in relation to the total production of forgings and the benefits derived from imposing ceiling prices on their sales would be slight in relation to the administrative burden involved.

This regulation does not permit producers of forgings to reflect recent increases in outbound transportation costs, since, according to information presently available to OPS, it is the practice in the industry to sell forgings f. o. b. the producer's plant. If however, this is not the fact and some producers have customarily sold on a delivered basis and therefore, must absorb increases in outbound transportation costs, consideration will be given to modifying this regulation to permit such producers to adjust their prices to reflect these increases.

The level of ceiling prices under this regulation will not differ substantially from that prevailing under GCPR or CPR 30 but producers will be relieved of the burdensome task of computing ceiling prices in a manner not in keeping with their customary procedures.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this ceiling price regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability. In the judgment of the Director the provisions of this regulation comply with all of the requirements with respect to the establishment of ceiling prices set forth in the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

In the formulation of this regulation there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

In particular, the Director has consulted at several meetings with the Industry Advisory Committees with respect to the trade practices and the coverage of this regulation and has, in general, adopted the recommendations of the committees.

The provisions of this ceiling price regulation and their effect upon business practices, cost practices, or means or aids to distribution in the industry have been considered. It is believed that no changes in such practices or methods have been effected. To the extent, however, that the provisions of this regulation may operate to compel changes in such practices or methods, such provisions are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the regulation and effectuate the policies of the Act.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does—(a) Commodities covered. (1) This regulation establishes ceiling prices which you may charge for forgings. The term "forgings" as used in this regulation means any ferrous or non-ferrous metal product formed by the use of power-hammers, presses, upsetters or forging machines upon which no further operations are performed, except basic cleaning, trimming, sizing, coining, rough grinding, and rough drilling or machining only for the purpose of inspecting or cleaning. It also includes any such product which has been further finished by heat treating, welding, machining, plating or other similar operations to meet the buyer's specifications. It does not include forgings which are components, repair parts or subassemblies of a machine when sold by the manufacturer of that machine.

(2) This regulation also establishes the ceiling prices you may charge for equipment which you furnish in connection with forgings sold by you.

(b) Persons and transactions covered. (1) This regulation applies to all sales of ferrous or non-ferrous forgings, including export sales and sales for export, and to all sales of equipment furnished in connection with forgings except as provided in section 2 (Exemptions).

(2) This regulation also applies to any person who in the regular course of trade or business purchases forgings covered by this regulation.

(c) Geographical coverage. This regulation applies in the 48 states of the United States, the District of Columbia and Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

SEC. 2. Exemptions—(a) Based on total net sales. (1) If your total net sales of forgings during the calendar year 1951 did not exceed $100,000 you need not determine ceiling prices for your sales of forgings under the provisions of this or any other regulation heretofore or hereafter issued by OPS. However, you must preserve the records relating to forgings which you were required to keep pursuant to the General Ceiling Price Regulation or CPR 30.

(2) The exemption granted in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph will automatically terminate if your total net sales of forgings during any calendar quarter ending after December 31, 1951, exceed $30,000 and on and after the 15th of the month following the end of such quarter you must comply with all of the provisions of the regulation. You may, however, at any time thereafter file an application for exemption in accordance with subparagraph (3) of this paragraph.

(3) Applications for exemption. If your total net sales of forgings during any calendar year beginning after December 31, 1951, do not exceed $100,000, you may file an application for exemption from price control with respect to your sales for forgings. You need not make such application if your sales of forgings are exempt from price control pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and such exemption has not been terminated pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. Any such application must be signed by an authorized person and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., and must contain the following information: Your name and address; the location of your plant; a description of the kind of forgings produced by you; and your total net sales of forgings during the calendar year involved.

The OPS may grant an exemption pursuant to this paragraph by letter order and will provide that any exemption so granted will terminate, or be terminated, in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(b) Sales pursuant to short orders. You are exempt from the provisions of this regulation and any other ceiling price regulation heretofore or hereafter issued by the Office of Price Stabilization to the extent that you sell forgings pursuant to any order for a particular forging which order requires less than eight forging hours producing time and for which your selling prices does not exceed $1,000: Provided, That, if after the effective date of this regulation, the total amount which you charge during any calendar quarter beginning on or after September 30, 1952, for forgings sold pursuant to such short orders equals the highest total amount which you charged for such sales during any calendar quarter in the year 1950, the exemption set forth herein shall not apply to any of your subsequent sales during the calendar quarter involved.

SEC. 3. General pricing provisions; Metals costs. This section sets forth the provisions for calculating metal costs in establishing your ceiling prices for forgings pursuant to sections 4 and 5 of this regulation. Unless you are a producer of non-ferrous forgings doing your own alloying, you must determine your ceiling prices for forgings on the basis of metal costs on July 30, 1951 and you must calculate such metal costs in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

(a) Optional methods. In calculating metal costs, you may (unless you are a producer of non-ferrous forgings doing your own alloying) elect to use either a weighted average cost of all metal of the same type and grade as that from which the forging being priced is to be produced received during the 90 day period immediately preceding July 30, 1951, or a cost calculated on the basis of the last delivery of metal of the same type or grade which you received prior to such date. If you elect to use a weighted average cost, you must determine that cost in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. If you elect to use the metal cost calculated on the "last delivery" basis, you must do so in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. You must, however, use the same method of calculating metal costs for all forgings produced by you and you may not change your method after you have made the election permitted herein and have put the regulation into effect.

(1) Weighted average cost basis. In calculating a weighted average metal cost you must observe the following rules:

(i) You must use the prices shown on the invoices covering deliveries to your plant of all metal of the same type and grade as that from which the forging being priced is to be produced from your usual sources of supply during the 90 day period immediately preceding July 30, 1951. If you did not receive any such delivery of the metal to be used in the forging being priced, you may use the the highest price published during the period in a recognized trade journal and applicable to deliveries to your plant from your usual sources of supply for the quantity of metal required to produce the number of forgings being priced. You may not, however, include in your weighted average cost any price in excess of the ceiling price established by the applicable OPS regulation in effect on July 30, 1951.

(ii) If on January 25, 1951, you customarily included transportation costs as part of your metal costs, you may include transportation costs actually paid by you in connection with the deliveries referred to in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph or, in the case of a metal which you did not receive, the transportation costs which you would have had to pay if you had received delivery in the period involved.

(2) Last delivery basis. In calculating the metal cost on a "last delivery" basis, you must observe the following rules:

(i) You must use the price shown on the invoice covering the last delivery to your plant of metal of the same type and grade as that from which the forging being priced is to be produced from your usual sources of supply during the 90 day period immediately preceding July 30, 1951. If you did not receive during such period any such delivery of the metal to be used in the forging being priced, you may use the highest price published during the period in a recognized trade journal and applicable to deliveries to your plant from your usual source of supply for the quantity of metal necessary to produce the number of forgings being priced. You may not, however, use any price in excess of the ceiling price established by the applicable OPS regulation, if any, in effect on July 30, 1951.

(ii) If on January 25, 1951, you customarily included transportation costs as part of your metal costs, you may include transportation costs actually paid by you in connection with the deliveries referred to in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph or, in the case of a metal which you did not receive, the transportation cost which you would have had to pay if you had received delivery in the period involved.

(b) Non-ferrous forgers doing their own alloying. If you are a producer of non-ferrous forgings and you do your own alloying, in calculating your metal cost factor for non-ferrous forgings you must use the ceiling price for the metal involved (i. e. the ingot, billet, rod or other basic shape from which the forging is made), established as of July 30, 1951 by the aplicable OPS regulation. In determining such ceiling price, you must assume that you purchased the metal involved at one time in the quantity necessary to produce the number of forgings ordered by your customer.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices for forgings determined by using base date price lists. This section sets forth provisions for determining your ceiling prices for price list forgings and modified price list forgings. A "price list forging" is one which is the same as a forging which was included on a price list issued by you before January 25, 1951, and which you had in effect on that date. A "modified price list forging" is one which has the same basic design and specifications as a price list forging and which is intended to serve substantially the same purpose, but which nevertheless differs in some respect from such price list forging.

(a) Price list forgings. (1) Your ceiling price for a price list forging is the applicable price set forth on your price list in effect on January 25, 1951, adjusted in accordance with subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph. If your base date price list sets forth only a charge for conversion to which you customarily added a factor for metal in pricing a forging, your ceiling price is the applicable charge on your base date price list, adjusted in accordance with subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, plus a factor for metal determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) (iii) of this paragraph. You must also comply with paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) The applicable price shown on your base date price list must be adjusted to reflect the changes in your cost of the metal to be used in the forging being priced between the date of issuance of such price list and July 30, 1951. These changes must be made in accordance with the practice customarily followed by you in changing your prices to reflect changes in metal costs and must be calculated as follows:

(i) Determine the metal cost factor included in the price on your base date price list by using metal costs as of the date of issuance of your base date price list calculated in accordance with paragraph (a) of section 3 of this regulation using the 90 day period prior to, or the last delivery before the date of issuance of your base date price list in lieu of the 90 day period prior to, or the last delivery before July 30, 1951. If, however, you are a producer of non-ferrous forgings and do your own alloying, determine the metal cost factor on the basis of the price for the metal involved which you used in calculating the price on your price list.

(ii) Subtract the amount determined in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph from the price set forth on your base date price list.

(iii) Determine a new metal cost factor by using metal costs as of July 30, 1951, calculated in accordance with paragraph (a) of section 3 of this regulation. If, however, you are a producer of non-ferrous forgings and do your own alloying, you must determine your new metal cost factor by using the ceiling price for the metal involved established as of July 30, 1951, by the applicable OPS regulation. In determining such ceiling price you must assume that you purchased the metal involved at one time in the quantity necessary to produce the number of forgings ordered by your customer.

(iv) Add the amount determined in accordance with subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph to the result of the calculation in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(3) If the applicable price on your price list is based upon labor rates higher than those which were in effect in your plant on March 15, 1951, you must adjust the price to reflect the labor rates which were in effect on that date. If the applicable price on your price list is based on labor rates lower than those which were in effect in your plant on March 15, 1951, you may adjust the price to reflect the labor rates which were in effect on that date. You must make any adjustment pursuant to this subparagraph in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951, but you may not include any increases in labor rates occurring after March 15, 1951, and you must use the same ratio of overtime to straight time hours you used in calculating the labor cost factor included in the price on your price list.

(b) Modified price list forgings. (1) Your ceiling price for a modified price list forging is the price determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, for the unmodified price list forging, adjusted to reflect any increase or decrease in cost resulting from the change in design or specification. You must calculate such change in cost in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph. You must also comply with paragraph (c) of this section.

(2) To calculate the change in cost resulting from the modification in design or specification you must:

(i) Determine the increase or decrease in direct labor costs resulting from such modification on the basis of the labor rates in effect in your plant on March 15, 1951.

(ii) Determine the increase or decrease in metal costs resulting from such modification on the basis of the price paid by you as shown on the last delivery to you prior to July 30, 1951. This price may not exceed the ceiling price established in the applicable OPS regulation. You may include any transportation cost, on a per unit basis, paid by you in connection with such delivery.

(iii) Add or subtract the net increase or decrease in costs to or from the price as determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, for the unmodified price list forging.

(c) Extras, discounts, and terms. The ceiling price determined in accordance with this section must be adjusted to reflect any applicable extra charges, quantity discounts, or class of purchaser differentials which you had in effect on January 25, 1951, and must carry all delivery terms, cash discounts, guarantees and servicing terms, and other applicable conditions of sale which you had in effect on that date.

SEC. 5. Formula prices. If you cannot determine your ceiling price for a forging under section 4 of this regulation, your ceiling price is the price determined in accordance with the formula which your written records show you had in effect on January 25, 1951, for calculating the price for the same or similar forging by the same production method in the same plant. You must apply your formula in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951, and you must use the same overhead rates, rates for general administrative and selling expense, profit markup, risk factors, discounts and allowances and any other basis of computing prices by relation to costs that were in use in the same forge shop on that date. You must not include any costs which you did not customarily include in pricing forgings and you must calculate the various factors entering into your ceiling price in accordance with the following provisions of this section.

(a) Metal costs—(1) Metal cost factor. You must calculate the metal cost factor in exactly the same manner you would have on January 25, 1951, but you must use metal costs determined in accordance with paragraphs, (a) or (b) of section 3, whichever is applicable.

(2) Scrap allowance. You must calculate the allowance for scrap in exactly the same manner you would have on January 25, 1951 using the ceiling prices for the scrap involved established as of July 30, 1951 by the applicable OPS regulation.

(b) Labor costs. You must calculate the labor cost factor in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951, by using the straight time and overtime rates for each class of labor in effect in your plant on March 15, 1951. If you customarily used machine hour, per piece, or average rates in pricing forgings you must use the same method. You may not change your method of classifying labor as direct or indirect. If your base date formula contained a labor cost factor including both straight time and overtime labor, you must calculate your labor cost factor by using the same ratio of overtime to straight time hours reflected in your base date formula, and you may not include any increase in labor costs resulting from an increase in the number of overtime hours in excess of the amount computed by using the ratio of overtime to straight time hours reflected in your base date formula. If your base date formula included separate factors for straight time and overtime labor, you may not include any increases in labor costs resulting from an increase in number of overtime hours in excess of an amount computed by using the ratio of overtime hours to straight time hours reflected in your payroll for the four full pay periods immediately preceding the base date.

(c) Other production material costs. You must calculate other material cost factors in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951. You may not, however, include any increase in such costs occurring after March 15, 1951.

(d) Additional operations and subcontracted services. (1) If in connection with forgings produced by you, you perform additional operations (including but not limited to die work, machining, galvanizing and plating), you may include in your ceiling price a factor for any such operation which you actually perform. Such factor must be determined in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951, using metal costs determined in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b) of section 3, whichever is applicable, and labor costs as of March 15, 1951.

(2) If you subcontract any service (including but not limited to die work, machining, galvanizing, or plating), you may include a factor for such costs in determining your ceiling price. Such factor must be determined in exactly the same manner employed by you on January 25, 1951. You may use the price paid by you for any subcontracted service provided it does not exceed the ceiling price established by the applicable OPS regulation.

(e) Forgings for which you have previous production experience. In determining the ceiling price for a forging which is the same as a forging you produced during the period October 20, 1952, to the effective date of this regulation, you must apply your formula in accordance with the provisions of this section on the basis of your actual production experience for that forging. The resulting ceiling price is applicable to all of your subsequent sales of the same forging to a purchaser of the same class. Your ceiling price for the other classes of purchasers is determined by adjusting this ceiling price to reflect the differential between such classes of purchasers which you had in effect on January 25, 1951, as shown by your written records. An explanation of the terms "class of purchaser" and "purchaser of the same class" is found in Section 16 (Definitions).

(f) Forgings for which you do not have previous production experience—(1) Use of estimates. In determining a ceiling price for a forging which is not the same as any forging you produced during the period October 20, 1952, to the effective date of this regulation, you may apply your formula in accordance with the provisions of this section on the basis of estimates of the time and material which will be required. Such estimates must be made in accordance with your practice on January 25, 1951.

(2) Recomputation. You must recompute your ceiling price for any forging covered by this paragraph (f) in accordance with the following provisions.

(i) Recomputation must be made after completion of production of the first order or if such order involves production (other than production of samples or trial releases) extending over more than 30 calendar days, after completion of 30 days' production.

(ii) In recomputing your ceiling price, you must apply your formula on the basis of your actual experience in producing forgings for the first order or during the 30-day period described in subdivision (i) of this section. If it was your practice on January 25, 1951, to employ standard factors or rates for certain cost elements, you may use the same factors or rates in recomputing your ceiling price.

(iii) If it was your practice on January 25, 1951, to price your forgings by using standard rates or factors to develop average data with respect to time and material, and such rates or factors were developed from time studies or average experience over a period of more than three months, and if you used such factors in determining your ceiling price in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, you need not make the recomputation provided for herein, but you cannot recompute any ceiling price for a forging covered by this paragraph unless you recompute your ceiling prices for all such forgings. If, however, after completion of production for the first order you change the method of production or specifications of a particular forging, you must redetermine your ceiling price in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph on the basis of the changed operations.

(iv) The price resulting from the recomputation or recalculation provided for herein is your ceiling price for all subsequent sales or deliveries of the forgings involved after completion of production for the first order, or after completion of the 30 day period described in subdivision (i) of this paragraph.

(g) Extras, discounts, and terms. The ceiling price determined in accordance with this section must be adjusted to reflect any applicable extra charges, quantity discounts, or class of purchaser differentials which you had in effect on January 25, 1951, and must carry all delivery terms, cash discounts, guarantees and servicing terms, and other applicable conditions of sale which you had in effect on that date.

SEC. 6. Ceiling prices for equipment furnished in connection with the sale of forgings. This section sets forth the conditions under which you may charge a buyer for equipment (including but not limited to patterns, dies, tools, jigs, gauges or fixtures) furnished by you in connection with your sales of forgings and sets forth provisions for determining your ceiling price for such equipment.

(a) Conditions under which you may charge for equipment. You may charge a buyer for equipment furnished by you in connection with your sale of forgings only if:

(1) It was your practice on January 25, 1951, to charge a buyer for such equipment.

(2) You have not included any factor for such equipment in determining your ceiling price for forgings under section 4 or 5.

(3) You make such charge in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951 (i. e., as a flat sum or on a prorated basis) and you separately state the amount of such charge in billing the buyer; and

(4) You follow your practice as of January 25, 1951, with respect to retention or transfer of ownership of such equipment.

(b) Ceiling price. Your ceiling price for equipment furnished by you in connection with your sales of forgings is the price determined in accordance with the formula you had in effect on January 25, 1951, for pricing the same kind of equipment. You must apply such formula in exactly the same manner as you would have on January 25, 1951, using the rates for overhead or burden and profit you had in effect on that date. In calculating your ceiling price for equipment you may not include any elements which you would not have included on January 25, 1951, or any increases in metal costs occurring after July 30, 1951, or any increases in labor costs or production material costs (other than metal) occurring after March 15, 1951. Costs included in your formula for equipment purchased by you may not exceed the applicable OPS ceiling price for such equipment.

SEC. 7. Rounding. If it was your practice on January 25, 1951, to round your prices for forgings or for a particular type or class of forgings you may round the ceiling prices determined in accordance with the provisions of this regulation in accordance with your customary practice so that they will be expressed in the nearest cent or fraction of a cent you normally employ. If it was your practice on January 25, 1951, to round the prices of all your forgings and you elect to round the ceiling price of any forging you must similarly round the ceiling prices of all of your forgings to reflect decreases as well as increases. If, on the other hand, it was your practice on January 25, 1951, to round the prices of only a particular type or class of forgings and you elect to round the ceiling price of any forgings of that particular type or class you must round the ceiling prices of all forgings of that type or class to reflect decreases as well as increases. In no event may the increase resulting from rounding be greater than 2 percent of your ceiling price prior to rounding.

SEC. 8. Ceiling prices for new sellers. (a) If you are a producer of forgings who was not in business on January 25, 1951, (other than a transferee described in section 9), or if for any other reason you cannot otherwise determine a ceiling price for any transactions covered by this regulation, you must apply to OPS for approval of a ceiling price or pricing formula.

(1) Any application pursuant to this section must be signed by an authorized person and filed by registered mail with the Office of Price Stabilization, Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Washington 25, D. C., and must contain the following information: Your trade name and address; the location of the plant or plants in which the forging is to be made; a proposed ceiling price or pricing formula; a detailed statement of the factors used by you in establishing such price or formula and a statement of the reason why you are unable to determine a ceiling price under the provisions of this regulation.

(2) Any ceiling price or pricing formula established by OPS pursuant to this section will be in line with the ceiling prices or pricing formula otherwise established in this regulation.

(3) After receipt of an application pursuant to this section, OPS may approve or disapprove your proposed ceiling price or pricing formula, establish a different ceiling price or pricing formula, or request additional information. Pending any such action, you may sell the product or service covered by your application at your proposed ceiling price provided that you agree with the purchaser to refund the amount, if any, by which such price exceeds the ceiling price established by OPS. If OPS has not acted on your application within 30 days of the receipt thereof, your proposed ceiling price shall be deemed to be established for all deliveries made between the date you mailed your application to OPS and the date of any order issued by OPS disposing of your application.

(b) If you are required to file an application pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section and do not do so, OPS may issue an order establishing a ceiling price or pricing formula for you. Any ceiling price provided for by such order will be in line with the ceiling prices otherwise established in this regulation and will apply to all deliveries for which a ceiling price was not otherwise established by this regulation, including deliveries completed prior to the date of the order. The issuance of such an order will not relieve you of your obligation to comply with the requirements of this regulation or of the various penalties for your failure to do so.

SEC. 9. Transfers of business. If the business or assets of a producer of forgings are sold after the issuance of this regulation and the transferee carries on the production of forgings in the plant included in such transfer, the ceiling price of the transferee for forgings produced in such plant shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to, the transferee all records of the transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 10. Record-keeping requirements. (a) You must prepare and preserve for the life of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and for two years thereafter all records necessary to determine whether you have computed your ceiling prices correctly, including but not limited to:

(1) A copy of your price lists, if any, which you had in effect on January 25, 1951;

(2) Records showing your formulas, if any, in effect on January 25, 1951, and the formulas, if any, used in computing your ceiling prices under this regulation. Such records should include the factors used in applying such formulas and all appropriate work sheets and documents substantiating such factors; and

(3) Records showing the extra charges, quantity discounts, class of purchaser differentials, delivery terms, cash terms, guarantees and service terms, and other terms and conditions of sale which you had in effect on January 25, 1951.

(b) Every person making a sale of forgings and every person who in the regular course of business purchases forgings must keep for inspection by the Office of Price Stabilization, for a period of two years, accurate records of each such sale or purchase showing: The date thereof; the name and address of the seller and buyer; the quantity of forgings sold or purchased; the location of the plant in which the forgings were produced; the price charged or paid; the extras, if any, charged and paid; the price, if any, charged or paid for equipment furnished by you in connection with the sale of forgings; the terms of sale; and the amount of the outbound transportation charges, if any.

SEC. 11. Interpretations. If you want an official interpretation of this regulation, you should write the Division Counsel, Industrial Materials and Manufactured Goods Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C. Any action taken by you in reliance upon and in conformity with a written official interpretation will constitute action in good faith pursuant to this regulation. Further information on obtaining official interpretations is contained in Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revised.

SEC. 12. Excise, sales or similar taxes. Any person may collect, in addition to the ceiling prices established by this regulation, any excise, sales or similar tax imposed upon him by reason of his sales of forgings covered by this regulation if he is not prohibited by law from making such collection and if he states separately from his selling prices the amount of tax collected. However, if the tax was in effect on January 25, 1951, and you did not charge your customer for the tax on that date, you may not do so now.

SEC. 13. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation 1, Revised.

SEC. 14. Prohibitions. You shall not do any act prohibited or omit to do any act required by this regulation, nor shall you offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do or omit to do any such act. Specifically (but not in limitation of the above), you shall not, regardless of any contract or other obligation, sell or deliver, and no person in the regular course of trade or business shall buy or receive from you, at a price higher than the ceiling price established by this regulation, and you shall keep, make and preserve true and accurate records and reports, required by this regulation. If you violate any provisions of this regulation, you are subject to criminal penalties, enforcement action, and action for damages.

SEC. 15. Evasion. Any means or device which results in obtaining indirectly a higher price than is permitted by this regulation or in concealing or falsely representing information as to which this regulation requires records to be kept is a violation of this regulation. This prohibition includes, but is not limited to means or devices making use of commissions, services, cross sales, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, up-grading, division of orders, tie-in agreements, and trade understandings, as well as the omission from records of true data, and the inclusion in records of false data.

SEC. 16. Definitions. (a) "Class of purchaser or purchaser of the same class" refers to your own practice of setting different prices for sales to different purchasers or groups of purchasers. The practice may (but need not) be based on the characteristics or distributive level of the buyer. It may (but need not) be based on the location of the purchaser or the quantity purchased by him. If you have followed the practice of giving an individual customer a price different from that charged others, that customer is a separate class of purchaser.

(b) "Commodity" means any product which is covered by this regulation.

(c) "Formula" means the price determining and cost estimating methods which were in effect in your plant on January 25, 1951.

(d) "Director of Price Stabilization". This term also applies to any official (including officials of Regional or District Offices) to whom the Director of Price Stabilization by order delegates a function, power or authority referred to in this regulation.

(e) "OPS" means Office of Price Stabilization.

(f) "Sell" means sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, transfer and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The term "buy" and "purchase" are construed accordingly. Any reference in this regulation to a sale or purchase of a forging includes both transactions in which the person producing the forging furnishes the materials and those in which all or part of the materials are furnished by the purchaser.

(g) "You" means the person subject to this regulation. "Your" and "Yours" are construed accordingly.

(h) "Total Net Sales" means the total amount charged by you for forgings less returns and allowances.

(i) "Metal costs" means the cost of the metal used in producing a forging.

(j) "Other production material" means all material used or consumed in producing a forging other than metal.

(k) "Change in specifications" means any change in type or grade of material, in tests or inspections required, in physical form, machining or finish, or in quantity ordered or released.

(l) "Applicable OPS regulation" means the regulation issued by OPS establishing ceiling prices for the commodity referred to.

(m) "Base date" means January 25, 1951.

(n) "Factor" means the dollar-and-cents amount of any element used in determining a price.

(o) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or other government or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(p) "Usual source of supply" means a source from which you normally obtained metal in the quantities normally purchased by you. Any departure from your normal buying practices means that you did not obtain metal from your usual source of supply. Such a departure would include purchases of quantities smaller than those you normally purchased or contracted for, a delivery from a more distant or different class of supplier, or a change from a domestic to a foreign source.

(q) "Price list" means any document or letter setting forth dollars and cents prices, per pound or per piece, applicable to a particular or general category of forgings and on the basis of which you priced the forgings involved without reference to individual computation of production costs.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Effective date. This Ceiling Price Regulation 179 shall become effective November 19, 1952.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[Revised CMP Regulation 6, Direction 6 as amended November 14, 1952]

CMP REG. 6—CONSTRUCTION

DIR 6—THIRD AND FOURTH QUARTER AUTHORIZED CONTROLLED MATERIAL ORDERS

This direction as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the fomulation of this amended direction, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action and because the amendment affects many different industries.

EXPLANATORY

This amendment affects Direction 6, issued July 29, 1952, to Revised CMP Regulation No. 6 by amending sections 2, 3, and 4 thereof.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this direction does.
2. Third quarter authorized controlled material orders.
3. Fourth quarter authorized controlled material orders.
4. Applicability of other regulations and orders.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 4 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this direction does. The purpose of this direction is to permit the placement and acceptance of certain third quarter 1952 and fourth quarter 1952 authorized controlled material orders even though they call for delivery after the end of such quarters.

SEC. 2. Third quarter authorized controlled material order. (a) The provisions of this section apply to all authorized controlled material orders for the third calendar quarter of 1952 which are placed on and after the effective date of this direction.

(b) An authorized controlled material order for steel placed pursuant to an allotment for the third calendar quarter of 1952 which contains the quarterly identification 3Q52, or placed for delivery in the third calendar quarter of 1952 pursuant to the provisions relating to self-authorization set forth in Article IV of Revised CMP Regulation No. 6, or placed on or before October 3, 1952, for delivery in the third calendar quarter of 1952, pursuant to the provisions relating to self-authorization which were set forth in NPA Order M-100, may call for delivery at any time up to November 30, 1952: Provided, however, That such order is placed pursuant to lead-time requirements. A steel controlled materials producer or a steel controlled materials distributor who receives an authorized controlled material order for steel which bears the quarterly identification 3Q52 and which calls for delivery between October 1, 1952, and November 30, 1952, shall accept and fill such order in preference to an authorized controlled material order which bears the quarterly identification 4Q52 and which calls for delivery between October 1, 1952, and November 30, 1952, notwithstanding the sequence of order placement.

SEC. 3. Fourth quarter authorized controlled material orders. (a) The provisions of this section apply only to authorized controlled material orders for the fourth calendar quarter of 1952 which do not bear a program identification A, B, C, or E, and a digit (including the suffix B-5), or Z-2, and which are placed on and after July 29, 1952, the original effective date of this direction.

(b) An authorized controlled material order for steel placed pursuant to an allotment for the fourth calendar quarter of 1952 which contains the quarterly identification 4Q52, or an authorized controlled material order for steel placed for delivery in the fourth calendar quarter of 1952 pursuant to the provisions relating to self-authorization set forth in Article IV of Revised CMP Regulation No. 6, or placed on or before October 3, 1952, for delivery in the fourth calendar quarter of 1952, pursuant to the provisions relating to self-authorization which were set forth in NPA Order M-100, which does not contain a quarterly identification, may call for delivery at any time from October 1, 1952, to February 28, 1953.

(c) A steel controlled materials producer who, during the 15-day period immediately preceding the commencement of the lead time for January 1953, receives an authorized controlled material order for steel which bears the quarterly identification 4Q52 and which calls for delivery during January 1953 shall accept and fill such order in preference to an order which bears the quarterly identification 1Q53 and which calls for delivery during January 1953, notwithstanding the sequence of order placement. A steel controlled materials producer who, between November 17, 1952, and November 28, 1952, receives an authorized controlled material order for an item of steel with a lead time of 45 or 60 days, which order bears the quarterly identification 4Q52 and calls for delivery during February 1953, shall accept and fill such order in preference to an order which bears the quarterly identification 1Q53 and which calls for delivery during February 1953, notwithstanding the sequence of order placement. Authorized controlled material orders for steel which bear the quarterly identification 4Q52 and which call for delivery between January 1, 1953, and February 28, 1953, but which are not placed during the periods specified in the preceding two sentences, shall have equal preferential status at the mill level with authorized controlled material orders for steel which bear the quarterly identification 1Q53. Orders which bear the quarterly identification 1Q53 and which are replaced in mill schedules for January or February 1953 by orders which bear the quarterly identification 4Q52 shall be rescheduled for delivery at the earliest date possible.

(d) A steel controlled materials distributor who receives an authorized controlled material order for steel which bears the quarterly identification 4Q52 and which calls for delivery between January 1, 1953, and February 28, 1953, shall accept and fill such order in preference to an order which bears the quarterly identification 1Q53 and which calls for delivery between January 1, 1953, and February 28, 1953, notwithstanding the sequence of order placement.

SEC. 4. Applicability of other regulations and orders. The provisions of CMP Regulations Nos. 1 and 4, Revised CMP Regulation No. 6, NPA Orders M-1 and M-6A, including the directions and amendments thereto, and of any other NPA regulation and order heretofore issued, are superseded to the extent to which they are inconsistent with the provisions of this direction, but in all other respects the provisions of such regulations and orders shall remain in full force and effect. Section 8 of NPA Order M-1 gives steel controlled materials producers the option to determine which authorized controlled material orders not bearing a program identification A, B, C, or E, and a digit (including the suffix B-5), or Z-2, they will accept and schedule prior to the 15-day period immediately preceding the commencement of the lead time. This option shall be superseded by section 3 (c) of this direction only with respect to the placement between November 17, 1952, and November 28, 1952, of authorized controlled material orders for items of steel with a lead time of 45 or 60 days which bear the quarterly identification 4Q52 and which call for delivery during February 1953. This direction does not supersede the provisions of section 8 (a) (2) of NPA Order M-1, which limits the quantity of orders which steel controlled material producers may accept for shipment during any one month.

This amended direction shall take effect November 14, 1952.

[Defense Food Order 3, Sub-Order 3, Amdt. 2]

DFO-3—AGRICULTURAL IMPORTS

SO 3—STATEMENT OF POLICIES AND PROCEDURES RE IMPORT AUTHORIZATIONS FOR CERTAIN COMMODITIES

IMPORTATION OF ITALIAN TYPE CHEESE

Sub-Order 3, as amended (17 F. R. 6269, 8548), containing a statement of the policies and procedures relating to import authorizations for certain commodities under Defense Food Order 3, as amended (17 F. R. 6088, 8546), was issued pursuant to the authority vested by said amended Defense Food Order 3, under sections 101, 104, and 704 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (64 Stat. 798; 65 Stat. 131; Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2061 et seq.). This amendment to Sub-Order 3, as amended, should be issued promptly in order to make the benefits therefrom available immediately and to inform affected persons as soon as possible concerning the policies and procedures relating to authorizations with respect to the importation of Italian type cheese. This amendment, which relieves restrictions on such importations, affects several segments of the economy and time is not available to permit consultation with all affected segments.

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENT

The policies, presently stated in Sub-Order 3 to Defense Food Order 3, as amended, with respect to the issuance of authorizations for the importation of Italian type cheese on the basis of country of origin in some instances do not conform to the recent trend in importations of such cheese from the various countries of origin and do not assure such countries of an equitable portion of the authorized aggregate importations of such cheese. To alleviate this situation, so far as practicable, this amendment provides for the transfer, upon request by an importer, of a part of such importer's authorization for such cheese from one country of origin to another whenever such action is warranted.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Defense Food Order 3, Sub-Order 3, as amended (17 F. R. 6269, 8548), is hereby amended by revising the last sentence of section 1 (c) (1) thereof to read as follows: "Authorizations issued to any applicant in accordance with this subparagraph will specify the quantities which may be imported from each particular country of origin, and such quantities will be based upon the proportionate quantities imported by the applicant from such country during the relevant period prescribed in this subparagraph: Provided, That to reflect current trends in imports of Italian type cheese and to effectuate the equitable distribution of imports of such cheese among countries of origin, the Director may, upon application by an importer, transfer not to exceed ⅓ of the importer's authorization for such cheese from one country of origin to another."

This amendment shall become effective November 12, 1952.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

JAMES Mc I. HENDERSON,
Director of Rent Stabilization.

1. Item 72 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

72. Provisions relating to the Steubenville, Ohio-Panhandle, West Virginia, Defense-Rental Area (Item 359 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Steubenville, Ohio-Panhandle, West Virginia, Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodation or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 160 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Steubenville, Ohio-Panhandle, West Virginia, Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 72 of Schedule B.

2. Item 77 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

77. Provisions relating to the Steubenville, Ohio-Panhandle, West Virginia, Defense-Rental Area (Item 359 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Steubenville, Ohio-Panhandle, West Virginia, Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to this regulation to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the room or comparable rooms, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 160 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Steubenville, Ohio-Panhandle, West Virginia, Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 77 of Schedule B.

Subchapter I—Irrigation Projects; Operation and Maintenance

PART 124—WAPATO IRRIGATION PROJECT, WASHINGTON

FARM UNITS; DELIVERY POINT

Section 124.4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 124.4 Delivery point. (a) The project will deliver water to one point on the boundary of each farm unit on the project, except that where the cost or topography makes it impractical for the landowner to irrigate the entire irrigable area of his tract from one delivery point, the Project Engineer may establish additional delivery points if the landowner cannot, at a reasonable expense, provide for the delivery by the construction of suitable head ditches.

(b) The project will maintain canals, laterals and necessary appurtenances in proper condition to make deliveries of water at such elevation as is necessary to serve each farm unit by gravity flow. Where portions of a farm unit lie at an elevation too high to be watered by gravity flow from the present normal elevation of water level in the canal system, no change will be made in the water level elevation of the canal system so as to place water on such land. Where such land has been included in the project, the landowner may install and operate pumping equipment at his own expense to raise the water to such included land at a point on the canal designated by the Project Engineer and in accordance with his specifications. If the landowner so installs pumping equipment and pays the project construction and maintenance charges, the project will deliver in its canal at such point of installation the same amount of water per acre for his land as the project delivers at the delivery point for other lands on the project.

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

CHANGES IN INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RATES UNDER REVENUE ACTS OF 1950 AND 1951

On June 6, 1952, notice of proposed rule making, regarding amendments to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to sections 101, 102, 103, and 104 of the Revenue Act of 1950 (Public Law 814, 81st Congress), approved September 23, 1950, and to sections 101, 102, 104, and 105 of the Revenue Act of 1951 (Public Law 183, 82d Congress), approved October 20, 1951, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 5143). No objection to the rules proposed having been received, the amendments to Regulations 111 set forth below are hereby adopted.

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.11-1 the following:

SEC. 101. INCREASE IN NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX ON INDIVIDUALS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

(a) Normal tax. Section 11 (relating to the normal tax on individuals) is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. NORMAL TAX ON INDIVIDUALS.

(a) Taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950. In the case of taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every individual a normal tax of 3 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits against net income provided in section 25. For alternative tax which may be elected if adjusted gross income is less than $5,000, see supplement T.

(b) Taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950. In the case of taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of every individual a normal tax determined by computing a tentative normal tax of 3 per centum of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits against net income provided in section 25, and by reducing such tentative normal tax as provided in section 12 (c). For alternative tax which may be elected if adjusted gross income is less than $5,000, see supplement T. For computation of tax in case the taxable year (other than the calendar year 1950) ends after September 30, 1950, see section 108 (e).

(3) Section 12 (c) (relating to reduction of tentative normal tax and tentative surtax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Reduction of tentative normal tax and tentative surtax—(1) Calendar year 1950. In the case of a taxable year beginning on January 1, 1950, and ending on December 31, 1950, the combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax, reduced as follows:

If the aggregate is:	The reduction shall be:
Not over $400	13% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000	$52 plus 9% of excess over $400.
Over $100,000	$9,016 plus 7.3% of excess over $100,000.

In no event shall the combined normal tax and surtax for such taxable year exceed 80 per centum of the net income.

(2) Other taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950. In the case of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1950, to which paragraph (1) applies) beginning before October 1, 1950, the combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax, reduced as follows:

If the aggregate is:	The reduction shall be:
Not over $400	17% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000	$68 plus 12% of excess over $400.
Over $100,000	$12,020 plus 9.75% of excess over $100,000.

If combined normal tax and surtax so computed exceeds 77 per centum of the net income for the taxable year, the combined tax shall be reduced to 77 per centum of the net income. For computation of tax in case the taxable year ends after September 30, 1950, see section 108 (e).

(4) Effective with respect to taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, section 12 (f) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(f) Limitation on tax. In the case of a taxable year beginning after September 30, 1950, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 87 per centum of the net income for the taxable year.

SEC. 103. COMPUTATION OF TAX IN CASE OF CERTAIN JOINT RETURNS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a case where the husband and wife have different taxable years because of the death of either spouse, and the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before October 1, 1950, and ended after September 30, 1950, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 101 and 102] shall be applicable in respect of such joint return as if the taxable years of both spouses covered by the joint return ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

SEC. 104. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PART I (TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

Except as provided in section 103, the amendments made by this part (inc. secs. 101 and 103) shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1949. For treatment of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1950) beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950, see section 131.

SEC. 101. INCREASE IN SURTAX FOR 1951, 1952, AND 1953 (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

• • • • • •

(b) Limitation on tax. Section 12 (f) (relating to limitation on tax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(f) Limitation on tax—(1) Calendar year 1951. In the case of a taxable year beginning on January 1, 1951, and ending December 31, 1951, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 87.2 per centum of the net income for the taxable year.

(2) Taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and before January 1, 1954. In the case of taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and before January 1, 1954, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 88 per centum of the net income of the taxable year.

(3) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953. In the case of taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 87 per centum of the net income for the taxable year.

SEC. 104. COMPUTATION OF TAX IN CASE OF CERTAIN JOINT RETURNS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a case where the husband and wife have different taxable years because of the death of either spouse, and the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before November 1, 1951, and ended after October 31, 1951, the amendments made by this part (inc. secs. 101, 102, and 103) and section 131 shall be applicable in respect of such joint return as if the taxable years of both spouses covered by the joint return ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

SEC. 105. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PART I (TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Except as provided in section 104, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 101 and 104] shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1951, and ending on December 31, 1951. For treatment of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1951) beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951, see section 131.

PAR. 2. Section 29.11-1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, approved February 16, 1949, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in the heading of paragraph (b) thereof after "Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943" the following: ", and before October 1, 1950".

(B) By inserting in the first sentence of paragraph (b) thereof after "For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943," the following: "and before October 1, 1950.".

(C) By striking out all of paragraph (b) after the fourth sentence thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

* * * For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950, the normal tax on individuals is determined by computing a tentative normal tax of 3 percent of the amount of the net income in excess of the credits against net income provided in section 25 for such years and by reducing such tentative normal tax as follows:

(i) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and ending before January 1, 1950, the reduction shall be made under the provisions of section 12 (c) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1950;

(ii) For taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after December 31, 1949 (other than the calendar year 1950), the reduction shall be made under the provisions of section 12 (c) (2), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1950;

(iii) For a taxable year which is the calendar year 1950, the reduction shall be made under the provisions of section 12 (c) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1950.

See § 29.12-2. For computation of tax in the case of a joint return of husband and wife for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950, see § 29.12-4.

(2) For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1945 and ending in 1946, see § 29.108-2. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108-3.

(c) Taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950. For taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code imposes an income tax on individuals consisting of a normal tax (section 11) and a surtax (section 12). For optional tax in the case of taxpayers with adjusted gross income of less than $5,000, see section 400 and § 29.400-1 (b). The normal tax on individuals for taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, is at the rate of 3 percent and is upon net income reduced by the amount of the credits against net income provided in section 25 for such years. For computation of tax in the case of a joint return of husband and wife for a taxable year beginning after September 30, 1950, see § 29.12-4. For treatment of taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950), see § 29.108-4. For treatment of taxable years beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), see § 29.108-7. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1953 and ending in 1954, see § 29.108-8.

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.12-1 the following:

SEC. 101. INCREASE IN NORMAL TAX AND SURTAX ON INDIVIDUALS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

(b) Limitation on tax. Section 12 (f) (relating to limitation on tax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(f) Limitation on tax—(1) Calendar year 1951. In the case of a taxable year beginning on January 1, 1951, and ending December 31, 1951, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 87.2 per centum of the net income for the taxable year.

(2) Taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and before January 1, 1954. In the case of taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and before January 1, 1954, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 88 per centum of the net income of the taxable year.

(3) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953. In the case of taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 87 per centum of the net income for the taxable year.

SEC. 104. COMPUTATION OF TAX IN CASE OF CERTAIN JOINT RETURNS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a case where the husband and wife have different taxable years because of the death of either spouse, and the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before November 1, 1951, and ended after October 31, 1951, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 101, 102, and 103] and section 131 shall be applicable in respect of such joint return as if the taxable years of both spouses covered by the joint return ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

SEC. 105. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PART I (TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Except as provided in section 104, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 101 and 104] shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1951, and ending on December 31, 1951. For treatment of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1951) beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951, see section 131.

PAR. 4. Section 29.12-1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, is further amended by striking out paragraph (d) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(d) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950, there is imposed, in addition to the normal tax, a surtax determined as specified in section 12 for such years upon the surtax net income of every individual, resident or nonresident, except nonresident alien individuals subject to the tax imposed by section 211 (a). The surtax net income for such years is the net income minus the credits provided in section 25 (b) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1951. For such taxable years, section 12 provides that the surtax shall be determined by computing a tentative surtax in accordance with the table contained in section 12 (b) for such taxable years and by reducing such tentative surtax as follows:

If the aggregate is: Not over $400 ... The reduction shall be: 13% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000 ... $52 plus 9% of excess over $400.
Over $100,000 ... $9,016 plus 7.3% of excess over $100,000.

In no event shall the combined normal tax and surtax for such taxable year exceed 80 per centum of the net income.

(2) Other taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950. In the case of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1950, to which paragraph (1) applies) beginning before October 1, 1950, the combined normal tax and surtax under section 11 and subsection (b) of this section shall be the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax, reduced as follows:

If the aggregate is: Not over $400 ... The reduction shall be: 17% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000 ... $68 plus 12% of excess over $400.
Over $100,000 ... $12,020 plus 9.75% of excess over $100,000.

If combined normal tax and surtax so computed exceeds 77 per centum of the net income for the taxable year, the combined tax shall be reduced to 77 per centum of the net income. For computation of tax in case the taxable year ends after September 30, 1950, see section 108 (e).

(4) Effective with respect to taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, section 12 (f) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(f) Limitation on tax. In the case of a taxable year beginning after September 30, 1950, the combined normal tax and surtax shall in no event exceed 87 per centum of the net income for the taxable year.

SEC. 103. COMPUTATION OF TAX IN CASE OF CERTAIN JOINT RETURNS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a case where the husband and wife have different taxable years because of the death of either spouse, and the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before October 1, 1950, and ended after September 30, 1950, the amendments made by this part (inc. secs. 101 and 102) shall be applicable in respect of such joint return as if the taxable years of both spouses covered by the joint return ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

SEC. 104. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PART I (TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

Except as provided in section 103, the amendments made by this part (inc. secs. 101 and 103) shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1949. For treatment of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1950) beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950, see section 131.

SEC. 101. INCREASE IN SURTAX FOR 1951, 1952, AND 1953 (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Rates of surtax. Section 12 (b) (relating to rates of surtax) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Rates of surtax—(1) Calendar year 1951. In the case of a taxable year beginning on January 1, 1951, and ending on December 31, 1951, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for such taxable year upon the surtax net income of every individual the surtax shown in the following table:

(c) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1950;

(2) For taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after December 31, 1949 (other than the calendar year 1950), the reduction shall be made under the provisions of section 12 (c) (2), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1950;

(3) For a taxable year which is the calendar year 1950, the reduction shall be made under the provisions of section 12 (c) (1), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1950.

For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3.

(e) Taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, and before November 1, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951). For taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, and before November 1, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), there is imposed, in addition to the normal tax, a surtax determined as specified in section 12 for such years upon the surtax net income of every individual, resident or nonresident, except nonresident alien individuals subject to the tax imposed by section 211 (a). For taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1951, the surtax net income for such years is the net income minus the credits provided in section 25 (b) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1951. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, the surtax net income for such years is the net income minus the credits provided in section 25 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1951. For taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950, and before November 1, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), the surtax shall be determined in accordance with the surtax table contained in section 12 (b) (1) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1951. For treatment of taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950), see § 29.108–4.

(f) Calendar year 1951 and taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951. For a taxable year which is the calendar year 1951 and for taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, there is imposed, in addition to the normal tax, a surtax determined as specified in section 12, as amended by the Revenue Act of 1951, upon the surtax net income of every individual, resident or nonresident, except nonresident alien individuals subject to the tax imposed by section 211 (a). The surtax net income is the net income minus the credits provided in section 25 (b), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1951. Section 12 specifies that the surtax shall be determined in accordance with the applicable surtax table contained therein. For treatment of taxable years beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), see § 29.108–7. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1953 and ending in 1954, see § 29.108–8.

PAR. 5. Section 29.12–2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in the first sentence after "taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945," the following: "and before October 1, 1950,".

(B) By inserting in the heading of the tentative surtax table after "Taxable Years Beginning After December 31, 1945" the following: ", and Before October 1, 1950".

(C) By inserting after "For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947," in the first sentence of paragraph (b) following the tentative surtax table, the following: "and before October 1, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950),".

(D) By striking out paragraphs (f) and (g) of the section and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(f) For a taxable year which is the calendar year 1950, section 12 provides that the combined normal tax and surtax shall be determined by reducing the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax as provided in the following table:

If the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and the tentative surtax is:	The reduction shall be:
Not over $400	13% of the aggregate.
Over $400 but not over $100,000.	$52 plus 9% of the excess over $400.
Over $100,000	$9,016 plus 7.3% of the excess over $100,000.

Accordingly if the normal tax net income and the surtax net income for the calendar year 1950 each amounts to $150,000 the combined normal tax and surtax will be $101,941.14, computed as follows:

Tentative normal tax: 3 percent of $150,000	$4,500.00
Tentative surtax on $150,000 from table	107,320.00
Aggregate of tentative normal tax and tentative surtax	111,820.00
Reduction of tentative tax: $9,016 plus 7.3 percent of $11,820 (excess of the aggregate tentative tax over $100,000)	9,878.86
Combined normal tax and surtax	101,941.14

(g) Section 12 (f) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1950 provides that whenever it is necessary to ascertain the normal tax and the surtax separately for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950, the surtax shall be an amount which is the same proportion of the combined normal tax and surtax as the tentative surtax is of the aggregate of the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax, and the normal tax shall be the remainder of such combined normal tax and surtax. Such computation, for example, is necessary for the purpose of section 105, relating to tax on the gain from the sale of oil or gas properties, and for the purpose of section 106, relating to tax on amounts received with respect to claims against the United States involving acquisition of property. The surtax on the net income of $150,000 involved in the above example with respect to the tax for the calendar year 1950 would under section 12 (f) be $101,941.14 (combined normal tax and surtax) multiplied by or $97,838.70, and the normal tax would be $101,941.14 minus $97,838.70, or $4,102.44.

(h) The surtax for any amount of surtax net income not stated in round figures in the surtax table is computed by adding to the surtax for the largest amount stated which is less than the surtax net income, the surtax upon the excess over that amount at the rate indicated in the table. Accordingly, the surtax upon a surtax net income of $63,128 would be $34,866, computed as follows:

Surtax on $60,000 from table	$32,520
Surtax on $3,128 at 75 percent	2,346
Total	34,866

(i) For computation of tax in the case of a joint return of husband and wife for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, see § 29.12–4.

PAR. 6. Section 29.12–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 29.12–3 Limitation on amount of tax. The combined normal tax and surtax for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, computed before the application thereto of the credit provided in section 31 (relating to the credit for foreign income tax), section 32 (relating to the credit for tax withheld at the source under section 143 or 144), and section 35 (relating to the credit for tax withheld on wages), shall not exceed an amount equal to the following percent of the taxpayer's net income for the taxable year:

	Percent
For taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1943, and before Jan. 1, 1946	90
For taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1945, and before Jan. 1, 1948	85½
For taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1947, and before Oct. 1, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950)	77
For a taxable year which is the calendar year 1950	80
For taxable years beginning after Sept. 30, 1950, and before Nov. 1, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951)	87
For a taxable year which is the calendar year 1951	87.2
For taxable years beginning after Oct. 31, 1951, and before Jan. 1, 1954	88
For taxable years beginning after Dec. 31, 1953	87

For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1945 and ending in 1946, see § 29.108–2. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3. For treatment of taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950), see § 29.108–4. For treatment of taxable years beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), see § 29.108–7. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1953 and ending in 1954, see § 29.108–8.

PAR. 7. Section 29.12–4, as added by Treasury Decision 5687, is amended as follows:

(A) By striking out the period in the heading and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "—(a) In general.".

(B) By striking out paragraph (b) (1) and (2) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(b) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950. For a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950, the method of computing, under section 12 (d), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, the tax of husband and wife in the case of a joint return is as follows:

(1) First, the net income and applicable credits against net income are reduced by one-half. Second, the tentative normal tax and tentative surtax are determined as provided in sections 11 and 12 (b) for such year, by using the net income and applicable credits so reduced. Third, the normal tax and surtax so determined are aggregated and this aggregate tentative tax is then reduced as provided in section 12 (c) for such year. See § 29.12–2. Fourth, this reduced aggregate, which is the combined normal tax and surtax that would be determined if the net income and the applicable credits against net income provided by section 25 for such year were reduced by one-half, is then multiplied by two, to produce the tax imposed in the case of the joint return.

(2) The limitation under section 12 (c) of the combined normal tax and surtax to an amount not in excess of a specified percent (80 percent for the calendar year 1950 and 77 percent for other taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and before October 1, 1950) of the net income for the taxable year is to be applied before the fourth step above, that is, the limitation is to be applied upon the combined normal tax and surtax determined under section 12 (c) as the specified percent (80 percent or 77 percent, as the case may be) of one-half of the net income for the taxable year (such one-half of the net income being the actual aggregate net income of the spouses reduced by one-half). After such limitation is applied, then the combined normal tax and surtax so limited are multiplied by two as provided in section 12 (d).

(C) By redesignating paragraph (c) as subparagraph (4) and by striking out paragraphs (d) and (e) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(5) If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, if the husband and wife have different taxable years solely because of the death of either spouse, and if the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before October 1, 1950, and ended after September 30, 1950, the taxable year of the deceased spouse covered by the joint return shall, for the purpose of the computation under section 12 (d) and this section of the combined normal tax and surtax in respect of such joint return, be deemed to have ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

(6) For computation of tax under Supplement T in the case of a joint return, see §§ 29.400–1 and 29.401–1.

(7) For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3.

(c) Taxable years beginning after September 30, 1950. For a taxable year beginning after September 30, 1950, the method of computing, under section 12 (d), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, the tax of husband and wife in the case of a joint return is as follows:

(1) First, the net income and applicable credits against net income are reduced by one-half. Second, the normal tax and surtax are determined as provided in sections 11 and 12 (b) for such year, by using the net income and applicable credits so reduced. Third, the normal tax and surtax so determined are aggregated. Fourth, this aggregate, which is the combined normal tax and surtax that would be determined if the net income and applicable credits against net income provided by section 25 for such year were reduced by one-half, is then multiplied by two, to produce the tax imposed in the case of the joint return.

(2) The limitation under section 12 (f) of the combined normal tax and surtax to an amount not in excess of a specified percent of the net income for the taxable year is to be applied before the fourth step above, that is, the limitation to be applied upon the combined normal tax and surtax is determined under section 12 (f) as the applicable specified percent of one-half of the net income for the taxable year (such one-half of the net income being the actual aggregate net income of the spouses reduced by one-half). For the percent applicable in determining the limitation under section 12 (f) of the combined normal tax and surtax, see § 29.12–3. After such limitation is applied, then the combined normal tax and surtax so limited are multiplied by two as provided in section 12 (d).

(3) The following computation illustrates the method of application of section 12 (d) in the determination of the tax of a husband and wife filing a joint return for the calendar year 1951. If the joint net income is $8,200 and the only allowable credits under section 25 are the two exemptions of the taxpayers under section 25 (b) (1) (A), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948, the tax on the joint return for 1951 is $1,488, determined as follows:

1. Net income	$8,200
2. Net income reduced by one-half	4,100
3. Credits against net income under sec. 25 (2 exemptions under sec. 25 (b) (1) (A))	1,200
4. Credits in item 3 reduced by one-half	600
5. Net income reduced by one-half (item 2) minus credits reduced by one-half (item 4)	3,500
6. Normal tax computed under sec. 11 on amount in item 5 (3 percent of $3,500)	105
7. Surtax computed under sec. 12 (b) on amount in item 5 ($348 plus 19.4 percent of excess of $3,500 over $2,000)	639
8. Combined normal tax and surtax computed on net income and credits reduced by one-half	744
9. Twice the combined normal tax and surtax determined in item 8	1,488

(4) If the alternative tax for a taxable year beginning before October 20, 1951, is computed under section 117 (c) (2) prior to its amendment by the Revenue Act of 1951, relating to the alternative tax where a taxpayer (other than a corporation) has a net long-term capital gain in excess of a net short-term capital loss, the partial tax shall be computed under sections 11 and 12 as stated above but without inclusion of such excess in net income, and the total tax shall be such partial tax plus 50 percent of such excess as provided in such section 117 (c) (2). If the alternative tax for a taxable year beginning after October 19, 1951, is computed under section 117 (c) (2), as amended by the Revenue Act of 1951, relating to the alternative tax where a taxpayer (other than a corporation) has a net long-term capital gain in excess of a net short-term capital loss, the partial tax shall be computed under sections 11 and 12 as stated above but without inclusion of 50 percent of such excess in net income, and the total tax shall be such partial tax plus a specified percent of such excess (26 percent for taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and before November 1, 1953, and 25 percent for all other taxable years) as provided in such section 117 (c) (2).

(5) If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, if the husband and wife have different taxable years solely because of the death of either spouse, and if the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return either began before November 1, 1951, and ended after October 31, 1951, or begins in 1953 and ends in 1954, the taxable year of the deceased spouse covered by the joint return shall, for the purpose of the computation under section 12 (d) and this section of the combined normal tax and surtax in respect of such joint return, be deemed to have ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

(6) For computation of tax under Supplement T in the case of a joint return, see §§ 29.400–1 and 29.401–1.

(7) For treatment of taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950), see § 29.108–4. For treatment of taxable years beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), see § 29.108–7. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1953 and ending in 1954, see § 29.108–8.

PAR. 8. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.400–1 the following:

SEC. 102. INDIVIDUALS WITH ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME OF LESS THAN $5,000 (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

So much of section 400 (relating to optional tax on individuals with adjusted gross incomes of less than $5,000) as precedes the tax table therein is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 400. IMPOSITION OF TAX.

In lieu of the taxes imposed by sections 11 and 12, there shall be levied, collected, and paid for each taxable year upon the net income of each individual whose adjusted gross income for such year is less than $5,000, and who has elected to pay the tax imposed by this supplement for such year, a tax as follows:

TABLE III—TAXABLE YEARS (OTHER THAN THE CALENDAR YEAR 1950) BEGINNING BEFORE OCT. 1, 1950

SEC. 103. COMPUTATION OF TAX IN CASE OF CERTAIN JOINT RETURNS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a case where the husband and wife have different taxable years because of the death of either spouse, and the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before October 1, 1950, and ended after September 30, 1950, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 101 and 102] shall be applicable in respect of such joint return as if the taxable years of both spouses covered by the joint return ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

SEC. 104. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PART I (TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

Except as provided in section 103, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 102 and 103] shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years ending after December 31, 1949. For treatment of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1950) beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950, see section 131.

SEC. 102. INDIVIDUALS WITH ADJUSTED GROSS INCOME OF LESS THAN $5,000 (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Section 400 (relating to optional tax on individuals with adjusted gross incomes of less than $5,000) is hereby amended by striking out the tables contained therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

SEC. 104. COMPUTATION OF TAX IN CASE OF CERTAIN JOINT RETURNS (PART I, TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a case where the husband and wife have different taxable years because of the death of either spouse, and the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before November 1, 1951, and ended after October 31, 1951, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 101, 102, and 103] and section 131 shall be applicable in respect of such joint return as if the taxable years of both spouses covered by the joint return ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

SEC. 105. EFFECTIVE DATE OF PART I (TITLE I, REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Except as provided in section 104, the amendments made by this part [inc. secs. 102 and 104] shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, and to taxable years beginning on January 1, 1951, and ending on December 31, 1951. For treatment of taxable years (other than the calendar year 1951) beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951, see section 131.

PAR. 9. Section 29.400–1 (b), as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, is further amended by striking out the undesignated paragraph preceding subparagraph (7) and subparagraph (7) and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(7) The tax tables in section 400 applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, and before November 1, 1951, contain, in certain instances, double columns, in one of which is shown the tax if a separate return is filed, and in the other of which is shown the tax if a joint return is filed. The tax tables in section 400 applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, contain, in certain instances, double columns, in one of which is shown the tax if the taxpayer is single (and not the head of a household) or married and files a separate return, and in the other of which is shown the tax if the taxpayer is the head of a household, and, in other instances, triple columns, in the first of which is shown the tax if the taxpayer is single (and not the head of a household) or married and files a separate return, in the second of which is shown the tax if the taxpayer is the head of a household, and in the third of which is shown the tax if a joint return is filed. In the case of double or triple columns, the tax shall be determined by reference to the applicable column. Since the computations of tax shown in the case of a joint return reflect the income-splitting method provided in section 12 (d), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, the tax shown in the joint return column may be lower than that shown in the separate return column even though the amounts of adjusted gross income and the exemptions are the same. Thus, if H, a married man, has adjusted gross income of $4,925 for the calendar year 1951 and his wife has no gross income for such year and his only exemptions under section 25 (b) are the exemptions for himself and spouse under section 25 (b) (1) (A), the tax on a joint return under Supplement T, as shown in the second column applicable to a person with two exemptions, is $659. If H should file a separate return, his tax, as shown in the first column applicable to an individual with two exemptions, would be $684.

(8) If a joint return of a husband and wife is filed under the provisions of section 51 (b) (3), as added by the Revenue Act of 1948, if the husband and wife have different taxable years solely because of the death of either spouse, and if the taxable year of the surviving spouse covered by such joint return began before October 1, 1950, and ended after September 30, 1950, began before November 1, 1951, and ended after October 31, 1951, or begins in 1953 and ends in 1954, the taxable year of the deceased spouse covered by the joint return shall, for the purpose of determining the tax under section 400 and this section in respect of such joint return, be deemed to have ended on the date of the closing of the surviving spouse's taxable year.

(9) For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, the fact that the taxable year is a period of less than 12 months resulting by reason of the death of the taxpayer does not prevent the application of Supplement T in the determination of the tax for such period.

(10) For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1947 and ending in 1948, see § 29.108–3. For treatment of taxable years beginning before October 1, 1950, and ending after September 30, 1950 (other than the calendar year 1950), see § 29.108–4. For treatment of taxable years beginning before November 1, 1951, and ending after October 31, 1951 (other than the calendar year 1951), see § 29.108–7. For treatment of taxable years beginning in 1953 and ending in 1954, see § 29.108–8.

PAR. 10. Section 29.401–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in the headnote of paragraph (b) thereof after "Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943" the following: ", and before January 1, 1946".

(B) By inserting in the first sentence of paragraph (b) thereof after "The term 'number of surtax exemptions'" the following: ", which term is used under Supplement T for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1943, and before January 1, 1946,".

(C) By striking out all of paragraph (b) (1) after the third sentence thereof.

(D) By striking out Example (3) at the end of such section and inserting in lieu thereof the following new paragraph (c):

(c) Taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945. The term "number of exemptions", which, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1945, is used instead of the term "number of surtax exemptions", means the number of exemptions allowed under section 25 (b) for such years as credits against net income for the purpose of the normal tax and the surtax imposed by sections 11 and 12. One exemption is allowed for the taxpayer; one exemption for his spouse if a joint return is made, or if a separate return is made by the taxpayer and his spouse has no gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins and is not the dependent of another taxpayer for such calendar year; and one exemption for each dependent whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than $500 in the case of a taxable year beginning before January 1, 1951, or is less than $600 in the case of a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1950. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1947, additional exemptions are allowed under section 25 (b) (1) (B) and (C) for a taxpayer or spouse who has attained the age of 65 years and for a blind taxpayer or blind spouse. See § 29.25–3. After the number of exemptions is ascertained, the tax under Supplement T for the taxable year is determined by reference to the table contained in section 400 applicable to such taxable year and by reference to the column of such table appropriate to such number of exemptions and, in certain cases, appropriate to either the status of the taxpayer (whether single, head of household, or married) or kind of return (whether separate or joint), or both. The tax is the amount in such column shown on the line appropriate to the taxpayer's adjusted gross income.

Example. D, a married man with no dependents, attains the age of 65 years on September 1, 1951. The aggregate adjusted gross income of D and his wife for 1951 is $4,840. D and his wife file a joint return for 1951 and are entitled to three exemptions, one for each taxpayer and one additional exemption for D because of his age. Since the adjusted gross income of D and his wife falls within the tax bracket $4,800–$4,850, the tax on a joint return is $519.

In the Matter of Murray Epstein, Lou Seaman, Ben Lander, and Richard Wolochow, Copartners, Doing Business as Seawol Sewing Supplies

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Federal Trade Commission on June 27, 1951, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging said respondents with the use of unfair methods of competition and unfair and deceptive acts and practices in commerce in violation of the provisions of said act. Respondents filed their answer admitting all of the material facts alleged in said complaint and waved all intervening procedure. Thereafter, the proceeding regularly came on for final consideration by a hearing examiner of the Commission duly designated by it, on the complaint and answer thereto, and said hearing examiner, on March 6, 1952, filed his initial decision.

Within the time permitted by its rules of practice, the Commission, having reason to believe that said initial decision did not constitute an adequate disposition of the proceeding, issued an order placing this case on its docket for review, served on all parties its tentative decision herein and granted to them permission to file with the Commission any objections they might have to said tentative decision. Respondents not having filed any objections to said tentative decision, this proceeding regularly came on for final consideration before the Commission upon the aforesaid complaint and respondents' answer thereto; and the Commission, having duly considered the matter and being now fully advised in the premises, finds that this proceeding is in the interest of the public and being of the opinion that the hearing examiner's initial decision does not constitute an adequate disposition of this proceeding, makes this its findings as to the facts,[1] conclusion[1] and order to cease and desist, the same to be in lieu of the initial decision of the hearing examiner.

It is ordered, That the respondents, Murray Epstein, Lou Seaman, Ben Lander and Richard Wolochow, individually and as copartners doing business as Seawol Sewing Supplies, or trading under any other name, and their representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale or distribution of sewing machine heads or sewing machines in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Offering for sale, selling or distributing foreign made sewing machine heads, or sewing machines of which foreign made heads are a part, without clearly and conspicuously disclosing on the heads, in such a manner that it will not be hidden or obliterated, the country of origin thereof.

2. Using the words "Majestic" or "Admiral", or any simulations thereof, as brand or trade names to designate, describe or refer to their sewing machines or sewing machine heads; or representing through the use of any other words or in any other manner that sewing machines or sewing machine heads are made by anyone other than the actual manufacturers.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report, in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with its order.

Issued: September 4, 1952.

By the Commission.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Internal Revenue

[26 CFR Part 29]

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

Over $90,000 but not over $100,000	$49,780, plus 77% of excess over $90,000.
Over $100,000 but not over $150,000	$57,480, plus 80% of excess over $100,000.
Over $150,000 but not over $200,000	$97,480, plus 84% of excess over $150,000.
Over $200,000 but not over $300,000	$139,480, plus 87% of excess over $200,000.
Over $300,000	$226,480, plus 88% of excess over $300,000.

(3) Definition of head of household. For the purposes of this chapter, an individual shall be considered, a head of a household if, and only if, such individual is not married at the close of his taxable year and maintains as his home a household which constitutes for such taxable year the principal place of abode, as a member of such household, of:

(A) A son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter of the taxpayer, or a descendant of a son or daughter of the taxpayer, but if such son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter, or descendant is married at the close of the taxpayer's taxable year, only if the taxpayer is entitled to an exemption for the taxable year for such person under section 25 (b); or

(B) Any other person who is a dependent of the taxpayer, if the taxpayer is entitled to an exemption for the taxable year for such person under section 25 (b).

An individual shall be considered as maintaining a household only if over half of the cost of maintaining the household during the taxable year is furnished by such individual.

(4) Determination of status. For the purposes of this subsection—

(A) A legally adopted child of a person shall be considered a child of such person by blood;

(B) An individual who is legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance shall not be considered as married;

(C) A taxpayer shall be considered as not married at the close of his taxable year if at any time during the taxable year his spouse is a nonresident alien; and

(D) A taxpayer shall be considered as married at the close of his taxable year if his spouse (other than a spouse described in subparagraph (C)) died during the taxable year.

(5) Nonresident alien. For the purposes of this chapter a taxpayer shall in no case be considered a head of a household if at any time during the taxable year he is a nonresident alien.

* * * * *

(c) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951.

PAR. 2. Section 29.12-2, as amended by Treasury Decision 5687, approved February 16, 1949, is amended further by adding at the end thereof the following: "For tax treatment of head of household for taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, see § 29.12-5."

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately after § 29.12-4 the following new section:

§ 20.12-5 Surtax in case of head of household—(a) General rule. For taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951, an individual who is the head of a household under the rules prescribed in section 12 (c) is subject to the surtax imposed by that section instead of the surtax imposed by section 12 (b) (2) and section 12 (b) (3).

(b) Definition of head of household. (1) For the purpose of section 12 (c), the taxpayer shall be considered the head of a household if, and only if, he is not married at the close of his taxable year and maintains as his home a household which constitutes for such taxable year the principal place of abode, as a member of such household, of at least one of the individuals specified in section 12 (c) (3) (A) or provided for in section 12 (c) (3) (B). Under no circumstances shall the same individual be used to qualify more than one taxpayer as the head of a household in the same taxable year.

(2) Section 12 (c) (3) (A) specifies that any of the following persons may be used to qualify the taxpayer as the head of a household: A son, stepson, daughter, stepdaughter, or a descendant of a son or daughter of the taxpayer. If, however, such person is married at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer, the taxpayer may qualify as the head of a household by reason of such person only if the taxpayer is entitled to an exemption for his taxable year under section 25 (b) for such person, that is, only if such person has a gross income of less than $600 for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, if the taxpayer supplies more than one-half of the support of such person for such calendar year, and if such person does not make a joint return with his spouse for the taxable year beginning in such calendar year. For example, if such person is an unmarried son of the taxpayer, the taxpayer is not deprived of his status as the head of a household because the son has income in excess of $600 for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins; if, however, such son is married at the close of the taxable year of the taxpayer, the taxpayer still may qualify as the head of a household, but only if the gross income of the son is less than $600 for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins and the other conditions for allowance of the dependency credit under section 25 (b) are met.

(3) Section 12 (c) (3) (B) provides that a person for whom the taxpayer is entitled to an exemption under section 25 (b) for the taxable year may be used to qualify the taxpayer as the head of a household. Section 25 (b) provides that the taxpayer may be entitled to an exemption for any of the following persons:

(i) His brother, sister, stepbrother or stepsister;

(ii) His parents or one of his parents' ancestors;

(iii) His stepparents;

(iv) A son or a daughter of his brother or sister;

(v) A brother or sister of his father or mother; or

(vi) His son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, or brother-in-law;

if such person has a gross income of less than $600 for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, if the taxpayer supplies more than one-half of the support of such person for such calendar year and if such person does not make a joint return with his spouse for the taxable year beginning in such calendar year. For example, an unmarried taxpayer who maintains a home for himself and his widowed mother may not qualify as the head of a household by reason of his maintenance of a home for his mother if his mother has income of $600 or more in the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, or if he does not furnish more than one-half of the support of his mother for such calendar year.

(4) For the purposes of this section, a taxpayer shall be considered as not married if at the close of his taxable year he is legally separated from his spouse under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or if at any time during the taxable year the spouse to whom the taxpayer is married at the close of his taxable year was a nonresident alien. A taxpayer shall be considered married at the close of his taxable year if his spouse (other than a spouse who is a nonresident alien) dies during such year.

(c) Household. Section 12 (c) is applicable only where the household actually constitutes the home of the taxpayer for his taxable year and also constitutes the principal place of abode of at least one other person specified in section 12 (c) (3) (A) or provided for by section 12 (c) (3) (B) for such taxable year, without regard to the fact that the physical location of such household may have changed during such taxable year. It is not sufficient that the taxpayer maintain the household without being its occupant. The taxpayer and such other person must occupy the household for the entire taxable year of the taxpayer. They will be considered as occupying the household for such entire taxable year notwithstanding temporary absences from the household due to special circumstances. A nonpermanent failure to occupy the common abode by reason of illness, education, business, vacation, military service, or a custody agreement under which a child or stepchild is absent for less than six months in the taxable year of the taxpayer, shall be considered a temporary absence due to special circumstances. Such absence will not prevent the taxpayer from qualifying as the head of a household if (1) it is reasonable to assume that the taxpayer or such other person will return to the household, and (2) the taxpayer continues to maintain such household or a substantially equivalent household in anticipation of such return. The taxpayer will not be deprived of the benefits of section 12 (c) because such other person dies during the taxable year of the taxpayer if the household constitutes the principal place of abode of such other person during that part of such taxable year preceding death.

(d) Cost of maintaining a household. The taxpayer shall be considered as maintaining a household only if he pays more than one-half the cost thereof for his taxable year. The cost of maintaining a household shall be the expenses incurred for the mutual benefit of the occupants thereof by reason of its operation as the principal place of abode of such occupants for such taxable year. Such expenses include property taxes, mortgage interest, rent, utility charges, upkeep and repairs, property insurance, and food consumed on the premises. The cost of maintaining a household shall not include expenses otherwise incurred. Thus, such cost does not include expenses incurred for clothing, education, medical treatment, vacations, life insurance, and transportation. In addition, the cost of maintaining a household shall not include any amount which represents the value of services rendered in the household by the taxpayer or by a person specified in section 12 (c) (3) (A) or provided for by section 12 (c) (3) (B).

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.25-1 the following:

SEC. 310. GROSS INCOME OF DEPENDENT OF TAXPAYER (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Increase in amount of gross income permitted. Section 25 (b) (1) (D) (relating to exemptions for dependents of taxpayer) is hereby amended by striking out "$500" and inserting in lieu thereof "$600".

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950.

PAR. 5. Section 29.25–3, as amended by Treasury Decision 5893, approved April 4, 1952, is amended further as follows:

(A) By striking "as amended by the Revenue Act of 1948" from the first sentence of paragraph (d) (1); and

(B) By striking "$500," from the first sentence of paragraph (d) (5), relating to exemption for dependents whose gross income is less than a certain figure, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "$600 ($500 for a taxable year beginning after December 31, 1947, and before January 1, 1951),".

PAR. 6. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.51–1 the following:

SEC. 301. TAX TREATMENT IN CASE OF HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * * * *

(b) Computation of tax by collector. (1) Section 51 (f) (1) (relating to tax computed by collector in case of wage earners) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "In the case of a head of a household electing the benefits of this subsection, the tax shall be computed by the collector under Supplement T without regard to the taxpayer's status as head of a household."

* * * * * * *

(c) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951.

PAR. 7. Section 29.51–2 (c), as added by Treasury Decision 5649, approved August 25, 1948, is amended by adding immediately after subparagraph (3), thereof, the following new subparagraph:

(4) Head of household. In the case of a head of a household electing to make his return on Form 1040A in accordance with the rules prescribed in this section, the tax shall be computed under Supplement T without regard to the status of the taxpayer as the head of a household.

PAR. 8. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.402–1 the following:

SEC. 301. TAX TREATMENT IN CASE OF HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * * * *

(b) Computation of tax by collector.

(2) Section 402 (relating to effect of election to pay the tax imposed by Supplement T) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "In the case of a head of a household electing to have his tax computed by the collector pursuant to the provisions of section 51 (f), the tax imposed by section 400 shall be computed without regard to the status of the taxpayer as a head of a household."

(c) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after October 31, 1951.

INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DEC. 31, 1941

INCOME PURSUANT TO AWARD OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

[SEAL] JOHN B. DUNLAP,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to section 611 of the Revenue Act of 1951, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.42–1 the following:

SEC. 611. INCOME PURSUANT TO AWARD OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Notwithstanding section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code, amounts received, pursuant to an award under the order issued under the Railway Mail Pay Act of 1916 by the Interstate Commerce Commission on December 4, 1950, as compensation for the transportation of mail during 1950 and prior years shall be deemed to be income which accrued in the taxable years in which the services to which such compensation relates were rendered. Notwithstanding section 292 of such code, no interest shall be assessed or collected for any period prior to July 1, 1951, with respect to that part of any deficiency which the Secretary determines to be attributable to the inclusion of income in a taxable year by reason of the application of this section. Any deficiency attributable to the inclusion of income in any taxable year by reason of the application of this section may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period for assessment with respect to the taxable year of the taxpayer which includes December 4, 1950, notwithstanding the provisions of section 275 of the Internal Revenue Code or any other provision of law or rule of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

* * * * * * *

PAR. 2. Section 29.42–1 (a), as amended by Treasury Decision 5405, approved September 22, 1944, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "As to amounts received, pursuant to an award under the order issued on December 4, 1950, under the Railway Mail Pay Act of 1916 by the Interstate Commerce Commission, as compensation for the transportation of mail during 1950 and prior years, see section 611 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1951."

PAR. 3. Section 29.275–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5516, approved May 27, 1946, is further amended by redesignating present paragraphs (l) through (q) as subparagraphs (1) through (6) and inserting a new paragraph (l) immediately preceding the last undesignated paragraph thereof:

(l) Any deficiency attributable to the inclusion of income in any taxable year by reason of the application of section 611 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1951 (which qualifies section 42 with respect to the taxable year in which amounts received, pursuant to an award under the order issued on December 4, 1950, under the Railway Mail Pay Act of 1916 by the Interstate Commerce Commission, as compensation for the transportation of mail during 1950 and prior years are to be included in income) may be assessed at any time prior to the expiration of the period for assessment with respect to the taxable year of the taxpayer which includes December 4, 1950, notwithstanding the provisions of section 275 or of any other provision of law or rule of law, such as the provisions of section 3760 or the doctrine of res judicata, which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

PAR. 4. There is inserted immediately preceding section 293 the following:

SEC. 611. INCOME PURSUANT TO AWARD OF INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(b) Section 292 (relating to interest on deficiencies) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

(d) With respect to any corporation entitled to receive payment for the transportation of United States mail, if an award is retroactively received for the transportation of United States mail, and if such award is required to be treated as income in the year or years in which the mail was carried, then, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, no interest shall be due, with respect to any period prior to thirty days after such award is granted, for tax deficiencies resulting from the inclusion of such additional mail payments retroactively.

TERMINATION PAYMENTS TO FORMER EMPLOYEES CONSIDERED CAPITAL GAINS

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

[SEAL] JUSTIN F. WINKLE,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to section 329 of the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951, relating to capital gains treatment of certain termination payments to employees, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.117–1 the following:

SEC. 329. RECEIPTS OF CERTAIN TERMINATION PAYMENTS BY EMPLOYEE (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Taxability to employee as capital gain. Section 117 of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following subsection:

(p) Taxability to employee of termination payments. Amounts received from the assignment or release by an employee, after more than twenty years' employment, of all his rights to receive, after termination of his employment and for a period of not less than five years (or for a period ending with his death), a percentage of future profits or receipts of his employer shall be considered an amount received from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than six months, if such rights were included in the terms of the employment of such employee for not less than twelve years, and if the total of the amounts received for such assignment or release are received in one taxable year and after the termination of such employment.

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950.

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately after § 29.117–10, as added by Treasury Decision 5881, approved February 11, 1952, the following new section:

§ 29.117–11 Capital gains treatment of certain termination payments. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, certain amounts received by an employee pursuant to the assignment or release by the employee of all his rights to receive, after termination of his employment and for a period of not less than five years or for a period ending with his death, a percentage of future profits or receipts of his employer, that is, profits or receipts attributable to a period subsequent to termination of employment, shall, under the provisions of section 117 (p), be considered and treated as an amount received from the sale or exchange of a capital asset held for more than six months. The provisions of section 117 (p) shall have application to such payments only if the following conditions are met:

(a) The employee was employed by the employer, in whose future profits or receipts the employee has an interest, for a period of more than 20 years prior to the assignment or release by the employee of his rights in such future profits or receipts,

(b) The rights of the employee to a percentage of the future profits or receipts of such employer, which rights are the subject of the assignment or release, were incorporated in the terms of the contract of employment between the employee and the employer for a period of at least 12 years,

(c) The assignment or release was made after the termination of the employee's employment with such employer,

(d) The assignment or release conveyed all the rights of the employee in the future profits or receipts of such employer and conveyed no other rights of the employee, and

(e) The total amount to which the employee became entitled pursuant to the assignment or release was received by the employee after the termination of his employment with such employer and in one taxable year of the employee.

It is immaterial whether the contract of employment is oral or written provided the prescribed conditions are met. The requirement that the assignment or release be made after the termination of the employee's employment contemplates a complete and bona fide termination of the relationship of employer and employee and not merely, for example, a termination of such relationship under the particular contract or contracts of employment pursuant to which the employee acquired his rights in the future profits or receipts of the employer. The contract need not expressly provide that the employee shall share in the future profits or receipts of the employer for a minimum period of five years. However, if the contract does not expressly so provide and the assignment or release is made prior to the expiration of five years following the termination of employment, the terms of the contract considered in conjunction with the facts in the particular situation must establish that the rights of the employee to a percentage of future profits or receipts, in all probability, will extend to a period of not less than five years from the date of termination of employment or for a period ending with his death. Section 117 (p) has application only to an assignment or release made by the employee who acquired the right to a percentage of future profits or receipts of the employer, and has no application to amounts received other than as payment for assignment or release of such right. Section 117 (p) has no effect upon the determination of the income tax of the employer making the payment to the employee.

CERTAIN PAYMENTS TO ENCOURAGE EXPLORATION, DEVELOPMENT, AND MINING FOR DEFENSE PURPOSES EXCLUDED IN COMPUTING GROSS INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS NET INCOME

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

[SEAL] JUSTIN F. WINKLE,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) to section 306 of the Excess Profits Tax Act of 1950, approved January 3, 1951, and in order to conform Regulations 130 (26 CFR Part 40) to section 433 (a) (1) (P) of the Internal Revenue Code, as added by section 101 of the Excess Profits Tax Act of 1950, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately after § 29.22 (b) (14)–1, as added by Treasury Decision 5371, approved May 11, 1944, the following:

[SEC. 22. GROSS INCOME.]

[(b) Exclusions from gross income. The following items shall not be included in gross income and shall be exempt from taxation under this chapter:]

SEC. 306. PAYMENTS TO ENCOURAGE EXPLORATION, DEVELOPMENT, AND MINING FOR DEFENSE PURPOSES (EXCESS PROFITS TAX ACT OF 1950, APPROVED JANUARY 3, 1951).

Effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, section 22 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code is amended by adding the following new paragraph:

(15) Payments to encourage exploration, development, and mining for defense purposes. An amount paid to a taxpayer by the United States (or any agency or instrumentality thereof), whether by grant or loan, and whether or not repayable, for the encouragement of exploration, development, or mining of critical and strategic minerals or metals pursuant to or in connection with any undertaking approved by the United States (or any of its agencies or instrumentalities) and for which an accounting is made or required to be made to an appropriate governmental agency, and the forgiveness or discharge of any of such amount. Any expenditures (other than expenditures made after the repayment of such grant or loan) attributable to such grant or loan shall not be deductible by the taxpayer as an expense nor increase the basis of the taxpayer's property either for determining gain or loss on sale, exchange, or other disposition or for computing depletion or depreciation, but upon the repayment of any portion of any such grant or loan which has been expended in accordance with the terms thereof such deductions and such increase in basis shall to the extent of such repayment be allowed as if made at the time of such repayment.

§ 29.22 (b) (15)–1 Payments to encourage exploration, development, and mining for defense purposes—(a) Applicability of section 22 (b) (15). Section 22 (b) (15) is applicable only to amounts (1) which are paid to a taxpayer (i) by the United States or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States; (ii) as a grant, gift, bounty, bonus, premium, incentive, subsidy, loan, or advance; (iii) for the encouragement of exploration for, or development or mining of, a critical and strategic mineral or metal; and (iv) pursuant to or in connection with a plan of exploration for, or development or production of, such mineral or metal and an undertaking to expend or use any amounts received under the plan for the purpose and in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which such amounts are paid, which plan and undertaking have been submitted by the taxpayer and approved by the United States or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States; and (2) for which the taxpayer has accounted, or is required to account, to an appropriate agency of the United States Government for the expenditure or use thereof for the purpose and in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which such amounts are paid. Section 22 (b) (15) is applicable only to an amount which meets each test or requirement set forth in this paragraph. The section is applicable whether or not the payee is obligated to repay to the United States any portion or all of the amount so received. However, section 22 (b) (15) is not applicable to any loan or advance for the repayment of which the borrower's liability is unconditional and legally enforceable. Nor is section 22 (b) (15) applicable to any part of the purchase price of a critical and strategic mineral or metal received, whether before, on, or after delivery, by the seller from the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, irrespective of whether such purchase price is below, at, or above the established ceiling or currently prevailing market price. As used in section 22 (b) (15) and this section, the term "critical and strategic minerals or metals" means those minerals and metals listed in section 450 (b), as well as such other minerals and metals as are certified pursuant to such section as being essential to the defense effort of the United States and as not having been normally produced in appreciable quantities within the United States, and such other minerals and metals as are considered by those departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the United States charged with the encouragement of exploration for, and development and mining of, critical and strategic minerals and metals to constitute critical and strategic minerals and metals for that purpose. See, for example, section 7 of Order–1 of the Defense Minerals Exploration Administration, March 7, 1952, 17 F. R. 2090.

(b) Exclusion from gross income. For any taxable year beginning after December 31, 1950, any amount to which section 22 (b) (15) is applicable is, by the terms of such section, excluded from gross income. Section 22 (b) (15) also excludes from gross income for such taxable year any income attributable to the forgiveness or discharge of any indebtedness to which such section is applicable.

(c) Expense deduction; basis for gain or loss, depletion, or depreciation. Except as provided in this paragraph any expenditure attributable to an amount received by a taxpayer to which section 22 (b) (15) is applicable shall not be deductible by the taxpayer as an expense under section 23, nor shall any such expenditure increase the basis under section 113 of the taxpayer's property either for determining gain or loss on sale, exchange, or other disposition or for computing depletion or depreciation (including amortization under section 124A). Upon the repayment of any portion of any amount to which section 22 (b) (15) is applicable and which has been expended for the purpose and in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which it was paid to the taxpayer, any expenditures attributable to such amount made by the taxpayer shall, as provided in section 23, be allowed to the taxpayer as a deduction, and any such expenditures shall, as provided in section 113, increase the basis of the taxpayer's property, to the extent of such repayment as if such expenditures had been made at the time of such repayment. Such expenditures shall to the extent of the repayment be expensed or capitalized, as the case may be, in the order in which they were actually made. This paragraph shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950.

PAR. 2. Section 29.22 (a)–13 (a) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "For exclusion from gross income of income attributable to the forgiveness or discharge of a grant or loan made to a taxpayer by the United States for the encouragement of exploration for, or development or mining of, critical and strategic minerals or metals, see § 29.22 (b) (15)–1."

PAR. 3. Section 29.23 (a)–1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "As to the deductibility of expenditures attributable to a grant or loan made to a taxpayer by the United States for the encouragement of exploration for, or development or mining of critical and strategic minerals or metals, see section 22 (b) (15) and § 29.22 (b) (15)–1."

PAR. 4. Section 29.113 (a)–1 is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "For special rules for determining the basis, both unadjusted and adjusted, of property acquired or improved with the proceeds of a grant or loan made to a taxpayer by the United States for the encouragement of exploration for, or development or mining of, critical and strategic minerals or metals, see section 22 (b) (15) and § 29.22 (b) (15)–1."

PAR. 5. Section 29.113 (b) (1)–1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5873, approved December 7, 1951, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "For adjustment to basis on account of expenditures attributable to a grant or loan made to a taxpayer by the United States for the encouragement of exploration for, or development or mining of, critical and strategic minerals or metals, see section 22 (b) (15) and section 29.22 (b) (15)–1."

PAR. 6. Section 40.433 (a)–2 (p) is amended to read as follows:

(p) (1) Section 433 (a) (1) (P) is applicable only to amounts (i) which are paid to a taxpayer (a) by the United States or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States; (b) as a grant, gift, bounty, bonus, premium, incentive, subsidy, loan, or advance; (c) for the encouragement of exploration for, or development or mining of, a critical and strategic mineral or metal; and (d) pursuant to or in connection with a plan of exploration for, or development or production of, such mineral or metal and an undertaking to expend or use any amounts received under the plan for the purpose and in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which such amounts are paid, which plan and undertaking have been submitted by the taxpayer and approved by the United States or by an agency or instrumentality of the United States; and (ii) for which the taxpayer has accounted, or is required to account, to an appropriate agency of the United States Government for the expenditure or use thereof for the purpose and in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which such amounts are paid. Section 433 (a) (1) (P) is applicable only to an amount which meets each test or requirement set forth above. The section is applicable whether or not the payee is obligated to repay to the United States any portion or all of the amount so received. However, section 433 (a) (1) (P) is not applicable to any loan or advance for the repayment of which the borrower's liability is unconditional and legally enforceable. Nor is section 433 (a) (1) (P) applicable to any part of the purchase price of a critical and strategic mineral or metal received, whether before, on, or after delivery, by the seller from the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, irrespective of whether such purchase price is below, at, or above the established ceiling or currently prevailing market price. As used in section 433 (a) (1) (P) and this paragraph, the term "critical and strategic minerals or metals" means those minerals and metals listed in section 450 (b), as well as such other minerals and metals as are certified pursuant to such section as being essential to the defense effort of the United States and as not having been normally produced in appreciable quantities within the United States, and such other minerals and metals as are considered by those departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the United States charged with the encouragement of exploration for, and development and mining of, critical and strategic minerals and metals to constitute critical and strategic minerals and metals for that purpose. See, for example, section 7 of Order–1 of the Defense Minerals Exploration Administration, March 7, 1952, 17 F. R. 2090.

(2) For any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1951, and ending after June 30, 1950, any amount to which section 433 (a) (1) (P) is applicable is, by the terms of such section, excluded in determining excess profits net income. Section 433 (a) (1) (P) also excludes in determining excess profits net income for such taxable year any income attributable to the forgiveness or discharge of any indebtedness to which such section is applicable. For similar provisions with respect to exclusions from gross income for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, see section 22 (b) (15) and the regulations thereunder.

(3) Except as provided in this subparagraph, any expenditure attributable to an amount received by a taxpayer to which section 433 (a) (1) (P) is applicable shall not be deductible by the taxpayer as an expense under section 23 in determining normal-tax net income for the purpose of computing excess profits net income, nor shall any such expenditure increase the basis under section 113 of the taxpayer's property for such purpose either in determining gain or loss on sale, exchange, or other disposition or in computing depletion or depreciation (including amortization under section 124A). Upon the repayment of any portion of any amount to which section 433 (a) (1) (P) is applicable and which has been expended for the purpose and in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which it was paid to the taxpayer, any expenditures attributable to such amount made by the taxpayer shall, as provided in section 23, be allowed to the taxpayer as a deduction in determining normal-tax net income for the purpose of computing excess profits net income, and any such expenditures shall, as provided in section 113, increase the basis of the taxpayer's property for such purpose, to the extent of such repayment as if such expenditures had been made at the time of such repayment. Such expenditures shall to the extent of the repayment be expensed or capitalized, as the case may be, in the order in which they were actually made. This subparagraph shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years beginning before January 1, 1951, and ending after June 30, 1950. For similar provisions with respect to deductions and basis in determining net income for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1950, see section 22 (b) (15) and the regulations thereunder.

INCOME AND EXCESS PROFITS TAXES; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DEC. 31, 1941, AND ENDING AFTER JUNE 30, 1950, RESPECTIVELY

DEFINITION OF TERM "MINING" AND COMPUTATION OF GROSS INCOME FROM MINING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in sections 62 and 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 467; 26 U. S. C. 62, 3791).

[SEAL] JOHN B. DUNLAP,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 111 (26 CFR Part 29) and Regulations 130 (26 CFR Part 40) to section 207 of the Revenue Act of 1950, approved September 23, 1950, and to section 304 (d) of the Excess Profits Tax Act of 1950, approved January 3, 1951, which sections relate to the definition of the term "mining" and to the computation of gross income from mining, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 29.23 (m)–1 (f) of Regulations 111, as amended by Treasury Decision 5461, approved July 9, 1945, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting at the end of the second undesignated paragraph thereof (which paragraph begins with the words "In the case of a crude mineral product") the following:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1949, the term "mining" as used herein also includes so much of the transportation of ores or minerals (whether or not by common carrier) from the point of extraction from the ground to the plants or mills in which the ordinary treatment processes are applied thereto as is not in excess of 50 miles, and, if the Commissioner finds that both the physical and other requirements are such that the ore or mineral must be transported a greater distance to such plants or mills, the transportation over such greater distance. The taxpayer shall file an original and one copy of an application for the inclusion of such greater distance in the computation of his gross income from mining with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., attention of the Special Technical Services Division, Engineering and Valuation Branch. The application must include a statement setting forth in detail such facts concerning the physical and other requirements for the construction and operation of a treatment plant at a place nearer to the point of extraction from the ground as are sufficient to apprise the Commissioner of the exact basis of the application. If the taxpayer's return is filed prior to receipt of notice of the Commissioner's action upon the application, a copy of such application shall be attached to the return. If, after an application is approved by the Commissioner, there is a material change in any of the facts relied upon in such application, a new application must be submitted by the taxpayer.

(B) By inserting in the third undesignated paragraph thereof, after the words "transportation of such product" in the first sentence and after the word "transportation" in the second sentence, the following: "(other than transportation treated, for the taxable year, as mining)", and by inserting at the end of such paragraph the following new sentence: "For a description of transportation which is treated, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1949, as mining, see the preceding paragraph and section 114 (b) (4) (B), as amended."

(C) By striking the word "In" at the beginning of the first undesignated paragraph following subparagraph (4), and by inserting in lieu thereof the following: "For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1950, in".

(D) By inserting immediately after the first sentence of the first undesignated paragraph following subparagraph (4) the following:

For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1949, in determining "gross income from the property", the sale price of the product shall not be reduced by the costs and proportionate profits attributable to the transportation which is treated for such taxable year as mining, that is, so much of the transportation of ores or minerals (whether or not by common carrier) from the point of extraction from the ground to the plants or mills in which the ordinary treatment processes are applied thereto as is not in excess of 50 miles (or, if the Commissioner finds that both the physical and other requirements are such that the ore or mineral must be transported a greater distance to such plants or mills, such greater distance). Where such plants or mills are in excess of 50 miles (or of such greater distance) from the point of extraction from the ground, then costs incurred for transportation in excess of 50 miles (or of such greater distance) to the treatment plant and, if transported by the taxpayer, the proportionate profits attributable to such excess transportation should be subtracted from the sale price of the product to determine "gross income from the property". The amount attributable to transportation to be included in gross income shall be an amount which is in the same ratio to the costs incurred for, and (if transported by the taxpayer) the proportionate profits attributable to, the total transportation to the treatment plant as the transportation included within the term "mining" is to such total transportation.

PAR. 2. There is inserted immediately before § 29.114–1 of such regulations the following:

SEC. 207. PERCENTAGE DEPLETION (REVENUE ACT OF 1950, APPROVED SEPTEMBER 23, 1950).

(a) Transportation from mine. The second sentence of section 114 (b) (4) (B) (relating to the definition of gross income from property) is hereby amended to read as follows: "The term 'mining' as used herein shall be considered to include not merely the extraction of the ores or minerals from the ground but also the ordinary treatment processes normally applied by mine owners or operators in order to obtain the commercially marketable mineral product or products, and so much of the transportation of ores or minerals (whether or not by common carrier) from the point of extraction from the ground to the plants or mills in which the ordinary treatment processes are applied thereto as is not in excess of 50 miles unless the Secretary finds that the physical and other requirements are such that the ore or mineral must be transported a greater distance to such plants or mills."

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1949.

SEC. 304. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS (EXCESS PROFITS TAX ACT OF 1950, APPROVED JANUARY 3, 1951).

* * * * *

(d) Section 114 (b) (4) (B) of such code [Internal Revenue Code] is hereby amended by striking out "731 and 735" and inserting in lieu thereof "450 and 453".

* * * * *

(g) The amendments made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years ending after June 30, 1950.

PAR. 3. Section 40.453–2 (j) (3) of Regulations 130 is amended as follows:

(A) By striking the words "taxpayer establishes to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that" in the second sentence of subdivision (i) and in the first sentence of subdivision (iv) and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "Commissioner finds that both".

(B) By striking the words "taxpayer fails to establish to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that" in the second sentence of subdivision (iv) and substituting in lieu thereof the following: "Commissioner does not find that both".

(C) By inserting at the end of subdivision (i) of such section the following: "See § 29.23 (m)–1 (f) of this chapter (Regulations 111) as to the application to be filed with the Commissioner with respect to transportation in excess of 50 miles."

(D) By inserting immediately preceding the last sentence of subdivision (iv) of such section the following: "See § 29.23 (m)–1 (f) of this chapter (Regulations 111) as to the application to be filed with the Commissioner with respect to transportation in excess of 50 miles. The amount attributable to transportation to be included in gross income shall be an amount which is in the same ratio to the costs incurred for, and (if transported by the taxpayer) the proportionate profits attributable to, the total transportation to the treatment plant as the transportation included within the term 'mining' is to the total transportation."

(E) By inserting immediately after subdivision (viii) of said section the following:

(ix) The provisions of subdivisions (i) and (iv) of this subparagraph with respect to transportation of ores or minerals in determining "gross income from the property" shall not be applicable in computing the tax for a taxable year beginning prior to January 1, 1950, and ending after June 30, 1950. In the case of such a taxable year, the provisions applicable to transportation of the ores or minerals shall be those provided in § 29.23 (m)–1 (f) of this chapter (Regulations 111) for taxable years beginning before January 1, 1950.

[26 CFR Part 40]

EXCESS PROFITS TAX; TAXABLE YEARS ENDING AFTER JUNE 30, 1950

COMPUTATION OF EXCESS PROFITS NET INCOME

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissoner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U. S. C. 62).

[SEAL] JUSTIN F. WINKLE,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Regulations 130 (26 CFR, Part 40) are hereby amended by adding at the end of § 40.433 (b)–2 (a) the following new sentence: "In making the adjustment required by section 433 (b) (6) for dividends received, the limitation provided in section 26 (b) with respect to dividends in kind shall be applicable only if the dividend was received after August 31, 1950."

[26 CFR Part 40]

EXCESS PROFITS TAX; TAXABLE YEARS ENDING AFTER JUNE 30, 1950

TRANSITION FROM WAR PRODUCTION AND INCREASE IN PEACETIME CAPACITY

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing in duplicate to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32; 26 U. S. C. 62).

[SEAL] JUSTIN F. WINKLE,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 130 (26 CFR Part 40) to section 516 of the Revenue Act of 1951, approved October 20, 1951, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 40.435–1 the following:

SEC. 516. TRANSITION FROM WAR PRODUCTION AND INCREASE IN PEACETIME CAPACITY (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * *

(b) Technical amendments. Section 435 (c) (relating to determination of average base period net income) is hereby amended as follows:

(1) By inserting immediately after "445 or 446," the following: "or any subsection of section 459,".

(2) By inserting immediately after "or under such section" the following: "or subsection".

SEC. 523. EFFECTIVE DATE OF TITLE V (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Except as otherwise provided in section 506 (d), the amendments made by this title [including sec. 516] shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years ending after June 30, 1950.

PAR. 2. Section 40.435–1 (c) is amended by inserting "or any subsection of section 459," immediately after "or 446," and by inserting "or subsection" immediately after "under whichever section" in such section, so that such § 40.435–1 (c) as so amended will read as follows:

(c) Average base period net income; determination. The average base period net income is the amount determined under section 435 (d) (for computation, see paragraph (d) of this section), unless the taxpayer is entitled to the benefits of section 435 (e), 442, 443, 444, 445, or 446, or any subsection of section 459, in which case the average base period net income shall be the amount determined under whichever section or subsection, applicable to the taxpayer, results in the lowest excess profits tax for the taxable year.

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately after § 40.458–8 the following:

SEC. 516. TRANSITION FROM WAR PRODUCTION AND INCREASE IN PEACETIME CAPACITY (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) In general. Part I of subchapter D of chapter 1 is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to read as follows:

SEC. 459. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

(a) Average base period net income—transition from war production and increase in peacetime capacity. In the case of a taxpayer which commenced business before January 1, 1940, and since such date has engaged primarily in manufacturing, the taxpayer's average base period net income determined under this subsection shall be the amount computed under section 435 (e) (2) (G) (i) and (ii) if—

(1) The adjusted basis of the taxpayer's total facilities (as defined in section 444 (d)) as of the beginning of its base period (when added to the total facilities at such time of all corporations with which the taxpayer has the privilege under section 141 of filing a consolidated return for its first taxable year under this subchapter) did not exceed $10,000,000;

(2) The basis (unadjusted) of the taxpayer's total facilities (as defined in section 444 (d)) at the close of its base period was 250 per centum or more of the basis (unadjusted) of its total facilities at the beginning of its base period;

(3) The percentage of the taxpayer's aggregate gross income which was from contracts with the United States and related subcontracts was (A) at least 70 per centum for the period comprising all taxable years beginning after December 31, 1941, and ending before January 1, 1946, (B) less than 20 per centum for the period comprising all taxable years ending after December 31, 1945, and before January 1, 1950, and (C) less than 20 per centum for the period comprising all taxable years ending after December 31, 1949, and beginning before July 1, 1950; and

(4) The average monthly excess profits net income of the taxpayer (computed in the manner provided in section 443 (e)) for—

(A) The period comprising all taxable years ending with or within the last 24 months of its base period, and

(B) The last taxable year ending before the first day of its base period, are each 300 per centum or more of the average monthly excess profits net income (so computed) of the taxpayer for the period comprising all taxable years ending with or within the first 24 months of its base period.

* * * * *

SEC. 523. EFFECTIVE DATE OF TITLE V (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Except as otherwise provided in section 506 (d), the amendments made by this title [including sec. 516] shall be applicable only with respect to taxable years ending after June 30, 1950.

§ 40.459 (a)–1 Transition from war production and increase in peacetime capacity. (a) A corporation which commenced business before January 1, 1940, which has been engaged primarily in manufacturing since January 1, 1940, and which satisfies all the requirements provided in paragraphs (1) through (4) of section 459 (a) may compute its average base period net income under section 459 (a), for the purpose of computing its excess profits tax for any taxable year ending after June 30, 1950, instead of under any other applicable provision of the Code. The average base period net income computed under section 459 (a) shall be the amount computed under section 435 (e) (2) (G) (i) and (ii) and under § 40.435–5 (a) (7) (i) and (ii) and (b). If the taxpayer computes its average base period net income under section 459 (a), the base period capital addition provided in section 435 (f) shall not be allowed in computing its excess profits credit.

(b) The date the corporation commenced business shall be determined for the purpose of section 459 (a) under the rules provided in the regulations promulgated under section 445, relating to the computation of average base period net income in the case of new corporations. See § 40.445–1 (a) (2).

TAXES ON ADMISSIONS, DUES, AND INITIATION FEES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, that the regulations set forth in tentative form below are proposed to be prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. Prior to the final adoption of such regulations, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing, in duplicate, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington 25, D. C., within the period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposed regulations are to be issued under the authority contained in section 3791 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 467; 26 U. S. C. 3791).

[SEAL] JOHN B. DUNLAP,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

In order to conform Regulations 43 (1941 edition) (26 CFR Part 101), relating to the taxes on admissions, dues, and initiation fees under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, to Public Law 124 (82d Cong., 1st Session), approved August 24, 1951, and to sections 401, 402, 403, and 404 of the Revenue Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 183, 82d Cong., 1st Session), approved October 20, 1951, such regulations are hereby amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. The words appearing in parentheses in the heading beginning "Part 101" immediately preceding "Subpart A—Introductory", as amended by Treasury Decision 5562, approved May 16, 1947, are further amended to read as follows: "(Chapter 10 of the Internal Revenue Code as Amended by the Revenue Acts of 1941, 1942, and 1951; and Chapter 9A of the Internal Revenue Code as Amended by the Revenue Act of 1943, the Public Debt Act of 1944, and the Excise Tax Act of 1947)."

PAR. 2. The first sentence of the first paragraph of § 101.0, as amended by Treasury Decision 5562, is further amended by striking out the words "and section 622, Title VI, of the Revenue Act of 1942," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "section 622, Title VI, of the Revenue Act of 1942, and the Revenue Act of 1951,".

PAR. 3. Immediately preceding § 101.1, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 403. EFFECTIVE DATE OF AMENDMENTS RELATING TO ADMISSIONS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

The amendments made by sections 401 and 402 shall be applicable with respect to amounts paid on or after the first day of the first month which begins more than ten days after the date of the enactment of this act for admissions on or after such date.

SEC. 404. TAX ON CABARETS, ROOF GARDENS, ETC. (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

* * * * *

(b) Effective date. The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable only with respect to periods after 10 antemeridian on the first day of the first month which begins more than ten days after the date of the enactment of this act.

PAR. 4. Section 101.1, as amended by Treasury Decision 5562, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph (d):

(d) The Revenue Act of 1951 made further amendments to the Code effective November 1, 1951. In the case of the cabaret tax, the amendment became effective at 10 a. m. on November 1, 1951.

PAR. 5. Immediately preceding § 101.2 there is inserted the following:

PUBLIC LAW 124 (82D CONGRESS, 1ST SESSION), APPROVED AUGUST 24, 1951

* * * That section 3700 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "No tax shall be imposed in the case of admission free of charge of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States when in uniform."

SEC. 2. The amendment made by this act shall be applicable to admissions on and after the first day of the first month which begins more than ten days after the date of the enactment of this act.

SEC. 401. REMOVAL OF TAX ON FREE ADMISSIONS (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

Section 1700 (a) (1) (relating to tax on single or season tickets) is hereby amended by striking out the second, fourth, and fifth sentences thereof.

PAR. 6. Section 101.5, as amended by Treasury Decision 5682, approved December 30, 1948, is further amended to read as follows:

§ 101.5 Free and reduced rate admissions—(a) Beginning November 1, 1951. The tax imposed by section 1700 (a) applies to the amount actually paid for admission, and no tax is due in the case of a person admitted free of charge. Further, a child under 12 years of age admitted for less than 10 cents is not liable for tax.

(b) Prior to November 1, 1951—(1) General rule. (i) A person admitted free or at a reduced rate to any place at a time when and under circumstances under which an admission charge is made to other persons, is liable to tax (except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) in an amount equivalent to the tax on the amount paid by such other persons for the same or similar accommodations.

(ii) Where persons in a certain group or class, such as students 12 years of age or over, women, or members of a particular organization, are admitted at a price less than the established price of admission to the public generally, they are liable for tax based on the established price of admission to other persons for the same or similar accommodations. Women admitted free or at reduced rates to dances or any other place are liable for tax based on the established price of admission to other persons.

(iii) If tickets or cards of admission are issued the tax should be collected at the time of the issuance of such tickets or cards, while if no tickets or cards are used tax should be collected when the persons are admitted.

(2) Exceptions. (i) A bona fide employee of the management of the theater or other place, a municipal officer on official business, or a child under 12 years of age, is not liable to tax if admitted free but if admitted at a reduced rate is liable to tax on the reduced price, except that a child under 12 years of age admitted for less than 10 cents is not liable for tax. Bona fide employees are (a) those persons, including directors and officers, regularly employed by the proprietor of the place or attraction or regularly engaged in work or business transacted there, whether their duties require admission to the place or not, and whether on duty at the time admitted or not; and (b) other persons whose admission to the place is required for the performance of some duty to, or work for, the proprietor.

(ii) Persons in the military or naval forces of the United States when in uniform, members of the military or naval forces of any of the United Nations when in uniform, and members of the Civilian Conservation Corps when in uniform are not liable for tax if admitted free, and if admitted at a reduced rate are liable for tax on the reduced price. Except as provided in subdivisions (iii) or (iv) of this subparagraph, these exemptions do not apply to admissions after December 31, 1947.

(iii) Effective August 1, 1948, the tax does not apply to the admission free of charge of a hospitalized member of the military, naval, or air forces of the United States or of a person hospitalized as a veteran by the Federal Government in a Federal, State, municipal, private or other hospital or institution, provided such member or veteran is not on leave or furlough. Where it is necessary for an attendant to accompany such member or veteran so admitted free of charge, the tax does not apply to the admission of the attendant if he is also admitted free of charge. Where the exemption is claimed on behalf of a hospitalized member or veteran properly entitled thereto, who is singly admitted, the right to the exemption shall be evidenced by a statement, personally signed, of an administrative officer of the hospital or institution, identifying by name such member or veteran (and attendant, if any) and certifying that the member or veteran (a) is a hospitalized member of the military, naval, or air forces of the United States or a veteran hospitalized by the Federal Government, and (b) is not on leave or furlough. Where the exemption is claimed on behalf of hospitalized members or veterans who are collectively admitted the statement need not identify the members or veterans individually, but shall specify the number of such members or veterans (and attendants, if any) and certify that the members or veterans (1) are hospitalized members of the military, naval or air forces of the United States or are veterans hospitalized by the Federal Government and (2) are not on leave or furlough. In either case the statement evidencing the right to the exemption shall be taken up by the proprietor of the place, and retained as part of his records. (See § 101.32.)

(iv) Effective October 1, 1951, to and including October 31, 1951, the tax does not apply to the admission free of charge of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States when in uniform. This exemption applies to free admissions only.

(v) Newspaper reporters, photographers, telegraphers, radio announcers, and persons of similar vocation who are admitted free to any place for the performance of special duties in connection with an event and whose special duties are the sole reason for their presence and free admission, are not liable for any tax on admissions. Free admissions, including free admissions to spoken plays, etc., granted to such persons who are not admitted solely for the purpose of performing their special duties in connection with the event are subject to tax equivalent to the tax on the admission charge paid by other persons for the same or similar accommodations.

PAR. 7. Immediately preceding § 101.13 there is inserted the following:

SEC. 404. TAX ON CABARETS, ROOF GARDENS, ETC. (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Ballrooms and dance halls. Section 1700 (e) (1) (relating to tax on cabarets, roof gardens, etc.) is hereby amended by inserting after the second sentence thereof the following new sentence: "In no case shall such term include any ballroom, dance hall, or other similar place where the serving or selling of food, refreshment, or merchandise is merely incidental, unless such place would be considered, without the application of the preceding sentence, as a 'roof garden, cabaret, or other similar place'."

* * * * *

PAR. 8. Section 101.14, as amended by Treasury Decision 5385, approved June 30, 1944, is further amended as follows:

(A) By amending the paragraph (a) thereof to read as follows:

(a) (1) The term "roof garden, cabaret, or other similar place" includes any room in any hotel, restaurant, hall, or other public place where music and dancing privileges or any other entertainment, except instrumental or mechanical music alone, are afforded the patrons in connection with the serving or selling of food, refreshment, or merchandise, except that after 10 a. m. November 1, 1951, such term does not include any ballroom, dance hall, or other similar place where the serving or selling of food, refreshment, or merchandise is merely incidental, unless such place would otherwise be considered as a roof garden, cabaret, or other similar place. The exception with respect to ballrooms, dance halls, or other similar places, applies only to such of those establishments which are operated primarily to furnish music and dancing privileges and where the serving or selling of food, refreshment, or merchandise constitutes in fact an incidental or subsidiary service in relation to the furnishing of music and dancing privileges.

(2) A public performance furnished at a roof garden, cabaret, or other similar place shall be regarded as being furnished for profit for purposes of this section even though the charge made for admission, refreshment, service, or merchandise is not increased by reason of the furnishing of such performance.

(B) Example (1) following paragraph (c) thereof is deleted, examples (2) and (3) are renumbered (1) and (2), respectively, and the following is inserted as example (3):

Example (3). A dance hall is operated from 9:00 p. m. until midnight every Friday and Saturday night. The charge for admission varies according to the character of the entertainment furnished, so that when a name band appears, the admission charge is higher than when the music is furnished by a local band. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, potato chips, soft drinks and coffee are served at tables, and the number of patrons who can be seated at any time is substantially less than the number of persons who can be accommodated for dancing. The serving of refreshments is limited to the period when the dance hall is open. Patrons are not required to purchase refreshments. In this case, the dance hall is operated primarily for the purpose of furnishing music and dancing privileges and the sale of refreshments constitutes an incidental service. Amounts paid by patrons of the dance hall are not subject to the cabaret tax; however, the charge for admission is subject to the admissions tax.

PAR. 9. Immediately preceding § 101.15, there is inserted the following:

SEC. 402. EXEMPTIONS FROM ADMISSIONS TAX (REVENUE ACT OF 1951, APPROVED OCTOBER 20, 1951).

(a) Reinstatement of prewar exemptions. Notwithstanding section 541 (b) of the Revenue Act of 1941, the provisions of section 1701 (relating to exemptions from the admissions tax) shall apply to amounts paid on or after the effective date specified in section 403 of this Act for admissions on or after such date.

(b) Amendment of section 1701 (a) and (b). Subsections (a) and (b) of section 1701 (relating to exemptions from admissions tax) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(a) Certain religious, educational, or charitable entertainments, etc.—(1) In general. Except as provided in paragraph (2), any admissions all the proceeds of which inure

(A) exclusively to the benefit of—

(i) A church or a convention or association of churches;

(ii) An educational institution which is exempt under section 101 (6) or which is an educational institution of a government or political subdivision thereof, if such organization normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of pupils or students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly carried on;

(iii) A corporation or any community chest, fund, or foundation organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, exempt under section 101 (6), if such corporation or organization is supported, in whole or in part, by funds contributed by the United States or any State or political subdivision thereof, or is primarily supported by contributions from the general public;

(iv) A society or organization conducted for the sole purpose of maintaining symphony orchestras or operas and receiving substantial support from voluntary contributions;

(v) An organization (organized prior to October 1, 1951) which is exempt under section 101 (6) and which is operated for the purpose of conducting an annual chautauqua program of educational, cultural, and religious activities at a permanent location—

if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual;

(B) Exclusively to the benefit of National Guard organizations, Reserve officers' associations or organizations, posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual; or

(C) Exclusively to the benefit of a police or fire department of any city, town, village, or any municipality or exclusively to a retirement, pension, or disability fund for the sole benefit of members of such a police or fire department or to a fund for the heirs of such members.

(2) Nonexempt admissions. The exemption provided under paragraph (1) shall not apply in the case of admissions to (A) any athletic game or exhibition unless the proceeds inure exclusively to the benefit of an elementary or secondary school or unless in the case of an athletic game between two elementary or secondary schools, the entire gross proceeds from such game inure to the benefit of a hospital for crippled children, (B) wrestling matches, prize fights, or boxing, sparring, or other pugilistic matches or exhibitions, (C) carnivals, rodeos, or circuses in which any professional performer or operator participates for compensation, or (D) any motion picture exhibition.

(b) Agricultural fairs. Any admissions to agricultural fairs if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any stockholders or members of the association conducting the same—if the proceeds therefrom are used exclusively for the improvement, maintenance, and operation of such agricultural fairs; or

(c) Admissions to municipal swimming pools, etc. Section 1701 is hereby amended by striking out the period at the end of subsection (c) and inserting in lieu thereof "; or" and by adding at the end of such section the following new subsections:

(d) Municipal swimming pools, etc. Any admissions to swimming pools, bathing beaches, skating rinks, or other places providing facilities for physical exercise, operated by any State or political subdivision thereof or by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof—if the proceeds therefrom inure exclusively to the benefit of the State, political subdivision, United States, agency, or instrumentality. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "State" includes Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia; or

(e) (1) Home and garden tours. Any admission to a home or garden which is temporarily opened to the general public as part of a program conducted by a society or organization to permit the inspection of historical homes and gardens—if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(2) Historic sites. Any admissions to historic sites, houses, and shrines, and museums conducted in connection therewith, maintained and operated by a society or organization devoted to the preservation and maintenance of such historic sites, houses, shrines, and museums—if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

SEC. 1701. INTERNAL REVENUE CODE.

* * * * *

(c) Certain concerts. Any admissions to concerts conducted by a civic or community membership association if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any stockholders or members of such association.

* * * * *

PAR. 10. Section 101.15, as amended by Treasury Decision 5682, and § 101.16, as amended by Treasury Decision 5170, approved September 25, 1942, are stricken and the following is inserted in lieu thereof:

§ 101.15 Exemptions from tax—(a) Scope of exemption, effective November 1, 1951. (1) The admissions taxes imposed by section 1700 are of two classes: (i) Taxes on admissions per se to be paid by the person paying for admission, and (ii) taxes on charges in excess of the regular or established price of admission, which taxes are to be paid by the person selling or disposing of tickets or cards of admission at excess prices. Section 1701 (a) confers exemption, under certain conditions and limitations, from taxes of one or both classes. Admissions, or excess charges, are not exempt merely because the proceeds are to be used for a religious, educational or charitable purpose. The primary condition is that all the proceeds of the admissions or excess charges, as the case may be, inure to the benefit of the organizations enumerated in section 1701 (a) and the event is not of a type described in section 1701 (a) (2). (See paragraph (c) of this section). It may happen that the proceeds of admission charges inure to the benefit of exempt organizations and the proceeds of excess charges go to the benefit of nonexempt organizations or persons. In that event, the tax exemption applies only to the admission charges. Conversely, the situation may be that the proceeds of the excess charges, but not of the admission charges, inure to the benefit of exempt organizations. In that situation, the excess charges only are exempt from tax.

(2) The term "all the proceeds" means all the net proceeds of the regular admission charges or excess charges, as the case may be, after payment of actual and reasonable expenses incurred in presenting the event. Whether certain expenses are reasonable is to be determined on the basis of all the facts in the matter. If the expenses are in excess of what is reasonable and necessary under the circumstances, all the proceeds would not be deemed to inure exclusively to the benefit of the exempt organization. In any case where the amount to be received by a nonexempt person or organization for talent, services, or otherwise, is based on a percentage of the net or gross proceeds, the organization claiming exemption shall, before exemption may be allowed, establish that the maximum amount to be received on the percentage basis is a reasonable sum and not more than would ordinarily be received on a flat-rate basis for the same or similar talent or services, and that the contract actually operates to the benefit of the exempt organization.

(b) Organizations exempt from admissions tax—(1) General. (i) Under the provisions of section 1701 (a) (1) (A), exemption is granted with respect to admissions, other than those specified in section 1701 (a) (2) (see paragraph (c) of this section), all the proceeds of which inure to the benefit of certain religious, educational, charitable, or other organizations operating on a nonprofit basis. The mere fact that an organization is so organized or operated does not afford a basis for exemption. To be entitled to such exemption the organization must comply with all of the statutory requirements. There is no requirement, expressed or implied, that an institution, society, or organization, to be included within these exemption provisions, must be organized or operating in the United States.

(ii) For an organization to be considered a religious, educational, or charitable institution, or society, or organization of the kind contemplated by section 1701 (a), it must have a definite organization, with officers, directors, or trustees, and the usual essential features (incorporation not being essential) of an association of its class. The organization must also have a purpose which as put into practice is religious, educational, charitable, or of the nature specified by the statute. Furthermore, no part of the net earnings of such organization shall inure to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(iii) Other requirements which must be met by organizations that may be exempt from the admissions tax are set forth in subparagraphs (2) through (8) of this paragraph.

(2) Churches or conventions or associations of churches. (i) Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of a church or a convention or association of churches are exempt from tax. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

(ii) The term "convention or association of churches" includes a union of churches of the same denomination organized on a regional or other basis, or a union of churches of different denominations which meet and act in concert to further a particular religious purpose.

(iii) Missions and missionary societies, Sunday school classes, choir groups and other associations forming a functional part of the organization of a church fall within the exemption.

(3) Educational institutions. (i) Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of an educational institution are exempt from the tax, provided (a) the educational institution is exempt under section 101 (6), or is an educational institution of a government or political subdivision thereof, (b) the institution normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of pupils or students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly carried on, and (c) no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.) Generally, this exemption applies in the case of institutions engaged in the presentation of formal instruction, such as elementary and high schools, colleges and universities, through the medium of a regular faculty and curriculum with a regularly organized body of pupils or students in attendance. However, any educational institution exempt from income tax under section 101 (6), such as a museum, art gallery, etc., may also qualify under section 1701 (a) for an exemption from the tax on admissions but only if, as a substantial part of its activities, such institution maintains a regular faculty, curriculum, and student body.

(ii) Any organization sponsored and administered by an educational institution as a part of its educational program, and in which membership is open to any of the members thereof, is also entitled to exemption. Examples of such organizations are student governing bodies, athletic associations, dramatic clubs, language clubs, science clubs, and similar groups.

(4) Charitable organizations. (i) Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of a corporation or any community chest, fund, or foundation organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes, exempt under section 101 (6), are exempt from tax provided such corporation or organization is supported, in whole or in part, by funds contributed by the United States or any State or political subdivision thereof, or is primarily supported by contributions from the general public, and if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

(ii) Any organization having as its exclusive purpose the free assistance of the poor, incapacitated, distressed, etc., comes within the meaning of the term "charitable" as used in the Code. An organization is not precluded from exemption merely because its gratuities are limited to its members or their dependents.

(iii) Charitable organizations supported by funds contributed by the United States or any State or political subdivision thereof are entitled to exemption regardless of the extent of the support received and of the manner in which the funds are contributed, i. e., whether as payment for specific services rendered by the organization, by the allotment of any sum, or whatever other means may be used.

(iv) However, charitable organizations supported by contributions received from the general public, in order to show that they are primarily supported in such manner, must establish that more than 50 percent of all the income received by the organization, is derived from that source. Amounts paid for admission are not regarded as "contributions" for purposes of this exemption.

(5) Symphony orchestra and opera organizations. (i) Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of a society or organization conducted for the sole purpose of maintaining symphony orchestras or operas and receiving substantial support from voluntary contributions, are exempt from tax, if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

(ii) The name by which an organized group of musicians is called is not the test of whether or not such group is a symphony orchestra. It must have a personnel of sufficient size and ability to render symphonies capably and such symphonies must form a major part of its regular programs. Bands and ordinary orchestras are not included in the exemption.

(6) Chautauquas. (i) Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of a society or organization organized prior to October 1, 1951, exempt from income tax under section 101 (6) and operated for the purpose of conducting an annual chautauqua program of educational, cultural, and religious activities at a permanent location are exempt from tax, if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

(ii) The term "chautauqua program" means an operation designed to provide a series of meetings or assemblies of persons who are brought together for a common purpose, wherein a program of educational, cultural, and religious activities is carried on and during which courses of instruction in either educational, cultural, or religious activities are actually participated in by persons present for the program.

(7) National Guard and Reserve officers' associations or organizations of war veterans. Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of National Guard organizations, Reserve officers' associations or organizations, posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any of the foregoing, are exempt from tax, if organized in the United States or any of its possessions and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

(8) Police or fire department. Admissions, or excess charges, all the proceeds of which (after payment of reasonable expenses) inure exclusively to the benefit of a police or fire department (including a volunteer fire department) of any city, town, village, or municipality or exclusively to a retirement, pension, or disability fund for the sole benefit of members of such a police or fire department or to a fund for the heirs of such members, are exempt from tax. (For exceptions to this exemption, see paragraph (c) of this section.)

(c) Nonexempt admissions. The exemptions provided by section 1701 (a) (1) in the case of events held for the benefit of the organizations specified therein (paragraph (b) (2) through (8) of this section) do not apply with respect to admissions to:

(1) Any athletic game or exhibition unless the proceeds inure exclusively to the benefit of an elementary or secondary school; or unless in the case of an athletic game between two elementary or secondary schools, the entire gross proceeds from such game inure to the benefit of a hospital for crippled children. (See paragraph (d) (6) of this section.)

(2) Wrestling matches, prize fights, or boxing, sparring, or other pugilistic matches or exhibitions, irrespective of the status of the participants, the character of the organization sponsoring the event, or to whom the admission proceeds are payable.

(3) Carnivals, rodeos, or circuses in which any professional performer or operator participates for compensation. It is immaterial whether the professional performer or operator is paid for his services from the admission proceeds or from some other source.

(4) Any motion picture exhibition.

(d) Admissions to specific events exempt from tax—(1) Agricultural fairs. (i) Admissions to agricultural fairs the proceeds of which are used exclusively for the improvement, maintenance, and operation of such fairs are exempt from tax, if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any stockholder or member of the association conducting the fair.

(ii) The term "agricultural fairs" includes, in general, all exhibitions of farm produce, livestock, poultry, flowers, or the like held for the promotion or advancement of agriculture (including horticulture). It includes any exhibition of animals of a species whose chief utility is in connection with agriculture, held by an association organized to improve that species of animal and to disseminate knowledge concerning its breeding.

(iii) The exemption afforded with respect to agricultural fairs is limited to the general admission charge to the fair grounds or to any additional payment for seating accommodations offered in connection with any free event held in connection with the fair. The exemption does not extend to admissions to any exhibit, entertainment, or other event for which a separate additional admission charge is made.

(iv) The exemption of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph applies only to admissions to agricultural fairs and does not extend to admissions to events which may be conducted at the fair grounds by the fair association when a fair is not in progress, even though the proceeds from such admissions may inure exclusively to the benefit of the fair association.

(a) The following are examples of events regarded as agricultural fairs within the meaning of the statute:

(1) An exhibition of articles of garden produce to stimulate a "garden movement" in the community.

(2) A poultry show held by a poultry fanciers' association for the purpose of teaching poultry farmers how to secure the greatest possible egg production.

(3) A horse fair held by a society organized to improve the quality of farm animals, the animals exhibited being chiefly of that class.

(b) Examples of events which do not qualify as agricultural fairs include the following:

(1) A dog show presented by a dog fanciers' association.

(2) A horse show held primarily for the purpose of exhibiting fancy riding and driving horses.

(3) A food show presented by a retail grocers' association for the purpose of exhibiting raw food products, the processes of manufacture, the finished food products, and the food prepared for the table.

(2) Concerts. No tax is due with respect to payments for admission to concerts conducted by a civic or community association operating under a constitution, bylaws, or other rules or regulations providing for a definite class of membership, if no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any member or stockholder. This exemption applies only with respect to concerts and has no application to other entertainments given by any such association. This exemption applies regardless of the disposition made of the proceeds from the admissions.

(3) Municipal swimming pools, etc. (i) Admissions to swimming pools, bathing beaches, skating rinks or other places providing facilities for physical exercise, which are operated by any State or political subdivision thereof or by the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, are exempt from tax provided the proceeds from the admission charges inure exclusively to the benefit of the State, political subdivision, United States, agency, or instrumentality. The term "State", for the purpose of this exemption, includes Alaska, Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

(ii) The exemption applies where the payment for admission to the swimming pool, bathing beach, skating rink or other place providing facilities for physical exercise entitles the person making such payment to swim, skate, or otherwise use the facility offered. The exemption does not apply, however, where the only privilege afforded the person paying for admission is the right of being a spectator at any event, exhibition, tournament, etc., conducted at the place providing such facilities.

(4) Home and garden tours. Admissions to homes or gardens temporarily opened to the general public as part of a program conducted by a society or organization to permit the inspection of historic homes and gardens are exempt from tax, if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. This exemption applies regardless of the disposition made of the proceeds from the admissions.

(5) Historic sites. (i) Admissions to historic sites, houses, and shrines, and museums conducted in connection therewith, maintained and operated by a society or organization devoted to the preservation and maintenance of such historic sites, houses, shrines, and museums are exempt from tax, if no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. This exemption applies regardless of the disposition made of the proceeds from the admissions.

(ii) Historic museums not maintained in connection with historic sites, houses, or shrines are not entitled to exemption with respect to admissions thereto.

(6) Athletic events. Admissions to any athletic game or exhibition the proceeds of which inure exclusively to the benefit of an elementary or secondary school are exempt from tax. Admissions to any athletic game or exhibition between two elementary or secondary schools are exempt from tax, provided the entire gross proceeds from such game inure to the benefit of a hospital for crippled children. For the purpose of this exemption, the term "secondary school" includes any high school, or the equivalent thereof, through grade twelve.

(e) Scope of exemption, prior to November 1, 1951—(1) General rule. The several exemptions from the tax on admissions allowed by section 1701 of the Code and by the Interior Department Appropriation Acts prior to October 1, 1941, were terminated as of that date by section 541 (b) and (c) of the Revenue Act of 1941. Accordingly, except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, all amounts paid on and after October 1, 1941, for admission to any place are subject to tax, regardless of the purpose of the entertainment or affair and regardless of the organization or person to whom the proceeds inure. A child under 12 years of age admitted for less than 10 cents is not liable for tax. (See § 101.4.).

(2) Exceptions. (i) Amounts paid on and after October 1, 1941, for admission to theaters and other activities operated by or under the control of the War Department or the Navy Department within posts, camps, reservations, and other areas maintained by the Military or Naval Establishment shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this section, provided the net proceeds from said admission charges are used exclusively for the welfare of the military or naval forces of the United States. These exceptions are not applicable to amounts paid after December 31, 1947. (See section 11 of Public Law 384, 80th Congress.)

(ii) Effective August 1, 1948, no tax is imposed when a hospitalized member of the military, naval, or air forces of the United States, or a person hospitalized as a veteran by the United States in a Federal, State, municipal, private, or other hospital or institution, is admitted free, provided such member or veteran is not on leave or furlough. (See § 101.5 (b) (2).)

(iii) Effective October 1, 1951, to and including October 31, 1951, the tax does not apply to the admission free of charge of a member of the Armed Forces of the United States when in uniform. This exemption applies to free admissions only.

(f) Admissions by or for the benefit of Federal, State, or Municipal Governments. The fact that the authority charging admissions or receiving the proceeds thereof is the United States or an agency thereof, of a State or Territory or political subdivision thereof, such as a county, city, town, or other municipality, does not make such admissions exempt, in the absence of specific statutory provision. The Code specifically provides that the taxes on admission shall be paid by the person paying for admission. It is not, therefore, a tax on the person or authority selling the admissions or receiving the proceeds thereof.

§ 101.16 Application for exemption. (a) A determination concerning the applicability of an exemption provided by section 1701 may be obtained by the timely filing of a properly executed application for exemption on Form 755. This form may be procured from any collector or director of internal revenue. The application shall show the place and the occasion with respect to which exemption is requested. It shall be executed by an officer or duly authorized agent of the organization in control of the admissions or excess charges, or, in case of control by an individual, the application must be executed by him or his duly authorized agent. Where the proceeds of the admissions or excess charges will inure to the benefit of an organization not in control of such admissions or excess charges, the beneficiary shall join in executing the application for exemption.

(b) The application shall be filed with the collector or director of internal revenue for the district in which is located the place to which the admissions will be sold. It shall be filed as early as possible so that the organization may be advised in ample time prior to the date of the event of the action taken by the collector or director. The application shall be accompanied by the necessary supporting data specified therein, so that action can be taken without the necessity of additional correspondence.

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to the authority vested in him by law (Sec. 19, 39 Stat. 489, sec. 19, 42 Stat. 1284, secs. 1, 2, 3, 45 Stat. 593, 594, sec. 401 (a), 58 Stat. 738; 7 U. S. C. 257, 415b–415e), proposes to amend §§ 31.51 (a) and 51.151 (a) of the regulations governing the distribution of practical forms of wool standards and wool top standards (7 CFR 31.51 (a), 31.151 (a)), by deleting therefrom the words "seal of the United States Department of Agriculture and signed by", and inserting in lieu thereof the words "signature of".

Section 31.51 (a) as amended would read as follows:

§ 31.51 Practical forms; method of obtaining; conditions. (a) A complete set of the practical forms of the official standards of the United States for grades of wool (Grades 80's, or Fine, to 36's, or Braid, inclusive, mounted, 12 specimens), certified under the signature of the Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration or other official duly authorized by him, will be furnished, subject to the other conditions of this section, upon filing of an approved application and prepayment of costs thereof as fixed by § 31.52.

Section 31.151 (a) as amended would read as follows:

§ 31.151 Practical forms; method of obtaining; conditions. (a) Practical forms of the official standards of the United States for grades of wool top enumerated in this paragraph, certified under the signature of the Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration or other official duly authorized by him, will be furnished, subject to the other conditions of this section, upon filing of an approved application and prepayment of costs thereof as fixed by § 31.152:

(1) Sets: Grades 80's to 36's, inclusive, complete series, mounted specimens.

(2) Demonstrator types: Grades 80's to 50's, inclusive, individual, approximately 4 ounces in weight.

(3) Balls: Grades 80's to 50's, inclusive, individual, approximately 9 pounds in weight.

Any person who desires to submit written data, views, or arguments concerning the proposed amendments may do so by filing them with the Director of the Livestock Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within thirty days after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 19, 39 Stat. 489, sec. 19, 42 Stat. 1284, secs. 1, 2, 3, 45 Stat. 593, 594, sec. 401 (a), 58 Stat. 738; 7 U. S. C. 257, 415b–415e)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 12th day of November 1952.

[Docket No. AO 219-A1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN MEMPHIS, TENN., MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Federal Post Office Building, Room 36, Front and Madison Streets, Memphis, Tenn., beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t., December 2, 1952, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to conditions which relate to the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area and to the proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area (7 CFR Part 918 et seq.). These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Amendments to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Memphis, Tenn., milk marketing area were proposed, as follows:

By the Mid-South Milk Producers Association:

1. Amend § 918.6 to read:

§ 918.6 Memphis, Tenn., marketing area. "Memphis, Tenn., marketing area," means all the territory within the boundaries of Shelby County in Tennessee and Crittendon County in Arkansas.

2. Amend § 918.7 to read:

§ 918.7 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means any milk plant, except that of a producer-handler used during the delivery period for (a) the processing and packaging of producer milk, all or a portion of which is disposed of as Class I milk in the marketing area to wholesale or retail outlets, including plant stores; or (b) the receipt and cooling of producer milk for shipment to a plant described in paragraph (a) of this section: Provided, That any such plant which delivers less than 30 percent of its total milk sales during the delivery period to such a plant or handler shall not be a fluid milk plant.

3. Amend § 918.10 to read:

§ 918.10 Producer. "Producer" means any person, except a producer-handler whose milk is used for consumption as milk in the marketing area, which milk is: (a) Received at a fluid milk plant, or (b) diverted from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant: Provided, That any such milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the handler for whose account it was diverted.

4. Amend § 918.41 (a) to read:

(a) "Class I milk" shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat disposed of in the form of milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream, and any other fluid product including eggnog disposed of by a handler, and all skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for under paragraph (b) of this section.

By the Madison County Milk Producers Association:

1. Amend § 918.6 to read as follows:

§ 918.6 Memphis, Tenn., marketing area. "Memphis, Tenn., marketing area", hereinafter called the marketing area, means all the territory within the boundaries of Shelby and Madison Counties in Tennessee, and Crittendon County in Arkansas.

By Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

1. Add § 918.61:

§ 918.61 Handlers subject to other orders. In the case of any handler who the Secretary determines disposes of a greater portion of his milk as Class I milk in another marketing area regulated by another milk marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act, the provisions of this order shall not apply except that such handler shall make reports in such manner as the market administrator may require, which shall be subject to verification by the market administrator.

2. In § 918.81 delete "by the number of days on which milk was received during such month from such producer by a handler" and substitute therefor the following: "by the number of days in such month during which milk was received from such producer by a handler."

3. In § 918.91 (c) delete "2d day" and substitute therefor "1st day."

4. Make such changes as may be required to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect, may be procured from the Market Administrator, Manufacturers and Merchants Building, 198 South Main Street, Memphis, Tenn., or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be inspected there.

Dated: November 12, 1952.

ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1952–53 FISCAL PERIOD

Consideration is being given to the following proposals submitted by the Growers Administrative Committee, established under Marketing Agreement No. 84, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, as the agency to administer the terms and provisions thereof: (1) That the Secretary of Agriculture find that expenses not to exceed $152,000.00 will be necessarily incurred during the fiscal period August 1, 1952, to July 31, 1953, for the maintenance and functioning of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and (2) that the Secretary of Agriculture fix, as each handler's share of such expenses, the rate of assessment, which each handler shall pay during the aforesaid fiscal period in accordance with the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, at $0.004 per standard pack box of fruit shipped by such handler during such fiscal period.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with the aforesaid proposals shall file the same with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, Room 2077, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 10th day after the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. All documents should be filed in quadruplicate.

As used herein, "handler," "shipped," "fruit," "fiscal period," and "standard packed box" shall have the same meaning as is given to each such term in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Issued this 12th day of November 1952.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

National Production Authority

[Suspension Order No. 41; Docket No. 57]

JOHN J. NACLERIO ET AL

SUSPENSION ORDER

Administrative adversary proceedings in the matter of: John J. Naclerio, Frank Naclerio, Ralph E. Naclerio, Horace E. Hastings, co-partners doing business under the firm name and style of Paramount Roll Thread Co., respondents.

A hearing having been held on the above-entitled matter on the 24th day of October 1952, before Warren A. Seavey, a hearing commissioner of the National Production Authority, on a statement of charges made by the General Counsel of the National Production Authority, in accordance with the National Production Authority's General Aministrative Order 16–06 (16 F. R. 8628) dated July 21, 1951, and Rules of Practice 1, Revised (17 F. R. 8156), the respondents appeared by their attorney, Charles M. Copeland of New Haven, Connecticut; the National Production Authority was represented by James E. Agnew, of its Boston Regional Office.

By motion made by the National Production Authority through its regional attorney and acquiesced in by the attorney for the respondents, the names of the parties incorrectly spelled were changed to conform to the names as in the above heading.

All the respondents were duly apprised of the specific charges by the National Production Authority and were fully informed of the rules and procedures which govern these proceedings and the administrative action which may be taken.

The hearing: The facts were agreed upon by the parties and the National Production Authority, and a stipulation order was entered signed by all four respondents, their attorney, and the regional attorney for the National Production Authority.

The charges: The first charge was a violation of section 19 (f) of CMP Regulation No. 1, dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4127), as amended November 23, 1951 (16 F. R. 11860).

The third charge was a violation of section 6 (f) of CMP Regulation No. 3, dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4135), as amended September 15, 1951 (16 F. R. 9417).

The second and fourth charges were for violations of section 6 (f) of CMP Regulation No. 3, dated May 3, 1951 (16 F. R. 4135), as amended September 15, 1951 (16 F. R. 9417).

The first charge was withdrawn by the regional attorney.

The evidence indicated, as stated in the stipulation, that the third charge was merely a technical violation due to ignorance and that the respondents did not because of this use more controlled products than that for which they had received and were entitled to receive an allotment.

By this stipulation and by the oral admissions of their attorney, the respondents admitted violations of the second and fourth charges to the extent of 20 tons of copper wire production materials. There was no claim of willfulness. The overuse was the result of ignorance. The respondents constituted a partnership of relatively uneducated men, doing a small business largely with their own hands. One of the errors was the result of misunderstanding an answer to a question put to the local office of the National Production Authority.

The authorized tonnage for 1952 of the respondents was approximately 43 tons. If the total amount by which they have exceeded their allotment were deducted during the first and second quarters of 1953 (and it is impossible to direct a deduction thereafter), the respondents would not be able to conduct their business during such period. It is against public policy to deprive the respondents of the entire right to controlled materials during the first two quarters of 1953. The small businessman is a special ward of government, operating as he does without skilled attorneys who might otherwise save him from mistakes. On the other hand, the error cannot be ignored and the respondents by their excessive use have reduced the amount of copper wire production materials available to other consumers.

It is therefore ordered that during each of the first and second quarters of 1953, the allocations and allotments of copper wire production material which respondents might otherwise be entitled to receive are to be reduced by 7 tons, making a total reduction of 14 tons for the 2 quarters.

Upon proof of undue hardship during these quarters, I recommend that upon application a modification be made.

Issued this 28th day of October 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,

Hearing Commissioner.

Office of International Trade

[Case No. 141]

RICHARD T. Y. LEE ET AL.

ORDER REVOKING AND DENYING LICENSE PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Richard T. Y. Lee, Sueling Li, Henry T. S. Lee, United Global Corporation, 37 Wall Street, New York 5, New York, respondents; Case No. 141.

The Investigation Staff of the Office of International Trade issued charges against United Global Corporation, a domestic export-import firm, and its officers, Sueling Li, Richard T. Y. Lee, and Henry T. S. Lee, on October 7, 1952, charging that said respondents violated the Export Control Act of 1949, as amended, and the regulations thereunder, the administration of which is the responsibility of the Office of International Trade. The charges are, in substance, that said respondents knowingly made false representations to and concealed material facts from the Office of International Trade in order to induce the issuance of export control documents and to effect exportations from the United States.

More specifically, respondents are charged with having applied to the Office of International Trade during the period between January 5, 1951, and February 21, 1952, for an aggregate of eight validated export licenses to ship to a named consignee in Singapore a quantity of drugs valued at more than $56,000, and of having certified on each of such applications that they held accepted orders for the transactions described thereon, although they then held no orders from the named consignee or any other party. The charges further allege that in purported support of five of the applications filed as stated respondents appended spurious, fabricated copies of ultimate consignee statements on letterheads of such consignee previously obtained for such purpose and signed thereon a fictitious name purporting to be an official of such consignee with the intention of misleading the Office of International Trade into the belief that such ultimate consignee statements were prepared and transmitted by such consignee in Singapore. Finally, the charges allege that respondents concealed and omitted from such applications and from the shipper's export declarations authenticated by the Collector of Customs at New York to effect the exportations the material fact that there had been an intermediate consignee in Hong Kong for these export transactions.

In reliance upon the representations and statements made by respondents on such applications and in reliance upon the authenticity of the ultimate consignee statements appended thereto, the Office of International Trade granted and issued validated export licenses for each of such applications, except the one filed on February 21, 1952, and respondents made exportations to Singapore pursuant to the authority of such licenses. With respect to the application which was not granted, the Office of International Trade made an investigation abroad and ascertained from the consignee in Singapore that no order had been submitted to respondents for the transaction described thereon. The investigation was then extended to the other applications described herein and led to the discovery of the facts upon which the charges are predicated.

The above-named respondents, after receiving the said charging letter and following discussions by their counsel with officials of the Office of International Trade, submitted to the Office of International Trade, with the advice of and through their counsel, a statement in which they admitted, for the purposes of this compliance proceeding only, the charges set forth in the said charging letter, waived all rights to a hearing on such charges, and consented to the entry of an order the terms of which are set forth below.

The charging letter, evidentiary material relating to the charges set forth therein, and the above-mentioned proposal for a consent order have been submitted to the Compliance Commissioner for review in accordance with § 382.10 of the regulations. The Compliance Commissioner has held an informal hearing with the respondents and their counsel and with counsel for the Office of International Trade, during which he has reviewed the facts of the case, including extenuating circumstances claimed by the respondents, and he has concluded that the evidence considered supports the charges in the charging letter and has found the terms and provisions of the proposed order as consented to by respondents to be fair and reasonable, and has recommended that such order be issued.

The findings and recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner have been carefully considered, together with the charging letter, the evidentiary material, and the proposal for a consent order. It appears therefrom that such findings are in accordance with the evidence and that such recommendations are reasonable and should be adopted.

Now, therefore, it is ordered as follows:

(1) All outstanding validated export licenses held by or issued in the names of respondents United Global Corporation, Sueling Li, Richard T. Y. Lee, and Henry T. S. Lee, or any of them, are revoked and shall forthwith be returned to the Office of International Trade for cancellation.

(2) Said respondents, and each of them, are hereby denied and declared ineligible to exercise the privileges of exporting, receiving, or otherwise participating directly or indirectly in any exportation from the United States to any foreign destination of any commodity requiring validated export licenses, and of exporting any commodity to Canada. Such denial of export privileges is deemed to include and prohibit participation directly or indirectly in any manner or capacity, (a) in the obtaining or using of validated export licenses, (b) as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated export license application, (c) in any exportation from the United States to Canada, or to any other destination under validated export licenses, (d) in receiving any exportation from the United States exported pursuant to any validated export license, and (e) in the financing, forwarding, transporting, or other servicing of exports from the United States pursuant to any validated export licenses.

(3) Such denial of export privileges shall extend not only to the named respondents, and each of them, but also to any person, firm, corporation, or other business organization with which they or any of them may be now or hereafter related by ownership, control, position of responsibility, or other connection in the conduct of trade involving exports under validated export licenses from the United States or services connected therewith.

(4) This order shall extend for a period of fifteen (15) months from the date hereof: Provided, however, That upon the expiration of six (6) months from the date of this order, the order shall be suspended for the balance of the fifteen months and the export privileges denied herein shall be restored to respondents. In the event, however, that such respondents or any of them at any time during the fifteen-month period covered by this order knowingly violate any of the provisions of this order or any of the Office of International Trade regulations, the Office of International Trade may summarily at such time as it determines such violation occurred, issue an order which denies, to the respondent or respondents who have violated, all export privileges for the full nine-month period which has been suspended, without limiting thereby the Office of International Trade from instituting any further action based on such violation.

(5) No person or business organization shall knowingly (a) apply for or obtain any license, shipper's export declaration, bill of lading, or other export control document relating to any validated export license exportation from the United States of commodities, or any export control or shipping documents pertaining to exports to Canada, to or for any of the respondents or those persons and business organizations covered in paragraph (3) hereinabove; or (b) order, receive, service or otherwise act as a party or as a representative of a party to any validated license exportation of commodities from the United States, or of exports to Canada, in such manner that any of the aforementioned respondents or those persons and business organizations covered in paragraph (3) hereinabove will directly or indirectly obtain any benefit therefrom, without prior disclosure of such facts to, and specific authorization of, the Office of International Trade.

ALGONQUIN GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

ORDER GRANTING REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION AND FIXING DATE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

NOVEMBER 7, 1952.

On October 21, 1952, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin) filed an application, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, § 157.17 of the Commission's rules and regulations and "the inherent and implied power of the Commission," for a temporary certificate authorizing the construction and operating of a natural-gas pipeline system extending from an interconnection with the pipeline system of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation near Lambertville, N. J., to a point near Boston, Mass., and to deliver and sell natural gas to distributing companies and communities in New Jersey, Connecticut, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island.

On October 31, 1952, the Commission issued an order dismissing the aforesaid application because of the Commission's conclusion that said application "does not come within the purview of the authority of this Commission to grant."

On November 4, 1952, Algonquin filed an "Application for Rehearing, Reconsideration and Vacation of the Order of the Commission issued October 31, 1952, and for Oral Argument thereon before the Commission sitting en banc." In its application, Algonquin prays for reconsideration of the aforesaid order and for oral argument before the Commission sitting en banc.

The Commission finds: It is appropriate in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that Algonquin's request that the Commission's order issued October 31, 1952, be reconsidered and its request for oral argument be granted, as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) The application filed by Algonquin on November 4, 1952, requesting reconsideration of the order issued October 31, 1952, and oral argument thereon be and the same hereby is granted.

(B) The single issue of whether or not the application filed by Algonquin on October 21, 1952, for a temporary certificate of public convenience and necessity comes within the purview of the authority of this Commission to grant be and the same is hereby set for argument before the Commission on November 24, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room, Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

(C) Each party to the proceedings in Docket No. G-1319 desiring to participate in the oral argument hereinbefore ordered shall notify the Secretary of the Commission of the amount of time desired, on or before November 19, 1952.

Date of issuance: November 10, 1952.

Abandon by sale:

1. A 4-inch and 5-inch gas transmission line connection with the Cities Service Gas line at the Southeast corner of Section 23, Township 26 South, Range 21 East, Bourbon County, Kansas, thence North along the West side of Sections 23, 14, 11, and 2, Township 26 South, Range 21 East, thence North along the West line of Sections 36, 26, 23, 11, and 2, Township 25 South, Range 21 East, and along the West lines of Sections 35, 26, and 23, Township 24 South, Range 21 East, all in Bourbon County, Kansas;

Thence along the North line of Section 23, to the Northeast corner thereof, thence North along the West line of Section 13 to approximately the center of Section 12, thence in a northeasterly direction diagonally across Section 12 of Township 24 South, Range 21 East, and continuing in a diagonal direction Northeasterly across Section 6, to the Northeast corner of Section 6, Township 24 South, Range 22 East, then northerly along the East line of Section 31, to the Northeast corner of said section, then Northeasterly across Section 29 to the Northeast corner thereof, thence North along the East lines of Sections 20, 17, 8, and 5 to the Northeast corner thereof at the City Gate of the Town of Blue Mound, Kansas, Township 23 South, Range 22 East.

2. A 3-inch gas transmission line connecting with the aforementioned line at the Northeast corner of Section 22, Township 24 South, Range 21 East, thence West along the North side of Sections 22, 21, 20, and 19, Township 24 South, Range 21 East, thence West along the North line of Section 24, Township 24 South, Range 20 East, thence South along the West line of Sections 24 and 25, to the Towns of Moran, Kansas, in Township 24 South, Range 20 East.

Abandon and remove:

(3) Beginning at the West edge of the Town of Mapleton, Kansas, at approximately the Northeast corner of the Northwest Quarter, Section 28, Township 23 South, Range 23 East; running thence West along public highway to a point near the Southwest corner of the Southeast Quarter of Section 22, Township 23 South, Range 22 East, a distance of approximately 6½ miles, all in Bourbon County, Kansas.

Applicant proposes to abandon by sale the facilities described in (1) and (2) above to Southeastern Kansas Gas Company, Inc. (Applicant at Docket No. G-1891 for a certificate to acquire and operate), and to abandon and remove the facilities described in (3) above.

The application recites that Applicant proposes to dispose of its distribution systems in the towns of Bronson and Moran, Kans., together with properties and equipment appurtenant and incident thereto; and that in this connection an agreement has been consummated with Southeastern Kansas Gas Company, Inc.

The application further recites:

(a) That in 1946 Applicant owned and operated 7 disconnected pipelines, constructed in part, and in part acquired by purchase from one J. S. McLaughlin and Eastern Kansas Pipe Line Company. In connection with the acquisition of facilities from J. S. McLaughlin, a transmission line and two distribution systems in the State of Missouri were acquired by the Cyr Gas and Drilling Company (operated as a subsidiary of Applicant until 1951). In August 1951, the Missouri Western Gas Company purchased the physical assets of Cyr Gas and Drilling Company.

(b) Applicant has disposed of the facilities described in (3) above and has negotiated a sales agreement with Southeastern (G-1891) for the sale of the facilities and properties described in (1) and (2) above.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 28th day of November 1952.

The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-2085]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER INSTITUTING INVESTIGATION, TO SHOW CAUSE, AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

NOVEMBER 7, 1952.

The Commission, In the Matter of Northern Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-1618, by its Opinion No. 230 and order issued June 24, 1952, as amended by Opinion No. 230-A and order issued October 28, 1952, granted, upon the conditions therein specified, Northern Natural Gas Company (Northern) a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act authorizing the construction and operation of additional natural-gas pipeline facilities designed to increase Northern's delivery capacity north of Kansas from approximately 600,000 Mcf to 825,000 Mcf per day.[1]

The aforesaid order issued June 24, 1952, as amended, provided in paragraph (C) thereof in part as follows:

(C) As a condition attached to the exercise of the rights granted under the certificate herein, Northern shall:

1) Not, without prior Commission approval, alienate, sell or transfer the natural gas reserves disclosed in the record of this proceeding as being owned or controlled by Northern, as long as natural gas may be economically produced therefrom for rendition of the service herein authorized: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed to prevent the normal abandonment or trading of leases or wells for the purpose of improving Northern's gas reserve position or for the purpose of obtaining more economic or more efficient gas production operations, for rendering the service herein authorized, so long as such trading or abandonment of leases or wells is of the form and nature heretofore consummated by Northern, such as are reflected by the record in this proceeding, incident to its acquisition and development of the gas leases and wells disclosed by the record herein to be owned by it in the Panhandle, Hugoton and Otis gas fields;

* * * * *

(7) Not transfer the certificate herein issued, and it shall be effective only so long as Northern continues the operations hereby authorized in accordance with the provisions and requirements of the Natural Gas Act, this order, and of any pertinent rules, regulations, or orders heretofore or hereafter issued by the Commission;

On November 5, 1952, Northern filed in Docket No. G-1618, a telegram and a letter, both dated November 4, 1952, wherein it advised the Commission, among other things, that as of October 31, 1952, Northern sold and transferred to Northern Natural Gas Producing Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Northern, all of the gas leases and wells owned by Northern as of that date.

On November 7, 1952, the Commission by telegram advised Northern as follows:

"Your telegram of November 4, 1952, in Docket No. G-1618 states that as of October 31, 1952, Northern Natural Gas Company sold and transferred to Northern Natural Gas Producing Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northern Natural Gas Company, all of the gas leases and wells owned by Northern Natural Gas Company as of that date. As you know, the Commission's order issued in Docket G-1618 on June 24, 1952, as amended by the order issued on October 28, 1952, provides in subparagraph (C) (1) that, as a condition attached to the exercise of the rights granted under the certificate issued therein, Northern shall not, without prior Commission approval, alienate, sell or transfer the natural gas reserves disclosed in the record of that proceeding as being owned or controlled by Northern, as long as natural gas may be economically produced therefrom for the rendition of the service authorized by the certificate therein granted, subject to a stated proviso respecting normal abandonment or trading gas leases and wells for the purposes and of the form and nature there specified. Furthermore, as a condition, that order provided in subparagraph (C) (7) that, among other things, the certificate issued shall be effective only so long as Northern continues the operations thereby authorized in accordance with the specified provisions and requirements, including those of the order issued in Docket G-1618 on June 24, 1952, as amended. Assuming solely for purposes of this notice to you that the relevant facts are as stated in your telegram of November 4, 1952, you are advised that it now appears to the Commission that any operation after October 31, 1952, of any of the G-1618 facilities constructed under temporary authorization issued in that docket and heretofore operated either under such temporary authorization or under the authorization of the certificate issued October 28, 1952, or any construction or operation of the G-1618 facilities after October 31, 1952, is without certificate authorization from this Commission and accordingly in contravention of the requirements of the Natural Gas Act, including particularly Section 7 thereof, since it appears that the acts by Northern as stated in telegram of November 4, 1952, have rendered ineffective the certificate issued by the Commission's order issued June 24, 1952, as amended, by reason of the express provisions of the subparagraphs of said order referred to above. You are further notified that the Commission has adopted an order instituting an investigation, calling on Northern to show cause why the certificate in Docket No. G-1618 should not be found to be ineffective and accordingly without force and effect or should be revoked, and fixing date of hearing, said hearing to commence on November 20, 1952.

Upon consideration of the Commission's opinions and orders issued in Docket No. G-1618 and the matters hereinbefore referred to, the Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and desirable in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act and as an aid in the enforcement of the provisions of that Act that an investigation be instituted, that Northern be required to show cause, and that a hearing be held, all as hereinafter provided and ordered.

(2) It is reasonable and good cause exists for holding a public hearing, as hereinafter ordered, on less than 15 days' notice, because expeditious determination of the matters involved is required by the public interest in light of considerations set forth in the Commission's opinions and orders issued in Docket No. G-1618.

The Commission, acting pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 7, 14, 15, and 16 thereof, orders:

(A) An investigation be and the same hereby is instituted to determine all relevant facts respecting the sale and transfer by Northern of all of its gas leases and wells as reported by it to the Commission in its telegram and letter dated November 4, 1952, in Docket No. G-1618, and whether such sale and transfer constitute a violation of any of the terms and conditions specified in the Commission's order in Docket No. G-1618 issued June 24, 1952, as amended by order issued October 28, 1952, including particularly subparagraph (C) (1).

(B) Northern show cause, if any there be, why the Commission should not find and determine that: (1) Northern by its acts in selling and transferring all of its gas leases and wells, as announced in its telegram of November 4, 1952, in Docket No. G-1618, has so violated the express terms and conditions of the Commission's order issued on June 24, 1952, in Docket No. G-1618, as amended by order issued October 28, 1952, that the certificate issued in such dockets is ineffective and accordingly without force and effect; or (2) Northern by its acts and conduct has removed such a substantial portion of the basis upon which was predicated issuance of the certificate in Docket No. G-1618 that such certificate should be revoked.

(C) A public hearing be held commencing on November 20, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., with respect to the matters involved and the issues presented in paragraphs (A) and (B) hereof.

(D) Copies of this order be served on Northern Natural Gas Company, its resale customers, and the parties to the proceeding in Docket No. G-1618.

(E) The interveners in the proceeding in Docket No. G-1618, be and the same hereby are permitted to become interveners in this proceeding, subject to the rules and regulations of the Commission: Provided, however, That the admission of such interveners shall not be construed as recognition by the Commission that they or any of them might be agrieved because of any order or orders of the Commission entered in this proceeding.

(F) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: November 10, 1952.

STANDARD GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND PHILADELPHIA CO.

ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO EMPLOYMENT OF EXCHANGE AGENT

NOVEMBER 10, 1952.

Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard"), a registered holding company, having filed a plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, Step I of which plan proposes the retirement of Standard's Prior Preference Stocks through the distribution of portfolio common stocks; the Commission having approved said Step I on October 1, 1952; and the United States District Court for the District of Delaware on November 7, 1952, having approved and ordered the enforcement of said Step I;

The Commission's order dated October 1, 1952 (Holding Company Act Release No. 11510), having reserved jurisdiction with respect to the selection and employment by Standard of the Exchange Agent provided for in Step I;

Standard having filed an amendment on November 10, 1952, stating that it has selected Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Company of Chicago, Ill., as the Exchange Agent under Step I;

It appearing to the Commission from said amendment and the exhibits attached thereto that competitive conditions were maintained by Standard in the selection of the Exchange Agent and that it is appropriate to release the jurisdiction heretofore reserved with respect to such matter:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction heretofore reserved herein with respect to the selection and employment by Standard of the Exchange Agent provided for in said plan be, and the same hereby is, released.

NORTH AMERICAN CO. ET AL.

ORDER DIRECTING DISSOLUTION AND APPROVING PLAN

OCTOBER 31, 1952.

In the matter of the North American Company, Union Electric Company of Missouri, File No. 54-205; the North American Company, Respondent; File No. 59-95.

The North American Company ("North American"), a registered holding company, having filed a plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the act") providing, among other things, for its liquidation and dissolution and the distribution of its holdings of the common stock of Union Electric Company of Missouri ("Union") to the North American stockholders over a 2-year period, and the transfer of its cash and unliquidated assets to Union; and Union having joined in the plan to the extent necessary to effect its consummation;

The Commission, by notice and order dated May 5, 1952, having instituted a proceeding pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the act with respect to North American, and the Commission having consolidated the proceeding under section 11 (b) (2) with the proceeding under section 11 (e) of the act;

Public hearings having been held after appropriate notice, at which hearings all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be heard;

North American having requested the Commission to enter an order finding that the plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

North American having further requested the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, to apply to an appropriate court, in accordance with the provisions of section 18 (f) of the act, to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the plan;

The Commission being duly advised, and having this day issued its findings and opinion, on the basis of said findings and opinion, and pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations thereunder:

It is ordered, That North American take appropriate steps, consistent with the act and the rules and regulations thereunder, to liquidate and dissolve.

It is further ordered, That the plan be, and it hereby is, approved subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under the act and to the following additional terms and conditions:

1. The order entered herein shall not be operative to authorize the consummation of the transactions proposed in the plan until a court of competent jurisdiction shall, upon application thereto, enter an order enforcing said plan.

2. Within six months from the date or dates of acquisition, Union shall dispose of all securities or other interests in 60 Broadway Building Corporation, North American Utility Securities Corporation, Hevi-Duty Electric Company, North American Light & Power Company and Muzak Corporation, or the securities or properties owned by said companies, other than cash or its equivalent, as Union may acquire from North American.

3. Prior to the final distribution of the Union common stock to the stockholders of North American, (i) Union shall, by a charge to its earned surplus account, dispose of $6,211,371 presently included in its investment in its subsidiary, Union Electric Power Company, and appearing on its consolidated balance sheet under the caption "Premium on Securities of Subsidiary", and (ii) North American shall submit to this Commission for its approval North American's definitive proposals with respect to the Union Board of Directors as it will be constituted after the Union stock is all distributed.

4. Prior to the effective date of the plan Union shall file in these proceedings its commitment that neither it nor its subsidiaries will have as an officer or director any person who is also an officer or director of any other company which was formerly a subsidiary of North American.

5. North American shall pay only such fees and expenses in connection with the plan and proceedings relating thereto as the Commission may approve on appropriate application made to it.

6. Jurisdiction be, and it hereby is, specifically reserved with respect to the following matters:

a. The issuance and sale to banks by Union of $20,000,000 principal amount of promissory notes.

b. The contract to be entered into between North American and Union respecting the assumption by Union of the liabilities of North American.

c. The amount of cash to be paid by North American to its stockholders in lieu of fractional shares of Union common stock which would otherwise be issued to such stockholders.

d. The terms and provisions of the assistance to be provided by North American to its stockholders receiving four shares or less of Union common stock, in interim distributions, to enable such stockholders to dispose of such shares without brokerage charges or commissions.

e. The supervision of the efforts to be made by North American and its successor in interest to locate the holders of North American common stock, which stock is to be exchanged for Union $10 par value common stock under the provisions of the plan.

f. The entertaining of such further proceedings, entering of such further orders and the taking of such other action as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the plan, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof.

By the Commission.

[File No. 59-15]

NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND CO. AND NEW ENGLAND PUBLIC SERVICE CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING ON PLAN FOR LIQUIDATION OF REGISTERED HOLDING COMPANY

NOVEMBER 10, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that New England Public Service Company ("NEPSCO"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary company of Northern New England Company ("Northern"), also a registered holding company, has filed, under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), an amended plan for liquidation and dissolution dated November 4, 1952 ("Plan" or "present Plan"). On September 3, 1952, NEPSCO and the representatives of the various committees for the preferred and common stocks of NEPSCO and for the shareholders of Northern, and the representative of an individual preferred shareholder of NEPSCO, agreed to a compromise proposal with respect to the then pending plan for the liquidation and dissolution of NEPSCO. The stated purpose of the Plan dated November 4, 1952, is to complete compliance with the Commission's order of May 2, 1941, by effecting the liquidation and dissolution of NEPSCO. It is stated that said Plan is designed to put into effect the substance of said compromise agreement and thereby expedite this proceeding.

All interested persons are referred to the Plan of NEPSCO and the application for the approval thereof, which are on file in the offices of this Commission, for a full statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

1. The effective date of the Plan ("effective date") shall be March 15, 1953.

2. The consummation date of the Plan ("consummation date") shall be selected by NEPSCO and shall be not more than 90 days after the entry by the United States District Court for the District of Maine of an order enforcing the Plan, or if such order shall be appealed and a stay obtained, then within 90 days after such order shall become final upon appeal.

3. (a) NEPSCO will distribute its portfolio securities among its stockholders as hereinafter provided in the approximate proportion of 82 percent to the holders of preferred stock and 18 percent to the holders of its common stock.

(b) It is contemplated that regular current quarterly dividends on NEPSCO's preferred stock will continue to be paid until the consummation date.

(c) On the consummation date, NEPSCO will distribute to and among the holders of its preferred stock 866.402 shares of Central Maine Power Company ("Central Maine"), 189.091.5 shares of Central Vermont Public Service Corporation ("Central Vermont") and 404.320.7 shares of Public Service Company of New Hampshire ("New Hampshire"). For each share of NEPSCO preferred stock, the holder will receive the following shares of the portfolio stocks, subject to the provisions as to fractions of a share hereinafter set forth:

	Shares of common stock
	Central Maine	Central Vermont	New Hampshire
NEPSCO preferred stock:
$7 dividend series	6.0	1.3	2.8
$6 dividend series	5.25	1.15	2.45
Adjustment series	6.0	1.3	2.8

The shares of $6 Convertible Preferred Stock, of which five shares are outstanding, are exchangeable on a share for share basis for the $6 Dividend Series stock. Holders of the $6 Convertible Preferred Stock are not entitled to dividends nor to any voting rights nor to any rights as a stockholder whatsoever, except the right to such exchange. They will participate in this Plan only if they exercise their rights to make such exchange. The holders of NEPSCO's preferred stock shall be entitled only to the distribution provided in this Paragraph 3, which shall be in full satisfaction and discharge of all of their claims against, and interests in, NEPSCO and its assets. Certain dividend adjustments are provided for depending on whether the consummation date is on or before the effective date or is after the effective date. All of NEPSCO's debts and liabilities, including liquidation fees and expenses and fees and expenses in connection with this and prior plans, will be paid from NEPSCO's assets remaining after distribution to holders of NEPSCO's preferred stock.

(d) On the consummation date NEPSCO will distribute to and among the holders of common stock 182,600 shares of Central Maine, 38,442.1 shares of Central Vermont and 86,494.7 shares of New Hampshire. For each share of NEPSCO's common stock the holder will receive the following shares of portfolio stocks, subject to the provisions as to fractions of a share hereinafter set forth:

	Shares of common stock
	Central Maine	Central Vermont	New Hampshire
NEPSCO common stock	10/100	4/100	9/100

Such distribution will result in 6,179 shares of Central Maine, 4,134.9 shares of Central Vermont and 3,041.4 shares of New Hampshire remaining available for sale to provide in part the cash estimated to be required for NEPSCO's debts and liabilities. Prior to the consummation date, NEPSCO will sell such available shares. NEPSCO estimates that upon such sale, it will have sufficient funds, together with such funds which it may accumulate prior to its liquidation, to pay all of its debts and liabilities, including fees and expenses in connection with this plan and prior plans. NEPSCO will pay such fees and expenses in connection with this Plan and prior plans as the Commission may determine, award or allocate upon the petition of any interested person, but not more than the amounts so determined, awarded or allocated. To the extent, if any, that NEPSCO's debts and liabilities, including liquidation fees and expenses and fees and expenses in connection with this and prior plans, are less than the assets remaining after the distribution of the portfolio stocks, and balance of such assets will be distributed to and among the holders of NEPSCO's common stock.

4. (a) Not later than 30 days prior to the consummation date, NEPSCO will appoint a bank or trust company approved by the Commission to act as liquidation trustee and to make the distributions provided for in the Plan.

(b) No fractions of a share of the stock of Central Maine, Central Vermont or New Hampshire will be issued, but in each case the Liquidation Trustee will issue bearer scrip certificates which, when surrendered, together with one or more similar certificates aggregating at least one whole share, will entitle the holder, at any time during a period commencing on the consummation date and ending one year thereafter, to a stock certificate for the number of whole shares represented by the scrip certificates surrendered and a new scrip certificate for any remaining fractions. Scrip certificates shall not entitle the holder thereof to any rights as a stockholder, or to the distribution of portfolio stocks under this Plan, unless and until the scrip is combined and exchanged for certificates for one or more full shares within one year from the consummation date. Scrip certificates will contain a provision to the effect that holders thereof may direct the Liquidation Trustee during the said period of one year to sell the same for the account of the holder or to purchase for the account of the holder additional certificates to make, together with the scrip certificates aggregating less than a full share then held, one full share, without charge or commission to the holder.

At the expiration of said period of 1 year, the Liquidation Trustee shall convert into cash, through either public or private sale, a number of shares of portfolio stocks equal to the aggregate number of shares represented by the then outstanding scrip certificates, disregarding any fractional shares. Holders of scrip certificates shall thereupon, and until the end of a period of 5 years from and after the consummation date, be entitled to present such scrip certificates to the Liquidation Trustee and receive in payment and cancellation of the same such sum of money as may be represented by such scrip certificates, the amount thereof to be determined by the Liquidation Trustee on the basis of the net proceeds received by it from the sale, authorized in this paragraph, of the shares of portfolio stocks.

(c) The right of holders of preferred stock and of holders of common stock of NEPSCO, and of the holders of scrip certificates issued under, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 (b) above, to receive the distributions provided by this plan, other than the distribution provided in this paragraph below, shall expire at the end of a period of 5 years from and after the consummation date. Upon the expiration of said 5-year period, the Liquidation Trustee shall convert into cash, in such manner as it may determine, all of the unclaimed portfolio stocks remaining in its hands and promptly thereafter shall distribute such cash (and any other cash in its hands available for distribution) pro rata to and among the former holders of common stock of NEPSCO who, pursuant to this Plan, shall have surrendered their certificates therefor prior to the expiration of said 5-year period. For this purpose, the Liquidation Trustee shall keep an authentic list of the holders of common stock of NEPSCO who have so surrendered their certificates for cancellation.

(d) NEPSCO will pay to the Liquidation Trustee sufficient cash to provide for the payment of the latter's expenses incurred in carrying out this Plan and reasonable compensation for his services hereunder.

(e) Each check issued and delivered by the Liquidation Trustee to holders of NEPSCO's stocks or of scrip certificates shall be and become void unless presented for payment at or before the expiration of 5 years from the consummation date, or within 120 days after its date, whichever shall be later, and each such check shall contain an appropriate legend to this effect. Any funds, represented by checks which have become void, shall be distributed to NEPSCO's utility subsidiaries in the proportion of 61 percent to Central Maine, 10 percent to Central Vermont and 29 percent to New Hampshire.

5. As soon as NEPSCO shall have made the portfolio stocks and any cash available to the holders of its preferred stock and common stock as herein provided, and shall have paid or provided for the payment of its debts and liabilities, including liquidation fees and expenses, and fees and expenses in connection with this and prior plans, it will initiate proceedings under Maine law for its dissolution and will pursue the same with due diligence to the end that it will cease to exist as a corporation as soon as orderly procedure will permit.

6. Provisions with respect to the directors of NEPSCO's subsidiary corporations will be supplied by amendment.

7. Provisions with respect to NEPSCO Services, Inc., all of the securities of which are owned by NEPSCO's subsidiary corporations, will be supplied by amendment.

8. Appendix II to the Plan contains proposals for the amendment of NEPSCO's Amended Plan for Corporate Simplification by Retirement of Prior Lien Stock, dated March 8, 1947, so that all rights of the holders of NEPSCO's Prior Lien Preferred stock to receive cash and Certificates of Contingent Interest shall cease at the expiration of 5 years from the consummation date of the present Plan, and so that the date at which the Certificates of Contingent Interest shall become void shall be extended from January 29, 1956, to the expiration of 5 years from the consummation date of the present Plan, and it is further provided that any funds remaining in the hands of the said trustee at the expiration of said period, including those payable to NEPSCO in accordance with the terms of the escrow agreement securing payments to the holders of said Certificates of Contingent Interest, shall be transferred to the Liquidation Trustee under NEPSCO's present Plan. Said Liquidation Trustee shall distribute such funds to those holders of certificates for common stock of NEPSCO who shall have surrendered same in accordance with NEPSCO's present Plan.

9. NEPSCO will request the Commission to apply to an appropriate District

Court to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the Plan and will also request that the orders of the Commission relating to the distribution pursuant to the plan contain the recitals and other provisions necessary to bring the transaction involved herein under section 1808 (f) and Supplement R of the Internal Revenue Code. The Plan states that NEPSCO is informed that Northern, a registered holding company of which NEPSCO is a subsidiary company, will seasonably file a plan for liquidation and dissolution under section 11 (e) of the act so that such plan may be considered and hearings held thereon concurrently with hearings on this plan or as the Commission may order.

10. NEPSCO reserves the right to amend this Plan at any time and from time to time, with the approval of the other parties to the stipulation entered into on September 3, 1952, but if the Securities and Exchange Commission shall at the time have approved this Plan, then only with the approval of the Commission, and if the court referred to above shall at the time also have approved this Plan, then only with the approval of the Commission and of said court.

The Commission being required by the provisions of section 11 (e) of the act before approving any plan submitted thereunder to find, after notice and opportunity for hearing that the plan, as submitted, or as modified, is necessary to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of the act and is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby; and it appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that notice be given and a hearing be held with respect to said plan to afford all interested persons an opportunity to be heard with respect thereto, and that said plan shall not become effective except pursuant to further order of the Commission:

It is ordered, That a hearing on said Plan, pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and the rules thereunder be held on December 2, 1952, at 11 a. m., e. s. t., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., in such room as may be designated by the hearing room clerk in Room 193.

It is further ordered, That any person, other than those persons who previously have been granted participation in this proceeding, desiring to be heard in connection with this proceeding, or otherwise participate herein, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission on or before December 1, 1952, his request or application therefor as provided in Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission.

It is further ordered, That Edward C. Johnson, or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing in the proceeding. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the act and to a hearing officer under the Commission's rules of practice.

The Division of Public Utilities of the Commission having advised the Commission that it has made a preliminary examination of the Plan and that upon the basis thereof, the following matters and questions are presented for consideration without prejudice to its specifying additional matters and questions upon further examination:

1. Whether the Plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act, and is in conformity with the requirements of the Commission's order of May 2, 1941;

2. Whether the Plan is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

3. Whether the cut-off dates proposed for unsurrendered certificates for Prior Lien Preferred stock and Certificates of Contingent interest are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby;

4. What provisions should be contained in the Plan relating to the nomination, election and qualification of the Boards of Directors of Central Maine, Central Vermont, and New Hampshire.

5. What provisions should be contained in the Plan in respect to the service contracts of Central Maine, Central Vermont and New Hampshire with Nepsco Services, Inc. and with respect to the continuation of the company last-named as a mutual service company;

6. Whether the accounting entries are proper and conform to sound accounting principles;

7. Whether the fees and expenses and other remuneration which may be claimed in connection with this Plan and prior plans, and transactions incident thereto, are for necessary services and are reasonable in amount;

8. Generally, whether the proposed transactions are in all respects in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers and consistent with all applicable requirements of the act and rules thereunder, and whether any terms and conditions should be imposed to satisfy the applicable statutory standards.

It is further ordered, That attention be directed at said hearing to the foregoing issues and such other matters and questions as may be presented by this Plan.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be reserved to separate either for hearing, in whole or in part, or for disposition, in whole or in part, any of the issues, questions or matters herein set forth, or which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate with these proceedings other filings or matters pertaining to the subject matter of these proceedings, and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economical disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall give notice of the aforesaid hearing by mailing copies of this notice and order by registered mail to New England Public Service Company, Northern New England Company, Central Maine Power Company, Central Vermont Public Service Corporation, Public Service Company of New Hampshire, The Federal Power Commission, Public Service Commission of New Hampshire, Public Service Commission of Vermont, and Public Utilities Commission of Maine, and to all other persons previously granted participation in these proceedings; and that notice to all other persons shall be given by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER and by general release of this Commission with respect to this notice and order be distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

It is further ordered, That New England Public Service Company give notice of this hearing to all record holders of its preferred and common stocks, to the holders of unsurrendered certificates for Prior Lien Preferred stock and Certificates of Contingent Interest, and to the record shareholders of Northern New England Company by mailing a copy of this notice and order and of the proposed Plan to such security holders at least 10 days prior to the date set for hearing.

By the Commission.

ATLAS CORP. AND ITALIAN SUPERPOWER CORP.

NOTICE OF AMENDED APPLICATION

NOVEMBER 12, 1952.

Notice is hereby given that Atlas Corporation ("Atlas") has filed an application pursuant to section 17 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 for an order of the Commission exempting from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the act certain transactions between Atlas Corporation and Istituto per la Ricostruzione Industriale ("IRI") relating to the purchase of certain obligations and securities of Italian Superpower Corporation ("ISP").

The following appears from the application:

Atlas and ISP are closed-end, nondiversified companies of the management type registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. IRI is an agency of the Italian Government. Atlas and IRI each own 50 percent of the voting stock of ISP and by reason of this fact each is an affiliate of the ISP within the meaning of the act.

The principal items in the balance sheet of ISP as of September 30, 1952, were:

[000's omitted]

Cash in the United States (exclusive of cash held in trust or otherwise for benefit of debenture coupons maturing July 1, 1941 and earlier)	$525
Cash (lire) on deposit in Italy at the official rate of exchange	1, 21
Market value (lire) of portfolio securities at the official rate of exchange	12 250
	14 402
Aggregate of principal amount of debentures and accrued interest thereon	14 579

The capitalization and ownership of securities of ISP as of September 30, 1952, adjusted for the recent acquisition by Atlas of certain ISP debentures referred to below was:

	Authorized	Outstanding	Held by IRI	Percent	Held by Atlas	Percent	Held by public	Percent
35-year 6 percent gold debentures, Series A, due 1963		$8,704,000	$3,883,000	44.6	$1,582,000	18.1	$3,239,000	37.2
Coupons on debentures in default—matured Jan. 1, 1942, and subsequent (face amount approximately $672 per $1,000 debenture) estimated		$5,875,260	$2,621,025	44.6	$1,067,850	18.1	$2,186,385	37.2

Common, class A (nonvoting)	1,400,000 shares	970,015 shares	559,129 shares	57.6	190,887 shares	20.6	410,029 shares	42.4
Common, class B:
First series	75,000 shares	75,000 shares	75,000 shares
Second series	75,000 shares	75,000 shares			75,000 shares

Atlas has owned its stock interest in ISP for many years. During the period from July 1, 1952, through October 30, 1952, as a result of a general offer to purchase ISP debentures Atlas acquired at the bid price of 115, $1,582,000 principal amount of such debentures. IRI has owned the shares and debentures held by it for several years.

Atlas proposes to purchase from IRI all of the stock of ISP held by IRI and $815,430 face amount of unpaid coupons attached to ISP debentures which matured July 1, 1949, to July 1, 1952, for $350,000. IRI has agreed to apply such amount to the purchase of a number of shares of Meridionale Electric Company held by ISP having a market value equal to that sum at the time of such purchase.

Following the above transaction ISP is to change its name to Wasatch Corporation, increase its authorized capitalization, reclassify the present common stocks into one class, to change the number of issued and outstanding shares of common stock resulting so that for each 20 shares presently outstanding there shall be only 1 share outstanding, and to change the provisions of the prior preferred stock, none of which is outstanding, to make such stock convertible into common stock, provide for a liquidation preference of $5 per share and in certain other ways. Reference is made to the table below which sets forth certain information with respect to the resulting capitalization of ISP.

ISP will offer to the holders of the $6 cumulative preferred shares the opportunity to exchange such shares (together with all arrears in dividends thereon) for either (a) 1 share of prior preferred stock and 3 shares of common stock (as constituted after the capital changes described above) or (b) 10 shares of common stock. Such offer is to be made as soon as practicable after the filing of the certificate of amendment to the amended certificate of incorporation of ISP and is to remain open for a period of not less than 10 days and not more than 21 days. Atlas has agreed to invest in additional common stock of ISP on or before July 1, 1953, so that the balance sheet of ISP will show assets equal to liabilities plus $5 per share for each share of prior preferred stock outstanding. Atlas may surrender notes held by it, coupons or debentures in satisfaction of such obligation.

In addition Atlas will advance to ISP before December 31, 1952, approximately $1,600,000 (in return for a note or prior preferred stock) to be used together with other ISP funds to pay on January 3, 1953, all the due and unpaid coupons, in amount of $2,234,910, on the $3,239,000 principal amount of debentures held by the public. IRI will not present the coupons held by it for payment prior to January 4, 1954.

Atlas has agreed to convert the coupons in the face amount of $815,430 which will be purchased from IRI into prior preferred stock. In addition, the claim for coupons in the face amount of $1,092,270 (which comprises the coupons which have matured or will mature on January 3, 1953) pertaining to the debentures held by Atlas will be converted into a note of ISP or into prior preferred stock of ISP.

Any note issued by ISP to evidence the advance of funds by Atlas referred to above or issued in exchange for coupons will bear interest at 5 percent, be due in less than one year and will be subordinated to the claims for the principal amount of the debentures in the hands of the public. Such note would be convertible in whole or part into prior preferred stock of ISP.

	Authorized	Outstanding	Held by IRI	Percent	Held by Atlas	Percent	Held by public	Percent
Debentures		$8,704,000	$3,883,000	44.6	$1,582,000	18.2	$3,239,000	37.2
Matured coupons		$1,925,850	$1,925,850	100.0
Notes payable to Atlas		$2,092,270			$2,092,270	100.0
Prior preferred stock	850,000 shares	163,086 shares			163,086 shares	100.0
$6 cumulative preferred stock	150,000 shares	124,172 shares			115,889 shares	93.3	8,283 shares	6.7
Common stock	19,000,000 shares	56,000 shares			35,451 shares	63.3	20,549 shares	36.7

It is intended that on or before January 5, 1954, ISP will exchange certain of its portfolio securities for the $3,883,000 principal amount of debentures and all matured and unmatured coupons thereon then held by IRI. IRI has agreed to such exchange.

In the event the exchange of portfolio securities for debentures results in a diminution of the net assets allocable to the remaining debentures, Atlas has agreed to purchase a sufficient number of shares of prior preferred stock of ISP so that the net assets (per $1,000 debenture) shall be the same immediately after the exchange as before the exchange. Atlas reserves the option to surrender debentures or coupons held by it or to convert a portion of the ISP notes held by it to secure such result.

In the event that for any reason outside the reasonable control of Atlas the above mentioned exchange has not taken place prior to January 4, 1954, Atlas will purchase from IRI and IRI will sell such debentures and coupons for a price of $5,644,000 or a price equal to the market value based upon Milan Stock Exchange quotations of the portfolio securities which were to have been exchanged, whichever price is greater. Atlas will establish an irrevocable letter of credit in favor of IRI to provide for such purchase.

Atlas has agreed that it will arrange that coupons on the debentures held by the public which mature after January 3, 1953, will be paid before similar coupons on debentures then held by Atlas are paid.

After the steps referred to above and after adjustment for accrual of interest on the debentures to December 31, 1952, the capitalization and ownership of securities of ISP will be as follows. For the purpose of this table it is assumed that the advance by Atlas and the $1,092,270 face amount of coupons referred to above will be represented by a note of ISP, that no shares of $6 cumulative preferred stock have been converted and that no additional investment has been made to provide asset coverage for shares of prior preferred stock.

In case of either the exchange or purchase of the debentures and coupons IRI will receive in addition all dividends in cash or stock or other benefits accruing to the subject portfolio securities since January 1, 1952, or the cash equivalent thereof.

In determining the amount of portfolio securities to be exchanged or the price to be paid by Atlas no consideration was given to the claim of ISP against the Italian government pursuant to Article 78 and other applicable provisions of the peace treaty between the United States and Republic of Italy. The claim is for loss suffered by ISP as a result of the war by reason of injury or damage to property in Italy. It is represented that the ultimate value of the claim cannot be estimated at this time. The agreement in connection with the proposed transactions provides that in the event that the claim is not assigned to IRI or waived in favor of the Italian government or in any way extinguished and compensation is granted to ISP that IRI will receive as follows: 44.6 percent of the first $1,535,969 received on the war claim and 93 percent of all amounts received in excess of that amount.

The terms of the agreements providing for the above transactions are specifically conditioned upon the issuance by the Commission of an order exempting the transactions from the provisions of section 17 (a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940. If no such order has been issued within 180 days from May 31, 1952, the agreements become null and void.

All interested persons are referred to the application which is on file in the office of the Commission for a detailed statement of the proposed transactions and the matters of fact and law asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission on or at any time after November 28, 1952, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by this Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may submit to the Commission in writing, not later than November 26, 1952, 5:30 p. m., his views or any additional facts bearing upon the application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or a request to the Commission that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, NW., Washington 25, D. C.

OHIO VALLEY ELECTRIC CO. ET AL.

ORDER APPROVING PROPOSAL FOR FINANCING OF NEW OPERATING COMPANIES

NOVEMBER 7, 1952.

In the matter of Ohio Valley Electric Corporation, Indiana-Kentucky Electric Corporation, American Gas and Electric Company, the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company, Kentucky Utilities Company, Louisville Gas and Electric Company, Ohio Edison Company, the West Penn Electric Company, American Gas and Electric Service Corporation; File No. 70-2945.

American Gas and Electric Company ("American Gas"), a registered holding company, the Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company ("Cincinnati"), a public utility company and an exempt holding company, Kentucky Utilities Company ("Kentucky"), a public utility company and an exempt holding company, Louisville Gas and Electric Company ("Louisville"), a public utility company and an exempt holding company, Ohio Edison Company ("Ohio Edison"), a public utility company and a registered holding company, the West Penn Electric Company ("West Penn Electric"), a registered holding company, Ohio Valley Electric Corporation ("Ohio Valley"), Indiana-Kentucky Electric Corporation ("Indiana-Kentucky"), and American Gas and Electric Service Corporation ("Service Corporation"), a service company subsidiary of American Gas, having filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, 10, and 13 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and Rules U-90, U-91, and U-100 thereunder, with respect to the issuance of new common stock by Ohio Valley, the acquisition of such stock by American Gas, Cincinnati, Kentucky, Louisville, Ohio Edison, and West Penn Electric, the issuance of common stock by Indiana-Kentucky and its acquisition by Ohio Valley, and the extension to Ohio Valley and Indiana-Kentucky of certain services rendered by Service Corporation; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice, at which applicants-declarants and all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be heard;

The Commission having this day filed its findings and opinion herein, in which the proposed transactions are more fully set forth, and the Commission having found and determined that the proposed transactions should be permitted at this time, subject to the qualifications set forth in said findings and opinion and to the reservations of jurisdiction hereinafter set forth:

It is ordered, That the joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, 10, and 13 of the act be, and it is hereby granted and permitted to become effective, subject to the conditions contained in Rule U-24, and subject to the following additional conditions and reservations of jurisdiction:

(a) That this order and the findings supporting it are made in the light of the present urgent problems of national defense which gave rise to the application-declaration; that the Commission therefore reserves jurisdiction to reopen these proceedings upon notice to the applicants-declarants and to reexamine its findings under section 10 when in its opinion such reexamination shall be appropriate; and that this order is without prejudice to any order which may be entered upon such reexamination;

(b) That upon the giving of such notice the applicants-declarants shall amend their joint application-declaration so as to bring before the Commission the facts as they then exist; that in such reopened proceedings the applicants-declarants shall not make any argument to the effect that the Commission, by making findings in the present setting of urgent demands of national defense, has decided the issues under section 10 which may be presented in the reopened proceedings, but will nevertheless be free to present evidence and to make arguments with respect to the facts as they then exist; and that if the Commission after such further proceedings shall order any one or more of the applicants-declarants to dispose of its or their stock of Ohio Valley or Indiana-Kentucky, such applicant-declarant or applicants-declarants will proceed forthwith to take such steps as may be appropriate to dispose of its or their holdings of common stock of Ohio Valley or Indiana-Kentucky within such time and in such manner as shall be provided in the final order of the Commission, without prejudice to its or their right to seek review of such order;

(c) Jurisdiction is reserved to pass upon the definitive terms of debt securities proposed to be issued by Ohio Valley and by Indiana-Kentucky, and to consider any other appropriate matters in connection with such issuances;

(d) Jurisdiction is reserved to pass upon all fees and expenses, including legal fees, in connection with the proposed transactions;

(e) Continuing jurisdiction is reserved to pass upon any questions presented under section 13 of the act, and the applicable rules thereunder, with respect to the operations of Service Corporation.

By the Commission.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[4th Sec. Application 27531]

SULPHURIC ACID FROM BATON ROUGE AND NORTH BATON ROUGE, LA., TO SADDLE CREEK, FLA.

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

NOVEMBER 10, 1952.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: R. E. Boyle, Jr., Agent, for The Alabama Great Southern Railroad Company and other carriers.

Commodities involved: Sulphuric acid, in tank-car loads.

From: Baton Rouge and North Baton Rouge, La.

To: Saddle Creek, Fla.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers, circuitous routes, and to apply rates constructed on the basis of the short line distance formula.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: C. A. Spaninger, Agent, I. C. C. No. 1200, Supp. 65.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission, Division 2.

[SEAL] GEORGE W. LAIRD,
Acting Secretary.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10410

SPECIFICATION OF LAWS FROM WHICH THE ESCAPEE PROGRAM ADMINISTERED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE SHALL BE EXEMPT

By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 532 of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as added by section 7 (m) of the Mutual Security Act of 1952 (Public Law 400, approved June 20, 1952, 66 Stat. 146), it is hereby determined that the performance of functions with respect to the escapee program, authorized by section 101 (a) (1) of the Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended, and administered by the Department of State, without regard to the three following-designated provisions of law will further the purposes of the said Mutual Security Act of 1951, as amended:

1. Section 3648 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, 60 Stat. 809 (31 U. S. C. 529).

2. Section 305 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, approved June 30, 1949, ch. 288, 63 Stat. 396 (41 U. S. C. 255).

3. Section 3709 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (41 U. S. C. 5).

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10411

RESTORING CERTAIN LANDS COMPRISING PARTS OF THE AIEA MILITARY RESERVATION TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

WHEREAS certain lands at Aiea, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, which form a part of the public lands ceded and transferred to the United States by the Republic of Hawaii under the joint resolution of July 7, 1898, 30 Stat. 750, were reserved for military purposes of the United States by a series of Executive orders and now comprise the Aiea Military Reservation as described in Executive Order No. 8320 of January 15, 1940, and as modified by Executive Order No. 9545 of April 27, 1945; and

WHEREAS certain parcels of such lands are no longer needed for military purposes, and it is deemed advisable and in the public interest that they be restored to the jurisdiction of the Territory of Hawaii:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 91 of the act of April 30, 1900, 31 Stat. 159, as amended by section 7 of the act of May 27, 1910, 36 Stat. 447, it is ordered as follows:

The possession, use, and control of the following-described parcels of land comprising parts of the Aiea Military Reservation, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, are hereby restored to the jurisdiction of the Territory of Hawaii:

PARCEL 1

All of the land described as Lot 1 in Executive Order No. 8320 of January 15, 1940.

The following-described portion of the land described as Lot 2 in Executive Order No. 8320 of January 15, 1940:

Beginning at concrete monument No. 7, marking the east corner of this lot, and on the southwesterly side of Moanalua Road (formerly Kamehameha Highway), the coordinates of said point of beginning referred to triangulation monument "AIEA" located on the Aiea-Halawa boundary line, being 1126.11 feet North and 1209.59 feet East, and the true azimuth and distance from said triangulation monument "AIEA" to U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey triangulation station "SALT LAKE" being 292° 12' 25" 6393.00 feet, thence running by azimuths measured clockwise from True South:

1. Along the northwesterly side of Oahu Railway and Land Company's 40-feet right of way on a curve to the left having a radius of 978.43 feet, the chord azimuth and distance being: 32° 25' 31" 430.68 feet;

2. 128° 00' 00" 255.98 feet to a point;

3. 209° 26' 33" 454.80 feet to concrete monument No. 4;

4. 320° 16' 40" 96.07 feet along the southwesterly side of Moanalua Road (formerly Kamehameha Highway) to concrete monument No. 5;

5. 311° 53' 50" 78.95 feet along the southwesterly side of Moanalua Road (formerly Kamehameha Highway) to concrete monument No. 6;

6. 305° 26' 10" 109.59 feet along the southwesterly side of Moanalua Road (formerly Kamehameha Highway) to the point of beginning, and containing an area of 2.402 acres.

INSPECTION OF RETURNS BY SENATE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

By virtue of the authority vested in me by sections 55 (a), 508, 603, 729 (a), and 1204 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 29, 111, 171, 54 Stat. 989, 1008, 55 Stat. 722; 26 U. S. C. 55 (a), 508, 603, 729 (a), and 1204), it is hereby ordered that any income, excess-profits, declared value excess-profits, capital stock, estate, or gift tax return for the years 1941 to 1951, inclusive, shall, during the Eighty-second Congress, be open to inspection by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Senate Resolution 245 (82d Congress, 2d Session), agreed to March 24, 1952, with respect to the investigation of the administration of the Trading with the Enemy Act, subject to the conditions stated in the Treasury decision relating to the inspection of such returns by that Committee, approved by me this date.

This Executive order shall be effective upon its filing for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10413

RESTORING KURE (OCEAN) ISLAND TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

WHEREAS by Executive Order No. 7299 of February 20, 1936, Kure (Ocean) Island, together with the surrounding reef, was placed under the control and jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Navy for naval purposes; and

WHEREAS the said island is no longer needed for naval purposes, except as hereinafter indicated; and

WHEREAS it is deemed advisable and in the public interest that the island be restored to the jurisdiction of the Territory of Hawaii, with the reservation hereinafter provided:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 91 of the act of April 30, 1900, 31 Stat. 159, as amended by section 7 of the act of May 27, 1910, 36 Stat. 447, it is ordered as follows:

Kure (Ocean) Island, together with the surrounding reef, is hereby restored to the possession, use, and control of the Territory of Hawaii, there being reserved, however, unto the Secretary of the Navy the right to maintain a radar reflector on such island, including the right of access to such radar reflector.

Chapter VII—Production and Marketing Administration (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

PART 721—CORN

PROCLAMATIONS AND DETERMINATIONS WITH RESPECT TO MARKETING QUOTAS, COMMERCIAL CORN-PRODUCING AREA, AND ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS ON 1953 CROP

Sec.
721.401 Basis and purpose.
721.402 Marketing quotas on 1953 crop of corn.
721.403 Commercial corn-producing area for 1953.
721.404 1953 acreage allotments for corn.

AUTHORITY: § 721.401 to 721.404 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 304, 322, 327, 328, 371, 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1304, 1322, 1327, 1328, 1371.

§ 721.401 Basis and purpose. Section 721.402 is issued under sections 301 and 322 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to proclaim the total supply and normal supply of corn for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, and to proclaim that marketing quotas will not be applicable to the 1953 crop of corn. Sections 721.403 and 721.404 are issued under sections 304 and 371 (b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to announce that no commercial corn-producing area will be established for 1953 and that no national, county, or farm acreage allotments will be determined for 1953. Section 327 of the act requires the Secretary of Agriculture each year to ascertain and proclaim the commercial corn-producing area, and section 328 of the act requires him each year to ascertain and proclaim an acreage allotment for such area.

Section 371 (b) of the act authorizes the Secretary to dispense with the national marketing quota or national acreage allotment for any basic agricultural commodity if he finds, after appropriate investigation, that such action is necessary to effectuate the declared policy of the act, or to meet a national emergency or increase in export demand for the commodity. Section 304 of the act provides that in carrying out the purposes of the act it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give due regard to the maintenance of a continuous and stable supply of agricultural commodities from domestic production adequate to meet consumer demand at prices fair to both producers and consumers.

The findings and determinations made in § 721.402, which are based on the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, show that marketing quotas for the 1953 crop of corn are not required. Accordingly, § 721.402 states that marketing quotas will not be in effect for that crop.

Pursuant to section 371 (b) of the act, an investigation has been made to determine whether acreage allotments should be in effect for the 1953 crop of corn. On the basis of that investigation, it is hereby found and determined that it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and to meet the present national emergency in food production, to dispense with national, county, and farm acreage allotments for the 1953 crop of corn. That action is made effective by the issuance of §§ 721.403 and 721.404.

Prior to taking the action herein, public notice was given (17 F. R. 9704), in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), that the Secretary was preparing to determine whether marketing quotas are required for the 1953 crop of corn and to determine and proclaim the commercial corn-producing area for 1953 and the acreage allotment of corn for such area for that crop. The notice also stated that the Secretary had under consideration the matter of dispensing with marketing quotas and acreage allotments under the applicable provisions of the act, including sections 304 and 371 (b). All written submissions which were received within the period stated in the notice have been considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 721.402 Marketing quotas on 1953 crop of corn. The total supply of corn for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, is determined to be 3,793 million bushels. The normal supply of corn for such marketing year is determined to be 3,537 million bushels. The total supply for such marketing year does not exceed the normal supply therefor by more than 20 per centum. The average farm price for corn for each month of the marketing year beginning October 1, 1951, was in excess of 66 per centum of parity. Therefore, marketing quotas shall not be in effect on the 1953 crop of corn.

§ 721.403 Commercial corn-producing area for 1953. No commercial corn-producing area will be established for 1953.

§ 721.404 1953 acreage allotments for corn. No national, county, or farm acreage allotments of corn will be determined for 1953.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of November 1952.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Sugar Requirements and Quotas

[Sugar Reg. 813, Amdt. 5]

PART 813—SUGAR QUOTAS AND PRORATIONS OF QUOTA DEFICITS

1952 DETERMINATION AND PRORATION OF AREA DEFICIT

Basis and purpose. This amendment is issued pursuant to the Sugar Act of 1948 for the purpose of prorating a deficit which is hereby determined in the quota for Hawaii for sugar to be brought into the continental United States in 1952. Section 204 (a) of the act provides that the Secretary shall from time to time determine whether any domestic area, the Republic of the Philippines, or Cuba will be unable to market its quota. If he so finds with respect to Hawaii, the quotas for other domestic areas and Cuba are required to be revised by prorating to such areas an amount of sugar equal to any deficit so determined on the basis of their existing quotas.

The Sugar Act provides that the quota for any domestic area, the Republic of the Philippines, Cuba, or other foreign countries as established under the provisions of section 202 shall not be reduced by reason of any determination of a deficit and makes the proration of any such deficit to areas able to supply the additional sugar a mere mathematical computation. The Domestic Beet Sugar area is excluded from the proration because it will not be able to utilize its statutory quota in 1952 and a deficit for this area was prorated earlier.

In order to afford sellers of sugar in affected areas an adequate opportunity to market the additional sugar authorized by this amendment, and thereby protect the interest of consumers, it is essential that this amendment be made effective immediately. Therefore, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, impracticable and contrary to the public interest and the amendment herein shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Act of 1948 (61 Stat. 922, 7 U. S. C. Sup., 1100) and the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) Sugar Regulation 813, as amended, (16 F. R. 13032, 17 F. R. 5691, 6758, 8449, 9617) is hereby further amended by adding paragraphs (g) and (h) to § 813.33 to read as follows:

§ 813.33 Determination and proration of area deficits. * * *

(g) Deficit in quota for Hawaii. It is hereby determined, pursuant to subsection (a) of section 204 of the act, that for the calendar year 1952 Hawaii will be unable by an amount of 70,000 short tons of sugar, raw value, to market the quota established for that area in § 813.32.

(h) Proration of deficit in quota for Hawaii. An amount of sugar equal to the deficit determined in paragraph (g) of this section is hereby prorated, pursuant to subsection (a) of section 204 of the act, as follows:

Area:	Additional quota in terms of short tons, raw value
Mainland cane sugar	8,486
Puerto Rico	15,444
Virgin Islands	102
Cuba	45,968

Statement of bases and considerations. The progress of production, local use and shipping schedules for Hawaiian sugar is now sufficiently advanced to determine the quantity which will arrive in the continental United States in 1952 and the resulting deficit in the quota for Hawaii.

Beginning stocks and production in 1952 are now expected to aggregate 1,035,000 short tons, raw value. Charges to the 1952 quota for local consumption and stocks remaining for shipment in 1953 are estimated to total 53,000 short tons, raw value. The difference of 982,000 short tons, raw value, is expected to arrive in the continental United States during 1952, thus leaving the deficit in the mainland quota of 70,000 short tons, raw value, which is prorated to other areas by this action.

Exclusion of the Domestic Beet Sugar Area from the proration of deficit. A deficit in the Domestic Beet Sugar Area quota amounting to 200,000 short tons, raw value, was declared and prorated to other areas by Amendment 2 to this part. Distribution of beet sugar through October was about 1,260,000 tons and prospects for the balance of the year indicate that the adjusted quota of 1,600,000 tons is not likely to be exceeded. Accordingly, the beet area is excluded from the proration of the Hawaiian deficit.

After giving effect to the changes set forth in this amendment to Sugar Regulation 813, the quotas for all areas are as follows:

BASIC AND ADJUSTED QUOTAS, 1952

[Short tons, raw value]

Production area	Basic quota	Adjusted quota
Domestic beet sugar	1,800,000	1,600,000
Mainland cane sugar	500,000	533,296

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket 5643]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

CHRISTIAN BROKERAGE CO. ET AL.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under section 2, Clayton Act as amended—Payment or acceptance of commission, brokerage or other compensation under 2 (c): § 3.820 Direct buyers. In connection with the purchase of food products or other commodities in commerce, receiving or accepting, directly or indirectly, from any seller, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, upon or in connection with any purchase made for respondents' own account; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 2, 38 Stat. 730, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 13) [Cease and desist order, Christian Brokerage Company et al., Atlanta, Ga., Docket 5643, September 8, 1952]

In the Matter of Christian Brokerage Company, a Corporation, Gilmer A. Christian, Sr., Gilmer A. Christian, Jr., Bobby H. Christian, Individually and as Officers of Christian Brokerage Company, a Corporation

Pursuant to the provisions of an act of Congress entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", approved October 15, 1914 (the Clayton Act), as amended by an act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act), and by virtue of the authority vested in the Federal Trade Commission by the aforesaid act, the Federal Trade Commission, on March 2, 1949, issued and subsequently served its complaint in this proceeding upon the respondents named in the caption hereof, charging each of them with violation of the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the aforesaid Clayton Act, as amended. After denial by the Commission of respondents' motion to dismiss the complaint, respondents filed their answer admitting all of the material allegations of the complaint and waiving all intervening procedure. The Commission having served upon the respondents its tentative decision herein, together with leave to show cause why such tentative decision should not be entered as its final decision, and the Commission, having denied respondents' motion for revision of said tentative decision, this proceeding regularly came on for final consideration before the Commission upon the aforesaid complaint and respondents' answer thereto; and the Commission, having duly considered the matter and being now fully advised in the premises, makes this its findings as to the facts [1] and its conclusion drawn therefrom: [1]

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and respondents' answer admitting all of the material allegations of fact therein and waiving all intervening procedure, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of Congress entitled "An act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", approved October 15, 1914 (the Clayton Act), as amended by an act of Congress approved June 19, 1936 (the Robinson-Patman Act):

It is ordered, That respondent Christian Brokerage Company, a corporation, and its officers, and the individual respondents Gilmer A. Christian, Sr., Gilmer A. Christian, Jr., and Bobby H. Christian and the representatives, agents and employees of each of the respondents respectively, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the purchase of food products or other commodities in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Receiving or accepting, directly or indirectly, from any seller, anything of value as a commission, brokerage, or other compensation, or any allowance or discount in lieu thereof, upon or in connection with any purchase made for their own account.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

Issued: September 8, 1952.

By the Commission.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter E—Administrative Provisions Common to Various Taxes

[T. D. 5945]

PART 458—INSPECTION OF RETURNS

INSPECTION OF RETURNS BY SENATE COMMITTEE ON THE JUDICIARY

§ 458.315 Inspection of returns by Senate Judiciary Committee in connection with investigation of administration of Trading with the Enemy Act. (a) Pursuant to the provisions of sections 55 (a), 508, 603, 729 (a), and 1204 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 29, 111, 171, 54 Stat. 989, 1008, 55 Stat. 722; 26 U. S. C. 55 (a), 508, 603, 729 (a), and 1204) and of the Executive order issued thereunder,[1] and income, excess-profits, declared value excess-profits, capital stock, estate, or gift tax return for the years 1941 to 1951, inclusive, shall, during the Eighty-second Congress, be open to inspection by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary or any duly authorized subcommittee thereof for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of Senate Resolution 245 (82d Congress, 2d Session), agreed to March 24, 1952, with respect to the administration of the Trading with the Enemy Act.

(b) The inspection of returns authorized by paragraph (a) of this section may be made by the Committee or a duly authorized subcommittee thereof, acting directly as a committee or as a subcommittee, or by or through such examiners or agents as the Committee or subcommittee may designate or appoint in its written request hereinafter mentioned. Upon written request by the Chairman of the Committee or of the authorized subcommittee to the Secretary of the Treasury, giving the names and addresses of the taxpayers whose returns it is necessary to inspect and the taxable periods covered by the returns, the Secretary of the Treasury and any officer or employee of the Treasury Department, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may furnish such Committee or subcommittee with any data relating to or contained in any such return, or may make such return available for inspection by the Committee or subcommittee or by such examiners or agents as the Committee or subcommittee may designate or appoint, in the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Any information thus obtained by the Committee or subcommittee thereof shall be held confidential: Provided, however, That any portion thereof relevant or pertinent to the purpose of the investigation may be submitted by the Committee to the United States Senate.

(c) Because of the immediate need of the said Senate Committee on the Judiciary to inspect the returns herein mentioned, it is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of said act.

This Treasury decision shall be effective upon its filing for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

E. H. FOLEY, Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Approved: November 15, 1952.

DEFINITIONS

§ 401.1 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) The terms "Board", "Bureau", "Director", "duly authorized representative of the Bureau", "mine", "operator", shall have the meanings set forth in section 201 (a) of the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act (66 Stat. 692).

(b) (1) The term "act" means the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act.

(2) The term "closing order" means an order issued under sections 203 (a), 203 (c) or section 206 of the act, which requires an operator to cause persons to be withdrawn from, and to be debarred from entering an area of a mine.

(3) The term "classification order" means an order issued under section 203 (d) or section 206 of the act which requires the operator of a mine to comply with the provisions of section 209 of the act which pertains to gassy mines, in the operation of such mine.

(4) The term "applicant" means an operator who has applied to the Board for annulment or revision of a closing order or of a classification order or other action within the power of the Board.

REVIEW OF ORDERS ISSUED UNDER SECTION 203 AND 206 OF THE FEDERAL COAL MINE SAFETY ACT

§ 401.2 Application. An operator notified of a closing order made pursuant to section 203 of the act may apply to the Board for annulment or revision of such order without seeking annulment or revision under section 206 of the act. An operator notified of a closing order or of a classification order made pursuant to section 206 of the act may apply to the Board for annulment or revision of such order.

§ 401.3 Where to file. Each application shall be filed with the Secretary of the Board, at the headquarters of the Board in Room 678–A, Reconstruction Finance Corporation Building, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

§ 401.4 Form of application.[1] (a) The application shall include the following information:

(1) Name and address of operator.

(2) Name and address of mine.

(3) The order complained of. (This must be a complete copy of the order complained of.)

(4) The relief desired.

(5) Other facts sufficient to advise the Board of the nature of the proceeding.

[1] Forms for use of operators may be obtained, if desired, from the Secretary of the Board, Room 678–A, RFC Building, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C., or from the field offices of the Accident Prevention and Health Division, Bureau of Mines.

(b) The application shall be signed by the operator.

§ 401.5 Time for filing. (a) Application for review of a closing order may be filed at any time while such order is in effect.

(b) Application for review of a classification order shall be filed not later than 20 days after receipt of such order.

§ 401.6 Service; manner and proof. (a) (1) The applicant shall send a copy of the application by registered mail to the Director at Washington, D. C.

(2) A copy of any request for temporary relief shall also be sent by registered mail to the Director at Washington, D. C.

(b) Proof of service must be made before the application or any request for temporary relief will be considered by the Board. A statement by the applicant or his attorney clearly stating the time, date, and place of mailing the copy will be accepted as prima facie proof of service.

§ 401.7 Applicants; attorneys. (a) Any person may file and prosecute his own application for review, or the application of a firm or partnership of which he is a member or an official, or of a corporation or association of which he is an officer or an official and which he is authorized to represent.

(b) Any applicant may be represented by an attorney at law in good standing admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, or the highest court of any State or Territory of the United States or of the District of Columbia.

§ 401.8 Hearings; times and dates. (a) Upon the filing of an application, time will be assigned at which the respondent shall begin his testimony-in-chief. At the close of testimony-in-chief, the applicant shall begin the testimony on his side, following which the respondent may present evidence to rebut the applicant's evidence. Notice of the time and place wil be sent to the parties by mail or telegram.

(b) Hearings may be set, advanced, postponed and adjourned by the Board, within its discretion as far as may be convenient and proper.

(c) If a request for temporary relief is filed under §401.12, and set for a hearing, the time for taking testimony may be reassigned after determination of such request.

§ 401.9 Hearing; oral argument. (a) Hearings will be held by the Board on the day appointed at the designated time and place as specified in § 401.8. If either party appears at the proper time, he will be heard. Immediately after the completion of the taking of testimony, the case will be taken up for oral argument except as it may be postponed by the Board. If the Board be prevented from hearing the argument at the time specified, a new assignment for argument will be made, or the case will be continued from day to day until heard. Unless it shall be otherwise ordered by the Board, oral arguments will be limited to not more than one-half hour for each party. After a contested case has been argued, nothing further relating thereto will be heard unless upon request of the Board.

(b) Petitions for re-hearings or modification of the decision must be filed before the limit of appeal expires.

§ 401.10 Hearing; briefs. Briefs shall be submitted in typewritten form. Five copies of each brief must be filed with the Board. Unless other dates are set by the Board, the brief of the respondent and applicant shall be filed before the close of the hearing.

§ 401.11 Request for findings of fact and conclusions of law. Either party may, in his brief, submit concise proposed findings of fact, supported by specific references to and analysis of the record, if desired, and conclusions of law, supported by citation of authorities. The Board may, in its discretion, adopt the proposed findings and conclusions in whole or in part, or enter an order without reference to the briefs.

§ 401.12 Temporary relief. (a) Pending a hearing and before a final order has been issued by the Board, the applicant may request the Board for temporary relief from the order complained of in the application.

(b) The request shall state fully and completely the relief desired and the reasons why applicant believes he is entitled to relief.

(c) The request shall be supported by affidavit of applicant and other persons having knowledge of the facts and circumstances, unless applicant elects to present witnesses in his behalf, or the request is based upon legal construction of the statute.

(d) (1) If the applicant has submitted supporting affidavits, the Board shall set a time within which the respondent shall file an answer supported by affidavits or set the matter for hearing.

(2) The Board shall act upon such request and answer thereto with or without oral argument at the discretion of the Board.

(e) (1) If the applicant elects to present witnesses in his behalf, the Board shall set a time and place for hearing at which applicant and respondent will be allowed to present evidence bearing on the request for temporary relief.

(2) At the conclusion of testimony, the parties will be allowed one-half hour each for oral argument, unless extended by the Board.

(f) The Board in its decision may deny or grant such temporary relief as it deems just and proper in the circumstances.

EVIDENCE, TESTIMONY, SUBPOENAS

§ 401.13 Rules of evidence. All proceedings involving the taking of testimony in hearings before the Board shall, so far as practicable, be conducted in accordance with the rules of evidence applicable in the District Courts of the United States under the rules of Civil Procedure for the District Courts of the United States, except as modified by the rules of the Board.

§ 401.14 Compliance with rules. Evidence touching the matter at issue which is not taken and filed in compliance with the rules of the Board will not be considered in determining the proceeding.

§ 401.15 Manner of taking testimony. (a) Witnesses may be examined orally under oath before one or more members of the Board, except that whenever the Board deems that the interest of the public or of the parties may be promoted or that delay or an expense may be minimized, it may order testimony of any or all witnesses to be taken by deposition in accordance with §§ 401.23 to 401.29.

(b) With consent of the Board and of all parties to the proceeding, the testimony of any witness or witnesses may be submitted in the form of an affidavit of such witness or witnesses.

(c) With the consent of the Board the parties may stipulate what a particular witness would testify to if called, or may stipulate as to any or all facts in the case of any party.

§ 401.16 Copies of the testimony. Hearings of the Board shall be recorded stenographically by a reporter for the Board. Copies of transcripts of hearings may be purchased from the Board's reporter at rates approved by the Board.

§ 401.17 Inspection of testimony. After testimony is filed with the Secretary of the Board, it may be inspected in the office of the Board by any party to the case, but it cannot be withdrawn for the purpose of copying. It may be copied by someone specially designated or approved by the Board for that purpose, under proper restrictions and safeguards.

§ 401.18 Additional time for taking testimony. If either party shall be unable to procure the testimony of a witness or witnesses within the time limited and said time has expired or is about to expire, and desires additional time for such purpose, he must file a motion, accompanied by a statement under oath setting forth specifically the cause of such inability, the name or names of the witness or witnesses, the facts expected to be proved by such witness or witnesses, the steps which have been taken to procure such testimony, and the dates on which efforts have been made to procure it. The Board in its discretion may grant or deny said motion.

§ 401.19 Official records and printed publications. Official records and any special matter contained in a printed publication, if competent evidence and pertinent to the issue, may be introduced in evidence by filing with the Board a notice to that effect, before the closing of the time for taking the testimony of the party, specifying the record or the printed publication, the page or pages thereof to be used, indicating generally its relevancy, and accompanied by the record or authenticated copy, or the printed publication or a copy. The notice and copies of the record or publication must be served on the other party.

§ 401.20 Objections to admissibility. Subject to the provisions of § 401.29, objection may be made to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof, or any other evidence, for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence according to the established rules of evidence.

§ 401.21 Issuance of subpoenas; compliance. (a) Any member of the Board may, on the written application or a party or the Board's own motion, forthwith issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of relevant papers, books and documents in their possession and under their control. The subpoena shall show on its face the name and address of the party at whose request the subpoena was issued, the officer before whom the testimony is to be taken, and the time and place of the taking of such testimony and production of such records referred to in this paragraph.

(b) If a witness fails or refuses to comply with a subpoena, and his fees, as prescribed in § 401.22, have been tendered him, the Board or its legal counsel shall, in the name of the United States but in relation of such applicant, institute proceedings in the appropriate district court for the enforcement of such subpoena, but neither the Board's counsel nor the Board shall be deemed thereby to have assumed responsibility for the effective prosecution of the same before the court. (See sec. 205 (k) of the act.)

§ 401.22. Witness fees and mileage; payment. Witnesses summoned before the Board shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken, and the persons taking such depositions, shall be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear, and the person taking the deposition shall be paid by the party at whose instance the deposition is taken.

DEPOSITIONS

§ 401.23 Notice of examination of witnesses. (a) Depositions may be taken after the party has filed with the Board a petition to take a deposition setting forth the grounds for same and the information in compliance with paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, if the petition to take depositions has been approved by the Board.

(b) Before the depositions of witnesses shall be taken by a party, due notice in writing shall be given to the opposing party, as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, of the time when and place where the depositions will be taken, of the cause or matter in which they are to be used, and of the names and residences of the witnesses to be examined together with the name and address of the officer before whom the testimony is to be taken. The opposing party shall have full opportunity, either in person or by attorney, to cross-examine the witnesses. If the opposing party shall attend the examination of witnesses not named in the notice, and shall either cross-examine such witnesses or fail to object to their examination, he shall be deemed to have waived his right to object to such examination for want of notice. Neither party shall take testimony in more than one place at the same time, nor so nearly at the same time that reasonable opportunity for travel from one place of examination to the other cannot be had.

(c) The notice for taking testimony must be served (unless otherwise stipulated in an instrument in writing filed in the case) upon the attorney of record, if there be one, or, if there be no attorney of record, upon the adverse party. Reasonable time must be given therein for such adverse party to reach the place of examination. Such notice shall, with sworn proof of the fact, time, and mode of service thereof, be attached to the deposition or depositions, whether the opposing party shall have cross-examined or not.

§ 401.24 Persons before whom depositions may be taken. (a) Within the United States, or within a territory or insular possession of the United States, depositions shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths by the laws of the United States or of the place where the examination is held.

(b) No such officer who is a relative or employee of either of the parties, or of their attorneys or agents, or interested, directly or indirectly, in the matter in controversy, either as counsel, attorney, agent or otherwise, shall be competent to take depositions, unless with the written consent of both parties.

§ 401.25 Examination of witnesses. (a) Each witness before testifying shall be duly sworn according to law by the officer before whom his deposition is to be taken.

(b) The testimony shall be taken in answer to interrogatories, with the questions and answers recorded in their regular order by the officer, or by some other person (who shall be subject to the provisions of § 401.24 (b)) in the presence of the officer except when his presence is waived on the record by agreement in writing of the parties. The testimony shall be taken stenographically and transcribed, unless the parties present agree otherwise.

(c) In the absence of all opposing parties and their attorneys or agents, testimony may be taken in longhand, typewriting, or stenographically.

(d) All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings, shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. The officer shall not have the power to rule upon any objections, but he shall note the objections upon the record.

(e) When the testimony has been transcribed, the deposition shall be carefully read over by the witness, or by the officer to him, and shall then be signed by the witness in the presence of the officer unless the reading and the signature be waived on the record by agreement of all parties. If the deposition is not signed because the witness is ill, deceased, cannot be found, or refuses to sign, such fact shall be included in the certificate of the officer.

§ 401.26 Certification and filing by officer. (a) The officer shall annex to the deposition his certificate showing:

(1) Due administration of the oath by the officer to the witness before the commencement of his testimony.

(2) The name of the person by whom the testimony was taken down, and whether, if not taken down by the officer, it was taken down in his presence.

(3) The presence or absence of the adverse party.

(4) The place, day, and hour of commencing and taking the deposition.

(5) That the deposition was read by or to the witness before he signed the same, and that he signed the same in the presence of the officer.

(6) The fact that the officer was not disqualified as specified in § 401.24 (b).

(b) If any of the requirements specified in paragraph (a) (1) through (6) of this section are waived, the certificate shall so state. The officer shall sign the certificate and affix thereto his seal of office, if he have such seal. Unless waived on the record by agreement, he shall then, without delay, securely seal in an envelope all the evidence, notices, and paper exhibits, inscribe upon the envelope a certificate giving the number and title of the case, the name of each witness, and the date of sealing, and deliver the envelope, in person or by registered mail, to the Secretary of the Board. If the weight or bulk of an exhibit shall exclude it from the envelope it shall, unless waived on the record by agreement of all parties, be authenticated by the officer and transmitted in a separate package, marked and forwarded to the Secretary of the Board by suitable means.

§ 401.27 Form of deposition. The pages of each deposition must be numbered consecutively, and the name of the witness plainly and conspicuously written at the top of each page. The testimony may be written on legal-size or letter-size paper, with a wide margin on the left-hand side of the page, and with the writing on one side only of the sheet. The questions propounded to each witness must be consecutively numbered and each question must be followed by its answer.

§ 401.28 Depositions must be filed. All depositions which are taken must be duly filed promptly with the Secretary of the Board. On failure to file within 5 days after completion of the testimony the Board at its discretion will not further hear or consider the contestant with whom the failure lies; and the Board may, at its discretion, receive and consider a copy of the withheld deposition, attested by such evidence as is procurable or disregard the deposition completely.

§ 401.29 Effect of errors and irregularities in depositions. Notice will not be taken of merely formal or technical objections which shall not appear to have wrought a substantial injury to the party raising them; and in case of such injury it must be made to appear that, as soon as the party became aware of the ground of objection, he gave notice thereof.

(a) As to notice. All errors and irregularities in the notice for taking a deposition are waived unless objection is promptly made and served in writing upon the party giving the notice.

(b) As to disqualification of officer. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.

(c) As to taking of deposition. (1) Objections to the competency of a witness or to the competency, relevancy or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(2) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of the parties, and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed, or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless seasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.

(d) As to completion and return of deposition. Errors and irregularities in the manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, indorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

TERMINATION OF PROCEEDINGS

§ 401.30 Prior to finding. At any stage of the proceeding prior to the making of a finding by the Board, upon the submission by either the applicant or the Director, of a copy of an order annulling the order which the applicant is seeking review by the Board, an order dismissing the application may be entered by the Board in its discretion without further proceedings.

§ 401.31 After hearing. Unless terminated as provided in § 401.30, at the conclusion of the hearing or as soon thereafter as is practicable the Board will make a decision affirming, revising, or annulling the order under review.

§ 401.32 Decision; form and content. Each decision of the Board shall include the findings and order in writing, signed by the members of the Board who concur therein, and shall be entered on its official record, together with any written opinion prepared by the Board or by any member in support of or dissenting from any such findings or order. A true copy of the findings and order in each case shall be sent to all parties or to their attorneys of record and published by the Board.

APPEAL TO THE UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

§ 401.33 Appeal to the Court. (a) Any party dissatisfied with a final order issued by the Board may appeal to the United States Court of Appeals for the circuit in which the mine affected is located.

(b) The appeal is initiated by the filing in the appropriate appellate court of a notice of appeal within thirty days from the date of the making of the order.

(c) A copy of such notice of appeal must be sent forthwith to the other party and to the Board.

§ 401.34 Record on appeal. (a) Upon receipt of the copy of the notice of appeal, the Secretary of the Board will prepare and file in the designated appellate court, a certified complete transcript of the record of the proceedings before the Board.

(b) The party making the appeal must pay the costs of the complete transcript of the records before it is filed with the court.

GENERAL

§ 401.35 Amendments or additions; effective date. All amendments or additions to these rules will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and, unless otherwise specified, shall become effective as of the date of adoption by the Board.

§ 401.36 Hearings and records. Hearings of the Board and the official records pertaining to proceedings under section 207 of the act shall be open to the public.

Adopted by the Federal Coal Mine Safety Board of Review at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of October 1952.

The major organizations of coal mine operators and coal miners have been consulted in the preparation of these rules of procedure. For these reasons it is determined that the notices and procedures prescribed by section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1003) are unnecessary. These rules of procedure shall become effective on the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

TROY L. BACK,
Secretary of the Board.

Chapter V—Department of the Army

Subchapter F—Personnel

PART 578—DECORATIONS, MEDALS, RIBBONS, AND SIMILAR DEVICES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Subdivisions (iv) and (vii) of § 578.3 (b) (1) are revised to read as follows:

§ 578.3 Awards of decorations. • • •
(b) By whom awarded. • • •
(1) • • •

(iv) The Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross, Soldier's Medal, Bronze Star Medal, and Air Medal may be awarded by the commanders indicated in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, to members of the armed forces of friendly foreign nations, provided concurrence has been obtained from the senior commander present in the theater of hostilities for an award to one of his own nationals, except as shown in (a) and (b) of this subdivision. Such concurrence will be regarded as constituting approval by his government for acceptance of the award. A recommendation for any of these awards will be forwarded to the Department of the Army when:

(a) The senior commander of a cobelligerent force is unable to obtain the approval of his government.

(b) An award to a flag or general officer or to the senior officer of the cobelligerent force present in the area is contemplated.

• • • • • •

(vii) The Medal of Freedom may be awarded by the Secretary of the Army or by those officers designated by him.

• • • • • •

2. Section 578.22 is revoked, and paragraphs (a) and (b) (1) (i) of § 578.23 are revised as follows:

§ 578.22 Medal for Merit. [Revoked.]

§ 578.23 Medal of Freedom—(a) To whom awarded. (1) The Medal of Freedom may be awarded to any person other than a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, who on or after December 7, 1941, has performed a meritorious act or service, which has either:

(i) Aided the United States in the prosecution of a war against an enemy or enemies,

(ii) Aided any nation engaged with the United States in the prosecution of a war against a common enemy or enemies, or

(iii) During any period of national emergency declared by the President or the Congress to exist, furthered the interests of the security of the United States or of any nation allied or associated with the United States during such period, and for which act or service the award of any other United States medal or decoration is considered inappropriate.

(2) Under special circumstances and without regard to the existence of a state of war or national emergency, the Medal of Freedom also may be awarded by, or at the direction of, the President to any person, not hereinafter specifically excluded, for performance of a meritorious act or service in the interests of the security of the United States. Established by Executive Order 9586, July 6, 1945, as amended by Executive Order 10336.

(b) Standards—(1) Citizens and habitual residents of United States. (i) The Medal of Freedom shall not be awarded to a citizen of the United States for any act or service performed within the continental limits of the United States.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 3, Amdt. 2]

CPR 3—COAL, EXCEPT PENNSYLVANIA ANTHRACITE, DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 3 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 3 provides certain adjustments in ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization on all coal, except Pennsylvania anthracite, delivered from mines or preparation plants; revises the provision with respect to charges for transportation of coal in facilities owned or controlled by the producer; provides a certification procedure implementing Section 411 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended; and makes certain changes in the reporting and recordkeeping provisions of the regulation.

On or about the first of October 1952 the United Mine Workers of America and representatives of various segments of the bituminous coal producing industry agreed upon a new contract containing increases in rates and in payments to the Welfare and Retirement Fund. The Progressive Mine Workers Union also entered into an agreement with another segment of producers on a similar contract. These contracts cover about 80 percent of the National production of bituminous coal and provide for an increase in the daily basic pay of $1.90 and of 10 cents per ton in the operator payments to the Welfare and Retirement Fund.

Several of the operator groups thereafter submitted the new contracts to the Wage Stabilization Board for consideration and action. On October 18, 1952, the Board approved an increase of $1.50 a day (instead of the $1.90 requested) for miners employed by the member companies of the Bituminous Coal Operators Association. In its opinion the Board stated that specific approval of the royalty payment is not required. On October 22, 1952, the Board authorized an extension of the $1.50 increase to other employees who were not covered by the specific wage agreement submitted to the Board, but who in the past had customarily received wage increases similar to the increases granted to employees covered by the National Bituminous Wage Agreement. The authorized wage increases were approved to become effective on October 1, 1952.

The Bituminous Coal Operators Association and the United Mine Workers of America have filed a request for review with the Administrator of the Economic Stabilization Agency, specifically asking that the additional 40-cent increase in the basic daily pay be approved. This request for review is now being considered by the Administrator.

It appears, as a result of the wage rate adjustment of $1.50 per day and the increase in the Welfare Fund payments of 10 cents per ton, that an industry-wide weighted average cost increase of approximately 33-35 cents per net ton will be incurred by the mine operators. If the full increase of $1.90 per day is approved, the industry-wide weighted average cost increase will be approximately 39-42 cents per net ton. These cost increases will, of course, vary widely from mine to mine.

Despite the present softness in the general price level of bituminous coal sold at the mines there are various mines whose prices on certain sizes and grades of coal are at or near ceilings and whose current weighted average realizations are near their ceiling weighted average realizations. Data available to the Agency indicate that in the year 1951 this industry was actually earning about 18½ cents less than the minimum earnings permitted by the Industry Earnings Standard. To the extent that selling prices on most sizes and grades are low and that selling prices on some sizes and grades are at or near ceilings, the industry will be unable under existing conditions to earn the minimum under the Earnings Standard unless some adjustments are made to take care of the wage increases referred to above.

By this amendment ceiling prices may be increased by the actual per net ton amount of increased costs incurred. The ceiling weighted average realization control is retained at present levels except that a limited adjustment is permitted to any mine which is now at or near the ceiling weighted average realization, and which mine could not increase its ceiling prices without piercing its ceiling weighted average realization established under the regulation. Producers may calculate such cost increases on a new form provided by OPS, (which is substantially similar to Solid Fuels Form No. 2 used for a somewhat similar purpose in 1951) and such cost increases so calculated should be added to the cumulative average realization for the 12-month period ending September 30, 1952. If the sum of such cost increases and the cumulative weighted average realization exceeds the present ceiling weighted average realization, such sum will constitute the new ceiling weighted average realization for that particular mine. (If this computation yields an amount less than the present ceiling weighted average realization no adjustment is permitted in the ceiling weighted average realization.) The allowable adjustment in the ceiling weighted average realization as provided by the regulation, however, must be apportioned so that only 10 percent of the increase may be added in the first month and 10 percent additional may be added in each successive month until the full amount of the adjustment has been added. Such apportionment applies to the ceiling weighted average realization only and, except as limited by the ceiling weighted average realization, a producer may add the full amount of the authorized wage increase to his ceiling prices.

The new ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization provided by this amendment may be put into effect as of the date the authorized increased costs become effective, except that as to sales to retail dealers, the effective date of ceiling prices shall be November 14, 1952.

It is believed that the adjustments provided by this amendment will not result in any substantial increase in industry-wide price levels but will permit individual producers to obtain any relief to which they are entitled, without imposing a heavy administrative burden on this office.

This amendment also implements section 411 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, by providing for a certification procedure adapted to realization and ceiling price controls which are provided by this regulation. Section 411 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, provides that no person shall be required to furnish any reports or other information with respect to sales of materials or services at prices which are below ceiling, if such person certifies to the President that such sales are made at such prices. Because CPR 3 has a ceiling weighted average realization control in addition to ceiling price control, a producer to be exempt from the filing requirements of section 9 (d), must certify that he is selling all of his coal below ceiling prices and that the cumulative weighted average realization is below the established ceiling weighted average realization for his mine or mines. A producer after so certifying must file OPS Public Form No. 1 for any month or months in which he sells any size or grade of coal at ceiling prices, or for any month or months in which the cumulative weighted average realization equals the established ceiling weighted average realization for his mine or mines. This certification procedure does not apply to reports required in connection with the establishment or adjustment of ceiling prices or ceiling weighted average realization.

Section 6 (g) is amended to permit a producer who owns, controls, or hires transportation facilities to add to his applicable ceiling prices, f. o. b. mine, a sum not in excess of the highest charge for transportation costs between the same points made during the base period or the period January 1-15, 1951, inclusive. This provision was originally contained in the regulation but was subsequently deleted by Amendment 1 to CPR 3 when provision was made to allow the producer who owns his transportation facilities to add his actual transportation costs to his f. o. b. mine ceiling prices. Since then, the agency has been advised that many producers who own or control transportation facilities are unable to ascertain their actual transportation costs. Those producers use transportation facilities for other purposes, and cannot properly allocate costs to the delivery of coal. During the base period it was customary for them to make a uniform charge for such delivery. Accordingly, this amendment makes available both methods. The other provisions of section 6 (g), including the provision that the amount shall not exceed the lowest carrier rate, are retained.

In section 6 (i) a correction is made by substituting the word "and" for the word "or" in connection with ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization. This was a clerical error in the original draft. A new provision is included requiring notification, by a new owner, of any change in ownership of a mine, and requiring the transferor to preserve or turn over to the transferee all records of transaction prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of the regulation.

Section 9 (a) is amended to provide for the reporting by producers (other than "small mine" producers) of increased costs and the increase authorized in the ceiling weighted average realization on OPS Public Form No. 155, which must be filed within 20 days after the increased costs become effective or within 20 days after the date of issuance of this amendment whichever is later.

A new sentence is added to section 9 (d) which provides that ceiling prices determined under section 4 (d) (2) of this amendment shall not be required to be filed.

This amendment, however, relieves "small mine" producers of the requirement that they file OPS Public Form No. 155 and a revised schedule of ceiling prices under the provisions of section 4 (d) and section 9 (a) and (c), as amended. Under section 2 (m), as amended, a mine (or group of mines referred to in section 4 (g)) is a "small mine" for any calendar year if, during the preceding calendar year, its entire production averaged 100 net tons or less of coal per day of operation, regardless of method of shipment. It is believed that the "small mine" producers should not be required to file these reports because of the administrative burden such filings would impose on OPS and the "small mine" producers; and because of the general agency policy to relieve small business of filing to the extent possible. If a "small mine" producer wishes to claim an adjustment in ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization, however, he shall determine the amount of adjustment by use of OPS Public Form No. 155 and keep it on file with other records required by section 9 to be retained by the producer.

Section 9 (f) is amended to require the producers to prepare and keep available, for a period of two years, records of the kind they customarily keep showing the prices charged for the coal.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

So far as practicable the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability.

In the formulation of this amendment there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 3, as amended, is further amended as follows:

1. Section 2 is amended by adding a new paragraph (m) as follows:

(m) A mine (or group of mines referred to in section 4 (g)) is a "small mine" for any calendar year if during the preceding calendar year its entire production averaged 100 net tons or less of coal per day of operation, regardless of method of shipment.

2. Section 4 (d) is amended by redesignating that section as 4 (d) (1) and adding two new subparagraphs as follows:

(2) Each producer who incurs increases in costs at his mine or group of mines during the period October 1, 1952 to April 30, 1953, inclusive, by reason of a wage and salary advance and other items related to the payroll and welfare payments (as calculated by such producer on OPS Public Form No. 155) which satisfy the policy and requirements of the Wage Stabilization Board of the Economic Stabilization Agency, may determine his ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization for such mine or group of mines as follows:

(i) Ceiling Prices. Add to the individual ceiling prices established by other provisions of this regulation for each size and grade of coal the amount of such increased costs.

(ii) Ceiling weighted average realization. Add to the cumulative weighted average realization for the 12-month period ending September 30, 1952, (as shown on OPS Public Form No. 1 for September 1952) the amount of such increased costs: Provided, however, That the allowable adjustment in the ceiling weighted average realization provided in this subparagraph (i. e., the difference between the previously established ceiling weighted average realization and the cumulative weighted average realization as adjusted for the increased costs) must be apportioned so that 10 percent of the increase in the ceiling weighted average realization may be added in the first month, and an additional 10 percent in each succeeding month until the full amount of the allowable adjustment has been made. Where the cumulative weighted average realization, as adjusted for the increased costs, is equal to or less than the ceiling weighted average realization otherwise established by this regulation, the previously established ceiling weighted average realization will continue in effect.

Example. A mine incurs increases of 40 cents per net ton from wage and salary advances and other items related to the payroll and welfare payments as of October 1, 1952, which satisfy the policy and requirements of the Wage Stabilization Board. This producer's ceiling weighted average realization is $5.00 per net ton, but his 12-month cumulative realization as shown on OPS Public Form No. 1 for the 12-month period ending September 30, 1952, is $4.75. The addition of the 40 cents increase to the cumulative weighted average realization of $4.75 results in a target realization of $5.15. Subtracting $5.00 (the previously established ceiling weighted average realization) from $5.15, leaves 15 cents which is the authorized increase in the ceiling weighted average realization. He can add 10 percent of the 15-cent increase in ceiling weighted average realization in October 1952, 20 percent of the increase in November 1952, etc., until the total of 15 cents per net ton is reached. Thus, he may not exceed $5.0150 in October; $5.0300 in November, etc. (If his mine's cost increase is 25 cents or less per ton, his ceiling weighted average realization, under the above facts, would remain at $5.00 per net ton.)

OPS Public Form No. 155 showing the increased costs and the increase authorized in the ceiling weighted average realization shall be filed by producers, other than "small mine" producers, as defined in section 2 (m), in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (a) (2) of this regulation.

The new ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization provided in this subparagraph may be put into effect as of the date the authorized increased costs become effective, except that as to sales to retail coal dealers, the effective date of ceiling prices shall be November 14, 1952.

(3) A producer who operates a preparation plant, a ramp or other loading facility, and who by usual custom obtains all or part of his coal from another producer or producers, shall determine his increased costs under subparagraph (2) of this section by calculating the weighted average increased cost of his own coal and purchased coal which results from the cost increases referred to in subparagraph (2).

3. Section 6 (g) is amended to read as follows:

(g) Where bituminous coal is delivered from a mine or preparation plant in any transportation facilities owned or subject to the control of the producer or subsidiary or affiliate of the producer, or in any transportation facilities hired by the producer, there may be added to the applicable ceiling price established herein, a sum not in excess of (1) the highest charge for transportation costs between the same points made during the base period or the period January 1–15, 1951, inclusive, or (2) the actual transportation costs incurred by such producer or distributor, or subsidiary or affiliate thereof, determined in a reasonable manner; but in no event shall such highest charge or actual transportation costs exceed the lowest common carrier rate, if any, for a haul between the same points: Provided, That there may also be added by a producer or distributor, an amount not in excess of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942, if said producer incurred such tax and if he separately states the amount of the tax in sales to all purchasers except the United States or any agency thereof, the District of Columbia, any state government or any political subdivision thereof.

4. Section 6 (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Any purchaser, lessee or transferee of a mine for which ceiling prices and a ceiling weighted average realization have been established, shall take the ceiling prices and ceiling weighted average realization previously assigned to the mine or other seller, lessor or transferor thereof. Immediately upon the transfer of a mine the purchaser, lessee or transferee shall notify in writing by registered mail, the Solid Fuels Branch, Rubber, Chemicals, Drugs and Fuels Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., stating the date of such transfer and the name and address of the purchaser, lessee or transferee. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

5. Section 9 (a) is amended by redesignating paragraph (a) as (a) (1) and adding a new sub-paragraph as follows:

(2) OPS Public Form No. 155 showing the increased costs and the increase in the ceiling weighted average realization authorized by section 4 (d) (2), shall be filed by producers, other than "small mine" producers, within 20 days after the increased costs become effective, or within 20 days after the issuance of this amendment, whichever is later. This form shall be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the Solid Fuels Branch, Rubber, Chemicals, Drugs and Fuels Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C. Although a "small mine" producer need not file OPS Public Form No. 155, he must calculate his adjustment under section 4 (d) (2) on this form and keep it on file in accordance with the provisions of section 9 (f) of this regulation. Copies of OPS Public Form No. 155 may be obtained by writing to the Solid Fuels Branch, Rubber, Chemicals, Drugs and Fuels Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

6. Section 9 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Ceiling price schedules shall be filed by the producer, sales agent or distributor with the Director and with the regional office or offices of the Agency in the area or areas where the producer's coal is shipped, within ten days after the day such prices become effective. Copies of such price schedules shall be open for public inspection. All changes in ceiling prices shall be similarly filed, except that ceiling prices determined under section 4 (d) (2) shall not be filed.

7. Section 9 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Each producer shall report each month the monthly realization to the Director, on or before the last day of the month following the month for which the report is filed, on OPS Public Form No. 1 and in accordance with instructions issued by the Office of Price Stabilization: Provided, That no producer shall be required to file reports under this paragraph if he files a certified statement that he is now selling all of his coal at prices below the ceiling prices established by this regulation and that his cumulative weighted average realization is now below the ceiling weighted average realization established for his mine or group of mines. If in any month or months after such certification the producer makes a sale of any size or grade of coal at a price equal to the ceiling price established for that size or grade, or in any month or months in which the cumulative weighted average realization equals the ceiling weighted average realization established for his mine or group of mines, he must file the report required by this paragraph for such month or months. Certification must be in the following form:

CERTIFICATION OF SALES BELOW CEILING PRICES AND CEILING WEIGHTED AVERAGE REALIZATION AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 9 (d) OF CPR 3, AS AMENDED

It is hereby certified that _____ (Name of _____ is selling all coal from the producer)

_____ (Name of mine or group of mines)

at prices below the ceiling prices established by this regulation and that the cumulative weighted average realization for this mine (or group of mines) is now below the ceiling weighted average realization established for such mine (or group of mines).

_____ (Name of producer)

_____ (Address of producer)

_____ (Signature of authorized person)

_____ (Title or position of signer)

Date: _____

This statement must be addressed to the Solid Fuels Branch, Rubber, Chemicals, Drugs and Fuels Division, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., and must be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested.

The certification procedure does not apply to reports required in connection with the establishment or adjustment of ceiling prices or ceiling weighted average realization.

8. Section 9 (f) is amended by adding a new sentence at the end thereof so that the paragraph will read as follows:

(f) Each person subject to this regulation shall preserve and keep available for inspection by the Director, for a period of two years, all records necessary to substantiate ceiling prices, base period realization and average realization established pursuant to this regulation. He shall also prepare and keep available for examination by the Director of Price Stabilization for a period of two years, records of the kind which he customarily keeps showing the prices charged for the coal.

Effective date. This amendment 2 to CPR 3 shall become effective as of October 1, 1952, except that as to sales to retail coal dealers the effective date of ceiling prices shall be November 14, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

JOSEPH H. FREEHILL,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 4, Amdt. 6]

CPR 4—ANTHRACITE DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

ADJUSTMENTS ON ALL SIZES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 6 to Ceiling Price Regulation 4 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 4 increases the ceiling prices on all sizes of anthracite by amounts ranging from 40 cents to $1.35 per net ton, f. o. b. the mines. These increases are necessary to permit the anthracite-producing industry to meet the Industry Earnings Standard.

An industry earnings survey of the anthracite-producing industry was made earlier this year at the request of the Anthracite Industry Advisory Committee. As a result of the findings of the survey the ceiling prices of the industrial sizes (buckwheat No. 1 and smaller) were adjusted in the amount of 75 cents per ton, becoming effective on August 12, 1952. This interim adjustment did not exhaust the entire amount of entitlement of the industry under the Industry Earnings Standard.

Further study of industry earnings shows that the industry is entitled to an additional price increase averaging 35.5 cents per ton to permit it to meet the industry earnings standard. The increases provided in this amendment include that amount.

On October 3, the ceiling prices of all sizes of anthracite were increased in the amount of 20 cents per net ton, reflecting the additional payment into the Anthracite Health and Welfare Fund agreed to by the industry and the United Mine Workers of America. The increase in the welfare payment was included in an interim agreement pending the completion of negotiations on wage and other matters.

On November 1, 1952, the representatives of the anthracite industry and UMW of A reached an agreement on wage increases to be paid the miners, effective November 16, 1952, as well as further changes in the terms and conditions of employment. The agreement sets forth in detail a method of applying the wage increases which have been granted to employees paid daily and on piece-work rates.

The anthracite industry wage agreement has been submitted to the Wage Stabilization Board for approval and is now being considered by that Agency.

An increase of at least $1.50 per day for the anthracite industry, paralleling that already approved for bituminous will be effective retroactive to November 16, 1952, upon formal approval by the Wage Stabilization Board. Thus the anthracite producers will begin to incur substantially higher production costs beginning November 16, which the industry cannot absorb under the Industry Earnings Standard.

The increases included in this price action, therefore, reflect the amount to which the industry is entitled under the Industry Earnings Standard including a cost increase based on an average wage increase of $1.50 per day, amounting to a total of $1.047 per net ton. If a higher rate increase is hereafter authorized a further adjustment may be required.

Prices on the smaller sizes of anthracite coal have traditionally been lower than on the larger prepared sizes. This reflects strong competition with other forms of solid fuels and with oil and gas. In order to permit the industry to obtain earnings to which it is entitled under the Industry Earnings Standard, the various sizes of anthracite are being increased by amounts ranging from 40 cents per net ton on buckwheat Nos. 4 and 5 and smaller to $1.35 on broken size.

So far as practicable, the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and to relevant factors of general applicability.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization this amendment is generally fair and equitable and is necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act, as amended.

In the formulation of this amendment, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

1. The ceiling prices in Appendix A, provision 1, as amended, are further amended by an increase on all sizes so that provision 1 to Appendix A will read as follows:

1. The following ceiling prices, subject to the exceptions set forth in this regulation, are established for Anthracite f. o. b. mine:

	Per net ton
Broken	$15.75
Egg	16.00
Stove	16.25
Chestnut	16.15
Pea	12.85
Buckwheat No. 1	10.10
Rice	8.35
Barley	6.55
Buckwheat No. 4 and smaller	5.45

2. The ceiling prices for "sub-standard" anthracite in Appendix A, provision 3, as amended, are further amended by an increase on all sizes so that provision 3 of Appendix A will read as follows:

3. The ceiling prices for anthracite (including anthracite for which a ceiling price has been established by any special order issued under this regulation, or otherwise), which does not meet the quality standards and price specifications set forth in Appendix B hereof, shall be the applicable ceiling price set forth below:

	Per net ton
Broken	$14.60
Egg	14.85
Stove	15.10
Chestnut	15.00
Pea	11.85
Buckwheat No. 1	9.40
Rice	7.75
Barley	6.05
Buckwheat No. 4 and smaller	5.05

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended, 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment to CPR 4 shall become effective November 16, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Supplementary Regulation 30]

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 30—AUTOMOBILE AND VEHICLE WASHING SERVICES IN TEXAS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Supplementary Regulation 30 to Ceiling Price Regulation 34, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This action is an emergency action designed to relieve severe financial hardships now being suffered by various service establishments in providing car washing services in Texas communities which arise from the serious drought conditions existing in that State.

Information received in this office indicates that due to shortages of water resulting from the drought, municipalities have adopted, or are considering the adoption, of emergency ordinances which prohibit automobile washing establishments and service stations from using water obtained from municipal water distribution systems to wash automobiles and other vehicles. As a result such service establishments have been forced to dig wells, haul water in, install equipment to reclaim water, to buy water from peddlers, and install pressure equipment.

The action permits suppliers of car washing services to increase the ceiling price established under Ceiling Price Regulation 34 by 25¢ per car.

The amount of this increase is approximately the adjustment which would be granted upon individual applications for adjustment under the provisions of section 20 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. However, the data available is too incomplete to permit adjustments on an individual or area basis except for a temporary period. In any event, the conditions which would justify such adjustments at this time are of a temporary nature, which it is anticipated may be alleviated within three months.

The increased charges may be made for a period of 90 days from the effective date of the regulation, unless that time is extended or shortened by further action by the Director of Price Stabilization.

In view of the emergency nature of this supplementary regulation circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this regulation does.
2. Where this regulation applies.
3. Eligibility to use the increase permitted by this supplementary regulation.
4. Amount of emergency increase.
5. Records.
6. Termination.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 through 6 issued under Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This regulation authorizes a temporary emergency increase in ceiling prices for sellers of the service of washing automobiles and other vehicles in certain drought-stricken areas in Texas.

SEC. 2. Where this supplementary regulation applies. This supplementary regulation applies only in locations in the State of Texas which have adopted emergency municipal ordinances which prohibit the use of water for the purpose of washing automobiles and other vehicles with water obtained from a water distribution system regularly supplying water to such municipalities.

SEC. 3. Eligibility to use the increase permitted by this supplementary regulation. You may increase your ceiling price for washing automobiles and other vehicles, if you meet all of the following conditions:

(a) You must have normally since January 25, 1951 taken water which you use to wash automobiles and other vehicles from a water distribution system which regularly supplies water to a municipality in the State of Texas whose governing body has recently adopted an emergency ordinance prohibiting the use of water for such purpose.

(b) In order to be able to continue washing automobiles and other vehicles, you must have incurred substantial additional expense, which you would not have incurred if you had not been prohibited by the action of the municipal authorities from using water for that purpose, such as drilling a well, hauling water, or providing additional equipment such as pumps, water storage tanks, etc.

(c) You must have filed your ceiling price for washing automobiles and other vehicles with your local OPS Office in accordance with section 18 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

SEC. 4. Amount of emergency increase. If you meet the eligibility requirements of section 3 of this supplementary regulation, you may increase your legally established OPS ceiling price for washing automobiles and other vehicles by 25 cents per vehicle.

SEC. 5. Termination. This supplementary regulation is effective immediately. However, the increase in your ceiling prices permitted by section 4 of this supplementary regulation may be charged until February 16, 1953, unless this supplementary regulation is revoked prior to that date, or the time is further extended by the action of the Director. Upon the expiration of this supplementary regulation, or prior termination or upon the expiration of any extension thereof, you must revert to your ceiling prices established under Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, for the service of washing automobiles and other vehicles. If you elect to use this regulation all provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, except to the extent they are inconsistent with the provisions of this supplementary regulation remain applicable to you.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is effective November 17, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 61, Amdt. 3]

CPR 61—EXPORTS

REPORTING UNDER SECTION 5 (B) OF CEILING PRICE REGULATION 61

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., Pub. Law 96, 82d Cong., Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment is designed to facilitate the processing by District Offices of this Agency of reports made under section 5 of Ceiling Price Regulation 61. Section 5 is the section that sets forth the method of calculating base period markups for exporters. That section also contains the reporting provisions for these sellers. Prior to this amendment, under the provisions of CPR 61, the base period markup was reported to the National Office of the Office of Price Stabilization.

This amendment provides that all future reports under section 5 be furnished to the District Offices by registered letter. It is planned that the reports will be processed by the District Offices which are, as a result of their location, better able to check the reports and to discuss with the persons reporting, any problems affecting them. An appropriate delegation of authority is being issued to the Directors of Regional Offices with authority to redelegate to the Directors of District Offices.

In view of the procedural nature of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 5 (b) of CPR 61 is amended to read as follows:

(b) In every case where you, whether merchant exporter or producer exporter, calculate for the first time the percentage markup you are going to use or do use in the export sale or sale for export of a commodity or product line covered by this regulation, you shall furnish the Office of Price Stabilization District Office in your area by registered letter with the following information in duplicate:

(1) The commodity or product line, including a list of the commodities in the product line;

(2) Whether you are a merchant exporter, or a producer exporter, or both, in respect to each commodity or product line listed;

(3) The class of buyer;

(4) Whether an export sale or sale for export;

(5) Your representative calendar quarter; and

(6) The percentage markup you are permitted to use under this regulation.

(7) If you are not permitted to take a markup, or it is not your present sales policy to take a permissible markup on your export sales or sales for export, you are nevertheless required to report this fact.

This information shall be reported within fifteen days after your first sale of the commodity or product line under this regulation, and may be provided on OPS Public Form No. 72 available at any office of the Office of Price Stabilization. Once you have furnished such information for the sale of a particular commodity or product line to a particular class of buyer, you need not again advise the Office of Price Stabilization with respect to your pricing of that type of sale.

Effective date. This Amendment 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 shall become effective November 22, 1952.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 65, Amdt. 2]

CPR 65—CEILING PRICES FOR CANNED SALMON

EXTENDS COVERAGE OF REGULATION TO INCLUDE 1952 PACK

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 65 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment retains the specific dollars-and-cents ceiling prices, for sales by canners of canned salmon of the 1952 pack, which were established for sales of the 1951 pack by Ceiling Price Regulation 65, as amended. It also provides for the processing of applications for special ceiling prices by the Regional Director of Office of Price Stabilization, Region 13, Seattle, Washington, rather than by the National Office.

The retention of the 1951 ceiling price levels of course preserves the differentials by species and grades. The bases for these differentials and for the pricing technique in general are explained in the Statements of Considerations to Ceiling Price Regulation 65 and to Amendment 1 thereof, and those explanations are incorporated herein by reference. This Statement of Considerations will discuss only the reasons for applying to the 1952 pack the ceiling prices established for the 1951 pack.

Projection of the statistics now available for 1952 indicates a total catch approximating that of 1951, though for any particular species the catch may be higher or lower than in 1951. The total catch of salmon as of September 13, 1952, was 3,383,101 cases compared with 3,399,819 cases as of September 15, 1951. The fishing season for salmon is practically completed in the middle of September. Indications are that over-all cost and production changes in 1952 will be such as to result in no substantial differences from over-all cost and production in 1951.

In view of these circumstances, and since the 1951 level of ceiling prices for different species has been found by the industry to be reasonable, it is felt that the continuance of these 1951 ceiling price levels for the 1952 pack is a fair basis for setting the ceiling price level for the 1952 pack.

Besides the continuance of the 1951 ceiling price level for the 1952 pack, this amendment makes an important change in section 4 (d). Instead of applying to the National Office of the Office of Price Stabilization for ceiling prices for varieties, container sizes, or types and styles of pack not listed in section 4 (a), the seller now will apply to the Regional Office of Region 13 of the Office of Price Stabilization at Seattle, Washington. This change is in accordance with the policy of decentralization wherever it can be accomplished without impairing service by the Office of Price Stabilization. The head offices of all the large salmon packers are in Region 13, and hence it is thought that this change in procedure will in some cases obviate the necessity of voluminous correspondence. Processing of such applications in Region 13 will also, it is felt, facilitate clarification of questions of fact which arise from time to time in such cases.

In the formulation of this amendment, the Director of Price Stabilization has, to the extent practicable, consulted with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and has given consideration to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director, this amendment is generally fair and equitable, is necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and complies with all the applicable standards of that act.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 65, as amended, is further amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is changed so as to read as follows:

SECTION 1. Coverage of this regulation. This regulation establishes specific dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for the sale by canners of all canned salmon of the 1951 and 1952 packs. These ceiling prices supersede those established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

2. Section 4 (d) is amended so as to delete the words "Fish Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C." and substitute therefor: "Director of Region 13 of the Office of Price Stabilization, 506 Second Avenue, Seattle, Washington."

Effective date. This Amendment 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 65 is effective November 22, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Director of Price Stabilization.

Chapter IV—Salary and Wage Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

Subchapter A—Salary Stabilization Board

[General Salary Order 16]

GSO 16—WAGES, SALARIES AND OTHER COMPENSATION OF EMPLOYEES UNDER THE JURISDICTION OF THE WAGE STABILIZATION BOARD PRIOR TO JUNE 30, 1952

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Under the provisions of the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952, jurisdiction over the wages, salaries and other compensation of supervisors, as such term is defined in the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947, as amended, was transferred to the Salary Stabilization Board. The statute also fixes the respective jurisdictions of the Wage Stabilization Board and the Salary Stabilization Board. As a result thereof prior transfers of jurisdiction of certain categories of employees to the Wage Stabilization Board made by the Salary Stabilization Board or the Office of Salary Stabilization are automatically terminated and jurisdiction over the compensation of such employees rests again with the Salary Stabilization Board. However, questions have arisen as a result of these changes in the jurisdiction of the Boards and as to the power and duty of the Economic Stabilization Administrator as to the compensation properly payable to such employees, particularly where special approvals by the Wage Stabilization Board of changes in their compensation are relied upon. This General Salary Order is issued to clarify the situation with regard to the compensation which employers may properly pay to such employees and which they may properly receive, and the extent to which the Salary Stabilization Board will ratify action taken by employers pursuant to Wage Stabilization Board authorization.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. Compensation of employees under the jurisdiction of the Wage Stabilization Board prior to June 30, 1952.
2. Record keeping.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 and 2 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154.

SECTION 1. Compensation of employees under the jurisdiction of the Wage Stabilization Board prior to June 30, 1952. (a) As used in this order, the term "employees" shall be limited to employees or categories of employees whose wages, salaries and other compensation prior to June 30, 1952, were under the jurisdiction of the Wage Stabilization Board and since June 30, 1952, are under the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board pursuant to or as a result of the provisions of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended: Provided, however, That this order shall not apply on and after August 26, 1952, to driver salesmen, adjustments in whose wages, salaries and other compensation are as of that date subject to the provisions of section 10 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 5, as amended.

(b) Payment of compensation made prior to the date of publication of this order in the Federal Register to employees, as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, which conforms to the provisions of self-administering regulations issued under the authority of the Wage Stabilization Board or a specific determination of such Board, is ratified, confirmed and approved, and compensation may be continued to be paid at the rate in effect on such date.

(c) Employers are authorized to adjust hereafter the compensation of such employees under the following conditions:

(1) That the adjustment, including compensation of new employees, is in conformity with the employer's practices, compensation rate schedules or plans adopted or continued pursuant to the provisions of self-administering regulations issued under the authority of the Wage Stabilization Board and in effect on June 30, 1952, or a specific determination of such Board made prior to such date of publication of this order in the Federal Register.

(2) That the employer has not been specifically directed otherwise by the Office of Salary Stabilization.

(d) Other future adjustments in compensation not within the scope of this section shall be in accordance with the provisions of the regulations or orders of the Salary Stabilization Board or determinations of the Office of Salary Stabilization.

SEC. 2. Record keeping. Any employer granting adjustments in wages, salaries and other compensation to employees pursuant to this order shall comply with the applicable record keeping requirements of section 101 of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 1, Amended.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

By order of the Salary Stabilization Board, October 2, 1952.

JUSTIN MILLER,
Chairman.

Approved: NOVEMBER 12, 1952.

ROGER L. PUTNAM,
Economic Stabilization Administrator.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-41, as Amended November 17, 1952]

M-41—METALWORKING MACHINES—DELIVERY

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this amended order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

EXPLANATORY

This amended order revises NPA Order M-41, as amended July 25, 1952, by making certain changes, among which are the following:

1. Section 1 (b) is deleted because of the revocation of NPA Order M-41A.
2. Section 3 (a) is deleted so that the frozen period will operate against an unrated order.
3. Section 4 is revised to clarify the scheduling of unrated orders.
4. Section 7 is revised to clarify procedures incident to revisions in the Numerical Preference List.
5. Section 8 is revised to conform to the changes in section 7.
6. Section 10 is revised to conform to the change in section 3.
7. A new section numbered 14 concerning applications for ratings for metalworking machines is added.
8. Exhibit A is revised to eliminate balancing machines and certain kinds of measuring and testing machines.
9. Exhibit C is discontinued.
10. Exhibit D is revised to clarify certain definitions therein.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this order does.
2. Definitions.
3. Limitations on deliveries and acceptance of orders.
4. Allocation of deliveries to service and other purchasers.
5. Distribution of production among service groups.
6. Treatment of fractions.

Sec.
7. Operation of Numerical Preference List.
8. Information to be furnished with new purchase orders.
9. Changes and amendments.
10. Rejection of rated orders.
11. Effect of this order on NPA Reg. 2.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 18 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply sec. 101, 64 Stat. 799, Pub. Law 429, 82d Cong.; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2071; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.; secs. 402, 405, E. O. 10281, Aug. 28, 1951, 16 F. R. 8789; 3 CFR, 1951 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order regulates the delivery of metalworking machines. It requires all producers to schedule their deliveries in accordance with the provisions of this order.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Metalworking machine" means any new, nonportable, power-driven item of plant equipment which is listed on Exhibit A, appearing at the end of this order, and has a producer's list price for the basic machine itself of $1,000 or more. The producer's list price for the basic machine itself means the sale price at which the producer's catalog or other price publication lists the basic machine, exclusive of the motor, motor drive, or any attachments therefor, unless the motor, motor drive, or attachments are initially built into the basic machine itself, as an integral part thereof, in which case the producer's list price for the basic machine shall be the sale price at which the producer lists the machine as an assembled unit. The term "metalworking machine" includes all fixtures, equipment, and tooling covered by the original purchase order which are required to be delivered with the basic machine to make it usable in production for the purposes intended. It does not include replacements, spare parts or equipment, or extra tooling.

(b) "Producer" means any person engaged in the manufacture and production of metalworking machines.

(c) "Service group" means a subdivision of the Department of Defense. For the purposes of this order, there are deemed to be seven such subdivisions, consisting of the following: Ordnance, Army less Ordnance, Bureau of Ordnance (Navy), Bureau of Ships (Navy), Miscellaneous Bureaus and Offices (Navy), Bureau of Aeronautics (Navy), and Air Force.

(d) "Service purchasers" means those persons whose purchase orders for metalworking machines call for delivery to a service group, or to one of such group's prime contractors, or to a subcontractor of such a prime contractor. However, no such purchaser shall be considered a service purchaser unless his order is accompanied by a DO rating in accordance with existing regulations.

(e) "Other purchasers" means all purchasers other than service purchasers, whether or not a DO rating has been assigned to their purchase orders.

(f) "Size" includes all of those dimensions or variations of a particular type of metalworking machine which can be used interchangeably for production purposes. Size classification shall be that used by each producer on the effective date of this order, unless he is hereinafter authorized to use a different classification. Producers may apply for such permission by letter to the National Production Authority (hereinafter called "NPA").

(g) "Firm order" means an order which is accompanied by specification or other description of a metalworking machine in sufficient detail to enable a producer to place such machine in his production schedule.

(h) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States Government or of any other government.

(i) "GSA" means the United States Government agency known as the General Services Administration, created under the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377); or such other Federal agency to which the Defense Materials Procurement Agency may hereafter redelegate the functions specified or described in section 13 of this order under E. O. 10281 (16 F. R. 8789), and the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended (64 Stat. 798, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2061–2166); or the Defense Materials Procurement Agency if said agency does not redelegate such functions.

SEC. 3 Limitations on deliveries and acceptance of orders. No producer shall accept a purchase order that is not rated for any metalworking machine of the classifications listed in Exhibit D of this order unless specifically authorized by NPA pursuant to a request filed in accordance with section 15 of this order. No producer shall deliver against a purchase order that is not rated any metalworking machine of the classifications listed in Exhibit D of this order unless specifically authorized by NPA pursuant to a request filed in accordance with section 15 of this order.

SEC. 4. Allocations of deliveries to service and other purchasers. (a) Starting December 1, 1952, and on the first of each succeeding month, each producer shall schedule his deliveries of each size of metalworking machines in accordance with the provisions of this section for the fourth ensuing month, for example, deliveries for the month of March would be scheduled on December 1st, and March would be the "delivery month."

(b) This paragraph (b) applies only to purchase orders for metalworking machines of the classifications listed in Exhibit D of this order. If a producer can fill from his production all rated orders requiring delivery in the month being scheduled, then he shall arrange his schedule so as to fill such rated orders. If a producer cannot fill from his production all rated orders requiring delivery in the month being scheduled, then he shall arrange his schedule of deliveries as follows:

(1) To the extent that a producer has rated orders on hand from service purchasers requiring delivery in the month being scheduled of less than 70 percent of his production of any size in that month, he shall arrange his schedule so as to fill all rated orders for that size requiring delivery to service purchasers in that month, and schedule the balance so as to fill rated orders from other purchasers.

(2) To the extent that a producer has rated orders on hand from service purchasers requiring delivery in the month being scheduled of more than 70 percent of his production of any size in that month, he shall arrange his schedule so as to fill rated orders for that size to service purchasers equivalent to 70 percent of his production of that size, and shall schedule so much of the balance as may be necessary to fill rated orders on hand from other purchasers requiring delivery in the month being scheduled and thereafter, if any balance still remains, he shall schedule additional rated orders from service purchasers.

(c) This paragraph (d) applies only to purchase orders for metalworking machines of the classifications not listed in Exhibit D of this order. If a producer can fill from his production all orders requiring deliveries in the month being scheduled, whether such orders are rated or unrated, then he shall arrange his schedule so as to fill all such orders. If a producer cannot fill from his production all orders requiring delivery in the month being scheduled, whether such orders are rated or unrated, then he shall arrange his schedule of deliveries as follows:

(1) To the extent that a producer has rated orders on hand from service purchasers requiring delivery in the month being scheduled, he shall arrange his schedule so as to deliver up to 60 percent of his production of each size in that month to service purchasers.

(2) To the extent that a producer has rated orders on hand from service purchasers requiring delivery in the month being scheduled of more than 60 percent of his production of any size in the month, he shall not be required in any such case to deliver more than such 60 percent to service purchasers even though there be fewer rated orders from other purchasers than the equivalent of 40 percent of his production of such size.

(3) To the extent that there remains any balance of his production unscheduled for that month, after scheduling his deliveries to service purchasers in accordance with subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, a producer shall schedule such balance for such month so as to fill all rated orders from other purchasers to the extent possible, and thereafter, if any balance still remains, to fill unrated orders to be scheduled in accordance with such producer's usual custom.

SEC. 5. Distribution of production among service groups. In connection with scheduling deliveries for each month pursuant to section 4 of this order, each producer shall schedule deliveries among the several service groups as follows:

(a) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, each producer shall determine the number of orders on his books for each size of metalworking machine for each of the seven service groups as of 90 days prior to the first day of the month being scheduled, or, at the producer's option, the nearest date within 10 days thereof on which he may have compiled his records of orders. Only those orders which by their terms require delivery in the month being scheduled or in a month previous thereto shall be counted. The number of orders so determined for each such size and service group shall be termed the "net backlog" of each service group for that size of metalworking machine.

(b) Each producer shall then determine the "total net backlog" of all service groups by adding together the orders for each particular size of metalworking machine as determined for each service group in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Each producer shall then determine, in accordance with the provisions of section 4, the total number of metalworking machines of a particular size being scheduled for all service groups for that month and such total shall be termed the "total service group quota." The quota of each size of metalworking machine for any particular service group shall be that proportion of the total service group quota which the net backlog of such particular service group bears to the total net backlog. Each producer shall then schedule deliveries for the month being scheduled so that each service group shall be scheduled for its service quota for that month, determined as provided in this section.

(d) During each month each producer shall deliver for each service group the number of metalworking machines of each size equal to its quota of that size for that month. However, no producer shall schedule delivery of any metalworking machine for any service group earlier than the date on which the purchaser requires delivery unless all required delivery dates on other orders for the same size of metalworking machine are being met.

SEC. 6. Treatment of fractions. Where the number of metalworking machines which results from any computation required by this order contains a fraction of more than one-half, the fraction shall be counted as a whole metalworking machine. A fraction under one-half shall be disregarded, except that where the computation results in a fraction only (less than one whole metalworking machine) for any one month and such fraction is less than one-half, it shall be counted in computing the next month's service quota. Where each of the computations of two or more different service quotas for the same month shows a fraction of one-half, and there is only one remaining metalworking machine to which such fraction can apply, such metalworking machine shall be allotted to the service group having the largest service quota, and the other fractions of one-half shall be disregarded for that month, but shall be counted in computing the other service quota or quotas for the next month.

SEC. 7. Operation of Numerical Preference List. A Numerical Preference List will be supplied to producers. This list will be designated "Restricted." In connection with scheduling deliveries for each month pursuant to sections 4 and 5 of this order, this list shall determine the sequence of scheduling of purchase orders for delivery as between service purchasers within each service group as follows:

(a) In scheduling purchase orders for delivery, service purchasers who are on the list shall take precedence over service purchasers who are not on the list.

(b) As between purchase orders having conflicting required delivery dates, delivery of which is to be made to service purchasers on the list within the particular service group, the purchase order of the service purchaser with the higher urgency standing shall be scheduled for delivery ahead of the service purchaser with the lower urgency standing. The highest urgency standing is No. 1.

(c) Scheduling for delivery to a subcontractor or a subcontractor of a subcontractor shall be made in accordance with the urgency standing of his prime contractor and the prime contract number. However, no such subcontractor may use the urgency standing of the prime contractor unless such use is approved by the prime contractor and endorsed by the service department, supply arm, or bureau concerned.

(d) If the urgency standing certified by the purchaser differs from the urgency standing shown for the particular contractor for the particular contract in question on the Numerical Preference List, the latter shall govern.

(e) If the urgency standing of a prime contract is changed by virtue of a revision of the Numerical Preference List, a producer shall not require the purchaser to furnish the new urgency standing, provided such purchaser has furnished to the producer all of the information required under section 8 of this order.

(f) Regardless of the urgency standing certified with the purchase order, no delivery of metalworking machines shall be made prior to the required delivery dates, unless all required delivery dates on other orders for the same size of metalworking machines are being met.

(g) Changes may be made in the Numerical Preference List from time to time by NPA. Such changes will be effective when scheduling for the next "delivery month." If an interim change is made, the new urgency standing will consist of a number including a decimal. Such an urgency standing will take the position in the sequence of deliveries as indicated by the following example: Urgency standing 92.1 will be delivered after 92 and before 93. Complete revisions of the Numerical Preference List may be made from time to time and at such times the interim changes will be integrated in the revised Numerical Preference List. Such revised Numerical Preference List will use whole numbers and will be dated. Scheduling under this order will be controlled by the Numerical Preference List in force on the date of scheduling, irrespective of the urgency standing furnished by the purchaser at the time of the placing of the order. If a producer is unable to identify what urgency standing is the correct one for a particular purchase order, he must request from the purchaser the information necessary to establish the urgency standing and may delay scheduling such purchase order for production until he has received such information.

(h) The sequence of conflicting deliveries to service purchasers who are not listed on the Numerical Preference List within each service group shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of NPA Reg. 2.

SEC. 8. Information to be furnished with new purchase orders. (a) All purchasers must indicate specifications or other descriptions of the metalworking machines being ordered in sufficient detail to enable the producer to place the same on his production schedule and the required delivery date thereof.

(b) All service purchasers must indicate the service group which placed or sponsored the prime contract or subcontract for which the metalworking machine being purchased is to be used, and the specific prime contract number and the urgency standing, if any. If such service purchaser is a subcontractor or a subcontractor of a subcontractor, he must also state the name of the prime contractor.

(c) Any other purchaser must indicate the claimant agency, if any, which placed or sponsored the prime contract or subcontract for which the metalworking machine being purchased is to be used.

SEC. 9. Changes and amendments. Notwithstanding any other provision of this order, NPA may amend this order and any of its exhibits, may direct or change any schedule of production or delivery of metalworking machines, allocate any order for metalworking machines from one producer to another producer, and divert or otherwise direct the delivery of any metalworking machine from one person to another person.

SEC. 10. Rejection of rated orders. A producer need not accept a rated order which he receives less than 3 months prior to the first day of the month in which delivery is requested.

SEC. 11. Effect of this order on NPA Reg. 2. To the extent that this order is in conflict with NPA Reg. 2, the provisions of this order shall control. In all other respects, NPA Reg. 2 shall continue in full force and effect.

SEC. 12. Replacement parts. CMP Regulation No. 5 as now effective or as hereafter amended, or any other NPA order or regulation concerning maintenance, repair, and replacement items, shall control with respect to the delivery by a producer of repair and replacement parts, irrespective of any provisions contained in this order.

SEC. 13. Pool orders. NPA will from time to time furnish GSA with recommendations for ordering metalworking machines. Under a working arrangement between GSA and NPA, GSA will place firm orders (herein sometimes called "pool orders") with producers of metalworking machines in accordance with such recommendations. The pool orders so placed by GSA will contain, among other provisions, a provision requiring any producer, on or after the date therein specified, to eliminate items from any such order to the extent that equivalent items manufactured by such producer are invoiced or shipped (whichever is earlier) by such producer to others pursuant to purchase orders from others or to orders and directions of NPA. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 3 of this order, a producer may accept a pool order from GSA and if he has entered into a pool order with GSA, may, as to metalworking machines of the classifications listed in Exhibit D, which such producer is unable to ship on rated orders, store such metalworking machines and invoice them to GSA, in accordance with the provisions of such pool order.

SEC. 14. Applications for ratings for metalworking machines. A person other than a service purchaser who desires a rating for a metalworking machine and who believes he is eligible for such a rating, may apply for such rating on Form NPAF–138 (Revised) to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or supersede any existing NPA delegation, regulation, or order, or to affect the assigning or applying of a rating pursuant thereto, or to affect the making of applications for a rating by any person eligible therefor to a delegate agency or pursuant to another NPA regulation or order.

SEC. 15. Request for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, that any provision otherwise works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment or exception claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, by letter in triplicate, and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 16. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall make and preserve, for at least 3 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, production, and use, in sufficient detail to permit the determination, after audit, whether each transaction complies with the provisions of this order. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by persons who, at the time such microfilm or other photographic records are made, maintain such copies of records in the regular and usual course of business.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority, at the usual place of business where maintained.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 17. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: NPA Order M–41.

SEC. 18. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who wilfully furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under this order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect November 17, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
By GEORGE W. AUXIER,
Executive Secretary.

EXHIBIT A OF NPA ORDER M–41

All types of the following classifications are included herewith for regulation under this order based on past procurement experience. Additions shall be made as new and changed requirements are developed:

Ammunition machinery.
Beading machines.
Boring machines.
Brakes.
Broaching machines.
Buffing machines.
Centering machines.
Chamfering machines.
Cut-off machines.
Die-sinking machines.
Drilling machines.
Duplicating machines.
Extruding machines.
Filing machines.
Forging machines.
Forging rolls.
Gear-cutting machines.
Gear-finishing machines.
Grinding machines.
Hammers.
Headers.
Key-seating machines.
Lapping machines.
Lathes.
Levelers.
Marking machines.
Measuring and testing machines, except physical property test equipment.
Milling machines.
Nibbling machines.
Oil-grooving machines.
Pipe flanging-expanding machines.
Planers.
Polishing and buffing machines.
Presses.
Profiling machines.
Punching machines.
Reaming machines.
Rifle and gun working machines.
Riveting machines.
Rolling machines.
Sawing machines.
Screw and bar machines.
Shapers.
Swagers.
Tapping machines.
Threading machines.
Shearing machines.
Slotters.
Upsetters.

EXHIBITS B AND C OF NPA ORDER M–41

(Discontinued)

EXHIBIT D TO NPA ORDER M–41

I. Boring machines:
(a) Vertical boring and turning machines, 54 inches and larger.
(b) Vertical boring and turning machines, all automatic cycle.
(c) Horizontal boring, drilling, and milling machines—table, floor, and planer type—4-inch spindle and larger.
(d) Jig-boring machines.
II. Die-sinking machines:
(a) Manual type.
(b) Automatic type.
III. Drilling machines:
(a) Radial drilling machines.
IV. Gear-cutting machines:
(a) Gear-hobbing machines—6-inch pitch diameter by 10-inch face and smaller.
V. Grinding machines:
(a) Long bed surface grinders—60 inches travel and larger.
(b) Table-type, single-head, nonautomatic, rotary surface grinders—30 inches capacity and larger.
(c) Jig-grinding machines.
(d) Face-coupling grinders.
VI. Lathes:
(a) Duplicating and tracer type.
(b) Turret lathes, saddle type, 3½ inches bar capacity and larger.
VII. Milling machines:
(a) No. 4 and larger—knee and column type and bed type.
(b) Planer or rail type mill.
(c) Duplicating or copying type.
(d) Skin-milling machines.
(e) Spar-milling machines.
(f) Jig-milling machines.
VIII. Planers:
(a) 60 inches by 60 inches double housing and larger.
(b) 48 inches open side and larger.
IX. Shapers:
(a) Breech ring shapers.

[Rent Regulation 1, Amdt. 26 to Schedule B]

[Rent Regulation 2, Amdt. 26 to Schedule B]

RR 1—HOUSING

RR 2—ROOMS IN ROOMING HOUSES AND OTHER ESTABLISHMENTS

SCHEDULE B—SPECIFIC PROVISIONS RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS OR PORTIONS THEREOF

ERIE, SHARON-FARRELL AND CANTON DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

Effective November 17, 1952, Rent Regulation 1 and Rent Regulation 2 are amended as set forth below.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1894)

Issued this 13th day of November 1952.

JAMES McI. HENDERSON,
Director of Rent Stabilization.

1. Item 73 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

73. Provisions relating to the Erie Defense-Rental Area (Item 261 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Erie Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodation or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustment under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Erie Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 73 of Schedule B.

2. Item 78 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

78. Provisions relating to the Erie Defense-Rental Area (Item 261 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Erie Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to this regulation to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation, for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the room or comparable rooms, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 160 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Erie Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 78 of Schedule B.

3. Item 74 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

74. Provisions relating to the Sharon-Farrell Defense-Rental Area (Item 270 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Sharon-Farrell Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The housing accommodation had a maximum rent in effect on November 17, 1952, and the present maximum rent for the housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodations or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Sharon-Farrell Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 74 of Schedule B.

4. Item 79 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

79. Provisions relating to the Sharon-Farrell Defense-Rental Area (Item 270 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Sharon-Farrell Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The room had a maximum rent in effect on November 17, 1952, and the present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the room or comparable rooms, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Sharon-Farrell Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 79 of Schedule B.

5. Item 75 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 1—Housing, reading as follows:

75. Provisions relating to the Canton Defense-Rental Area (Item 226 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Canton Defense-Rental Area, section 141 of this regulation is changed to read as follows:

SEC. 141. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The housing accommodation had a maximum rent in effect on November 17, 1952, and the present maximum rent for the housing accommodation does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable housing accommodations on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodations or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Canton Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 75 of Schedule B.

6. Item 80 is added to Schedule B of Rent Regulation 2—Rooms, reading as follows:

80. Provisions relating to the Canton Defense-Rental Area (Item 226 of Schedule A):

With respect to housing accommodations in the Canton Defense-Rental Area, section 138 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 138. Alternate adjustment for increases in costs and prices. The room had a maximum rent in effect on November 17, 1952, and the present maximum rent for the room does not equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, or 130 percent of the maximum rent for comparable rooms on June 30, 1947, if no maximum rent was in effect on that date; (2) plus or minus any increases or decreases in maximum rent ordered after June 30, 1947, under this regulation for major capital improvements or increases or decreases in living space, services, furniture, furnishings or equipment or substantial deterioration. The adjustment under this section shall be in an amount sufficient to cause the maximum rent to equal (1) 130 percent of the maximum rent in effect on June 30, 1947, for the housing accommodations or comparable housing accommodations, whichever is applicable; (2) plus or minus appropriate increases or decreases in rental value, if any, as specified herein: Provided, however, That the Director shall give appropriate consideration to orders issued under section 157 or 162 decreasing maximum rents which were in effect on June 30, 1947. Adjustments under this section shall be effective automatically upon the filing of the petition if a maximum rent was in effect on June 30, 1947. In all other cases, they shall not be effective until the order is issued by the Director. All provisions of this regulation insofar as they are applicable to the Canton Defense-Rental Area are amended to the extent necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this Item 80 of Schedule B.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—Federal Maritime Board, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce

Subchapter F—Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946

[General Order 60, Supp. 22]

PART 299—RULES AND REGULATIONS, FORMS, AND CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS

CHARTER OF WAR-BUILT VESSELS TO CITIZENS; FORMS

1. Section 299.31 Charter of war-built vessels to citizens of the United States—(a) Application (G. O. 60, 11 F. R. 4459 as amended by Supp. 2 11 F. R. 8370) is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following subparagraph:

(4) Applicants for the charter of war-built vessel(s) under section 5 (e) of the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, as amended by Public Law 591, 81st Congress, shall in addition to the foregoing, submit a Supplemental Application substantially in the form prescribed in § 299.80.

If applicant has not previously filed a formal charter application pursuant to this section (General Order 60), questions 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, and 11 in the Supplemental Application may be disregarded provided the information required by said questions is fully supplied in the application submitted in compliance with this section (General Order No. 60).

2. Subpart G—Forms is amended by adding a new section to read:

U. S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE MARITIME ADMINISTRATION

SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATION TO BAREBOAT CHARTER GOVERNMENT-OWNED, WAR-BUILT, DRY-CARGO VESSEL(S) UNDER SECTION 5 (E) OF THE MERCHANT SHIP SALES ACT OF 1946, AS AMENDED BY PUBLIC LAW 591, 81ST CONGRESS

The Applicant ----------, a citizen of the United States, hereby applies under section 5 (e) of the Merchant Ship Sales Act of 1946, as amended by Public Law 591, 81st Congress, for the bareboat charter of Government-owned, war-built, dry-cargo vessel(s) for employment in the service or services as described below:

1. Indicate any material changes in application submitted in compliance with § 299.31, General Order No. 60.

---

2. State service in which chartered vessel is proposed to be operated.

(a) If service is to and from specific ports, name each port.

(b) If to and from ranges, clearly identify ranges (i. e., U. S. North of Hatteras/Havre-Hamburg).

3. Indicate names, types and flag of vessels presently operated by applicant in such service and average frequency of sailings, i. e., weekly, fortnightly, monthly, etc.

---

4. Indicate whether vessels in 3 are owned by applicant or chartered (if chartered, for what period and name of owner).

---

5. Names of other U. S. flag operators who serve all or any substantial portion of the service in which the proposed vessel is to be operated.

---

6. Indicate for each vessel presently operated by applicant in such service for six months preceding the date of this application, the following information:

(a) Amount (if any) of remaining usable bale cubic and deadweight capacity available for cargo on departure last U. S. A. port, and date of sailing.

(b) Same as (a) on departure last foreign port.

Computation should be consistent with data filed on M. A. Forms 7801 and 7802.

---

7. Indicate whether applicant is now chartering any of its owned vessels to others. If so, indicate names and types of vessels, companies to whom chartered, and service(s) in which such vessels are operating, form of charter, rate of charter hire, and expiration date of charters.

---

8. Indicate by brief description other services which applicant operates.

---

9. Number and type of vessel(s) desired.

---

10. If specific vessels are applied for, indicate the name of such vessels in the order of preference.

---

11. State any special reasons for applying for charter, i. e., clean up of strike or similar backlog, loss of vessel, cancellation of private charter, etc.

---

12. If need for vessel is principally for normal increase in cargo offerings, indicate approximate amount of cargo in measurement tons which applicant has been unable to move in a given period immediately preceding and up to the time of the filing of this application. In addition, state, if known, whether other U. S. operators in the same general services are similarly situated in respect to cargo offerings.

---

13. State period applicant desires to charter the vessel(s), and date and place of desired delivery.

---

14. State what effort has been made to charter suitable privately-owned vessel(s) and the results thereof, including reasons for rejecting any ships offered to applicant from private sources.

---

15. If applicant presently holds an operating differential subsidy agreement on the route herein involved, state whether applicant will apply for payment of operating differential subsidy on the vessel(s) applied for.

---

16. State any other facts on which, in the opinion of the applicant, the present application may be supported.

NOTE: (1) If hearing on this application is scheduled before the Federal Maritime Board, the applicant will be called upon to show

(a) The service is required in the public interest;

(b) Such service is not adequately served;

(c) Privately owned American-flag vessels are not available for charter by private operators on reasonable conditions and at reasonable rates for use in such service.

(2) If the Maritime Administration does not recommend or the Federal Maritime Board does not authorize a public hearing on this application, it will not be made available to the public. If a public hearing is authorized, it will be made available to interested parties.

The applicant hereby certifies that the foregoing information is full, complete, accurate, and true.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR Part 60]

AIR TRAFFIC RULES

DEFINITION OF CEILING

Pursuant to authority delegated by the Civil Aeronautics Board to the Bureau of Safety Regulation, notice is hereby given that the Bureau will propose to the Board an amendment to Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations in substance as hereinafter set forth.

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in duplicate to the Civil Aeronautics Board, attention Bureau of Safety Regulation, Washington 25, D. C. In order to insure their consideration by the Board before taking further action on the proposed rule, communications must be received by December 19, 1952. Copies of such communications will be available after December 23, 1952, for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section of the Board, Room 5412, Commerce Building, Washington, D. C.

The United States Weather Bureau has revised its procedures for the determination and measurement of "ceiling." The ceiling is now technically considered as the lowest layer of clouds or obscuring phenomena reported as "broken," "overcast," or "obscuration" and not classified as "thin" or "partial." This change is significant in that a broken or overcast layer of clouds will no longer be reported as a ceiling if the layer is predominantly transparent.

Concurrent with the above change in procedure, the Weather Bureau has also revised its definition of ceiling.

In order that the Civil Air Regulations will properly reflect the above changes in procedure of ceiling determination, it is proposed to amend Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations as follows:

By amending § 60.72 to read as follows:

§ 60.72 Ceiling. The height above the ground or water of the lowest layer of clouds or obscuring phenomena that is reported as "broken," "overcast," or "obscuration" and not classified as "thin" or "partial."

This amendment is proposed under the authority of Title VI of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended. The proposal may be changed in the light of comments received in response to this notice of proposed rule making.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies secs. 601–610, 52 Stat. 1007–1012; 49 U. S. C. 501–510)

Dated: November 13, 1952, at Washington, D. C.

By the Bureau of Safety Regulation.

Director.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION

[49 CFR Part 324]

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR CARRIERS BY INLAND AND COASTAL WATERWAYS

MATURED LONG-TERM OBLIGATIONS; FUNDED DEBT UNMATURED

NOVEMBER 4, 1952.

Having under consideration the requirement that long-term obligations maturing serially or payable in installments shall be classified in the balance sheet statement as current liabilities to the extent that serial or installment payments are due within one year of the balance sheet date, the Commission by Division 1 has approved changes in this provision so that no long-term obligations will be stated as current liabilities except those actually matured and for which there is no agreement to extend payment.

Accordingly the following modifications have been approved:

(1) In § 324.1–207 Long-term debt due within one year, cancel the title and text of this account (without disturbing the note thereto) and substitute the following for them:

§ 324.1–207 Matured long-term obligations. This account shall include the total par value of all funded obligations (except amounts due affiliated companies) which are past due and for which agreements have not been entered into for an extension as to time of payment.

(2) In § 324.1–211 Funded debt, change the title of this account to read Funded debt unmatured, and in paragraph (b) (1) Equipment obligations, of the same section cancel the text and substitute the following for it:

(1) Equipment obligations. Equipment bonds or equipment notes, secured only by lien on specific equipment, including those maturing serially or payable in installments.

Any interested person may on or before December 1, 1952, file with the Commission written views or arguments to be considered in this connection, and may request oral argument thereon. Unless otherwise decided after consideration of representations so received, an order will be entered making the said changes effective January 1, 1953.

[SEAL] GEORGE W. LAIRD,
Acting Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

ALASKA

SHORESPACE RESTORATION ORDER NO. 493 AND SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION NO. 67

NOVEMBER 10, 1952.

By virtue of the authority contained in the act of June 5, 1920 (41 Stat. 1059, 48 U. S. C. 372), and pursuant to sections 2.21 and 2.22 (a) (3), of Order No. 1, Bureau of Land Management, Region VII, approved by the Acting Secretary of the Interior August 20, 1951 (16 F. R. 8625), it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights, the 80-rod shorespace reserve which may now or hereafter be created under the act of May 14, 1898 (30 Stat. 409), as amended by the act of March 3, 1903 (32 Stat. 1028; 48 U. S. C. 371), is hereby revoked as to the public lands hereinafter described, which are situated in the Anchorage, Alaska Land District, and which are hereby classified as chiefly valuable for lease and sale under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609; 43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended:

KETCHIKAN AREA

FOR LEASE AND SALE

For Home Sites

U. S. Survey 2402: Lot 18.
U. S. Survey 2678: Lot 7.
U. S. Survey 2805: Lot 3.
U. S. Survey 3088: Lots 19-51 inclusive.

The above described areas comprise 36 tracts aggregating approximately 35.99 acres.

WRANGELL AREA

FOR LEASE AND SALE

For a Home Site

U. S. Survey 2321: Lot N.

Comprising one tract containing 3.61 acres.

PETERSBURG AREA

FOR LEASE AND SALE

For Home Sites

T. 58 S., R. 79 E., Copper River Meridian.
Section 33: Lots 13, 14 and Lots 17 through 29, inclusive.

The above described area comprises 15 tracts aggregating approximately 70.78 acres.

2. The lands lie within areas eliminated from the Tongass National Forest and are situated near the cities indicated above. Most of the lands are accessible from the above mentioned cities by primary and secondary roads, and part of the lands are presently served by public utilities. The terrain is generally rocky, covered in most places with a thin mantle of soil. The vegetative cover consists mainly of dense growths of hemlock, spruce and cedar. The climate is typical of southeastern Alaska, characterized by cool summers and mild winters, with heavy precipitation experienced throughout most of the year. Adequate water for domestic uses may be obtained from water systems supplied by nearby streams or by the use of wells, and sewage disposal may be made through use of cesspools and septic tanks. Commercial, school, and church facilities are available in the nearby cities, and in some places within immediate access of the lands.

3. This classification order shall not become effective to change the status of any lands described herein or to permit the leasing of any such lands under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, cited above, until 10:00 a. m. on December 2, 1952. At that time, the land shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference right filings. For a period of 91 days from 10 a. m. on December 2, 1952, to close of business on March 2, 1953, inclusive, to (1) application under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, by qualified veterans of World War II, for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279, 282) as amended, and by other qualified persons entitled to credit for service under the said act, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) applications under any applicable public land laws, based on prior existing valid settlement and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Application by such veterans and by other persons entitled to credit for service shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Advance period for simultaneous preference right filings. All applications by such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans filed on November 10, 1952, or thereafter, up to and including 10:00 a. m. on December 2, 1952, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings authorized by the public land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on March 3, 1953, any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally.

(d) Advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications under the Small Tract Act by the general public filed on February 10, 1953, or thereafter, up to and including 10:00 a. m. on March 3, 1953, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

4. A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides) of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claim. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claim, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

5. All applications referred to in paragraphs 3 and 4, which shall be filed in the Land Office at Anchorage, Alaska, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Part 257 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

6. Lessees under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, will be required, within a reasonable time after execution of the lease, to construct upon the leased land, to the satisfaction of the appropriate officer of the Bureau of Land Management authorized to sign the lease, improvements which, in the circumstances, are presentable, substantial and appropriate for the use for which the lease is issued. Leases will be for a period of not more than three years, at an annual rental of $5, payable in advance for the entire lease period. Every lease will contain an option to purchase clause and every lessee may file an application to purchase at the sale price as provided in the lease.

7. All of the land will be leased in tracts varying in size from approximately 0.15 acre to approximately 6.15 acres, in accordance with the classification maps on file in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska.

8. Lessees must locate any well, water supply system, or sewage disposal facility according to the regulations and laws of the Territory of Alaska.

9. As to the lands in the Petersburg area, which lie within the rectangular system of survey, leases will be made subject to rights-of-way for road purposes and public utilities, of 50 feet in width, along section and/or quarter section lines, and 33 feet in width along the tract boundaries, as shown on the classification maps on file in the Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, State, Territory, county or municipality, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

10. All inquiries relating to these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Anchorage, Alaska.

FRED J. WEILER,
Chief, Division of Land Planning.

Bureau of Reclamation

[Regional Director's Order 4, Revision 1]

HEADS OF DISTRICT AND PROJECT OFFICES, REGION 1

REDELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN FUNCTIONS

OCTOBER 16, 1952.

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Commissioner of Reclamation (Commissioner's Order No. 6 dated 8-24-51 and Order No. 7 dated 8-24-51, as amended 9-11-52) heads of District and Project offices of Region 1 are hereby authorized to:

(a) Land appraisals. Make or approve appraisals or reappraisals of lands, interests therein (including improvements on rights-of-way reserved under the act of August 30, 1890, 26 Stat. 391, 43 U. S. C. 945, and on similar rights-of-way), and water rights in connection with acquisitions for the construction or operation and maintenance of project works in all cases where the amounts do not exceed $500 for property in one ownership.

(b) Land contracts. Contract for and effect the purchase or exchange of lands or interests in lands and water rights at the appraised value, and acquire at more than the appraised value easements for $100 or less, if necessary and in the interest of the Government, but any exchange involving public lands, except public lands within the Columbia Basin Project, shall be effected only with the concurrence of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management.

(c) Leases. Lease for grazing, agricultural or recreational uses or development, for periods not exceeding 5 years, and lease for summer homesites at Bureau reservoirs, for periods of 10 years or less, public lands under reclamation withdrawal and lands acquired for reclamation purposes, consent to sublease thereunder, modify, consent to assignment of, terminate, or cancel such leases.

(d) Licenses. Grant licenses, for periods not exceeding 10 years, for specified rights, excluding the development or transmission of electric power and energy, to the use of Government right-of-way, and other public lands under reclamation withdrawal and lands acquired for reclamation purposes, consent to sublicenses thereunder, and modify, consent to assignment of, terminate or cancel such licenses.

(e) Permits. Grant permits, for periods not exceeding 5 years, for the removal of sand, gravel or building materials from public lands under reclamation withdrawal or land acquired for reclamation purposes, and modify, consent to assignment of, terminate or cancel such permits.

H. T. NELSON,
Regional Director.

FEDERAL COAL MINE SAFETY BOARD OF REVIEW

STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION

1. Creation and authority. The Federal Coal Mine Safety Board of Review was created by the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act (66 Stat. 692) as an independent agency in the Executive Branch of the Government and was organized on August 21, 1952. The Board has jurisdiction to hear and determine applications for revision or annulment of orders issued under sections 203 or 206 of the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act, whereby a coal mine is classified as gassy or whereby persons are debarred from a coal mine or designated portions of a coal mine, and such other powers given to it by the statute referred to above.

2. Organization. (a) The Federal Coal Mine Safety Board of Review is composed of three members. Each is appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. One member of the Board shall be a person who by reason of previous training and experience may reasonably be said to represent the viewpoint of coal-mine operators; one member shall be a person who by reason of previous training and experience may reasonably be said to represent the viewpoint of coal-mine workers; and the third member, who shall be Chairman of the Board, shall be a graduate engineer with experience in the coal mining industry, or shall have had at least five years' experience as a practical engineer in the coal mining industry, and shall not, within one year of his appointment to the Board, have had a pecuniary interest in, or have been regularly employed or engaged in, the mining of coal, or regularly represent either coal-mine operators or coal-mine workers, or have been an officer or employee of the Department of the Interior assigned to duty in the Bureau of Mines. The members of the Board serve on a part-time basis and the Board meets at the call of the Chairman for the transaction of business.

(b) The Secretary of the Board is the chief full time officer of the Board. The Secretary has custody of all application dockets for the Board and papers in cases appealed to the Circuit Courts of Appeal, and is responsible for the receipt and distribution of all official mail, the maintenance and custody of official files of the Board, certification of reports and records and the transaction of all business not requiring official action of the Board or a member thereof.

3. Office; correspondence. (a) The principal office of the Federal Coal Mine Safety Board of Review is located in the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Building, 811 Vermont Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

(b) All letters and other communications should be addressed to the Secretary of the Board at its offices in Washington, D. C.

(c) The Board may, from time to time, hold hearings or conduct other proceedings at places other than its principal office.

4. Procedure. (a) The review of an order under sections 203 or 206 of the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act is initiated by the filing with the Board of an application for annulment or revision of such order. The application is filed by the operator of the mine to which the order pertains and must recite the order complained of and other facts sufficient to advise the Board of the nature of proceeding. A copy of the application must be sent by registered mail to the Director of the Bureau of Mines, Washington 25, D. C., who shall be the respondent in the proceeding. The application will be set for hearing and the operator and the respondent will be afforded an opportunity to present evidence bearing upon the questions raised by the application and any answer thereto that may be filed by the respondent. Testimony may be ordered to be taken before one or more members of the Board, or in whole or in part in the form of depositions, as the Board may determine in the interest of the parties and of the public. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the Board will, as promptly as possible, determine the issue of the case and make an order consistent with its findings, affirming, revising or annulling the order under review.

(b) Upon written request of the operator during the pendency of proceedings, the Board may grant such temporary relief as it deems just and proper after affording both the operator and the Director an opportunity to be heard on the question.

(c) Any final order issued by the Board may be appealed to United States Court of Appeals for the Circuit in which the mine affected is located.

(d) An operator may file his own application for review with the Board, and may act for himself in all proceedings before the Board, but he is entitled to be represented by an attorney-at-law.

5. Hearings and records. Hearings of the Board, and its official records pertaining to proceedings under section 207 of the act are open to the public. The findings and orders of the Board will be published promptly after the rendering of same.

6. Statutes and regulations. Official copies of the Federal Coal Mine Safety Act, any other pertinent statutes, and of the Rules of the Federal Coal Mine Safety Board of Review may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C.

Adopted by the Federal Coal Mine Safety Board of Review at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of October 1952.

TROY L. BACK,
Secretary of the Board.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-1250]

PENNSYLVANIA EDISON CO. ET AL.

ORDER APPROVING POST-EFFECTIVE AMENDMENT PLAN FURTHER EXTENDING TIME FOR FINAL PAYMENT ON PREFERRED STOCK OF PENNSYLVANIA EDISON COMPANY

NOVEMBER 2, 1952.

In the matter of Pennsylvania Edison Company, Pennsylvania Electric Company, Associated Electric Company; File No. 70-1250.

On July 2, 1946, Associated Electric Company ("Aelec"), a registered holding company, and two of its public-utility subsidiary companies, Pennsylvania Electric Company ("Penelec") and Pennsylvania Edison Company ("Pened"), consummated a plan, filed under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 pursuant to which, among other things, (1) Pened was merged into Penelec and Pened was dissolved, (2) the holders of Pened's $5 series and $2.80 series preferred stock received the liquidation value of their preferred stocks provided they transmitted their stock certificates to a named paying agent prior to July 2, 1952, and (3) upon such payment, the paying agent overstamped the stock certificates with a legend indicating that payment of the liquidation value had been made and that holders of the overstamped certificates were entitled to receive such additional amounts, if any, as might thereafter be finally determined, provided such overstamped certificates were transmitted to the paying agent for payment within three years after such final determination; and

It having been finally determined on September 15, 1949, that the holders of certificates of Pened's $5 series and $2.80 series preferred stock were entitled to receive certain payments in addition to the liquidation value of their preferred stocks; and

The Commission on September 30, 1952, having approved a post-effective amendment to said plan extending to November 30, 1952, the time within which the holders of such certificates might surrender same and receive the additional payments aforesaid; and

A further post-effective amendment having been filed by Penelec wherein it is proposed to extend to December 31, 1952, the time within which the holders of the stock certificates and the overprinted stock certificates of Pened's $5 series and $2.80 series preferred stock may surrender same to the paying agent and receive final payment thereon; and

The Commission having considered such post-effective amendment and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors that such post-effective amendment be approved:

It is ordered, That the said post-effective amendment be, and hereby is, approved.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved to take such further action as the Commission may deem appropriate in connection with the consummation of the plan.

By the Commission.

ELECTRIC BOND AND SHARE CO.

ORDER GRANTING AND PERMITTING TO BECOME EFFECTIVE APPLICATION-DECLARATION RESPECTING RIGHTS OFFERING

NOVEMBER 6, 1952.

Electric Bond and Share Company ("Bond and Share") a registered holding company, having filed an application-declaration pursuant to sections 9, 10 and 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 (the "act"), with respect to a proposed sale through a rights offering to its stockholders of 525,036 shares of common stock of its utility subsidiary, United Gas Corporation ("United"), on the basis of one share of United stock for each 10 shares of Bond and Share stock held;

Public hearings having been held after appropriate notice, representatives of Bond and Share and its stockholders having filed briefs and presented oral argument and the Commission having considered the matter and having issued its findings and opinion herein, on the basis of said findings and opinion.

It is ordered, That said application-declaration be and it hereby is granted and permitted to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and to the reservation of jurisdiction by the Commission to pass upon fees and expenses in connection with said application-declaration, and subject further to the condition that any shares of United stock which may be acquired by Bond and Share in stabilization operations in connection with said rights offering shall be subject to the same commitment respecting disposition as applies to other shares of United stock held by Bond and Share; and

It is further ordered and recited, That the distribution by Bond and Share to its stockholders of rights to purchase shares of common stock of United and the sale and transfer of shares of common stock of United pursuant to the exercise of such rights are necessary or appropriate to the intergration or simplification of the holding company system of which Bond and Share is a member, and are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act.

By the Commission.

PHILADELPHIA CO. AND DUQUESNE LIGHT CO.

ORDER PERMITTING SUBMISSION BY PARENT OF SUBSIDIARY'S COMMON STOCK AND BY SUBSIDIARY OF ITS COMMON STOCK TO COMPETITIVE BIDDING

NOVEMBER 12, 1952.

Philadelphia Company ("Philadelphia"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company and Standard Power and Light Corporation, both registered holding companies, and Duquesne Light Company ("Duquesne"), a public utility subsidiary of Philadelphia, having filed a joint application-declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 6, 7, 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-44 and U-50 thereunder with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Philadelphia proposes to sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, 170,000 shares of common stock of Duquesne which Philadelphia acquired from Duquesne in March of 1952, for a cash consideration of $30 per share. (See Holding Company Act Release No. 11129.) The net proceeds of the sale will be applied by Philadelphia to the reduction of its outstanding bank loans, presently aggregating $16,000,000.

Simultaneously with the above described sale by Philadelphia, Duquesne proposes, as part of the same offering, to issue and sell, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, 80,000 shares of its common stock. The net proceeds of the sale will be used by Duquesne for construction purposes.

The applicants-declarants request that the ten-day period required by Rule U-50 to elapse between the time of inviting bids and the entering into of an agreement with respect to the sale of the Duquesne common stock be shortened to six days.

The filing indicates that the issuance and sale by Duquesne of the 80,000 shares of its common stock have been approved by the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania.

The applicants-declarants request that this Commission make the necessary findings and recitals in accordance with Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

Said joint application-declaration, with amendments thereto, having been filed pursuant to the provisions of Rule U-23, the Commission having ordered that a hearing be held with respect thereto, notice of said hearing having been duly given, and said hearing having been duly held; and

The Commission finding with respect to said joint application-declaration, as amended, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said joint application-declaration, as amended, be granted and permitted to become effective, forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder, that said joint application-declaration, as amended, be and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and to the further condition that the proposed sale of the Duquesne common stock by Philadelphia and the proposed issuance and sale of its common stock by Duquesne shall not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, shall have been made a matter of record herein, and until a further order shall have been entered with respect thereto, which order may contain further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate, for which purpose jurisdiction be, and the same hereby is, reserved.

It is further ordered, That the ten-day period required by Rule U-50 to elapse between the time of inviting bids and the entering into of an agreement with respect to the sale of the Duquesne common stock be, and the same hereby is, shortened to six days.

It is further ordered and recited and the Commission finds, That the proposed transactions, including particularly the sale for cash by Philadelphia of 170,000 shares of common stock of Duquesne which Philadelphia acquired from Duquesne in March of 1952, for a cash consideration of $30 per share, said shares being presently represented by temporary typewritten certificate No. 7 registered in the name of Philadelphia, the transfer of said shares to the purchasers on said sale, and the application of the net proceeds of said sale, to the extent sufficient, to retirement and cancellation of Philadelphia's bank loans, presently aggregating $16,000,000 are authorized and approved and are necessary and appropriate to the integration and simplification of the holding company system of which Philadelphia and Duquesne are members and necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the orders of the Commission previously entered thereunder.

By the Commission.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Section 11 (d), Special Order 3]

BREMERTON-PORT ORCHARD MARKETING AREA

ADJUSTMENT OF TANK WAGON CEILING PRICES OF FUEL OIL DISTRIBUTORS

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the ceiling prices for sales of heating oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and 2 Oils, Furnace Oil, Range Oil, and Stove Oil) by tank wagon distributors in the Bremerton-Port Orchard marketing area.

The Office of Price Stabilization was requested by distributors in the Bremerton-Port Orchard marketing area to conduct a survey to determine whether increased costs have reduced the net margins in the area below a point sufficient to maintain the level of earnings in the year ending May 31, 1950. The results of that survey show that an upward adjustment is necessary to bring earnings to that level.

There are hundreds of heating oil sellers at the tank wagon level in this Region and the need for relief is not uniform but varies from marketing area to marketing area. Thus it is concluded that the adjustment must be on a marketing area basis rather than on a region-wide basis. For the purpose of this special order the market area has been defined as the area of reseller competition, which is the same as the free delivery zones.

The adjustment granted by this order does no more than bring earnings to the level of the year ending May 31, 1950. It is, therefore, consistent with the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 and Delegation of Authority No. 72, It is ordered:

1. That the ceiling price of heating oil distributors in the Bremerton-Port Orchard marketing area for tank wagon sales of heating oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and 2 Oils, Furnace Oil, Range Oil and Stove Oil) to consumers shall be increased by $0.005 per gallon. The Bremerton-Port Orchard marketing area is defined as that area in which dealers located in Bremerton and Port Orchard make deliveries without an additional charge.

2. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

3. This order may be amended, modified, or revoked at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective on November 13, 1952.

PAUL A. VOLPE,
Acting Regional Director, Office of Price Stabilization, Region XIII.

BELLINGHAM-FERNDALE MARKETING AREA

ADJUSTMENT OF TANK WAGON CEILING PRICES OF FUEL OIL DISTRIBUTORS

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the ceiling prices for sales of heating oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and 2 Oils, Furnace Oil, Range Oil and Stove Oil) by tank wagon distributors in the Bellingham-Ferndale marketing area.

The Office of Price Stabilization was requested by distributors in the Bellingham-Ferndale marketing area to conduct a survey to determine whether increased costs have reduced the net margins in the area below a point sufficient to maintain the level of earnings in the year ending May 31, 1950. The results of that survey show that an upward adjustment is necessary to bring earnings to that level.

There are hundreds of heating oil sellers at the tank wagon level in this Region and the need for relief is not uniform but varies from marketing area to marketing area. Thus it is concluded that the adjustment must be on a marketing area basis rather than on a region-wide basis. The adjustment granted by this order does no more than bring earnings to the level of the year ending May 31, 1950. It is, therefore, consistent with the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 and Delegation of Authority No. 72, It is ordered:

1. That the ceiling price of heating oil distributors in the Bellingham-Ferndale marketing area for tank wagon sales of heating oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and 2 Oils, Furnace Oil, Range Oil and Stove Oil) to consumers shall be increased by $0.004 per gallon. The Bellingham-Ferndale marketing area is defined as that area in which dealers located in Bellingham and Ferndale make deliveries without an additional charge.

2. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

3. This order may be amended, modified, or revoked at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective on November 13, 1952.

PAUL A. VOLPE,
Acting Regional Director, Office of Price Stabilization, Region XIII.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 17, Section 11 (d), Special Order 5]

MT. VERNON-SEDRO WOOLLEY-BURLINGTON AND ANACORTES MARKETING AREA

ADJUSTMENT OF TANK WAGON CEILING PRICES OF FUEL OIL DISTRIBUTORS

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the ceiling prices for sales of heating oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and 2 Oils, Furnace Oil, Range Oil and Stove Oil) by tank wagon distributors in the Mt. Vernon-Sedro Woolley-Burlington and Anacortes marketing area.

The Office of Price Stabilization was requested by distributors in the Mt. Vernon-Sedro Woolley-Burlington and Anacortes marketing area to conduct a survey to determine whether increased costs have reduced the net margins in the area below a point sufficient to maintain the level of earnings in the year ending May 31, 1950. The results of that survey show that an upward adjustment is necessary to bring earnings to that level.

There are hundreds of heating oil sellers at the tank wagon level in this Region and the need for relief is not uniform but varies from marketing area to marketing area. Thus it is concluded that the adjustment must be on a marketing area basis rather than on a region-wide basis. For the purpose of this special order the market area has been defined as the area of reseller competition, which is the same as the free delivery zones.

The adjustment granted by this order does no more than bring earnings to the level of the year ending May 31, 1950. It is, therefore, consistent with the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to the provisions of Section 11 (d) of Ceiling Price Regulation 17 and Delegation of Authority No. 72, It is ordered:

1. That the ceiling price of heating oil distributors in the Mt. Vernon-Sedro Woolley-Burlington and Anacortes marketing area for tank wagon sales of heating oils (Kerosene, No. 1 and 2 Oils, Furnace Oil, Range Oil and Stove Oil) to consumers shall be increased by $0.002 per gallon. The Mt. Vernon-Sedro Woolley-Burlington and Anacortes marketing area is defined as that area in which dealers located in Mt. Vernon, Sedro Woolley, Burlington and Anacortes make deliveries without an additional charge.

2. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 17, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

3. This order may be amended, modified, or revoked at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective on November 13, 1952.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 32, Supplementary Regulation 2, Section 3, Special Order 25]

SPRING CREEK FIELD, PARK COUNTY, WYOMING

CRUDE PETROLEUM CEILING PRICES ADJUSTED ON AN IN-LINE BASIS

Statement of considerations. This special order adjusts the ceiling price for the sale of crude petroleum produced from Spring Creek Field, Park County, Wyoming.

The Office of Price Stabilization has been requested to eliminate the differentials heretofore imposed upon crude petroleum produced from the Spring Creek Field, Park County, Wyoming. During the base period there was a lack of competitive factors and a lack of low cost pipe line transportation and as a result, the crude petroleum produced from the Spring Creek Field, Park County, Wyoming, was sold at a lower price than that paid for crude petroleum of comparable quality produced in this same general area. It appears that this condition has now been eliminated and these differentials should no longer be imposed.

From the information available to this Office, it appears that this requested ceiling price of $1.07½ cents per barrel does not exceed the ceiling price of comparable crude petroleum produced in this same area.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the Statement of Considerations and pursuant to the provisions of Section 3 of Supplementary Regulation 2 to Ceiling Price Regulation 32, It is ordered:

1. That the ceiling price at the lease receiving tank for crude petroleum produced from the Spring Creek Field, Park County, Wyoming, shall be: $1.07½ cents per barrel.

2. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 32, except as inconsistent with the provisions of this order, shall remain in full force and effect as to the commodities covered by this order.

3. This order may be amended, modified or revoked by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective on November 13, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

Washington, Wednesday, November 19, 1952

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PROCLAMATION 2997

GRANTING CERTAIN LAND TO THE CITY OF EASTPORT, MAINE, FOR PUBLIC USE

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS certain lands in the municipality of Eastport, Maine, were acquired at various times by the War Department for use as a military reservation known as Fort Sullivan; and

WHEREAS the said lands, being no longer needed for military purposes, were placed under the control of the Secretary of the Interior, by a proclamation of the President dated July 22, 1884, for disposition in accordance with the provisions of the act of July 5, 1884, 23 Stat. 103 (43 U. S. C. 1071–1074); and

WHEREAS a portion of the said lands designated as Lot 14 was reserved from such disposition by the Secretary of the Interior because the municipality of Eastport had erected thereon a waterstand pipe; and

WHEREAS the said municipality of Eastport is now the City of Eastport, Maine, a municipal corporation, which has requested that the said Lot 14 be transferred to it for public use; and

WHEREAS it appears that such a transfer would be in the public interest:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States, under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the act of March 3, 1893, 27 Stat. 572, 593 (43 U. S. C. 1076), do hereby grant and transfer to the said City of Eastport, Maine, for public use the said Lot 14, containing 1.03 acres, as shown on the map of the said Fort Sullivan, in Eastport, Maine, surveyed by A. W. Barber, detailed clerk of the General Land Office, in November 1900, a copy of which map is recorded in the Washington County, Maine, Registry of Deeds; excepting and reserving therefrom the following-described tract of land for the use of the United States Weather Bureau, Department of Commerce, in the operation and maintenance of a storm-warning tower, together with the right of access thereto over the existing road and sidewalk:

From corner No. 7, Lot 14 on east line of High Street, S. 83¼ E. 120 feet to center of City Stand Pipe; thence S. 57½ E. 65 feet to N. E. corner of 30-ft. square Weather Bureau Warning Tower tract; thence from point of beginning, on boundaries of said tract, south 30 feet; west 30 feet; north 30 feet; east 30 feet to N. E. corner of Warning Tower tract, containing 900 square feet.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 15th day of November in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] fifty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and seventy-seventh.

HARRY S. TRUMAN

By the President:

DAVID BRUCE,
Acting Secretary of State.

AUTHORITY: §§ 416.1 through 416.11 issued under secs. 506, 516, 52 Stat. 73, 77; 7 U. S. C. 1506, 1516. Interpret or apply secs. 507, 508, 509, 52 Stat. 73–75, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 1507, 1508, 1509.

§ 416.1 Availability of corn crop insurance. (a) Corn crop insurance may be provided in counties, not in excess of the number prescribed by the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended, designated annually by the Manager of the Corporation from a list of counties approved by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. A list of the designated counties shall be published annually by appendix to this section.

(b) Insurance will not be provided with respect to applications for corn insurance filed in a county unless such written applications, together with corn crop insurance contracts in force for the ensuing crop year, cover the minimum number of farms prescribed by the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended. For this purpose an insurance unit shall be counted as one farm.

§ 416.2 Coverage per acre. The Corporation shall establish coverages per acre by areas which shall not be in excess of the maximum limitations prescribed in the Federal Crop Insurance Act, as amended. Coverages so established shall be shown on the county actuarial table and shall be on file in the county office and may be revised from year to year.

§ 416.3 Premium rates. The Corporation shall establish premium rates per acre by areas for all acreage for which coverages are established and such rates shall be those deemed adequate to cover claims for corn crop losses and to provide a reasonable reserve against unforeseen losses. Premium rates so established shall be shown on the county actuarial table and shall be on file in the county office and may be revised from year to year.

§ 416.4 Application for insurance. Application for insurance on a Corporation form entitled "Application for Crop Insurance on Corn" may be made by any person to cover his interest as landlord, owner-operator, or tenant, in a corn crop. For any crop year applications shall be submitted to the county office on or before the April 20 preceding such crop year.

§ 416.5 The contract. Upon acceptance of an application for insurance by a duly authorized representative of the Corporation, the contract shall be in effect and will consist of the application and the policy issued by the Corporation.

§ 416.6 Public notice of indemnities paid. The Corporation shall provide for the posting annually in each county at the county courthouse of a list of indemnities paid for losses in such county.

§ 416.7 Refund of excess note payments. Refund of any excess note payment will be made only to the person who made such payment, except that where a person who is entitled to a refund of an excess note payment has died, has been judicially declared incompetent, or has disappeared, the provisions of the policy with reference to the payment of indemnities in any such case shall be applicable with respect to the making of any such refund.

§ 416.8 Creditors. An interest in an insured crop existing by virtue of a lien, mortgage, garnishment, levy, execution, bankruptcy or any involuntary transfer shall not entitle any holder of any such interest to any benefits under the contract.

§ 416.9 Changes in continuous contracts covering the 1952 and succeeding crop years. Continuous corn insurance contracts in effect for the 1952 and succeeding crop years shall be amended for 1953 and succeeding crop years so that the terms and conditions of such contracts will conform with the terms and conditions of the policy set forth herein.

§ 416.10 The policy. The provisions of the policy for 1953 and succeeding crop years are as follows:

In consideration of the representations and provisions in the application upon which this policy is issued, which application is made a part of the contract, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth or referred to herein, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (hereinafter designated as the Corporation) does hereby insure (hereinafter designated as the insured) against unavoidable loss of production on his corn crop due to drought, flood, hail, wind, frost, freeze, lightning, fire, excessive rain, snow, wildlife, hurricane, tornado, insect infestation, plant disease and such other unavoidable causes as may be determined by the Board of Directors of the Corporation. In witness whereof, the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation has caused this policy to be issued ----------.

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE CORPORATION,

By ----------,
State Crop Insurance Director.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Insured corn. The corn to be insured shall be corn planted for harvest as grain and shall include only corn which is normally regarded as field corn. The contract shall not provide insurance for true type silage corn or thick-planted corn for silage or fodder purposes, sweet corn, popcorn, broom corn, corn planted for the development of hybrid seed corn, or any type of corn other than that normally regarded as field corn.

2. Insurable acreage. For each crop year of the contract, any acreage is insurable only if a coverage is shown therefor on the county actuarial table (including maps and related forms) on the closing date for filing applications for that crop year.

3. Responsibility of insured to report acreage and interest. (a) Promptly after planting corn each year, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a form approved by the Corporation, a report over his signature of all acreage in the county planted to corn in which he has an interest at the time of planting. This report shall show the acreage of corn for each insurance unit and his interest in each at the time of planting. If the insured does not have an insurable interest in corn planted in any year, the acreage report shall nevertheless be submitted promptly after the planting of corn is generally completed in the county. Any acreage report submitted by the insured shall not be subject to change by the insured.

(b) The Corporation may elect to determine that the insured acreage is "zero" if the insured fails to file an acreage report within 30 days after the planting of corn is generally completed in the county, as determined by the Corporation.

(c) Failure of the Corporation to request submission of such report or to send a personal representative to obtain the report shall not relieve the insured of the responsibility to make such report.

4. Insured acreage. The insured acreage with respect to each insurance unit shall be the acreage of corn planted for harvest as grain as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect, except that insurance shall not attach with respect to (a) any acreage planted to corn which is destroyed (as defined in section 16) and on which it is practical to replant to corn, as determined by the Corporation, and such acreage is not replanted to corn, (b) any acreage initially planted to corn too late to expect to produce a normal crop, as determined by the Corporation. The Corporation reserves the right to limit the insured acreage on any farm to the corn allotment or permitted acreage established under any act of Congress including the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

5. Insured interest. The insured interest in the corn crop covered by the contract shall be the interest of the insured at the time of planting as reported by the insured or as determined by the Corporation, whichever the Corporation shall elect. For the purpose of determining the amount of loss the insured interest shall not exceed the insured's actual interest at the time of loss or the beginning of harvest, whichever occurs first.

6. Coverage per acre. (a) The coverage(s) per acre established for the area in which the insured acreage is located shall be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The coverage per acre is progressive depending upon whether the acreage is (a) released and planted to a substitute crop, (b) not harvested and not planted to a substitute crop, or released and fed to livestock in the field, or (c) harvested or to be harvested.

(b) Where two coverages per acre are established for a county and are shown on the county actuarial table as "Level I" and "Level II" the coverage designated as "Level I" shall apply unless "Level II" is specified on the application for insurance. However, any insured may elect to change from one level to the other by so advising the Corporation in writing at the county office prior to the closing date for filing applications for insurance for the crop year the insured elects to have the change become effective.

7. Fixed price for valuing production. In determining any loss under the contract, production shall be evaluated on the basis of a fixed price per bushel established annually by the Corporation, except that if the Corporation determines in any year that any of the insured's corn is not eligible for a Commodity Credit Corporation loan because of the quality of the corn and would not meet loan requirements if properly handled, such corn shall be evaluated at the highest price obtainable (but not in excess of the fixed price) as determined by the Corporation. The fixed price per bushel for the first crop year of the contract shall be the price established for that year by the Corporation and shall be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office at the time the application for insurance is submitted. For each subsequent crop year the fixed price shall be on file in the county office at least 15 days prior to the cancellation date preceding the crop year for which such price applies.

8. Insurance period. Insurance with respect to any insured acreage shall attach at the time the corn is planted. Insurance shall cease with respect to any portion of the corn crop covered by the contract upon harvesting or removal from the field, whichever occurs first, but in no event shall the insurance remain in effect later than December 10 of each year, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation.

9. Life of contract, cancellation or termination thereof. (a) Subject to the provisions of this section, the contract shall be in effect for the first crop year specified on the application and shall continue in effect for each succeeding crop year until canceled by either the insured or the Corporation. Cancellation may be made by either party giving written notice to the other party on or before the cancellation date which shall be the March 31 preceding the planting of the crop for which the cancellation is to become effective: Provided, however, If any amount due the Corporation remains unpaid on such cancellation date, the time during which the Corporation may cancel shall be extended to the next following May 15. The insured shall give such notice to the county office or another office of the Corporation. The Corporation shall mail notice of cancellation to the insured's last known address and the mailing of such notice shall constitute notice to the insured.

(b) If the insured cancels the contract, he shall not be eligible for crop insurance on corn planted or to be planted in the county for harvest in the next succeeding crop year unless subsequent to such cancellation he files an application for insurance on or before March 31 preceding such year.

(c) If the minimum participation requirement as established by the Corporation is not met for any year the contract shall continue in force only to the end of the crop year for which such requirement is not met, except that if the minimum participation requirement is met on or before the next succeeding closing date for filing applications for insurance the contract shall continue to be in force.

10. Death or incompetence of the insured. The contract shall terminate upon death or judicial declaration of incompetence of the insured, except that if such death or judicial declaration of incompetence occurs after the beginning of planting of the corn crop in any crop year but before the end of the insurance period for such year, the contract shall (1) cover any additional corn planted for the insured or his estate for that crop year, and (2) terminate at the end of such insurance period.

11. Changes in contract. The Corporation reserves the right to change the premium rate(s), insurance coverage(s) and other terms and provisions of the contract from year to year. Notice of such changes shall be mailed to the insured at least 15 days prior to the cancellation date. Failure of the insured to cancel the contract as provided in section 9 shall constitute his acceptance of any such changes. If no notice is mailed to the insured, the terms and provisions of the contract for the prior year shall continue in force.

12. Causes of loss not insured against. The contract shall not cover loss of production caused by: (a) Failure to follow recognized good farming practices; (b) poor farming practices, including but not limited to the use of defective or unadapted seed, overplanting or underplanting, failure properly to prepare the land for planting or properly to plant, care for or harvest the insured crop (including unreasonable delay thereof); (c) planting corn under conditions of immediate hazard; (d) inability to obtain labor, seed, fertilizer, machinery, repairs or insect poison; (e) break-down of machinery, or failure of equipment due to mechanical defects; (f) neglect or malfeasance of the insured or of any person in his household or employment or connected with the farm as tenant or wage hand; (g) domestic animals or poultry; (h) action of any person, or State, county or municipal government in the use of chemicals for the control of weeds; or (i) theft.

13. Amount of annual premium. (a) The premium rate per acre will be established by the Corporation for the coverage and rate area in which the insured acreage is located and will be shown on the county actuarial table on file in the county office. The annual premium for each insurance unit under the contract will be based upon (1) the insured acreage of corn, (2) the applicable premium rate(s) and (3) the insured interest in the crop at the time of planting. There will be a reduction in the annual premium for each insurance unit of two percent in cases where the insured acreage on the insurance unit is as much as 50 acres and does not exceed 99.9 acres, and an additional two percent reduction for each additional 50 acres or fraction thereof on the insurance unit. However, the total reduction shall not exceed 20 percent. The annual premium for the contract shall be the total of the premiums computed for the insured for all insurance units covered by the contract. The annual premium with respect to any insured acreage shall be regarded as earned when the corn crop on such acreage is planted.

(b) The insured's annual premium for any year may be reduced 25 percent if he has had seven consecutively insured corn crops (immediately preceding the current crop year) without a loss for which an indemnity was paid. (See section 31 for definition of "consecutively insured crops.") Whether or not the insured is eligible for the above premium reduction, his annual premium may be reduced in lieu of the above in any year by not to exceed 25 percent if it is determined by the Corporation that the cash equivalent (based on the fixed price for that crop year) of his accumulated balance of premiums over indemnities on consecutively insured corn crops exceeds his total coverage (computed on a harvested acreage basis). Nothing in this paragraph (b) shall create in the insured any right to a reduced premium.

(c) A discount of five percent shall be allowed on any earned annual premium which is paid in full on or before June 30 if the insured has submitted to the Corporation at the county office his corn acreage report on or before June 30 of that crop year.

(d) Any premium note not paid at maturity shall bear interest computed not on a per annum basis but as follows: Three percent on the principal amount not paid on or before October 31 following the maturity date (August 15), and an additional one percent on the principal amount unpaid at the end of each two calendar-month period thereafter.

14. Manner of payment of premium. (a) Payment on any annual premium shall be made by means of cash or by check, money order, postal note, or bank draft payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks and drafts will be accepted subject to collection and payment tendered shall not be regarded as paid unless collection is made.

(b) Any unpaid amount of any annual premium plus any interest due may be deducted (either before or after the date of maturity) from any indemnity payable by the Corporation, from the proceeds of any commodity loan to the insured, and from any payment made to the insured under the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, or any other act of Congress or program administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. There shall be no refund of any annual premium overpayment of less than $1.00 unless written request for such refund is received by the Corporation within one year after the payment thereof.

15. Notice of loss or damage. (a) If any damage occurs to the insured crop during the growing season and a loss under the contract is probable, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given the Corporation at the county office promptly after such damage.

(b) If a loss under the contract is sustained, notice in writing (unless otherwise provided by the Corporation) shall be given the Corporation at the county office within 15 days after harvesting is completed or by December 10, whichever is earlier.

(c) The Corporation reserves the right to reject any claim for indemnity if either of the notices required by this section is not given.

16. Released acreage. (a) Any acreage of the insured corn crop which is destroyed after it is too late to replant to corn may be released by the Corporation to be put to another use. Any acreage shall be considered destroyed if it is damaged to the extent that farmers in the area where the land is located generally would not further care for the corp or harvest any portion thereof. (For production to be counted, see section 20.) No insured acreage may be planted to a substitute crop or put to another use until the Corporation releases such acreage. Proper measures shall be taken to protect the crop from further damage on any insured acreage if the crop has been damaged but the acreage has not been released by the Corporation. There shall be no abandonment of any crop or portion thereof to the Corporation.

(b) The corn crop on any insured acreage may be used for ensilage or fodder without a release by the Corporation provided the insured leaves a number of rows considered by the Corporation to be an adequate representative sample for appraising the yield.

17. Time of loss. Any loss shall be deemed to have occurred at the end of the insurance period, unless the entire corn crop on the insurance unit was destroyed earlier, in which event the loss shall be deemed to have occurred on the date of such damage as determined by the Corporation.

18. Proof of loss. If a loss is claimed, the insured shall submit to the Corporation, on a Corporation from entitled "Statement in Proof of Loss", such information regarding the manner and extent of the loss as may be required by the Corporation. The statement in proof of loss shall be submitted not later than sixty days after the time of loss, unless the time for submitting the claim is extended in writing by the Corporation. It shall be a condition precedent to any liability under the contract that the insured establish the production of corn on the insurance unit, the amount of any loss for which claim is made, and that such loss has been directly caused by one or more of the hazards insured against by the contract during the insurance period for the crop year for which the loss is claimed, and that the insured further establish that the loss has not arisen from or been caused by either directly or indirectly, any of the causes of loss not insured against by the contract. If a loss is claimed, any corn acreage which is not to be harvested shall be left intact until the Corporation makes an inspection.

19. Insurance unit. Losses shall be determined separately for each insurance unit except as provided in section 20 (b). An insurance unit consists of (a) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county in which the insured has 100 percent interest in the crop at the time of planting, or (b) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county owned by one person which is operated by the insured as a share tenant at the time of planting, or (c) all the insurable acreage of corn in the county which is owned by the insured and is rented to one share tenant at the time of planting. For any crop year of the contract, acreage shall be considered to be located in the county if a coverage is shown therefor on the county actuarial table. Land rented for cash or for a fixed commodity payment shall be considered as owned by the lessee.

20. Amount of loss. (a) The amount of loss with respect to any insurance unit shall be determined by (1) multiplying the planted acreage (exclusive of any acreage to which insurance did not attach) by the applicable coverage per acre, (2) subtracting therefrom the value (determined in accordance with section 7) of the total production to be counted for the planted acreage, and (3) multiplying the remainder by the insured interest in such unit. However, if the planted acreage on the insurance unit exceeds the insured acreage on the insurance unit, or if the premium computed for the planted acreage is more than the premium computed for the acreage and interest as approved by the Corporation on the acreage report, the amount of loss so determined shall be reduced. This reduction shall be made on the basis of the ratio of the insured acreage to the planted acreage except that the Corporation may elect to make the reduction on the basis of the ratio of the premium computed for the acreage and interest as approved by the Corporation on the acreage report to the premium computed for the planted acreage. The total production for an insurance unit shall include all production determined in accordance with the schedule below. The Corporation reserves the right to determine the amount of production on the basis of appraisal of unharvested corn standing in the field.

SCHEDULE

Acreage classification	Total production in bushels
1. Acreage of corn harvested----------	1. Actual production of harvested corn plus appraised production of any corn left in the field after harvest.
2. Acreage of corn to be harvested-------	2. The appraised production of unharvested corn at the time of submission of a statement in proof of loss or the appraised production of any corn remaining unharvested on December 10.
3. Acreage of corn used for ensilage or fodder.	3. Appraised production of corn for grain that could have been realized.
4. Acreage of corn released by the Corporation and planted to a substitute crop.	4. That portion of the appraised production which is in excess of the number of bushels determined by dividing (i) the total coverage for such acreage by (ii) the fixed price.
5. Acreage of corn released for feeding to livestock in the field and any other acreage not harvested (and not to be harvested and not planted to a substitute crop).	5. That portion of the appraised production which is in excess of the number of bushels determined by (i) subtracting the total coverage for such acreage from what the total coverage for such acreage would be if it were harvested and (ii) dividing the result thus obtained by the fixed price.
6. Acreage of corn put to another use without being released by the Corporation, except corn used for ensilage or fodder, as provided in section 16 (b).	6. Appraised production but not less than the product of (i) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre (for harvested acreage) divided by the fixed price.
7. Acreage of corn with reduced yield due solely to any cause(s) not insured against.	7. Appraised number of bushels by which production has been reduced but not less than the product of (1) such acreage and (ii) the coverage per acre (for harvested acreage) divided by the fixed price, minus any corn harvested.
8. Acreage of corn with reduced yield due partially to a cause(s) not insured against and partially to a cause(s) insured against.	8. Appraised number of bushels by which production has been reduced because of any cause(s) not insured against.

(b) If the production from an insurance unit is commingled with the production from another insurance unit or with production from uninsured acreage and the insured fails to keep records satisfactory to the Corporation of the acreages involved and the production from each, the Corporation may (1) deny liability with respect to all insurance units involved for the crop year and declare the premium on such units forfeited by the insured or (2) allocate all of the commingled production among the insurance unit(s) involved in such manner as it determines appropriate.

21. Payment of indemnity. (a) Any indemnity will be payable by check within thirty days after satisfactory proof of loss is approved by the Corporation, but if payment is delayed for any reason, the Corporation shall not be liable for interest or damage on account of such delay.

(b) Indemnities shall be subject to all provisions of the contract, including the right of the Corporation to deduct from any indemnity the unpaid amount of any obligation of the insured to the Corporation.

(c) Any indemnity payment under a contract shall be paid to the insured or such other person as may be entitled to the benefits under the provisions of the contract, notwithstanding any attachment, garnishment, receivership, trustee process, judgment, levy, equity, or bankruptcy, directed against the insured or such other person, or against any indemnity alleged to be due to such person; nor shall the Corporation or any officer, employee, or representative thereof, be a proper party to any suit or action with reference to such indemnity, nor be bound by any judgment, order, or decree rendered or entered therein. Nothing herein contained shall excuse any person entitled to the benefits of the contract from full compliance with, or performance of, any lawful judgment, order or decree with respect to the disposition of any sums paid thereunder as an indemnity.

(d) If a check issued in payment of an indemnity is returned undeliverable at the last known address of the payee, and if such payee or other person entitled to the indemnity makes no claim for payment within two years after the issuance of the check, such claim shall not thereafter be payable, except with the consent of the Corporation.

22. Transfer of interest. (a) If the insured transfers all or a part of his insured interest in a corn crop before the beginning of harvest and the time of loss, the transferee may obtain the benefits of the contract on the transferred interest by within 15 days after the date of transfer, unless such time is extended in writing by the Corporation, (1) submitting to the county office such information concerning the transfer as may be required by the Corporation and (2) making arrangements satisfactory to the Corporation for the payment of any unpaid premium on the interest transferred. In any case, the transferee and transferor shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of the premium on the interest transferred. Any transfer shall be subject to any collateral assignment made by the original insured in accordance with section 26. However, the Corporation shall not be liable for a greater amount of indemnity in connection with the insured crop than if the transfer had not taken place.

(b) If a transfer is effected in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the contract of the transferor shall cover the interest so transferred only to the end of the insurance period for the crop year during which the transfer is made.

23. Determination of person to whom indemnity shall be paid. If the insured dies, is judicially declared incompetent or disappears after the planting of the corn crop in any year any indemnity which is, or becomes, part of his estate shall be paid to the legal representative of the estate. Should no such representative be qualified, the Corporation may pay the indemnity to the person(s) it determines to be beneficially entitled thereto or to any one or more of such persons on behalf of all such persons, or may withhold payment until a legal representative of the estate is qualified. In such cases, and in any other case where an indemnity is claimed by a person(s) other than the original insured or diverse interests appear with respect to any insurance unit the determination of the Corporation as to the existence or nonexistence of a circumstance in the event of which payment may be made and of the person(s) to whom such payment shall be made shall be final and conclusive. Payment of an indemnity shall constitute a complete discharge of the Corporation's obligations with respect to the loss for which such indemnity is paid and shall be a bar to recovery by any other person(s).

24. Other insurance. (a) If the insured has or acquires any other insurance against substantially all the risks that are insured against by the Corporation under the contract, regardless of whether such other insurance is valid or collectible, the liability of the Corporation shall not be greater than its share would be if the amount of its obligations were divided equally between the Corporation and such other insurer.

(b) In any case where the insured is paid by another Government agency for damage to the corn crop, the Corporation reserves the right to deduct from any indemnity the amount paid by such other agency.

25. Subrogation. The insured shall assign to the Corporation all rights of recovery against any person(s) for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the Corporation, and the insured shall execute all papers required and shall do everything that may be necessary to secure such rights.

26. Collateral assignment. The original insured may assign his right to an indemnity for any year under the contract by executing a Corporation form entitled "Collateral Assignment" and upon approval thereof by the Corporation the interest of the assignee will be recognized and the assignee shall have the right to submit the loss notices and forms as required by the contract if the insured neglects or refuses to take such action.

27. Records and access to farm. For the purpose of enabling the Corporation to determine any loss that may have occurred under the contract, the insured shall keep or cause to be kept, for two years after the time of loss, records of the harvesting, storage, shipment, sale or other disposition, of all corn produced on each insurance unit covered by the contract, and separate records showing the same information for production on any uninsured acreage in the county in which he has an interest. As often as may be reasonably required, any person(s) designated by the Corporation shall have access to such records and the farm(s) for purposes related to the contract.

28. Voidance of contract. The Corporation may void the contract and declare the premium(s) forfeited without waiving any right or remedy including the right to collect the amount of the premium note, if (a) at any time, either before or after loss, the insured has concealed or misrepresented any material fact or committed any fraud relating to the contract, or the subject thereof, or (b) the insured shall neglect to use all reasonable means to produce, care for or save the corn crop whether before or after damage has occurred, or (c) the insured fails to give any notice, or otherwise fails to comply with the terms of the contract, including the premium note, at the time and in the manner prescribed.

29. Modification of contract. No notice to any representative of the Corporation or the knowledge possessed by any such representative or by any other person shall be held to effect a waiver of or change in any part of the contract, or to estop the Corporation from asserting any right or power under such contract, nor shall the terms of such contract be waived or changed except as authorized in writing by a duly authorized officer or representative of the Corporation; nor shall any provision or condition of this contract or any forfeiture be held to be waived by any delay or omission by the Corporation in exercising its rights and powers thereunder or by any requirement, act, or proceeding on the part of the Corporation or of its representatives relating to appraisal or to any examination herein provided for.

30. General. (a) In addition to the terms and provisions of the application and policy, the Corn Crop Insurance Regulations for Continuous Contracts in effect for the crop year involved shall govern with respect to (1) minimum participation requirements, (2) closing dates for filing applications for insurance, (3) refund of excess note payments, and (4) creditors.

(b) Copies of the regulations and forms referred to in this policy are available at the county office.

(c) When the cancellation date or the closing date for filing applications falls on a Sunday or other day on which the county office is not officially open for business, such date shall be extended to the next business day.

31. Meaning of terms. (a) "Consecutively insured crops" means the corn crops insured in consecutive years during which insurance was available. Failure to apply for insurance in any year when insurance is offered in the county in which the insured's farm is located, shall break the insured's continuity of consecutively insured crops prior to such year, even though insurance may not be provided in the county during such year because of failure to meet the minimum participation requirement: Provided, however, That failure to apply for insurance for any year will not break the continuity of consecutively insured crops, if (1) the failure to apply for insurance was due to service in the active military or naval service of the United States, or (2) the insured establishes to the satisfaction of the Corporation that failure to apply for insurance for any crop year was due to the fact that corn was not planted in that year.

(b) "Contract" means the accepted application for insurance and this policy.

(c) "County Actuarial Table" means the form(s) and related materials (including the crop insurance maps) which are approved annually by the Corporation and show the price per bushel, the coverages per acre and the premium rates per acre applicable in the county.

(d) "County office" means the office of the County Production and Marketing Administration in the county unless another office is specified by the Corporation.

(e) "Crop year" means the period within which the corn crop is planted and normally harvested, and shall be designated by reference to the calendar year in which the crop is normally harvested.

(f) "Harvest" means picking the corn from the stalk either by hand or machine or cutting the corn for fodder or ensilage.

(g) "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and wherever applicable, a state, a political subdivision of a state, or any agency thereof.

(h) "Substitute crop" means any crop other than corn planted on released acreage for harvest in the same crop year.

(i) "Tenant" means a person who rents land from another person for a share of the corn crop or proceeds therefrom produced on such land.

§ 416.11 Valuation of silage corn. In counties designated by the Corporation the provisions of the policy shown in § 416.10 shall apply as amended by a rider which shall contain the following provision:

Notwithstanding any other provision of the policy, in determining any loss under the contract, any production of corn from acreage planted for harvest as grain and used for silage shall be determined and valued on the basis of the higher of (a) the appraised number of bushels of corn in the silage times the price per bushel provided for in section 7 of the policy, or (b) the number of tons of silage times a price per ton determined by the Corporation and shown each year by March 15 on the county actuarial table on file in the county office.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of these regulations have been approved by, and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of, the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 421—DRY EDIBLE BEAN CROP INSURANCE

SUBPART—REGULATIONS FOR THE 1950 AND SUCCEEDING CROP YEARS

The above-identified regulations, as amended (14 F. R. 7694; 15 F. R. 2485, 9034; 16 F. R. 3973, 7695, 9302; 17 F. R. 5930), are hereby amended with respect to bean crops insured for the 1953 and succeeding crop years as follows:

1. Section 421.28 is deleted.
2. Section 421.31 is deleted.
3. Section 421.32 The policy, as amended, is amended to change section 9 thereof, as amended, to read:

9. Life of contract, cancellation thereof. (a) Subject to the provisions of this section, the contract shall be in effect for the first crop year specified on the application and shall continue in effect for each succeeding crop year until canceled by either the insured or the Corporation. Cancellation for any year may be made by either party giving written notice to the other party on or before the following applicable cancellation date of the year for which cancellation is to become effective,

State and county:	Date
Arizona	Mar. 31
California	Feb. 28
Colorado	Apr. 15
Idaho	Apr. 15
Michigan	Apr. 30
Nebraska	Apr. 15
New Mexico	Mar. 31
New York	Apr. 30
Wyoming:
Goshen	Apr. 15
All other counties	Mar. 31

Provided, however, If any amount due the Corporation remains unpaid on such cancellation date, the time during which the Corporation may cancel shall be extended 15 days beyond the next following applicable closing date for filing applications for insurance. Any notice of cancellation given by the insured shall be submitted in writing to the county office or another office of the Corporation. The Corporation shall mail notice of cancellation to the insured's last known address and the mailing of such notice shall constitute notice to the insured.

(b) If the insured cancels the contract he shall not be eligible for crop insurance on beans planted for harvest in the crop year for which cancellation is to become effective unless subsequent to such cancellation he files an application for insurance on or before the cancellation date for such year.

(c) If the minimum participation requirement as established by the Corporation is not met for any year the contract shall continue in force only to the end of the crop year for which such requirement is not met, except that if the minimum participation requirement is met on or before the next succeeding applicable closing date the contract shall continue in force.

4. Section 421.32 The policy, as amended, is amended by adding thereto a section 9.1 to read as follows:

9.1 Death or incompetence of insured. The contract shall terminate upon death or judicial declaration of incompetence of the insured, except that if such death or judicial declaration of incompetence occurs after the beginning of the planting of the bean crop in any crop year but before the end of the insurance period for such year, the contract shall (1) cover any additional beans planted for the insured or his estate for the crop year, and (2) terminate at the end of such insurance period.

5. Section 421.32 The policy, as amended, is amended by deleting items (a) (3) and (6) from section 27.

(52 Stat. 73–75, 77, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 1506, 1507, 1508, 1509, 1516)

Chapter VII—Production and Marketing Administration (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

PART 729—PEANUTS

NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA, NATIONAL ACREAGE ALLOTMENT, AND APPORTIONMENT TO STATES OF NATIONAL ACREAGE ALLOTMENT FOR 1953 CROP

Sec.
729.401 Basis and purpose.
729.402 Proclamation and determination with respect to national marketing quota, normal yield per acre, and national acreage allotment for peanuts for the crop produced in the calendar year 1953.
729.403 Apportionment of the national peanut acreage allotment for the crop produced in the calendar year 1953.

AUTHORITY: §§ 729.401 to 729.403 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply sec. 358, 55 Stat. 88, as amended, 65 Stat. 29; 7 U. S. C. 1358.

§ 729.401 Basis and purpose. Section 358 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that between July 1 and December 1 of each calendar year the Secretary of Agriculture shall proclaim a national marketing quota for peanuts for the crop produced in the next succeeding calendar year in terms of the total quantity of peanuts which will make available for marketing a supply of peanuts from the crop with respect to which the quota is proclaimed equal to the average quantity of peanuts harvested for nuts during the immediately preceding five years, adjusted for current trends and prospective demand conditions. Section 358 (a) further provides that the national marketing quota shall be converted to a national acreage allotment by dividing such quota by the normal yield per acre for the United States.

Section 358 (c) of the said act provides that the national acreage allotment, less the acreage to be allotted to new farms under section 358 (f), shall be apportioned among the States on the basis of their share of the national acreage allotment for the most recent year in which such apportionment was made.

Section 729.402 of this proclamation establishes the national marketing quota, the normal yield per acre, and the national acreage allotment for the 1953 crop of peanuts. Section 729.403 apportions the 1953 national acreage allotment among the several peanut-producing States. The determinations in these sections are based on the latest available statistics of the Federal Government.

Public notice of the proposed proclamation and determinations to be made with respect to the 1953 national marketing quota, the national acreage allotment, and apportionment of such allotment among the States was given (17 F. R. 9563) in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. The proclamation is made after due consideration of recommendations submitted in response to such notice.

§ 729.402 Proclamation and determination with respect to national marketing quota, normal yield per acre, and national acreage allotment for peanuts for the crop produced in the calendar year 1953—(a) National marketing quota. The amount of the national marketing quota for peanuts for the crop produced in the calendar year 1953 is 663,000 tons.

(b) Normal yield per acre. The normal yield per acre of peanuts for the United States is 730 pounds.

(c) National acreage allotment. The national acreage allotment for the crop produced in the calendar year 1953 is 1,678,481 acres.

State:	1953 State acreage allotment
Alabama	227,236
Arizona	748
Arkansas	4,399
California	980
Florida	57,107
Georgia	546,925
Louisiana	2,047
Mississippi	7,878
Missouri	256
New Mexico	5,115
North Carolina	175,923
Oklahoma	143,164
South Carolina	14,328
Tennessee	3,716
Texas	370,166
Virginia	110,031
Total apportioned to States	1,670,089
Reserved for new farms	8,392
Total, United States	1,678,481

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Interstate Transportation of Animals and Poultry

[B. A. I. Order 383]

PART 76—HOG CHOLERA, SWINE PLAGUE, AND OTHER COMMUNICABLE SWINE DISEASES

QUARANTINE AND REGULATIONS RESTRICTING INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF SWINE AND CERTAIN SWINE PRODUCTS BECAUSE OF VESICULAR EXANTHEMA

Pursuant to the authority conferred by sections 1 and 3 of the act of March 3, 1905, as amended (21 U. S. C. 123 and 125), sections 1 and 2 of the act of February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111 and 120), and section 7 of the act of May 29, 1884, as amended (21 U. S. C. 117), the notice of the existence of the swine disease of vesicular exanthema in certain localities and the quarantine and regulations restricting the movement of swine and certain swine products because of vesicular exanthema, heretofore issued as Amendments 7 to 16 of B. A. I. Order 309 and appearing in §§ 76.9 through 76.13 constituting Subpart B of Part 76, Title 9, Code of Federal Regulations, are hereby redesignated as B. A. I. Order 383, to appear in §§ 76.25–76.29 constituting said Subpart B and are hereby amended to read as follows:

SUBPART B—VESICULAR EXANTHEMA

Sec.
76.25 Definitions.
76.26 Notice and quarantine.
76.27 General restriction.
76.28 Movement of swine and swine products.
76.29 Disinfection of facilities.

AUTHORITY: §§ 76.25 to 76.29 issued under secs. 4, 5, 23 Stat. 32, as amended, sec. 2, 32 Stat. 792, as amended, secs. 1, 3, 33 Stat. 1264, as amended, 1265, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 120, 111, 123, 125. Interpret or apply sec. 7, 23 Stat. 32, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 117.

§ 76.25 Definitions. As used in this subpart, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth in this section.

(a) Bureau. The term "Bureau" means the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture.

(b) Chief of the Bureau. The term "Chief of the Bureau" means the Chief of the Bureau or any other official of the Bureau to whom authority has heretofore been delegated or may hereafter be delegated to act in his stead.

(c) Person. The term "person" means any person, company or corporation.

(d) Moved. As applied to swine, the term "moved" means transported, shipped, delivered or received for transportation, driven on foot or caused to be driven on foot, by any person, and as applied to swine products, the term "moved" means transported, shipped or delivered or received for transportation, by any person.

(e) Swine product. The term "swine product" means any carcass, part or offal of swine.

(f) Interstate. The term "interstate" means from one State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, into or through any other State, Territory, or the District of Columbia.

(g) Clean stockyard. The term "clean stockyard" means a public stockyard at which Bureau inspection service is maintained and which is found by the Chief of the Bureau to be free from the infection of vesicular exanthema.

§ 76.26 Notice and quarantine. (a) Notice is hereby given that the contagious, infectious and communicable disease of swine known as vesicular exanthema exists in the following areas:

The State of California, except Modoc and Siskiyou Counties;

St. Clair County; Jarvis Township in Madison County; Columbia Township in Monroe County, in Illinois;

Bristol County in Massachusetts;

Thetford, Forest, Genesee and Richfield Townships in Genesee County; Green Oak Township in Livingston County; Lyon and Novi Townships in Oakland County; Ann Arbor, Dexter, Lima, Northfield, Salem, Scio, Superior and Webster Townships in Washtenaw County; and Canton and Northville Townships in Wayne County, in Michigan;

St. Louis County in Missouri;

Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, Hudson, Morris, and Ocean Counties in New Jersey;

New York County and Clarkstown Township in Rockland County, in New York;

Council Grove, Mustang, Oklahoma and Greeley Townships in Oklahoma County, in Oklahoma;

York County in Pennsylvania;

Dallas County, Tarrant County, and that part of Parker County lying north of U. S. Highway 180 and east of State Highway No. 51, in Texas.

(b) The Secretary of Agriculture, having determined that swine in the States named in paragraph (a) of this section are affected with the contagious, infectious and communicable disease known as vesicular exanthema and that it is necessary to quarantine the areas specified in paragraph (a) of this section and the following additional areas in such States, in order to prevent the spread of said disease from such States, hereby quarantine the areas specified in paragraph (a) of this section and in addition Bergen, Essex, and Union Counties in New Jersey.

§ 76.27 General restriction. No swine or swine products shall be moved interstate from or through any quarantined area specified in § 76.26 except as provided in the regulations in this subpart.

§ 76.28 Movement of swine and swine products—(a) From a quarantined area. (1) No swine shall be moved interstate from any quarantined area specified in § 76.26 except to an establishment specifically approved for the purpose by the Chief of the Bureau, for immediate slaughter and further processing at such establishment in a manner approved by said Chief as adequate to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema: Provided, however, That notwithstanding the foregoing restriction, swine which are moved into a quarantined area from a point outside the quarantined areas specified in § 76.26 directly to a clean stockyard in such quarantined area may be moved interstate from such stockyard under conditions prescribed by said Chief, directly to an establishment specifically approved for the purpose by said Chief for immediate slaughter in a manner approved by said Chief, as adequate to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema, but said Chief may also require the processing of such swine in a manner approved by him if he finds such processing is necessary to prevent the spread of said disease.

(2) No swine products shall be moved interstate from any quarantined area specified in § 76.26 except to an establishment specifically approved for the purpose by the Chief of the Bureau, for processing in a manner approved by said Chief as adequate to prevent the spread of said disease: Provided, however, That the following may be moved interstate from a quarantined area without regard to the foregoing restrictions, but under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Chief of the Bureau to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema: (i) Swine products identified by warehouse receipts or other information satisfactory to said Chief, as having been derived from swine that were slaughtered prior to July 25, 1952; (ii) swine products which have been processed in the course of normal establishment procedures in a manner approved by said Chief as adequate to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema; (iii) swine products derived from swine which (a) were moved into the quarantined area from a point outside the quarantined areas specified in § 76.26 directly to a clean stockyard and (b) were slaughtered, immediately upon their removal from such stockyard, at an establishment specifically approved for the purpose by said Chief; (iv) swine products derived from swine which were moved into the quarantined area from a point outside the quarantined areas specified in § 76.26 directly to a slaughtering establishment and there slaughtered immediately upon arrival, under conditions approved by said Chief. The Chief of the Bureau may authorize the movement of swine and swine products not otherwise authorized by this section under such conditions as he may prescribe to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema. The Chief of the Bureau may require that swine and swine products which have been exposed to or have been affected with vesicular exanthema, and which are moved interstate under this section from any quarantined area to an approved establishment for slaughter and processing or for processing, as the case may be, shall be moved under Bureau seal or accompanied by a representative of the Bureau.

(3) Swine and swine products in transit between points outside the quarantined areas specified in § 76.26 through any such quarantined area shall not be deemed to be moved from the quarantined area under this section.

(b) Through a quarantined area. No swine or swine products which are moved interstate in transit between points outside the quarantined areas specified in § 76.26 through any such quarantined area shall be unloaded in any such quarantined area unless all facilities to be used therein in connection with the unloading have been approved for such purpose by the Bureau and have been cleaned and disinfected before such use in a manner approved by the Bureau and under the supervision of a person authorized for the purpose by the Bureau.

§ 76.29 Disinfection of facilities. Railroad cars, trucks, boats, and all other facilities, including facilities for feeding, watering, and resting swine, which are used in connection with the interstate movement of swine or swine products from a quarantined area specified in § 76.26 shall be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected immediately after each such use. Sodium hydroxide (lye) at the rate of 13 ounces to five gallons of water, or sodium carbonate (soda ash) at the rate of one pound to three gallons of water, or sal soda at the rate of 13½ ounces to a gallon of water, shall be used in such disinfection.

Effective date. This subpart shall become effective upon issuance.

This order clarifies and makes more stringent requirements found in § 76.29 (formerly § 76.13) relative to the use of specified products for disinfecting certain facilities subject to the regulations in this subpart. This change is deemed necessary to prevent the spread of vesicular exanthema, a communicable disease of swine, and therefore must be made effective immediately in the public interest. This order also re-designates the section numbers in the Code of Federal Regulations assigned to the notice and quarantine and regulations relating to vesicular exanthema and makes a change in paragraphing in § 76.28 (formerly § 76.12). These are formal changes which do not affect the rights or obligations of any persons subject to such notice, quarantine, and regulations. Accordingly, under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) it is found upon good cause that notice and other public procedure with respect to this order are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest and good cause is found for making this order effective less than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of November 1952.

[SEAL] K. T. HUTCHINSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 20-15]

PART 20—PILOT CERTIFICATES

AGE REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDENT PILOT CERTIFICATES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 12th day of November 1952.

At present § 20.2 of Part 20 of the Civil Air Regulations requires that an applicant for a student pilot certificate who is under 21 years of age have parental consent to such application. It has been brought to the Board's attention by the Civil Aeronautics Administration that the military forces of the United States are undertaking a program of providing limited amounts of flight training at civilian contract schools to cadets and ROTC trainees. It is frequently a substantial burden for such trainees, who are usually trained at points distant from their homes, to obtain parental consent in order to qualify for student pilot certificates which are a prerequisite to piloting the civil aircraft used in contract schools.

The Civil Aeronautics Board concurs with the CAA in the belief that a member of the regular or reserve components of the armed forces or a member of an ROTC or other armed forces training program should be exempted from the consent of parent or guardian requirement for the issuance of a student pilot certificate. The purpose of this amendment is to relieve such persons from the parental consent requirement presently contained in § 20.2.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on any person, it may be made effective without prior notice.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 20 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 20, as amended), effective November 12, 1952:

By amending the sentence following § 20.2 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.2 Age. • • •
(b) • • •

If an applicant is less than 21 years of age and is not a regular or reserve member of the armed forces of the United States or enrolled in an established ROTC or other training program of such armed forces at the time of making application, he shall submit with his application the written consent of either parent or of his legal or natural guardian.

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHERS SERVICE AND RALPH D. SLATER

Subpart—Delaying or withholding corrections, adjustments or action owed: § 3.675 Delaying or withholding corrections, adjustments or action owed. Subpart—Misrepresenting oneself and goods—Business status, advantages or connections: § 3.1513 Operations generally. Subpart—Offering unfair, improper and deceptive inducements to purchase or deal: § 3.2012 Sample, offer or order conformance. Subpart—Securing orders falsely, misleadingly or improperly: § 3.2170 Securing orders falsely, misleadingly or improperly. In connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of magazines in commerce, (1) failing to forward subscriptions for magazines to the publishers or distributors thereof after obtaining full payment for subscriptions from subscribers; (2) soliciting and receiving subscriptions for magazines and payment therefor for which respondents have no authority to solicit; (3) substituting magazines for those actually subscribed for by the subscriber without obtaining his prior consent; (4) soliciting and receiving subscriptions and payment therefor for magazines knowing that delivery of said magazines will either not be made at all, or if made, will be unreasonably delayed and then delivered only intermittently; (5) charging more for subscriptions for magazines than the established subscription rate; or, (6) representing, directly or by implication, that they are conducting or taking surveys; prohibited.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45) [Cease and desist order, International Publishers Service et al., Los Angeles, Calif., Docket 6006, September 9, 1952]

In the Matter of International Publishers Service, a Corporation, and Ralph D. Slater, Individually and as President of Said Corporation

This proceeding was instituted by complaint which charged respondents with the use of unfair and deceptive acts and practices in violation of the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act.

It was disposed of, as announced by the Commission's "Notice," dated September 15, 1952, through the consent settlement procedure provided in Rule V of the Commission's rules of practice as follows:

The consent settlement tendered by the parties in this proceeding, a copy of which is served herewith, was accepted by the Commission on September 9, 1952, and ordered entered of record as the Commission's findings as to the facts, conclusion, and order in disposition of this proceeding.

Said order to cease and desist, thus entered of record, following the findings as to the facts [1] and conclusion,[1] reads as follows:

It is ordered, That the respondent International Publishers Service, a corporation, its officers, and respondent Ralph D. Slater, individually and as an officer of International Publishers Service, and respondents' agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale and distribution of magazines in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Failing to forward subscriptions for magazines to the publishers or distributors thereof after obtaining full payment for subscriptions from subscribers;

2. Soliciting and receiving subscriptions for magazines and payment therefor for which respondents have no authority to solicit;

3. Substituting magazines for those actually subscribed for by the subscriber without obtaining his prior consent;

4. Soliciting and receiving subscriptions and payment therefor for magazines knowing that delivery of said magazines will either not be made at all, or if made, will be unreasonably delayed and then delivered only intermittently;

5. Charging more for subscriptions for magazines than the established subscription rate;

6. Representing, directly or by implication, that they are conducting or taking surveys.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

Issued: September 15, 1952.

By direction of the Commission.

TITLE 20—EMPLOYEES' BENEFITS

Chapter V—Bureau of Employment Security, Department of Labor

PART 606—REGULATIONS TO IMPLEMENT TITLE IV OF THE VETERANS' READJUSTMENT ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1952 (ALL STATES EXCEPT PUERTO RICO AND THE VIRGIN ISLANDS)

VETERANS ELIGIBLE FOR BENEFITS UNDER RAILROAD UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE ACT

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 406 of the Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1952 (66 Stat. 663) and after consultation with representatives of State unemployment compensation agencies, this part is amended by adding a new section as follows:

§ 606.12 Veterans eligible for benefits under Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, any veteran who is eligible for benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act (52 Stat. 1094), as amended, and either is not eligible for benefits under any State unemployment compensation law or elects to claim benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act rather than any State benefits for which he is eligible, shall have his rights to compensation under title IV determined by the Railroad Retirement Board in accordance with the provisions of the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act in lieu of the applicable State law referred to in this part. Such determinations shall be subject to review in the same manner and to the same extent as determinations under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act and only in such manner and to such extent.

TITLE 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter XIV—The Renegotiation Board

Subchapter B—Renegotiation Board Regulations Under the 1951 Act

PART 1465—LIMITATIONS ON COMMENCEMENT AND COMPLETION OF RENEGOTIATION

PART 1470—PRELIMINARY INFORMATION REQUIRED OF CONTRACTORS

COMMENCEMENT OF RENEGOTIATION PROCEEDINGS; TIME FOR FILING OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Section 1465.2 Commencement of renegotiation proceedings, is amended by deleting the last sentence in paragraph (a) and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In cases described in § 1470.3 (d) (2) of this subchapter, the filing of that portion of the Standard Form of Contractor's Report entitled RB-1 is considered for the purposes of this section to be the filing of the financial statement required under section 105 (e) (1) of the act."

2. Section 1470.3 Filing of financial statement, is amended by deleting paragraph (d) in its entirety and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(d) Time for filing—(1) In general. The Standard Form of Contractor's Report, including both RB Form 1 and RB Form 1B, shall be filed on or before the first day of the fourth calendar month following the close of the fiscal year of the contractor, whether or not any specific request for filing has been made.

(2) Special provision for reports due before April 1, 1953. (i) When the Standard Form of Contractor's Report is required to be filed before April 1, 1953, RB Form 1B shall, whenever possible, be filed with RB Form 1. If not so filed, said RB Form 1B shall be filed as soon thereafter as possible but not later than the sixtieth day after the date prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for the filing of the Standard Form of Contractor's Report or, if the time of the contractor to file such report has been extended by the Board, then not later than the sixtieth day after such extended date.

(ii) The filing of RB Form 1 will be considered to be the filing of the statement required under section 105(e)(1) of the act for the purpose of § 1465.2 of this subchapter.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 63, Amdt. 3 to Area Milk Price Regulation 10]

GCPR, SR 63—AREA MILK PRICE ADJUSTMENTS

AMPR 10—LOS ANGELES DISTRICT (LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, MARKETING AREA)

ADDITION OF APPENDIX COVERING ORANGE COUNTY MARKETING AREA AND MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), Delegation of Authority No. 41 (16 F. R. 12679) and Redelegation of Authority No. 23, Region XII (17 F. R. 674) this Amendment 3 to Area Milk Price Regulation 10 pursuant to Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 9559), is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Section 106 (b) of the Defense Production Act Amendment of 1952 amends paragraph 3 of subsection (d) of section 402 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, so as to provide that "Where a State regulatory body is authorized to establish minimum and/or maximum prices for sales of fluid milk, ceiling prices established for such sales under this title shall (1) not be less than the minimum prices, or (2) be equal to the maximum prices, established by such regulatory body, as the case may be." Section 111 of the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952 adds to section 402 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, a new subsection providing "(1) No rule, regulation, order, or amendment thereto issued under this title shall fix a ceiling on the price paid or received on the sale or delivery of any material in any State below the minimum sales price of such material fixed by the State law (other than any so-called 'fair trade law') now in effect, or by regulation issued pursuant to such law." The State of California Bureau of Milk Control recently required producers of fluid milk to charge the equivalent of ½ cent per quart of standard milk which under the provisions of section 8 of Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation may be passed through upon the filing of the required report. In addition, the Bureau increased the margin on home delivered milk by ½ cent thereby increasing the minimum price for such milk by 1 cent, with the provision that a credit of ½ cent a quart may be allowed if 60 quarts or more of milk is purchased in a calendar month. This amendment 3 to AMPR 10 eliminates any conflict between OPS ceiling prices established by AMPR 10 and minimum prices established by the State of California.

The increase in the price of fluid milk paid by processors requires the revision of the table of cream differentials to reflect that increase.

As the producer prices and changes in retail home delivered milk and cream prices are similar in the Orange County Marketing Order to the Los Angeles County Marketing Order but are different from the San Diego County Marketing Order, it is considered desirable to delete the Appendix referring to Orange County from AMPR 9 and to include it with the required changes in AMPR 10.

In the judgment of the District Director the provisions of this amendment to Area Milk Price Regulation No. 10 in Region XII are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended by the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1951, and the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952.

The District Director of the Office of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to all relevant factors of general applicability. The director consulted the industry involved to the fullest extent practicable prior to the issuance of this amendment to Area Milk Price Regulation No. 10.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Area Milk Price Regulation 10 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended by adding the following paragraph thereto:

(c) If a ceiling price otherwise established by this regulation is lower than an applicable corresponding minimum price established by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control, then the ceiling price shall be the minimum price established by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control. The prices for standard milk so determined shall be the base prices for the computation, pursuant to section 3 of the appendices of this regulation, of prices for standard milk sold in remote areas and of prices for milk other than standard (such as buttermilk, chocolate drink, non-fat milk, and special grades of milk), and, further, shall be the base prices for calculation, pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) above, of prices for sales to types of purchasers other than those specified in the appendices of this regulation.

2. Appendix I (Revision II) to AMPR 10 is deleted and a Revised Appendix I (Revision III), Los Angeles County Marketing Area, is added to read as follows:

APPENDIX I (REVISION III)

LOS ANGELES COUNTY MARKETING AREA

This appendix provides ceiling prices for milk and cream (excluding sour cream) in the Los Angeles County Marketing Area which is defined below.

1. For standard milk (including homogenized) ceiling prices are as follows:

Size of container	Wholesale, f. o. b. purchaser's business location	Retail store, carry-out	Retail home-delivered	Retail f. o. b. distributor's processing plant	Retail f. o. b. producer's ranch
Bulk milk, per gallon	$0.72
Gallon bottle	.75	$0.88	[1] $0.94	$0.81	$0.75
Half-gallon container (fiber or glass)	.40	.41	.47	.42	.39
Quart container (fiber or glass)	.195	.22	[1] .235	.21	.195
Pint container (fiber or glass)	.11	.12	.13		.11
Third-quart or three quarter-pint container (fiber or glass)	.083
Half-pint container (fiber or glass)	.060

[1] A reduction of 1½ cent ($0.005) per quart shall be made in retail home delivered prices when 60 quarts or more of fluid milk are sold and delivered to an individual customer during any calendar month.

2. For the following products the ceiling price is the base period price plus the following additions:

Product	Container size
	Per gallon bulk	½ gallon	Quart	Pint	½ pint
Half and half	$0.24	$0.12	$0.06	$0.03	$0.015
Table cream	.40	.20	.10	.05	.025
All-purpose cream	.56	.28	.14	.07	.035
Whipping cream	.56	.28	.14	.07	.035

3. For standard milk (including homogenized) sold in remote areas where the retail store carry-out base period price was in excess of 19 cents per quart or the retail home-delivered base period price was in excess of 20 cents per quart, the ceiling price for all kinds of sales shall be the applicable price provided in subdivision 1, above, plus an amount proportionate (according to container size) to either of such excesses.

For kinds of milk other than standard (such as buttermilk, chocolate drink, nonfat milk, and special grades of milk) the ceiling price shall be the ceiling price as hereinbefore provided for retail store carry-out standard milk in the same size of container plus or minus, as the case may be, the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's base period prices for such kind of milk and standard milk. Ceiling prices so determined under this section shall be reported in accordance with section 3 of this regulation.

4. The prices herein provided are based upon a producer paying price of $6.28 per hundredweight of milk containing 3.8 percent milk fat for Class 1 fluid milk purchased f. o. b. processor's plant, subject to the deductions and additions set forth in Section A of Article I of Los Angeles County Order No. 50 issued by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control effective November 8, 1952.

5. "Los Angeles County Marketing Area" means that area as defined in said Los Angeles County Order No. 50.

3. Appendix II to AMPR 10 is added to read as follows:

APPENDIX II

ORANGE COUNTY MARKETING AREA

This appendix provides ceiling prices for milk and cream (excluding sour cream) in the Orange County Marketing Area which is defined below.

1. For standard milk (including homogenized) ceiling prices are as follows:

	Wholesale, f. o. b. purchaser's business location	Retail store, carry out	Retail home delivered	Retail f. o. b. distributor's processing plant	Retail f. o. b. producer's ranch
Bulk milk, per gallon	$0.75
Gallon bottle	.80	$0.90	[1] $0.96	$0.86	$0.80
Half-gallon container (fiber or glass)	.40	.45	[1] .48	.43	.40
Quart container (fiber or glass)	.20	.225	1.24	.215	.20
Pint container (fiber or glass)	.1125	.125	1.135		.115
Third-quart or three quarter-pint container (fiber or glass)	.083
Half-pint container (fiber or glass)	.067

[1] A reduction of ½ cent ($0.005) per quart shall be made in retail home delivered prices when 60 quarts or more of fluid milk are sold and delivered to an individual customer during any calendar month.

2. For the following products the ceiling price is the base period price plus the following additions:

Product	Container size
	Per gallon bulk	½ gallon	Quart	Pint	½ pint
Half and half	$0.24	$0.12	$0.06	$0.03	$0.015
Table cream	.40	.20	.10	.05	.025
All-purpose cream	.56	.28	.14	.07	.035
Whipping cream	.56	.28	.14	.07	.035

3. For standard milk (including homogenized) sold in remote areas where the retail store carry-out base period price was in excess of 19 cents per quart or the retail home-delivered base period price was in excess of 20 cents per quart, the ceiling price for all kinds of sales shall be the applicable price provided in subdivision 1, above, plus an amount proportionate (according to container size) to either of such excesses.

For kinds of milk other than standard (such as buttermilk, chocolate drink, nonfat milk, and special grades of milk) the ceiling price shall be the ceiling price as hereinbefore provided for retail store carry-out standard milk in the same size of container plus or minus, as the case may be, the dollars-and-cents difference between the seller's base period prices for such kind of milk and standard milk. Ceiling prices so determined under this section shall be reported in accordance with section 3 of this regulation.

4. The prices herein provided are based upon a producer paying price of $6.25 per hundredweight of milk containing 3.8 percent milk fat for Class 1 fluid milk purchased f. o. b. processor's plant, subject to the deductions and additions set forth in Section A of Article I of Orange County Order No. 44 issued by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control effective November 8, 1952.

5. "Orange County Marketing Area" means that area as defined in said Orange County Order No. 44.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

This amendment is effective as of November 8, 1952.

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), Delegation of Authority No. 41 (16 F. R. 12679) and Redelegation of Authority No. 23, Region XII (17 F. R. 674) this Amendment 3 to Area Milk Price Regulation 11 pursuant to Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 9559), is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Section 106 (b) of the Defense Production Act Amendment of 1952 amends paragraph 3 of subsection (d) of section 402 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, so as to provide that "Where a State regulatory body is authorized to establish minimum and/or maximum prices for sales of fluid milk, ceiling prices established for such sales under this title shall (1) not be less than the minimum prices, or (2) be equal to the maximum prices, established by such regulatory body, as the case may be." Section 111 of the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952 adds to section 402 of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, a new subsection providing "(1) No rule, regulation, order, or amendment thereto issued under this title shall fix a ceiling on the price paid or received on the sale or delivery of any material in any State below the minimum sales price of such material fixed by the State law (other than any so-called 'fair trade law') now in effect, or by regulation issued pursuant to such law." The State of California Bureau of Milk Control recently required producers of fluid milk to charge the equivalent of ½ cent per quart of standard milk which under the provisions of Section 8 of Supplementary Regulation 63 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation may be passed through upon the filing of the required report. In addition, the Bureau increased the margin on home delivered milk by ½ cent thereby increasing the minimum price for such milk by 1 cent, with the provision that a credit of ½ cent a quart may be allowed if 60 quarts or more of milk is purchased in a calendar month. This amendment 3 to AMPR 11 eliminates any conflict between OPS ceiling prices established by AMPR 11 and minimum prices established by the State of California.

The increase in the price of fluid milk paid by processors requires the revision of the table of cream differentials to reflect that increase.

In the judgment of the District Director the provisions of this amendment to Area Milk Price Regulation No. 11 in Region XII are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended by the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1951, and the Defense Production Act Amendments of 1952.

The District Director of the Office of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to all relevant factors of general applicability. The director consulted the industry involved to the fullest extent practicable prior to the issuance of this amendment to Area Milk Price Regulation No. 11.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Area Milk Price Regulation 11 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1 is amended by adding the following paragraph thereto:

(c) If a ceiling price otherwise established by this regulation is lower than an applicable corresponding minimum price established by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control, then the ceiling price shall be the minimum price established by the State of California Bureau of Milk Control. The prices for standard milk so determined shall be the base prices for the computation, pursuant to section 3 of the appendices of this regulation, of prices for standard milk sold in remote areas and of prices for milk other than standard (such as buttermilk, chocolate drink, non-fat milk, and special grades of milk), and, further, shall be the base prices for calculation, pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) above, of prices for sales to types of purchasers, other than those specified in the appendices of this regulation.

2. Appendix I (Revision I) to AMPR 11 is deleted and Appendix I (Revision II), San Bernardino-Riverside Marketing Area, is added to read as follows:

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Amdt. 9 to Supplementary Regulation 15]

GCPR, SR 15—EXCEPTION FOR CERTAIN SERVICES

SUSPENSION OF PRICE CONTROL ON CERTAIN SERVICE CHARGES IN CONNECTION WITH FRESH FRUITS, VEGETABLES, BERRIES AND TREE NUTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Amendment 9 to Supplementary Regulation 15 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Amendment 8 of Supplementary Regulation 15 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation, for reasons indicated in the Statement of Considerations accompanying that amendment, suspended from price control, until November 4, 1952, the rates, fees, and charges for services performed in connection with harvesting, preparing for market, and marketing of all fresh fruits, vegetables, berries, and tree nuts. When this amendment was issued it was thought that by November 4, 1952, the Office of Price Stabilization would have completed its studies necessary for the formulation of, and would be able to issue, ceiling price regulations applicable to those commodities. In the meantime, however, the Harrison Amendment to the Defense Production Act of 1950 prohibited the establishment or maintenance of ceiling prices on fresh fruits and vegetables. Consequently, OPS has reached the conclusion that because the prices of these commodities cannot be controlled, no useful purpose will be served by the control of service charges incurred in the handling of the commodities and therefore OPS does not intend to issue regulations regarding prices for such services. This being the case, the suspension of controls which was to expire on November 4, 1952, is herewith extended indefinitely. However, notwithstanding this suspension, persons rendering services relating to the above mentioned commodities are required to preserve all records, hitherto kept in compliance with section 16 (b) of the GCPR, and make them available to OPS officials whenever requested. As regards their future operations, after November 4, 1952, no further keeping of records is required.

In the formulation of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, impracticable. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, this amendment is generally fair and equitable, is necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and complies with all the applicable standards of that act.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 2 (a) (3) of Supplementary Regulation 15 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is amended to read as follows:

(3) Services in connection with fresh fruits, vegetables, berries, and tree nuts. The provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation shall not apply to rates, fees, and charges for services performed in connection with harvesting; car and truck pre-cooling and top-icing; packing and prepackaging; and buying and selling of fresh fruits, vegetables, berries, and tree nuts. This suspension shall continue unless and until the Director of Price Stabilization terminates or modifies it. After November 4, 1952, persons performing these services shall not be required to prepare and keep the records specified in section 16 (b) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation. However, such persons shall continue to preserve and make available for examination by the Office of Price Stabilization, in the manner and for the period set forth in section 16 (b) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation, all such records which they were required to have on November 4, 1952.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment to Supplementary Regulation 15 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation shall be effective as of November 5, 1952.

TIGHE E. WOODS,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Overriding Regulation 7, Revision 1, Amdt. 11]

GOR 7—EXEMPTION AND SUSPENSION OF CERTAIN FOOD AND RESTAURANT COMMODITIES

ADDITIONAL FRUIT AND VEGETABLE PRODUCTS ADDED TO STATUTORY DECONTROL PROVISIONS; ADDITIONAL SPECIALTY FOODS ADDED TO ARTICLE II

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this amendment to General Overriding Regulation 7, Revision 1, is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to General Overriding Regulation (GOR) 7, Revision (Rev.) 1, adds products to the list of those which are decontrolled because of Congressional enactment of the Harrison Amendment to the Defense Production Act of 1950, removing price ceilings on fruits and vegetables in fresh or processed form. The determination to add these items to the list in Article IV of GOR 7, Rev. 1, was made on the basis of a further study of the scope of the Harrison Amendment, to which reference was made in the Statement of Considerations accompanying Amendment 10 to GOR 7, Revision 1.

It also appears that certain additional items should be decontrolled in accordance with standards laid down by OPS apart from the Harrison Amendment. These commodities, notably certain canned soups and shells and kernels of apricots and of peaches, are added to the list contained in Article II of GOR 7, Rev. 1. This action is taken in accordance with the policy of the OPS of suspending or otherwise relaxing price controls on commodities, which by reason of their luxury or "specialty" character, or because of their insignificant volume of sales, are not required at this time to be controlled in order to carry out the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. Available data indicate that this action will have little effect on the cost of living, the cost of the defense effort, or general industrial costs. Moreover, it is the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization that the maintenance of ceiling price restrictions on sales of these items would involve an administrative burden out of all proportion to the importance of keeping them under price control.

Finally, certain provisions added to GOR 7, Revision 1, by Amendments 2 and 10, are clarified. For example, in Amendment 2 to GOR 7, Revision 1, several fruit and vegetable baby food and junior food items were listed as decontrolled, but it was not stated whether combinations of one or more of these fruits or vegetables were also decontrolled. Accordingly, paragraph (f) of section 30 is amended to indicate that combinations are also decontrolled.

In the formulation of this amendment the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director, the exemptions under Article II of the regulation provided for by this amendment, will not defeat or impair the price stabilization program or the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. The exemptions under Article IV are, in the judgment of the Director, necessary to comply with the provisions of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

General Overriding Regulation 7, Revision 1, is amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (c) (1) (xi) of section 2 is amended to read as follows:

(xi) The following canned soups: Almond; artichoke; avocado; black bean; borsht; bouillabaisse; broccoli; cheese soup; consomme julienne; consomme madrilene; cucumber; fish or seafood; game bird; jellied chicken consomme; minestrone; mushroom broth; onion a la Bretone; petite marmite; smoked turkey; turtle, wine flavored; vichysoisse; water cress; and all frozen soups.

2. Paragraph (c) (1) of section 2 is amended by the addition of the following:

(xix) Shells and kernels of apricots and of peaches.
(xx) Canned marrons.
(xxi) Chinese chow mein and chop suey.

3. Paragraph (d) (14) of section 2 is amended to read as follows:

(14) Water-ground wheat flour or water-ground buckwheat flour; tapioca food starch sold in bulk.

4. Paragraph (d) (16) of section 2 is amended to read as follows:

(16) Food flavoring extracts (except vanilla extract) and artificial colors for food, both in containers of not more than 16 ounces.

5. Paragraph (d) (18) of section 2 is amended to read as follows:

(18) Mincemeat.

6. Paragraph (d) (27) of section 2 is amended to read as follows:

(27) Prepared pastry dough or batter (excluding dry mixes); that is, any unbaked dough, batter or puff paste for pie crust, and any tart, eclair, pattie or similar shell.

7. Paragraph (d) of section 2 is amended by the addition of the following:

(30) Stuffed dried fruits.

8. Paragraph (e) of section 2 is amended by the addition of the following:

(52) Canned vegetable aspic.

9. Paragraph (c) (11) of section 30 is amended to read as follows:

(11) Canned fruit and berry juices and mixtures thereof, including apple cider and other fruit ciders.

10. Paragraph (c) of section 30 is amended by the addition of the following:

(21) Canned cranberry sauce, strained or whole.
(22) Canned mangoes.

11. Paragraph (f) (3) of section 30 is amended to read as follows:

(3) All dried fruits (including mixtures thereof) either whole, chopped, pitted, or in macerated form.

12. Paragraph (f) (5) of section 30 is amended to read as follows:

(5) The following fruits, vegetables (including creamed vegetables), and their juices, and combinations of the following fruits, vegetables, or their juices (with no other ingredients added except water sufficient for preparation, salt or sugar), when sold as canned baby or junior foods:

(i) Apples, including applesauce.
(ii) Apricots.
(iii) Bananas.
(iv) Beets.
(v) Carrots.
(vi) Green beans.
(vii) Oranges.
(viii) Peaches.
(ix) Peas.
(x) Pears.
(xi) Pineapple.
(xii) Plums.
(xiii) Prunes.
(xiv) Spinach.
(xv) Squash.
(xvi) Sweetpotatoes.

13. Paragraph (f) (6) of section 30 is amended to read as follows:

(6) Dry edible beans (whole or split) including blackeye (or blackeyed) peas, pinto, chick peas (or garbanzos), lima (large and baby), pea (navy), pink, red kidney, small red (Mexican) and yelloweye; dry edible peas (whole or split) including green and yellow peas; and lentils; all when sold for human consumption as vegetables.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This amendment is effective as of July 1, 1952 as to products covered by section 30, and on November 18, 1952 as to all other products.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 34, Supplementary Regulation 29]

CPR 34—SERVICES

SR 29—POWER LAUNDRIES IN THE CITY OF SPOKANE, WASHINGTON

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Supplementary Regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Supplementary Regulation to Ceiling Price Regulation 34 permits an increase in ceiling prices of power laundry services supplied by power laundries in the City of Spokane, Washington. This supplementary regulation does not permit the increase to be applied to the diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services of such laundries.

For the past two years the earnings of Spokane suppliers of power laundry services have been decreasing, despite an increase in the volume of sales. Wage increases and sharply increased costs in the latter part of 1950 and in 1951 have brought the average earnings in this area not only below normal earnings, but even below the break-even point.

Under the provisions of this supplementary regulation, ceiling prices of such power laundries may be increased by 5 percent, such adjustment to be applied to the total amount of each invoice rendered to the customer and identified as the "OPS permitted price increase", or, at the option of the individual laundry, the established flat price for each article may be increased 5 percent. The adjusted flat price must within ten days after their determination be filed with the appropriate Office of Price Stabilization district office.

Provision is made to retain such services under Ceiling Price Regulation 34, provided, however, that power laundries subject to this supplementary regulation may not, after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, obtain an adjustment of their ceiling prices under sections 20 (a), (b) or (c) of that regulation. In addition, adjustments previously granted under those sections are automatically revoked as of the effective date of this supplementary regulation.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the price increases permitted by this supplementary regulation are the minimum needed to permit the continued supply of this service.

In the formulation of this supplementary regulation, the Director has consulted insofar as practicable with representative suppliers of these services, including representatives of trade associations, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization the increases permitted by this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. Purpose.
2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34.
3. Adjustment of ceiling prices.
4. Application of section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.
5. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 5 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. Purpose. This supplementary regulation permits power laundries in the City of Spokane, Washington to increase the ceiling prices of their power laundry services by 5 percent. This supplementary regulation shall not apply to the diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services of power laundries.

SEC. 2. Relationship to Ceiling Price Regulation 34. All provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, unless changed by the provisions of this supplementary regulation as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this regulation, remain in effect.

SEC. 3. Adjustment of ceiling prices. You may, to the extent you supply power laundry services in the City of Spokane, Washington increase your ceiling prices by 5 percent for power laundry services, except diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services, thus supplied, by either of the following methods:

(a) You may apply such an adjustment to the total amount of each invoice rendered to the customer, provided you shall clearly write or stamp beside the adjustment on each such invoice the words "OPS permitted price increase." If you use this method of applying your price increase you need not make the supplementary filing required by section 18 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 34.

(b) You may, in lieu of the method provided in paragraph (a) of this section, increase by 5 percent the flat prices of each power laundry services article, except a diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services article. Within ten days after your prices are established under this paragraph, you must prepare and file with your district office of the Office of Price Stabilization a supplemental statement as required under section 18 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. You may not establish prices under paragraph (a) of this section once you have elected to establish prices under this paragraph.

(c) If the increase computed in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section results in a fraction of a cent, the ceiling price must be decreased to the next lower cent if the fractional cent is less than one-half cent, or may be increased to the next higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more.

SEC. 4. Application of section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34. (a) A seller subject to this supplementary regulation may not, after the effective date of this supplementary regulation, apply for an adjustment of any of his ceiling prices for power laundry services except diaper supply, linen supply and dry cleaning services under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended.

(b) The adjustment of ceiling prices granted by section 3 of this supplementary regulation shall be the maximum adjustment permitted any such supplier of power laundry services in lieu of, and irrespective of, any adjustment heretofore granted any such supplier under the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended. Any order adjusting the ceiling prices of any such supplier's power laundry services under section 20 of Ceiling Price Regulation 34, as amended, is hereby revoked as of the effective date of this supplementary regulation.

SEC. 5. Definitions. (a) "Power laundry" or "power laundries" as used in this regulation are laundries which in the laundry trade are customarily known and designated as such, and do not include hand laundries, launderettes or laundries using home-type laundry equipment to supply laundry services.

Effective date. This order shall become effective November 22, 1952.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 61, Amdt. 4]

CPR 61—EXPORTS

SUSPENSION OF EXPORT PRICE CONTROLS UPON SUSPENSION FROM DOMESTIC PRICE CONTROLS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 as amended by Defense Production Act Amendments of 1951 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; Pub. Law 96, 82nd Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 makes clear how export ceiling prices are affected by regulations suspending or exempting commodities from domestic ceiling price controls.

Under section 11 (a) of CPR 61, a general suspension or exemption of a commodity from price controls under another regulation presently constitutes also a suspension or exemption of the commodity from the coverage of CPR 61 as to sales in the export market, unless there is contrary language in the general suspension or exemption regulation. The question has been raised whether this is the case where the suspension or exemption is limited to domestic sales.

One of the basic policies of CPR 61 is the prevention of diversion of needed goods from the domestic to the foreign market, with the consequent disturbance of normal channels of distribution in the domestic market and attendant increases in inflationary pressures. Ceiling prices under CPR 61 were established on a pattern customary in the export industry generally prior to the Korean war, namely, that sales in the export market were made either at domestic prices or at customary markups over such prices. This limited exporters to their normal pre-Korean markups and eliminated the inducement to diversion because of high foreign prices due to a war situation.

Where the domestic supply of a commodity is sufficient, with consequent lowering of prices, to warrant suspension or decontrol of ceiling prices for domestic sales, it is not necessary to continue to limit the prices of exporters. This is recognized in the formulas for establishing ceiling prices contained in sections 3 and 4 of CPR 61. These sections either require or permit the use of domestic ceiling prices as the basis for determining export ceiling prices. In applying the formulas, the result is that the limitation on export ceiling prices is removed with the elimination of domestic ceiling prices.

This amendment is issued to clarify this result.

In view of the nature of this amendment, formal consultation with representatives of industry has not been practicable, although many individual views expressed informally to this Office requested action in the nature of this amendment.

In the judgment of the Director of the Office of Price Stabilization, this amendment is generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purpose of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 11 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 61 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 11. Exemptions and suspensions. (a) This regulation does not apply:

(1) To sales of commodities for which export ceiling prices will hereafter be specifically established under other regulations or supplements; or

(2) To sales of commodities which are suspended or exempted from price control by regulation of the Office of Price Stabilization irrespective of whether such regulation is by its terms applicable or inapplicable to export transactions. Such suspension or exemption shall be applicable to the same extent to similar sales covered by CPR 61 as though the suspension or exemption in such other regulation were specifically applicable to export sales and sales for export. For example, if price controls are suspended under another regulation for domestic sales of a commodity by manufacturers, then export sales and sales for export of such commodity by manufacturers or producer-exporters are suspended from price control under CPR 61; if such suspension is applicable to domestic sales by wholesalers, then export sales and sales for export by wholesalers or merchant exporters are suspended from price control under CPR 61. In exclusion of a seller or commodity from the coverage of a regulation because that seller or commodity is covered by another regulation does not constitute a suspension or exemption from price control within the meaning of this section.

(Sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154)

Effective date. This Amendment 4 to Ceiling Price Regulation 61 shall become effective November 22, 1952.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 125]

GCPR, SR 125—PRODUCERS OF PRODUCTS IN WHICH PRIMARY COPPER IS USED

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order 10161, and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2, this Supplementary Regulation to General Ceiling Price Regulation 125 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Producers of Brass Mill and Wire Mill products were allowed by amendments to CPR 68 and CPR 110 to reflect a portion of the added costs of foreign copper. Certain products in which primary copper is used, however, are not included in those regulations.

This supplementary regulation permits producers of products in which primary copper is used and whose ceiling prices are established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation, to adjust their ceiling prices for these products to reflect the increased cost of foreign copper.

As a result of the increase in the price of Chilean copper in May 1952 to 36½ cents per pound, the Director of Defense Mobilization directed the Office of Price Stabilization to increase the ceiling price of brass mill and wire mill products, to reflect 80% of the increased cost of copper. He also directed that comparable treatment be given other primary users of foreign copper. In accordance with that directive, ceiling prices for brass mill and wire mill products were increased on the basis of 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained. This amendment provides the same treatment to all producers of products in which primary copper is used, who have their ceiling prices established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation with the exception of copper clad or copper coated iron and steel products which are covered by SR 100 Revision 1 to the GCPR. It permits producers who only use primary copper to increase their ceiling price by 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained. If the producer uses copper scrap and primary copper, however, he computes the percentage of primary copper to the total amount of copper used during the third quarter of 1952 and then multiplies this by 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained. He may then increase his ceiling price by this resulting figure. The total quantity of copper used in the products to which this supplementary regulation is applicable, constitutes only about two percent of the total domestic consumption of copper. The amount of copper used in these products is comparatively small, and is not expected to have any appreciable effect on the level of prevailing prices.

In the formulation of this regulation, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade representatives, to the extent practicable and full consideration has been given to their recommendations.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this regulation does.
2. Ceiling price adjustments.
3. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 3 issued under sec. 704, 64 Stat. 816, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2154. Interpret or apply Title IV, 64 Stat. 803, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 2101-2110. E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This supplementary regulation increases the ceiling prices established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation for producers of products in the production of which primary copper is used with the exception of copper clad or copper coated iron and steel products.

SEC. 2. Ceiling price adjustments. (a) If you produce a product, the ceiling price of which is established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation, and if you use primary copper and do not use copper scrap in the production of your product, your ceiling price for this product is your ceiling price under the General Ceiling Price Regulation plus 3.84 cents per pound of primary copper contained.

(b) If you produce a product, the ceiling price of which is established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation, and if you use both primary copper and copper scrap in the production of your product, your ceiling price for this product is your ceiling price under the General Ceiling Price Regulation plus an amount equal to the percentage of primary copper to the total amount of copper used during the third quarter of 1952 multiplied by 3.84 cents per pound of copper contained in the product.

(c) The foregoing provisions do not apply to copper clad or copper coated iron and steel products.

SEC. 3. Definitions. When used in this supplementary regulation, the term:

(a) "Primary copper" means all copper metal refined by any process of electrolysis or fire refining to a grade and in a form suitable for fabrication, and shall include all such metal produced from domestic or imported ores, concentrates, or other copper bearing material.

Effective date. This supplementary regulation becomes effective November 24, 1952.

Chapter IV—Salary and Wage Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

Subchapter A—Salary Stabilization Board

[Interpretation 18]

INT. 18—HEALTH AND WELFARE PLANS

This interpretation deals with the right of employers to put into effect health and welfare plans in accordance with the self-administering provisions of General Salary Stabilization Regulation 8, Revised, as amended.

1. Q. May an employer put into effect without prior approval of the Office of Salary Stabilization a health and welfare plan which provides for benefits other than those defined in the introductory clause of section 1 of the regulation?

A. No. Health and welfare plans which may be put into effect on a self-administering basis may provide only for the types of benefits set forth specifically in section 1. If other benefits are sought to be included in the health and welfare plans, approval must be obtained in accordance with section 2 of the regulation.

2. Q. An association of employers prepares a health and welfare plan for adoption by its members and which its members desire to adopt. Under what conditions may the employers put such a plan into effect?

A. Employers may put such a plan into effect in accordance with the provisions of section 1 of the regulation, except that the requirement that at least 25 employees must be covered by group life insurance is fulfilled if all the employer members of the association adopting the plan prepared by the employer association, have an aggregate of 25 or more employees to be covered by group life insurance.

3. Q. May an employer operating two or more plants extend a health and welfare plan in effect at plant X to plant Y in the same local labor market area?

A. Yes. This may be done in accordance with section 1 (d) of the regulation.

4. Q. May an employer extend a health and welfare plan in effect at plant X to plant Y, located in a different local labor market area?

A. Yes. This also is permitted by section 1 (d) of the regulation.

5. Q. May a corporate employer extend a health and welfare plan in effect at its plant to plants owned by a subsidiary, parent or affiliated corporations?

A. Yes. For the purposes of section 1 (d) of this regulation a multiplant employer includes parent and subsidiary corporations and affiliated corporations, as defined in paragraph 2 of Interpretation 16 (17 F. R. 8776).

6. Q. Under what circumstances does a health and welfare plan provide benefits for employees subject to the jurisdiction of the Wage Stabilization Board and of the Salary Stabilization Board "upon the same or similar terms" under section (1) (a) of the regulation?

A. Benefits are provided "upon the same or similar terms" if variations in dollar amounts of contributions and benefits are based on an acceptable criterion or a consistent formula, such as basing temporary disability or life insurance benefits on a percentage of the compensation of the participating employees or basing disability or sick leave benefits on the length of service of the employees covered by the plan. The concept of providing the same or similar benefits for all employees under the jurisdiction of both the Wage Stabilization Board and the Salary Stabilization Board does not require identical contributions or benefits identical in dollar amount with regard to each employee covered by such plan.

7. Q. Does an employer who desires to put a health and welfare plan into effect under section 1 (b) of the regulation, covering only employees under the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board, have complete discretion in selecting any employees to be included in the plan as long as a majority of such employees is included?

A. No. Under section 1 (b) (2) the selection of a majority of participating employees must not discriminate in favor of employees who are officers, shareholders, persons whose principal duties consist of supervising the work of other employees, or highly compensated employees. However, employees in these categories may be excluded, since such exclusion from the plan would discriminate against them rather than in their favor.

8. Q. When is a health and welfare plan discriminatory under section 1 (b) (2) of the regulation, assuming that selection of the participating employees was non-discriminatory as explained in paragraph 7 of this Interpretation?

A. A health and welfare plan is discriminatory within the meaning of section 1 (b) (2) of the regulation if contributions or benefits provided under the plan favor the classes of employees mentioned in section 1 (b) (2) as against the other employees included in the plan. However, a plan will not be considered discriminatory merely because the contributions or benefits bear a uniform relationship to the compensation of the individually covered employees. Variations in contributions or benefits may be provided so long as the plan, viewed as a whole, does not discriminate among the covered employees in favor of the classes of employees referred to in section 1 (b) (2).

If an employer already has in effect one or more health and welfare plans covering employees under the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board, the plans must be considered together with the proposed plan in order to determine whether the proposed plan is nondiscriminatory with regard to selection of participants, contributions and benefits.

9. Q. How does the employer determine whether any benefit provided for in his health and welfare plan is authorized under section 1 (b) (3) as not inconsistent with prevailing practice?

A. (a) A separate health and welfare plan which provides only for employees under the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board benefits upon the same or similar terms (see paragraph 6) as a plan approved for the employees under jurisdiction of the Wage Stabilization Board of the same employer, confers benefits which are not inconsistent with prevailing practice.

(b) Since most health and welfare plans are put into effect on an insured or group health and hospitalization basis, benefits are not inconsistent with prevailing practice if they do not exceed the benefits provided by standard group insurance policies or group health and hospitalization plans, such as Blue Cross and Blue Shield or their counterparts in the area where the employer's plant is located. In order that the health and welfare benefits provided for under a group insurance policy or group health and hospitalization plan can be considered standard, they should be consistent with benefit standards in the examples under (1) below, and should not contain any of the benefits listed in the examples under (2) below.

EXAMPLES

(1) Examples of benefits which are consistent with prevailing practice:

(i) Ambulance service in case of illness or accidental injury.

(ii) Semi-private room and board in a hospital, including payment for "extras" or "miscellaneous charges".

(iii) Surgical fees in accordance with a surgical expense plan providing a fee schedule with a maximum allowance of $300.

(iv) Dental surgery in connection with a general surgical expense plan.

(v) Polio coverage up to $5,000.

(vi) Sick leave at the rate of one day's pay per month of service up to 30 days less any benefits payable under (vii).

(vii) Temporary disability payments not exceeding 60 percent of salary.

(viii) Medical expense payments not exceeding $5 per day or $5 per visit in home or hospital or $3 per visit in doctor's office or, if benefits are graduated after the first visit or the first few visits, payments thereafter not exceeding $4 per day in home or hospital.

(ix) Benefits in case of accidental injury or death as a result of travel in the service of the employer of any kind, including air transportation.

(2) Examples of benefits which are not considered to be consistent with prevailing practice without submission of supporting evidence:

(i) Special nursing care.

(ii) Full payment for private hospital room.

(iii) Rest cures or convalescent care.

(iv) Plastic surgery for cosmetic or beautifying purposes.

(v) Benefits on accidental death or dismemberment in excess of an average face value of one year's salary.

(vi) Death benefits under group life insurance in excess of one year's salary on other than accidental death.

(c) Where an employer is authorized under the regulation to extend a health and welfare plan from one plant or establishment to another in a different labor market area or to adopt a health and welfare plan made available to him by an employers' association of which he is a member, benefits provided under such plans are not inconsistent with prevailing practice even though different from other plans in the particular area or industry.

10. Q. An employer desires to put into effect a health and welfare plan under section 1 (c) of the regulation providing benefits substantially in excess of those authorized under section 1 (b) (3). Must the employees contribute 40 percent of the entire premium or only 40 percent of the premium payment for the excessive benefits?

A. The employees must contribute 40 percent of the entire premium for all benefits provided under this plan. Under section 1 (c) of the regulation it is not sufficient that employees contribute only 40 percent of the premium payment for the excess of any particular benefit which is not authorized under section (1) (b) (3).

11. Q. An employer has more than one health and welfare plan for employees subject to the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board. Where one or more of the plans are put in effect under section 1 (c) of the regulation, how is the 40 percent of the premium payment to be paid by the employees computed?

A. Where an employer has more than one health and welfare plan for employees under the jurisdiction of the Salary Stabilization Board, the 40 percent of the total premium payments to be made by the employee in accordance with section 1 (c) is determined as follows:

(a) Where the benefits are of the same type, such as hospital expense benefits, permanent or total disability benefits or group life insurance, the premium payment of the employee must be 40 percent of the total premium paid for all benefits of the same type regardless of whether such benefits are obtained under a single or under several separate health and welfare plans.

(b) Where an employer has more than one health and welfare plan covering benefits of a type not covered by another of the plans, the employee's 40 percent of the premium payment is computed with regard to the total premium paid for each type of benefit.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[CMP Regulation No. 1 as Amended Nov. 18, 1952]

CMP REG. 1—BASIC RULES OF THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

This regulation as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended. In the formulation of this regulation as amended, consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the need for immediate action and because the regulation affects many different industries. However, there was consultation with industry representatives prior to the original issuance of this regulation on May 3, 1951.

This amendment affects CMP Regulation No. 1 as follows:

Section 9 (a) is amended; Schedule I (Revised) is amended and redesignated Schedule I; Schedule III (Revised) is amended and redesignated Schedule III; Schedule IV (Revised) is amended and redesignated Schedule IV.

This amendment incorporates the provisions of the separate previously issued Amendments 1 through 6 to this regulation which are accordingly superseded. This amendment does not affect the status of the separate previously issued Directions 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19 to this regulation which remain in full force and effect. Direction 9 is revoked concurrently with this amendment, and Schedule I is amended to provide that non-nickel-bearing stainless steel is not a controlled material. Directions 5, 7, 10, 10A, 11, 12, and 13 were previously revoked.

EXPLANATORY PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. The purpose of this regulation is to define rights and obligations under the Controlled Materials Plan. It explains how production schedules are authorized for manufacturing operations and how materials are obtained to complete such production schedules. This regulation and other CMP regulations to be issued from time to time make effective the "Controlled Materials Plan," a general description of which was issued by the National Production Authority, for informational purposes only, on April 13, 1951. In case of any inconsistency between such announcement, or any other descriptive literature which may be issued from time to time, and any CMP regulation, the provisions of the latter shall govern. Other CMP regulations cover, or will cover, inventory controls; preference status of delivery orders; deliveries of controlled materials by distributors; maintenance, repair, and operating supplies; construction; and additional matters. This regulation will also be supplemented from time to time by the issuance of procedures, forms, interpretations, directions, and instructions.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this regulation and any other CMP regulation (unless otherwise indicated):

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "NPA" means the National Production Authority.

(c) "Controlled material" means domestic and imported steel, copper, and aluminum, in the forms and shapes indicated in Schedule I of this regulation, whether new, remelted, rerolled, or redrawn, including used and second-quality materials, shearings, and material sorted or salvaged from scrap which are sold for other than remelting, rerolling, or redrawing purposes.

(d) "Controlled Materials Division" means the Iron and Steel Division, the Copper Division, or the Aluminum and Magnesium Division of NPA.

(e) "Industry Division" means the Division or other unit of NPA which is charged with supervision over the operations of the producers of particular products.

(f) "Claimant Agency" means any Government agency or subdivision thereof designated as such by the Defense Production Administration.

(g) "Prime consumer" means any person who receives an allotment of controlled material from a Claimant Agency or an Industry Division.

(h) "Secondary consumer" means any person who receives an allotment of controlled material from a person other than a Claimant Agency, an Industry Division, or the Requirements Committee of the Defense Production Administration.

(i) "Allotment" means (1) an authorization by the Requirements Committee of the Defense Production Administration, of the amount of controlled materials which a Claimant Agency may receive and/or allot during a specified period, or (2) an authorization by the Requirements Committee of the Defense Production Administration, of the amount of controlled materials which an Industry Division may allot during a specified period, or (3) an authorization by a Claimant Agency or an Industry Division, of the amount of controlled materials which may be received and/or allotted by one of its prime consumers during a specified period, or (4) an authorization by a prime or secondary consumer, of the amount of controlled materials which may be received and/or allotted by one of its secondary consumers during a specified period.

(j) "Class A product" means any product which is not a Class B product (as defined in paragraph (k) of this section), and which contains any controlled material, fabricated or assembled beyond the forms and shapes specified in Schedule I of this regulation, other than any controlled material which may be contained in Class B products incorporated in it.

(k) "Class B product" means any product designated as such in the "Official CMP Class B Product List" issued by NPA, as the same may be modified from time to time, and which contains any controlled material other than any controlled material which may be contained in other Class B products incorporated in it.

(l) "Program" means a statement of the amounts of an item or class of items to be provided in specified periods of time.

(m) "Authorized program" means a program specifically approved by the Requirements Committee of the Defense Production Administration.

(n) "Production schedule" means a statement of the amounts of an item or class of items to be produced by an individual consumer in specified periods of time.

(o) "Authorized production schedule" means a production schedule specifically approved by a Claimant Agency or by an Industry Division with respect to a prime consumer, or specifically approved by a prime or secondary consumer with respect to a secondary consumer.

(p) "Delivery order" means any purchase order, contract, shipping, or other instruction calling for delivery of any material or product on a particular date or dates or within specified periods of time.

(q) "Authorized controlled material order" means any delivery order for any controlled material (as distinct from a product containing controlled material) which is placed pursuant to an allotment as provided in section 19 of this regulation or which is specifically designated to be such an order by any regulation or order of NPA.

SEC. 3. General production schedule and allotment procedure. (a) Each Claimant Agency or Industry Division shall authorize production schedules of prime consumers pursuant to authorized programs. Each prime consumer who has an authorized production schedule shall, pursuant thereto, authorize production schedules of secondary consumers producing Class A products for it; and each secondary consumer who has an authorized production schedule shall, pursuant thereto, authorize production schedules of secondary consumers producing Class A products for it.

(b) Each Claimant Agency or Industry Division shall make allotments to prime consumers, for the purpose of fulfilling related authorized production schedules, pursuant to allotments which it has received. Each prime consumer who has received an allotment shall, pursuant thereto, make allotments to secondary consumers producing Class A products for it, to fulfill related authorized production schedules; and each secondary consumer who has received an allotment shall, pursuant thereto, make allotments to secondary consumers producing Class A products for it, to fulfill related authorized production schedules.

(c) Except where otherwise provided by NPA, no person shall produce a Class A or a Class B product unless he has received an authorized production schedule for such production. No person who has received an authorized production schedule shall produce more than the quantity of the particular product or products provided for in such authorized production schedule. No such person shall acquire controlled materials or products and materials other than controlled materials for fulfillment of such authorized production schedule except by use of the related allotment (or charge against the related allotment) and by use of the related DO rating. If such a person obtains controlled material without the use of an authorized controlled material order, for example, the purchase of controlled material from a foreign supplier or from a domestic supplier who is not a controlled materials producer or a controlled materials distributor (as defined in CMP Regulation No. 4), he must charge the quantity of such controlled material against his allotment.

(d) Nothing in this regulation shall be interpreted to prohibit the production of any product, other than a Class A or a Class B product: Provided, however, That such production must comply with the provisions and limitations of all applicable regulations and orders of NPA.

SEC. 4. Statements of requirements. (a) The basis for an allotment to a consumer shall be his actual requirements for controlled materials in connection with the fulfillment of an authorized production schedule, after taking inventories into account to the extent required by CMP Regulation No. 2. A statement of requirements is to be furnished only when requested. Such statement is ordinarily submitted as an application for allotment or a bill of materials.

(b) An application for allotment includes only (1) the quantities of controlled materials required by the submitting consumer for his own production, and (2) the quantities of controlled materials required by his secondary consumers supplying Class A products to him for incorporation in his product.

(c) A bill of materials is a statement of the total amounts of materials (including controlled materials) required for physical incorporation in one unit or a specified number of units of a given product.

(d) When a consumer who has furnished a bill of materials or other statement of requirements ascertains that he has substantially overstated his requirements or those of his secondary consumers for any material or product, he shall report such error immediately to the person to whom the statement of requirements was furnished.

(e) If any consumer receives any statement of requirements which he knows or has reason to believe to be substantially excessive, with respect to controlled materials, he shall withhold any allotment based thereon in an amount sufficient to correct such excess and shall report the facts immediately to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division.

SEC. 5. Applications for authorized production schedules and allotments. (a) Production schedules may be authorized and related allotments made on the basis of information furnished by applications on Form CMP-4A and Form CMP-4B.

(b) Any producer of Class A products, upon the request of a Claimant Agency or of a consumer for whom he produces Class A products, shall furnish to such Claimant Agency or consumer, the information called for in Form CMP-4A. Such information shall be submitted on Form CMP-4A or in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(c) Any producer of Class B products which are designated as Class B products for which Form CMP-4B applications are required, in the "Official CMP Class B Product List" issued by NPA, as the same may be modified from time to time, shall furnish the information called for in Form CMP-4B by submitting such form to the appropriate Industry Division or Claimant Agency (as indicated in such list). NPA may request any producer of a Class B product not so designated to furnish such information on such form.

(d) Any producer of controlled materials may apply for an allotment as provided in section 21 of this regulation.

AUTHORIZED PRODUCTION SCHEDULES

SEC. 6. How production schedules are authorized. (a) A production schedule for each prime consumer producing a Class A product pursuant to an authorized program will be authorized by the appropriate Claimant Agency on such form as may be prescribed. A Claimant Agency may, in particular cases, authorize a production schedule through an Industry Division.

(b) A production schedule for each secondary consumer producing a Class A product shall be authorized by the consumer for whom such Class A product is to be produced, pursuant to an authorized production schedule, on such form as may be prescribed. A consumer having several authorized production schedules bearing the same allotment number may, pursuant thereto, authorize a single production schedule for a secondary consumer.

(c) A production schedule for each consumer producing a Class B product pursuant to an authorized program will be authorized by the appropriate Industry Division or Claimant Agency on such form as may be prescribed. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of section 9 of this regulation, a consumer who has received a production schedule for a Class B product which is authorized in terms of whatever amount can be made with a specific allotment or allotments, and which contains no limitation on the number of units which may be produced therewith, shall not put into production during the calendar quarter for which such schedule is authorized a quantity of controlled materials greater than the quantity allotted, unless the authorization for such schedule expressly states that production is authorized in whatever amount can be made with a specific allotment or allotments plus controlled materials properly contained in inventory.

(d) A consumer receiving allotments from several persons shall obtain separate authorized production schedules from each.

(e) Except where otherwise specifically provided by NPA, no person shall authorize a production schedule unless at the same time he makes an allotment as provided in section 10 of this regulation, and no person shall make an allotment unless at the same time he authorizes a related production schedule as provided in this section.

(f) When the production schedule of a consumer is authorized and a related allotment is made to him, a DO rating shall be assigned or applied to such schedule by the person authorizing the production schedule, for use in accordance with the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 3.

SEC. 7. Reconciliation of conflicting schedules. In any case where, for any reason, a manufacturer of Class A or Class B products is unable to fulfill conflicting authorized production schedules which he has accepted from different persons, he shall, if the conflict involves only schedules relating to a single Claimant Agency, report immediately to that Claimant Agency for instructions. In all other cases involving conflicting authorized production schedules he shall report immediately to the appropriate Industry Division or Industry Divisions for instructions.

SEC. 8. Rejection of schedules in excess of capacity. A prime or secondary consumer shall reject an authorized production schedule for a Class A or Class B product to be manufactured by him which calls for delivery or deliveries after June 30, 1951, if he does not expect to be able to fulfill the same by the specified delivery date or dates. If the person whose order is rejected is unable to find another manufacturer who will accept it, he shall report the facts to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division. NPA may from time to time issue directives requiring individual manufacturers to reschedule or rearrange their production and/or delivery schedules.

SEC. 9. Meeting authorized production schedules. (a) Each consumer who has accepted an authorized production schedule for the production of a Class A product shall fulfill the same unless prevented by circumstances beyond his control. In the event he cannot fulfill such schedule on the specified delivery date or dates, he shall promptly notify the person from whom he received it stating the reasons therefor.

(b) No consumer who has accepted an authorized production schedule shall exceed such schedule in any quarter with the use of the related allotment and DO rating, except that (1) an authorized production schedule may be exceeded in any quarter to the extent necessary to make up for a failure to meet such schedule in any prior quarter, (2) production authorized for any quarter may be completed at any time after the fifteenth of the month preceding such quarter and, (3) where a delivery order calls for deliveries, in successive months, of Class A products in quantities which are less than the minimum practicable production quantity, and compliance with monthly delivery dates would result in substantial interruption of production and consequent interference with production to fill other delivery orders, the consumer may produce (and his customer may order and accept) in the first or a subsequent month the minimum practicable quantity which may be made without such interference.

ALLOTMENTS AND DELIVERY ORDERS FOR CONTROLLED MATERIALS

SEC. 10. How allotments are made. (a) Each Claimant Agency, Industry Division, or consumer authorizing a production schedule as provided in section 6 of this regulation shall concurrently make a related allotment, pursuant to allotments which it has received, to the consumer whose production schedule has been authorized, on such form as may be prescribed.

(b) The allotment shall specify the quantities and the kinds of controlled materials needed for delivery in specified calendar quarters to complete the related authorized production schedule. Allotments shall be made in terms of (1) carbon steel (including wrought iron), (2) alloy steel (except stainless steel), (3) stainless steel, (4) copper and copper-base alloy brass mill products, (5) copper wire mill products, (6) copper and copper-base alloy foundry products and powder, and (7) aluminum, in each case without further breakdown, except where a further breakdown is made by the Requirements Committee of the Defense Production Administration or by NPA.

(c) The allotment shall be identified by an allotment number as provided in section 11 of this regulation.

(d) Advance allotments by Claimant Agencies or Industry Divisions to prime consumers may be made within such limits as may be specified by the Requirements Committee of the Defense Production Administration. Prime consumers receiving such advance allotments shall, in turn, make advance allotments to their secondary consumers, and secondary consumers shall make advance allotments, in the same manner as in the case of regular allotments, but no consumer shall make any allotment before receiving his own allotment.

(e) A Claimant Agency, Industry Division, or consumer may make allotments only in the same kinds of controlled materials in which it has received its allotment.

SEC. 11. Designation and use of allotment numbers. (a) Allotments shall be identified by an allotment number consisting of a Claimant Agency letter symbol and one digit designating the authorized program of such Claimant Agency. In cases where a Claimant Agency is not involved, the appropriate symbol designated by any NPA regulation or order as a CMP allotment symbol shall be used. For example, in the case of maintenance, repair, and operating supplies, the symbol MRO shall be used as provided in CMP Regulation No. 5.

(b) Authorized controlled material orders shall show the related allotment number and the calendar quarter for which the allotment is valid. For example, a delivery order for controlled materials placed pursuant to an allotment identified by allotment number K–2 which is valid for the fourth quarter of 1951 shall be designated as follows: K–2–4Q51. The date or dates on which delivery is required must also be specified on such delivery order.

(c) Delivery orders for products and materials other than controlled materials required for completion of an authorized production schedule shall show the DO rating and the related allotment number; for example, DO–K–2. The date or dates on which delivery is required must also be specified on such delivery orders. Such date or dates need not be during the calendar quarter for which such production schedule is authorized and for which the related allotment is valid: Provided, however, That the DO rating may be used only to acquire production materials in the minimum practicable amounts required, and on a date or dates no earlier than required, to fulfill the related authorized production schedule.

(d) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, a manufacturer of a Class B product who has received an authorized production schedule and related allotment from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency shall not use the allotment number accompanying any DO rating received by him from a customer in obtaining controlled materials for such production.

(2) A manufacturer of a Class B product who has received an authorized production schedule with an allotment number from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency and who, on and after March 31, 1952, receives, from a customer for such Class B product, a DO rated order which bears a program identification consisting of the letter A, B, C, or E, followed by a digit, or the program identification Z–2, shall use the allotment number received from such Industry Division or Claimant Agency in obtaining controlled materials or Class A products needed to fulfill such rated order or to replace in inventory controlled materials or Class A products used in the manufacture of the product covered by such rated order, by appending as a suffix to the allotment number received with his authorized production schedule, the program identification B–5; for example, P–2–B–5. In addition, such allotment number to which such suffix has been appended shall be followed by the calendar quarter for which the allotment received from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency is valid; for example, P–2–B–5–3Q52.

(3) A manufacturer of a Class B product who has received an authorized production schedule with an allotment number from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency and who, prior to March 31, 1952, received, from a customer for such Class B product, a DO rated order which has not been filled and which bears a program identification consisting of the letter A, B, C, or E, followed by a digit, or the program identification Z–2, may use the allotment number received from such Industry Division or Claimant Agency in obtaining controlled materials or Class A products needed to fulfill such rated order or to replace in inventory controlled materials or Class A products used in the manufacture of the product covered by such rated order, by appending as a suffix to the allotment number received with his authorized production schedule, the program identification B–5; for example, P–2–B–5. In addition, such allotment number to which such suffix has been appended shall be followed by the calendar quarter for which the allotment received from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency is valid; for example, P–2–B–5–3Q52.

(4) Any person who receives a DO rated order identified by the suffix B–5 as provided in section 6 (f) of CMP Regulation No. 3 shall, if he is a manufacturer of a Class B product covered by such DO rated order who has received an authorized production schedule with an allotment number from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency for such Class B product, use the allotment number received from such Industry Division or Claimant Agency in obtaining controlled materials or Class A products needed to fulfill such rated order or to replace in inventory controlled materials or Class A products used in the manufacture of the product covered by such rated order, by appending as a suffix to the allotment number received with his authorized production schedule, the suffix program identification B–5; for example, if such a person has received the allotment number M–3 from an Industry Division and the rating DO–P–2–B–5 from his customer, he shall use the allotment number as follows: M–3–B–5. In addition, such allotment number to which such suffix has been appended shall be followed by the calendar quarter for which the allotment received from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency is valid; for example, M–3–B–5–3Q52. Any person who receives a DO rated order identified by the suffix B–5 as provided in section 6 (f) of CMP Regulation No. 3 shall, if he is a manufacturer of a Class A product covered by such DO rated order who has received an authorized production schedule for such Class A product from his customer, use the allotment number and quarterly identification in the form received from his customer in obtaining controlled materials or Class A products needed to fulfill such rated order or to replace in inventory controlled materials or Class A products used in the manufacture of the product covered by such rated order.

(5) Any authorized controlled material order placed on or after May 1, 1952, pursuant to subparagraph (2), (3), (4), or (9) of this paragraph, and identified by the suffix B–5, shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order bearing the program identification contained in such suffix for the purposes of NPA Order M–1 (steel), NPA Order M–5 (aluminum), NPA Order M–11 (copper), and any other applicable regulation or order of NPA.

(6) For the purposes of this paragraph, a manufacturer of a Class B product who operates under the self-authorization provisions of Direction 1 to CMP Regulation No. 1 shall be deemed a manufacturer of a Class B product who has received an authorized production schedule with an allotment number and a related allotment from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency.

(7) Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to permit a manufacturer of a Class A or a Class B product to obtain controlled materials or to make allotments in excess of the related allotment received by him.

(8) Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this paragraph, no manufacturer of a Class B product shall be required to append the suffix program identification B–5 to the allotment number received with his authorized production schedule from an Industry Division or a Claimant Agency, to obtain controlled materials or Class A products where the quantities of such controlled materials or Class A products are insignificant in relation to the total procurement of controlled materials or Class A products by such manufacturer to fulfill all his authorized production schedules for Class B products.

(9) Any person who, on or after May 1, 1952, placed an authorized controlled material order calling for delivery of steel which bears the quarterly identification 2Q52 or 3Q52 without appending the suffix B–5 to the program identification although he was entitled to append such suffix to such order pursuant to this paragraph, may at any time prior to shipment of such steel by the supplier revise such order by appending the suffix B–5 to the program identification. Such revision shall not constitute a cancellation of the order. As of the date of such revision, such an order shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order bearing the program identification B–5 for the purposes of Directions 15 and 16 to CMP Regulation No. 1, of NPA Order M–1, and of any other applicable regulation or order of NPA. If the supplier had postponed the shipment date of such an order prior to such revision, because the order did not bear the suffix B–5, he shall, after such revision, reschedule the order for shipment as close to the original shipment date as is practicable without interrupting his operations in a way which would cause a substantial loss of total production or a substantial delay in operations.

SEC. 12. Allotments by consumers. (a) Each prime consumer receiving an allotment may use that portion of the allotment which he requires to obtain controlled materials as such for his authorized production schedule, and shall allot the remainder to his secondary consumers producing Class A products for him to cover their requirements for controlled materials for related authorized production schedules. Allotments by secondary consumers to secondary consumers supplying them shall be made in the same fashion. A secondary consumer producing Class A products for several consumers shall obtain separate allotments from each.

(b) No consumer shall make any allotment in an amount which exceeds the related allotment received by him, after deducting all other allotments made by him and all orders for controlled materials placed by him pursuant to his related allotment.

(c) No consumer shall make any allotment in excess of the amount required, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to fulfill the related authorized production schedule of the secondary consumer to whom the allotment is made (including the schedules of any secondary consumers supplying the latter).

(d) Allotments for production of Class B products shall only be made by appropriate Industry Divisions or by appropriate Claimant Agencies as specified in the "Official CMP Class B Product List," and no consumer shall accept any allotment from any other person for the production of Class B products.

(e) No consumer who has received his allotment for an authorized production schedule shall place any delivery order for any Class A product required to fulfill said schedule, unless concurrently therewith he makes an allotment to the person with whom the order is placed, in the amount required by such person to fill said order: Provided, however, That if he purchases a Class A product from a distributor under the conditions specified in section 15 of this regulation or from a foreign supplier, he shall make no allotment but must deduct the appropriate amount from his own allotment balance.

(f) A consumer may make an allotment to his secondary consumer on such form (including Form CMP–5 set forth in Schedule II of this regulation) as may be prescribed for the purpose. Allotments may be made by telegraphing or telephoning the information required by the appropriate form and confirming the same with such form, within 15 days.

SEC. 13. How to cancel or reduce allotments. A person who has made an allotment may cancel or reduce the same by notice in writing to the person to whom it was made. A person who has received an allotment may cancel or reduce the same by making an appropriate notation thereon and notifying the person from whom he received it. In either case, if an allotment received by a person is cancelled, he must cancel all allotments which he has made, and all authorized controlled material orders which he has placed, on the basis of the allotment; and, if an allotment received by a person is reduced, he must cancel or reduce allotments which he has made, or authorized controlled material orders which he has placed, to the extent that the same exceed his allotment as reduced. If and to the extent that cancellation or reduction is impracticable because of shipments already made to him pursuant to such allotment, he may use or dispose of controlled materials or Class A products which he gets with such allotment in the manner provided in section 17 of this regulation.

SEC. 14. Transfer of allotments. (a) No consumer shall transfer or assign any allotment (as distinct from making an allotment) in any way unless: (1) delivery orders for Class A products placed with him, in connection with which the allotment was made to him, have been transferred or assigned to another consumer; (2) the authorized production schedules of the respective consumers have been duly adjusted; and (3) the transfer or assignment is approved in writing by the person who made the allotment.

(b) Transfers or assignments of allotments may be made without complying with paragraph (a) of this section in connection with the transfer or assignment of a business as a going concern where the transferee continues to operate substantially the same business in the same plant. The transferee may use the allotment and ratings of the transferor but the transferee must notify NPA of the details of the transaction, giving the names of the persons involved and furnishing one extra copy of such notification for each authorized production schedule that he has received.

SEC. 15. Special provisions regarding manufacturers and distributors of Class A products. (a) For the purposes of this section "distributor" means any person engaged in the business of buying and taking physical delivery of Class A products which he does not manufacture and selling the same, for his own account, but only to the extent that he is so engaged.

(b) If a distributor buys and sells Class A products, he shall do so without making or receiving allotments. A manufacturer of Class A products selling them to a distributor shall apply for an allotment for such manufacture from the appropriate Industry Division or Claimant Agency by submitting an application on Form CMP–4B, in the same manner as if they were Class B products. If the manufacturer makes physical delivery directly to a distributor's customer, the latter (unless he is also a distributor) shall make an allotment directly to the manufacturer in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the distributor had no part in the transaction.

(c) A manufacturer of Class A products who sells them for use as maintenance, repair, or operating supplies (except items purchased from him by a Claimant Agency and for which he has received an allotment) shall obtain allotments for such manufacture in the manner provided in paragraph (b) of this section. Applications pursuant to said paragraph (b) and this paragraph (c) may be combined in a single Form CMP–4B.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this section, a manufacturer who also sells purchased Class A products to round out his line, which do not represent more than 10 percent of his estimated total sales receipts in a calendar quarter for which he files an application for allotment, shall be deemed the manufacturer of such products and not a distributor for purposes of this section.

SEC. 16. Alternative procedure for simultaneous allotments. A prime or secondary consumer who has several secondary consumers in different degrees of remoteness, may, at his option, authorize individual production schedules and make simultaneous direct allotments to all such secondary consumers of all degrees of remoteness. The person who is to make the allotment under this alternative procedure (the originating consumer) may request each supplier of all degrees of remoteness to furnish him directly with information regarding such supplier's requirements for controlled materials, and each such supplier shall comply with such request. If this procedure is followed, each supplier shall include in the information he furnishes to the originating consumer only his own requirements for controlled materials and not those of his suppliers. In no event shall a person who uses this alternative procedure make an allotment of more controlled materials than he has received. All the provisions of this regulation regarding authorized production schedules and allotments shall apply to the alternative procedure for simultaneous allotments, except as specifically provided in this section.

SEC. 17. Restrictions on placing authorized controlled material orders, and on use of allotments and materials. (a) In no event shall a consumer request delivery of any controlled material in a greater amount or on an earlier date than required to fulfill his authorized production schedule, or in an amount so large or on a date so early that receipt of such amount on the requested date would result in his having an inventory of controlled materials in excess of the limitations prescribed by CMP Regulation No. 2 or by any other applicable regulation or order of NPA. If the quantity of any controlled material required by a consumer is less than the minimum mill quantity specified in Schedule IV of this regulation, and is not procurable from a distributor, he may accept delivery of the full minimum shown in such schedule.

(b) No consumer shall use an allotment, or any controlled material or Class A product obtained pursuant to an allotment, for any purpose except: (1) To fulfill the related authorized production schedule, or (2) to fulfill any of his other authorized production schedules for Class A products which bear the same allotment number, or (3) to fulfill any of his other authorized production schedules for Class B products which are in the same Product Class Code as shown in the "Official CMP Class B Product List" issued by NPA, or (4) to replace in inventory, controlled materials or Class A products used to fulfill any of such authorized production schedules, subject to the provisions of CMP Regulation No. 2 or any other applicable regulation or order of NPA. Where an allotment made for one schedule is used in filling another schedule as provided in this paragraph, no charge need be made against the allotment account of the second schedule, but an appropriate record must be made, on the allotment accounts or otherwise, describing the circumstances.

(c) If a consumer's needs for a controlled material or Class A product are reduced before he has ordered or received delivery of them, he must immediately return the allotment as explained in section 18 of this regulation unless he uses the allotment for the purposes permitted in paragraph (b) of this section. If he has already placed authorized controlled material orders or delivery orders for Class A products, he must cancel them. If cancellation of such orders is impracticable because of shipments already made, he may accept delivery of the controlled materials and Class A products, in which case his use of them is covered by paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Unless otherwise provided by NPA, if it develops, after a consumer has received delivery of controlled materials or Class A products pursuant to an allotment, that he cannot use them for a purpose permitted under paragraph (b) of this section, he shall not use or dispose of them except as provided below: (1) He may hold the controlled materials or Class A products in his inventory for use in connection with future authorized production schedules; (2) he may sell or otherwise transfer title to such controlled materials to his original supplier of such controlled materials; (3) he may sell or otherwise transfer title to such steel controlled materials to a steel distributor who has a base tonnage within the meaning of, and who operates under, the provisions of NPA Order M–6A; (4) he may sell or otherwise transfer title to such controlled materials to a person who places an authorized controlled material order with him (including, but not limited to, sales of brass mill products to distributors of brass mill products who place orders in accordance with the provisions of NPA Order M–82, sales of copper wire mill products to distributors of copper wire mill products who place orders in accordance with the provisions of NPA Order M–86, and sales of aluminum to distributors of aluminum who place orders in accordance with the provisions of NPA Order M–88), in which event he (the seller) shall not extend the allotment number identifying such order; or (5) he shall request authorization from NPA or the appropriate Claimant Agency as to any other use or disposition of such controlled materials or Class A products.

(e) When a consumer receives instructions from NPA directing the disposition or use of controlled materials or Class A products, he must comply with such instructions. Also, he must comply with any instructions he receives from a Claimant Agency with respect to his use of controlled materials or Class A products which he obtained by use of an allotment from that Claimant Agency. In any program of the same Claimant Agency, or with respect to their sale to any other person for use in a program of the same Claimant Agency, subject always to whatever rights he may have to reimbursement.

(f) A consumer need not segregate inventories of controlled materials or Class A products which he obtained by use of his allotments, even though different allotment numbers are used in ordering them, nor does he have to earmark them for a particular schedule. Although a consumer must charge the appropriate allotment account when placing an authorized controlled material order or making an allotment, he may keep all controlled materials and Class A products received in a common inventory and in withdrawing from inventory he does not have to charge the withdrawal against the allotment account. A consumer who is operating under several authorized production schedules need not maintain separate records of the production obtained from the allotment received for each schedule if the records which he normally keeps show that his use of material for his respective schedules is substantially proportionate to the amounts of material allotted for each, and that his aggregate production of any product does not exceed the aggregate of the production schedules authorized for that product.

SEC. 18. Adjustments for changes in requirements. (a) If a consumer's requirements for controlled materials or Class A products needed to fulfill an authorized production schedule are increased after he receives his allotment, he may apply for an additional allotment to the person who made the allotment for that schedule.

(b) If a consumer finds that he has been allotted substantially more than he needs, he must return the excess. As of the first of each month, each consumer must check up on his anticipated requirements for the quarter and determine whether he has been allotted more than he anticipates he needs. If he has, he must return the excess by the tenth of the month. He need not take a physical inventory for this purpose, but must check up on the effect of known changes in his requirements or errors which he has discovered in his statement of requirements. As of the end of each quarter, he must determine whether he has used his entire allotment by placing authorized controlled material orders or making allotments to his secondary consumers, and, if he has any excess, he must return it by the tenth day after the close of the quarter.

(c) The return of an unneeded allotment must be made to the person from whom the allotment was received on such form as may be prescribed. If it is impracticable to obtain the prescribed form, the return may be made by letter setting forth the facts.

(d) In those cases where it is impracticable for a secondary consumer to return an allotment to the person from whom he received it, he may make the return directly to the appropriate Claimant Agency or Industry Division.

SEC. 19. How to place orders with controlled materials producers and distributors. (a) A delivery order placed with a controlled materials producer or a controlled materials distributor (as defined in CMP Regulation No. 4) for controlled material shall be deemed an authorized controlled material order only if (1) it contains an allotment number and the calendar quarter for which the allotment is valid, as provided in section 11 of this regulation, and complies with the provisions of this section, or (2) it is specifically designated as an authorized controlled material order by any regulation or order of NPA.

(b) A consumer who has received an allotment may place an authorized controlled material order with any controlled materials supplier unless otherwise specifically directed. An allotment to a prime consumer may include an instruction to place delivery orders for controlled materials with one or more designated controlled materials suppliers. In such event the consumer shall use the allotment only to obtain controlled materials from the designated controlled materials supplier or suppliers or to make allotments to secondary consumers, designating therein only suppliers named in the allotment received by him. Except as required by the allotment which he has received, no consumer shall impose any such restriction in any allotment made by him.

(c) Every authorized controlled material order must contain a certification in addition to specifying the allotment number, the calendar quarter for which the allotment is valid, and the delivery date or dates. Unless another form of certification is specifically prescribed by an applicable order or regulation of NPA, such certification shall be in the following form:

Certified under CMP Regulation No. 1

and shall be signed as provided in NPA Reg. 2. This certification shall constitute a representation that, subject to the criminal penalties provided for in applicable United States statutes, the purchaser has received an allotment of controlled material authorizing him, in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, to place such order, and that the amount ordered is within the related allotment received by him, after he has deducted from such allotment all allotments made by him to secondary consumers and all other orders for controlled material placed by him and accepted by suppliers pursuant to the same allotment.

(d) An authorized controlled material order must be in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and must be received by the controlled materials producer at such time in advance as is specified in Schedule III of this regulation, or at such later time as the controlled materials producer may find it practicable to accept the same, provided that no controlled materials producer shall discriminate between customers in rejecting or accepting late orders.

(e) A delivery order for controlled materials placed by a consumer before he has received his authorized production schedule and allotment, calling for delivery after June 30, 1951, may be converted into an authorized controlled material order, after receipt of such schedule and allotment, either by furnishing a revised copy of the order conforming to the requirements of this section or by furnishing in writing information clearly identifying the order and bearing the certification required by paragraph (c) of this section.

(f) No person shall place an authorized controlled material order unless the amount of controlled material ordered is within the related allotment received by him, after deducting all allotments made by him and all orders for controlled material placed by him pursuant to the same allotment, or unless he is expressly authorized to place such an order by any applicable regulation or order of NPA.

(g) Authorized controlled materials orders shall take precedence over other orders for controlled materials to the extent provided in CMP Regulation No. 3. A delivery order for controlled materials not covered by an allotment shall not be combined with an authorized controlled material order. However, such orders shall be combined if the total of both does not exceed the minimum mill quantity specified in Schedule IV of this regulation, provided that the controlled materials involved are not procurable from a distributor. Where such orders are combined, the portion covered by allotment must be specifically identified by the appropriate allotment number and such delivery order must contain the certification provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

CONTROLLED MATERIALS PRODUCERS

SEC. 20. Rules applicable to controlled materials producers. (a) Each controlled materials producer shall comply with such production and other directives as may be issued from time to time by NPA and with the provisions of all other applicable regulations and orders of NPA regarding production and delivery of controlled materials.

(b) Each controlled materials producer shall accept all (1) authorized controlled material orders, (2) orders which he is required to accept pursuant to any regulation or order of NPA, and (3) orders which he is required to accept pursuant to NPA directive.

(c) A controlled materials producer shall be required to accept orders for controlled materials in conformity with the provisions of this regulation, as the same is or may be modified by the provisions of NPA Order M–1 (steel), NPA Order M–5 (aluminum), NPA Order M–6 (steel), NPA Order M–6A (steel), NPA Order M–11 (copper), NPA Order M–82 (copper), NPA Order M–86 (copper), NPA Order M–88 (aluminum), and NPA Order M–89 (steel, copper, and aluminum), and the directions thereto, or of any other applicable regulation or order of NPA, as the same may be issued or amended from time to time. In no event shall a controlled materials producer accept an authorized controlled material order which calls for delivery in a quarter other than the quarter for which the related allotment is valid.

(d) A controlled materials producer may reject orders in the following cases, but he shall not discriminate between customers in rejecting or accepting such orders:

(1) If the order is one for less than the minimum mill quantity specified in Schedule IV of this regulation.

(2) If the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet such producer's regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment.

(e) In any case where a controlled materials producer is of the opinion that the filling of an order which he is required to accept pursuant to this section would substantially reduce his over-all production owing to the large or small size of the order, unusual specifications, or otherwise, he shall notify the appropriate Controlled Materials Division setting forth the pertinent facts. NPA may direct that the order be placed with another supplier or take other appropriate action.

(f) A controlled materials producer shall make shipment on each authorized controlled material order as close to the requested delivery date as is practicable. He may make shipment during the 15 days prior to the requested delivery month, but not before then, provided such shipment does not interfere with shipment on other authorized controlled material orders, and provided production to meet such shipment would not violate any production directive. If a producer, after accepting an order within the limits provided in this section, finds that, due to contingencies which he could not reasonably have foreseen, he is obliged to postpone the shipment date, he must promptly advise his customer of the approximate date when shipment can be scheduled, and keep his customer advised of any changes in that date. Shipment of any such carry-over order must be scheduled and made in preference to any order originally scheduled for such later date. When the new date for shipment on a carry-over order, originally scheduled for delivery in the fourth calendar quarter of 1951 or in any calendar quarter subsequent thereto, falls within a later quarter than that indicated on the original order, the producer must make shipment on the basis of the original order even if that order shows that the allotment was valid for a quarter earlier than the one in which shipment is actually made, and the customer is not required to charge his allotment for the quarter during which shipment on such carry-over order is actually made.

(g) If a controlled materials producer takes controlled materials which he has produced and processes them into a form other than a controlled materials form, or if he uses controlled materials which he has produced to make a product or a material other than a controlled material, such processing or use shall be considered a delivery for the purposes of this section.

(h) If the controlled material delivered pursuant to an authorized controlled material order varies from the exact amount specified in such order, the making and acceptance of such delivery shall not be deemed a violation of this regulation by the controlled materials producer or his customer, provided such variation does not exceed the commercially recognized shipping tolerance, or allowance for excess or shortage.

(i) An authorized controlled material order shall not constitute an allotment of controlled material to the controlled materials producer with whom it is placed. If a controlled materials producer requires delivery of controlled materials from other controlled materials producers, to be processed by him and sold to his customers in another form or shape constituting a controlled material, such delivery may be made or accepted only pursuant to a specific instruction of NPA, or pursuant to allotment as provided in section 21 of this regulation.

SEC. 21. Production requirements of controlled materials producers. This section provides the procedures under which controlled materials producers may obtain production materials required in the production of controlled materials. For the purposes of this section, "production material" means, with respect to any controlled materials producer, any material (including controlled material) or product which will be physically incorporated into his product, and includes the portion of such material normally consumed or converted into scrap in the course of processing. It includes containers and packaging materials required to make delivery of the materials he produces, and also chemicals used directly in the production of the materials he produces. It does not include any items purchased by him as manufacturing equipment, or for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies as defined in CMP Regulation No. 5.

(a) Except in those cases handled by directives pursuant to section 20 (a) of this regulation, if a controlled materials producer requires delivery, after June 30, 1951, of controlled materials or of Class A products to be incorporated in a controlled material produced by him, he may apply for an allotment on Form CMP–4B or such other form as may be prescribed for the purpose. Such applications shall be sent to the Controlled Materials Division charged with supervision over the operations of the controlled materials producer, even if a different controlled material is involved.

(b) Allotments will be made to controlled materials producers applying under paragraph (a) of this section in the manner provided in section 10 of this regulation, except that in lieu of authorized production schedules, the controlled materials producer will receive from his Controlled Materials Division production instructions or authorizations. Controlled materials producers who have received allotments pursuant to this paragraph may place authorized controlled material orders in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of this regulation.

(c) The self-authorization procedure by which a controlled materials producer obtains production materials (other than controlled materials) is described in Direction 2 to this regulation.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 22. Applicability of other regulations and orders. Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to relieve any person from complying with all other applicable regulations and orders of NPA. In case compliance by any person with the provisions of any such regulation or order would prevent fulfillment of an authorized production schedule, he shall immediately report the matter to the appropriate Industry Division, and to the Claimant Agency whose schedule is affected. NPA will thereupon take such action as is deemed appropriate, but unless and until otherwise expressly authorized or directed by NPA, such person shall comply with the provisions of such regulation or order.

SEC. 23. Records and reports. (a) Each consumer making or receiving any allotment of controlled materials shall maintain at his regular place of business accurate records of all allotments received, of procurement pursuant to all allotments, and of the subdivision of all allotments among his direct secondary consumers. Such records shall be kept separately by allotment numbers, pursuant to section 11 of this regulation, and shall include separate entries under each number for each customer, Claimant Agency, or Industry Division from whom allotments are received under such number, except as otherwise specifically provided in this regulation.

(b) Each consumer and each controlled materials producer shall retain for at least 2 years at his regular place of business all documents on which he relies as entitling him to make or receive an allotment or to deliver or accept delivery of controlled materials or Class A products, segregated and available for inspection by representatives of NPA, or Claimant Agencies authorized by NPA, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection.

(c) The provisions of this regulation do not require any particular accounting method, provided the records maintained supply the information specified by this regulation and furnish an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(d) Persons subject to this regulation shall maintain such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 24. Applications for adjustment or exception. (a) Any person subject to any provision of this regulation, or any other regulation, order, direction, or other action under the Controlled Materials Plan, may file a request for adjustment, exception, or other relief upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests claiming that the public interest is prejudiced, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing submitted in triplicate, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

(b) A producer of Class A products making a large variety of items which are sold to many customers and whose allotments originate from several customers or Claimant Agencies, may file a request to be treated as a producer of Class B products. Such request shall be in writing submitted in triplicate, shall set forth all pertinent facts, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 25. Communications. All communications concerning this regulation, except as otherwise specified in this regulation, shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: CMP Regulation No. 1.

SEC. 26. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this regulation or any other regulation or order of the National Production Authority, or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this regulation, is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This regulation as amended shall take effect November 18, 1952.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
By GEORGE W. AUXIER,
Executive Secretary.

SCHEDULE I TO CMP REGULATION NO. 1—CONTROLLED MATERIALS

(See sections 2 (c) and 2 (j))

["Controlled material" means domestic and imported steel, copper, and aluminum, in the forms and shapes indicated in this schedule, whether new, remelted, rerolled, or redrawn, including used and second-quality materials, shearings, and material sorted or salvaged from scrap which are sold for other than remelting, rerolling, or redrawing purposes.]

CARBON STEEL (INCLUDING WROUGHT IRON)[1]

(a) Bar, bar shapes.
Includes:
Bar, hot-rolled, stock for projectile and shell bodies.[2]
Bar, hot-rolled, other (including light shapes).
Bar, reinforcing (straight lengths—as rolled).
Bar, cold-finished.

(b) Sheet, strip (uncoated and coated).
Includes:
Sheet, hot-rolled.
Sheet, cold-rolled.
Sheet, galvanized.
Sheet, all other coated.
Sheet, enameling.
Roofing, galvanized, corrugated, V-crimped channel drains.
Ridge roll, valley, and flashing.
Siding, corrugated and brick.
Strip, hot-rolled.
Strip, cold-rolled.
Strip, galvanized.
Electrical sheet and strip.
Tin mill black plate.
Tin plate, hot-dipped.
Ternes, special coated manufacturing.
Tin plate, electrolytic.

(c) Plate.[3]

(d) Structural shapes,[4] piling.

(e) Pipe, tubing.[5]
Includes:
Standard pipe (including type of couplings furnished by mill).[6]
Oil country goods (casings, tubular goods, type of couplings furnished by mill).
Line pipe (including type of couplings furnished by mill).
Pressure tubing—seamless and welded.
Mechanical tubing—seamless and welded.

(f) Wire, wire products.
Includes:
Wire—drawn.
Nails—bright steel wire, steel cut, galvanized, cement-coated, and painted.
Spikes and brads—steel wire, galvanized, and cement-coated.
Staples, bright and galvanized (farm and poultry).
Wire rope and strand.
Welded wire mesh and woven wire netting.
Barbed and twisted wire.
Wire fence, woven and welded (farm and poultry).
Bale ties.
Coiled automatic baler wire.

(g) Tool steel (including die blocks and tool steel forgings).

(h) Other mill forms and products (not including forgings except for wheels).
Includes:
Ingots.
Billets, shell quality for body stock only.[7]
Billets, shell quality for component parts and rockets.
Blooms, slabs, other billets, tube rounds, sheet bars.
Skelp.
Wire rod.
Rails.
Joint bars (track).
Tie plates (track).
Track spikes.
Wheels, rolled or forged (railroad).
Axles (railroad).

(i) Castings (not including cast iron).

ALLOY STEEL[8] (EXCEPT STAINLESS STEEL)

(a) Bar, bar shapes.
Includes:
Bar, hot-rolled projectile and shell quality.
Bar, hot-rolled, other (including light shapes).
Bar, cold-finished.

[1] For the purpose of this schedule "carbon steel (including wrought iron)" means any steel customarily so classified and also includes: (1) All grades of electrical sheets and strip; (2) low-alloy, high-strength steels; and (3) clad and coated carbon steels not included with alloy steels; e. g., galvanized, tin, terne, copper (excluding copper wire mill products) or aluminum clad and/or coated carbon steels. "Low-alloy, high-strength steels" means only the proprietary grades promoted and sold for this purpose.

[2] Includes projectile body stock, sizes under 2⅞ inches and component parts, all sizes.

[3] Carbon plates not only include the following minimum size specifications, but also floor plates of any thickness:

0.180 inch or thicker, over 48 inches wide.
0.230 inch or thicker, over 6 inches wide.
7.53 pounds per square foot or heavier, over 48 inches wide.
9.62 pounds per square foot or heavier, over 6 inches wide.

[4] "Structural shapes" means rolled flanged sections having at least one dimension of their cross section 3 inches or greater, commonly referred to as angles, channels, beams, and wide flange sections.

[5] For operations relating to allotments and deliveries of controlled materials beginning with the first calendar quarter of 1953, steel pipe or tubing exceeding 36 inches O. D. is not a controlled material, but is a Class A product.

[6] Standard pipe includes the following:

Ammonia pipe.
Bedstead tubing.
Driven well pipe.
Drive pipe.
Dry kiln pipe.
Dry pipe for locomotives.
English gas and steam pipe.
Furniture pipe.
Ice machine pipe.
Mechanical service pipe.
Nipple pipe.
Pipe for piling.
Pipe for plating and enameling.
Pump pipe.
Signal pipe.
Standard pipe coupling.
Structural pipe.
Turbine pump pipe.
Water main pipe.
Water well casing.
Water well reamed and drifted pipe.

[7] Includes only projectile body stock, sizes 2⅞ inches and larger, rounds, and round-cornered squares.

[8] For purposes of this schedule "alloy steel" means steel containing 50 percent or more of iron or steel and any one or more of the following elements in the following amounts: Manganese, maximum of range in excess of 1.65 percent; silicon, maximum of range in excess of 0.60 percent (excepting electrical sheets and strip); copper, maximum of range in excess of 0.60 percent; aluminum, boron, chromium, cobalt, columbium, molybdenum, nickel, tantalum, titanium, tungsten, vanadium, zirconium, or any other alloying elements in any amount specified or known to have been added to obtain a desired alloying effect. Clad steels which have an alloy steel base or carbon steel for which nickel and/or chromium is contained in the coating or cladding material (e. g., inconel, monel, or stainless) are alloy steels.

(b) Sheet, strip.
Includes:
Sheet, hot-rolled.
Sheet, cold-rolled.
Sheet, galvanized.
Strip, hot-rolled.
Strip, cold-rolled.
(c) Plate.[9]
Includes:
Rolled armor.
Other.
(d) Structural shapes.[4]
(e) Pipe, tubing.[5]
Includes:
Oil-country goods.
Pressure tubing—seamless and welded.
Mechanical tubing—seamless and welded.
(f) Wire.
(g) Tool steel (including die blocks and tool steel forgings).
(h) Other mill forms and products (not including forgings except for wheels).
Includes:
Ingots.
Billets, projectile and shell quality.
Blooms, slabs, other billets, tube rounds sheet bars.
Wire rods.
Rails.
Wheels, rolled or forged (railroad).
Axles (railroad).
(i) Castings.

STAINLESS STEEL [10]
(a) Seamless tubing.[5]
(b) Other mill forms and products (not including forgings).
Includes:
Bar, bar shapes (including light shapes).
Includes:
Bar, hot-rolled (including light shapes).
Bar, cold-finished.
Sheet, strip.
Includes:
Sheet, hot-rolled.
Sheet, cold-rolled.
Strip, hot-rolled.
Strip, cold-rolled.
Plate.[11]
Structural shapes.[4]
Tubing (except seamless).[5]
Wire, wire products.
Includes:
Wire, drawn.
Wire rope and strand.
Welded wire mesh and woven wire netting.
Ingots, blooms, billets, tube rounds, sheet bars, wire rods.
(c) Castings.[12]

[9] Alloy steel plates include the following size specifications:

0.180 inch or thicker, over 48 inches wide.
0.230 inch or thicker, over 12 inches wide.
7.53 pounds per square foot or heavier, over 48 inches wide.
9.62 pounds per square foot or heavier, over 12 inches wide.

[10] "Stainless steel" means heat- and corrosion-resisting steel containing 50 percent or more of iron or steel and 10 percent or more of chromium whether with or without nickel, molybdenum, or other elements. However, stainless steel containing less than 1 percent nickel is not a controlled material, nor is it a Class A or a Class B product.

[11] Stainless steel plates include the following size specifications: 3/16 inch (0.1875) or thicker, over 10 inches wide.

[12] "Stainless steel castings" means any steel casting which is heat- corrosion- or abrasion-resistant, containing 50 percent or more of iron and 8 percent or more of chromium with or without nickel, molybdenum, or other alloying elements.

COPPER AND COPPER-BASE ALLOY BRASS MILL PRODUCTS [13]
Copper (unalloyed):
(a) Bar, rod, shapes, wire (except electrical wire).
(b) Sheet, strip, plate, rolls.
(c) Pipe, tubing (seamless).
Copper-base alloy: [14]
(d) Bar, rod, wire, shapes.
(e) Sheet, strip, plate, rolls, military ammunition cups and discs.
(f) Pipe, tubing (seamless).

COPPER WIRE MILL PRODUCTS
All copper wire and cable for electrical conduction including but not limited to:
Bare and tinned.
Weatherproof.
Magnet wire.
Insulated building wire.
Paper and lead power cable.
Paper and lead telephone cable.
Asbestos cable.
Portable and flexible cord and cable.
Communication wire and cable.
Shipboard cable.
All copper wire and cable for electrical conduction including but not limited to—Continued
Automotive and aircraft wire and cable.
Insulated power cable.
Signal and control cable.
Coaxial cable.
Copper-clad steel wire containing over 20 percent copper by weight regardless of end use.

COPPER AND COPPER-BASE ALLOY FOUNDRY PRODUCTS AND POWDER
Includes:
Copper, brass, and bronze castings.[15]
Copper, brass, and bronze powder.

ALUMINUM [16]
Rolled bar, rod, wire (including drawn wire), structural shapes.
Aluminum cable steel reinforced (ACSR) and bare aluminum cable.
Insulated or covered wire or cable.
Extruded bar, rod, shapes, tubing (including drawn or welded tubing).
Sheet, strip, plate.
Pig or ingot, granular or shot.

SCHEDULE II TO CMP REGULATION NO. 1—SHORT FORM OF ALLOTMENT

(See section 12 (f).)

Controlled material	Allotment (specify short tons or pounds)
	....Quarter 195..	....Quarter 195..	....Quarter 195..	....Quarter 195..
Carbon steel (including wrought iron)
Alloy steel (except stainless steel)
Stainless steel
Copper and copper-base alloy brass mill products
Copper wire mill products
Copper and copper-base alloy foundry products and powder
Aluminum

Allotment No.---------- ----------
Signature and title
Date----------

Above allotments are made for use in filling this delivery order in compliance with CMP Regulation No. 1.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR USE OF SHORT FORM OF ALLOTMENT—FORM CMP-5

The above short form of allotment may be used by any consumer who has received an allotment for the purpose of making an allotment to a secondary consumer producing Class A products for him. The short form of allotment must be either placed on or physically attached to the delivery order calling for delivery of the Class A products. If it is attached, the delivery order number or other identification must be indicated on the form.

The form must be signed by an authorized official of the consumer making the allotment, but need not be separately signed if it is placed on the delivery order in such a position that the signature of the delivery order by such an authorized official clearly applies to the allotment as well as to the order itself.

The size of the form may be varied, but all information called for by the form must be supplied and the general arrangement and wording of the form must be followed.

[13] Includes anodes—rolled, forged, or sheared from cathodes.

[14] "Copper-base alloy" means any alloy in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal equals or exceeds 40 percent by weight of the metallic content of the alloy. It does not include alloyed gold produced in accordance with U. S. Commercial Standard CS 67-38.

[15] Cast copper and copper-base alloy shapes or forms suitable for ultimate use without remelting, rolling, drawing, extruding, or forging. (The process of casting includes the removal of gates, risers, and sprues, and sandblasting, tumbling, and dipping, but does not include any further machining or processing. For centrifugal castings the process includes the removal of the rough cut in the inner and/or outer diameter before delivery to a customer). Castings include anodes cast in a foundry or by an ingot maker.

[16] Aluminum foil and aluminum powder (atomized or flake, including paste) are not controlled materials or Class A or Class B products.

SCHEDULE III TO CMP REGULATION NO. 1—TIME FOR PLACING AUTHORIZED CONTROLLED MATERIAL ORDERS—Continued

Name of product [1]	Number of days in advance of first day of month in which shipment is required
	Steel				Aluminum and copper
	Carbon	Low-alloy high-strength	Stainless	Alloy [2]
Aluminum:
Rolled bar, rod, wire (including drawn wire)					60
Aluminum cable steel reinforced (ACSR) and bare aluminum cable					60
Insulated or covered wire or cable					60
Extended bar, rod, shapes, tubing (including drawn or welded tubing)					60
Sheet, strip, plate					60
Pig or ingot, granular or shot					60

[1] See definitions contained in footnotes to Schedule I of this regulation.
[2] For orders calling for delivery on or after April 1, 1953, for clad products, add 45 days to lead time indicated.
[3] If annealed or heat-treated, add an additional 15 days.
[4] For electrical sheets and strip, use this table.

Grade	Lead time	Definition
Low	45	AISI M50, M43, M36.
Medium	45	AISI M27, M22, M19.
High	60	AISI M17, M15, M14, and oriented.

[1] Rolled armor plate is subject to negotiation between mill and its customer. If no acceptable arrangements are worked out, NPA should be notified.
[2] Applies to special rolled shapes including angles and channels.
[3] For welded tubing, 75 days.
[4] If cold-finished, add an additional 15 days.
[5] Lead time applies to unmachined castings after approval of patterns for production.
[6] For refractory alloys, 60 days.
[7] Small simple castings to fit 12x16 inch flask, 7 days.

SCHEDULE IV TO CMP REGULATION NO. 1—MINIMUM MILL QUANTITIES

(See sections 17 (a), 19 (g), and 20 (d))

Name of product [1]	Minimum quantity for each size and grade of any item for mill shipment at any one time to any one destination
	Steel [2]		Aluminum and copper (pounds)
	Carbon	Alloy
Steel:
Bar, bar shapes (including light shapes):
Bar, hot-rolled projectile and shell quality	(3)	(3)
Bar, hot-rolled, other (including light shapes):
Round bars up to and including 3 inches, and squares, hexagons, half rounds, ovals, etc., of approximately equivalent section area—net tons	5	5
Round and square bars over 3 inches to, but not including, 8 inches—net tons	15	15
Bar-size shapes (angles, tees, channels, and zees under 3 inches)—net tons	5	5
Bar, reinforcing (straight lengths, as rolled)—net tons	5	5
Bar, cold-finished—net tons	5	(3)
Sheet, strip (uncoated and coated):
Sheet, hot-rolled—net tons	5	(3)
Sheet, cold-rolled	(3)
Sheet, galvanized	(3)
Sheet, all other coated	(3)
Sheet, enameling	(3)
Roofing, galvanized, corrugated, V-crimped channel drains	(3)
Ridge roll, valley, and flashing	(3)
Siding, corrugated and brick—net tons	3	(3)
Strip, hot-rolled—net tons	3	(3)
Strip, cold-rolled	(3)
Strip, galvanized	(3)
Electrical sheet and strip—pounds	5,000
Tin mill black plate—pounds	5,000
Tin plate, hot-dipped—pounds	5,000
Ternes, special coated manufacturing—pounds	5,000
Tin plate, electrolytic	(3)	(3)
Plate:
Rolled armor—net tons	10	(3)
Continuous strip mill production—net tons	3	(3)
Sheared, universal, or bar mill production	(3)	(3)
Structural shapes, piling	(4)	(4)
Pipe, tubing:
Standard pipe (including couplings furnished by mill)	(4)	(4)
Oil country goods (casings, tubular goods, couplings furnished by mill)	(4)	(4)
Line pipe (including couplings furnished by mill)	(4)	(4)
Pressure and mechanical tubing (seamless and welded):
Seamless cold-drawn (O. D. in inches):
Up to ¾ inclusive—feet	1,000	1,000
Over ¾ to 1½ inclusive—feet	800	800
Over 1½ to 3 inclusive—feet	600	600
Over 3 to 6 inclusive—feet	400	400
Over 6—feet	250	250
Seamless hot-rolled	(3)	(3)
Welded	(3)	(3)

TITLE 35—PANAMA CANAL

Chapter I—Canal Zone Regulations

PART 24—SANITATION, HEALTH, AND QUARANTINE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Governor by Rule 119qq of Executive Order No. 4314 of September 25, 1925, as amended by Canal Zone Order No. 15 of July 15, 1948 (35 CFR 24.102), §§ 24.102a, 24.102b, and 24.102c of Title 35, Code of Federal Regulations, are amended as follows:

1. Section 24.102a is amended by deleting Mexico from, and by adding Canada, Island of Jersey, and Norway to, the list of designated countries in which it is determined that foot-and-mouth disease or rinderpest exists.

2. Section 24.102b is amended by substituting "3 days" for "7 days", and by deleting the words "by the application of dry salt or by soaking in a solution of salt", both changes being in paragraph (b) of said section.

3. Section 24.102c is amended by deleting the works "milk, cheese, or other dairy products that have not been pasteurized", and the words "other products used for feeding".

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter II—Federal Maritime Board, Maritime Administration, Department of Commerce

Subchapter B—Regulations Affecting Maritime Carriers

[General Order 76]

PART 236—STEAMSHIP CONFERENCES USING CONTRACT/NON-CONTRACT RATES

Sec.
236.1 Filing for current contract/non-contract rates.
236.2 Filing for increases in differentials.
236.3 Filing for initiation of contract/non-contract rates.
236.4 Waiver of filing.
236.5 Form of filing.
236.6 Notice.

AUTHORITY: §§ 236.1 to 236.6 issued under sec. 204, 49 Stat. 1987, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 1114. Interpret or apply sec. 15, 39 Stat. 733 as amended; 46 U. S. C. 814.

Whereas, the Federal Maritime Board published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 31, 1952 (17 F. R. 7020) a notice of proposed rule of procedure pertaining to the use of contract/non-contract rates by steamship conferences to become effective as of a date to be specified in such rule if adopted by the Board; and

Whereas, the Board granted interested parties an opportunity to submit written statements and comments on said rule within 30 days of the publication of said notice, and thereafter at the request of interested parties extended the time therefor until September 19, 1952; and

Whereas, the Board granted interested parties, at their request, an opportunity to be heard at an oral argument before the Board on October 16, 1952; and

Whereas, after consideration of the written statements and comments submitted and oral argument as aforesaid, and in the light thereof, the Board has adopted the rule of procedure hereinafter set forth; and

Whereas, in view of the time and opportunity to be heard afforded all interested parties, and the necessity for prompt and uniform treatment of steamship conferences using contract/non-contract rates, the Board finds that it is in the public interest to make said rule effective upon the publication thereof.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (46 U. S. C. 814), section 204 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended (46 U. S. C. 1114), and sections 3 and 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1002, 1003), the following rule of procedure shall be effective as of the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER:[1]

§ 236.1 Filing for current contract/non-contract rates. Steamship freight conferences having in effect contract/non-contract rates on the effective date of this part shall file with the Federal Maritime Board within 90 days after the effective date of this part a statement containing:

(a) The date when contract/non-contract rates were first established by the conference;

(b) The amount of the spread or differential between current contract/non-contract rates stated in terms of percentages or dollars and cents;

(c) The reasons for the use of the current contract/non-contract rates in the particular trade involved, and the basis for the current spread or differential between such rates; and

(d) Copies of the form of all contracts pertaining to such current rates.

§ 236.2. Filing for increases in differentials. Steamship freight conferences now or hereafter having in effect contract/non-contract rates shall file with the Federal Maritime Board at least 30 days prior to initiating any increase in the spread or differential between such rates, a statement containing:

(a) The amount of increase in the spread or differential and the total proposed spread or differential in terms of percentages or dollars and cents;

(b) The effective date;

(c) The reasons for the increase in the spread or differential; and

(d) Copies of the form of any changed contract provisions relating to such increase in spread or differential.

As used in this section, an "increase in the spread or differential" shall be deemed only to mean an increase in the percentage of a spread or differential between rates if such spread or differential has been established in terms of percentages, or an increase in the dollars and cents amount of the spread or differential if such spread or differential has been established in terms of dollars and cents.

§ 236.3 Filing for initiation of contract/non-contract rates. Steamship freight conferences proposing to establish contract/non-contract rates to become effective after the effective date of this part shall file with the Federal Maritime Board at least 30 days prior to the initiation of such rates, a statement containing:

(a) The amount of the spread or differential in terms of percentages or dollars and cents;

(b) The effective date;

(c) The reasons for the use of contract/non-contract rates in the particular trade involved, and the basis for the spread or differential between such rates; and

(d) Copies of the form of all contracts pertaining thereto.

Contract/non-contract rates for a commodity as to which such rates have previously been in effect and discontinued shall not be deemed to be newly established contract/non-contract rates within the meaning of this section if such contract/non-contract rates are again made effective by the conference without increase in spread or differential and within 12 months after discontinuance.

§ 236.4 Waiver of filing. Upon a showing of good and sufficient cause, the time within which to file the foregoing statements may be shortened or extended, or such other action taken with respect thereto, as the Board may consider to be in the public interest and not detrimental to the commerce of the United States.

§ 236.5 Form of filing. The information referred to in §§ 236.1 to 236.4, inclusive, shall be submitted to the Federal Maritime Board in the form of a verified original statement duly executed by an authorized official of the conference, together with 15 conformed copies thereof. Conferences complying with this part may from time to time amend or amplify statements submitted pursuant thereto in a manner not inconsistent with prior compliance therewith.

§ 236.6 Notice. All information filed pursuant to this part shall be available for inspection by interested parties at the Regulation Office of the Board. A notice of the filing of the statement required under §§ 236.2 and 236.3 will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as soon as practicable. Except as may be otherwise provided in cases arising under § 236.4, interested parties shall have twenty (20) days after the date of such publication within which to submit written comments relating to the information filed with the Board pursuant to this part. Said comments may include a statement of position with respect to approval, disapproval or modification, together with a request for hearing, should such hearing be desired.

Dated: November 10, 1952.

By the Federal Maritime Board.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 10209]

PART 8—STATIONS ON SHIPBOARD IN THE MARITIME SERVICE

ASSIGNMENT OF SHIP TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE FREQUENCIES

In the matter of amendment of Part 8 of the Commission's rules regarding the assignment of calling frequencies to ship stations using telegraphy in the bands between 4000 and 23000 kc.; amendment of Part 8 of the Commission's rules to provide a plan of assignment of all assignable ship telegraph frequencies between 2000, and 23000 kc and ship telephone frequencies between 4000 and 23000 kc.; Docket No. 10209.

These proceedings were instituted on May 28, 1952, by notice of proposed rule making (Docket 10209), seeking to implement one phase of the Atlantic City Radio Regulations (1947) and the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference (Geneva, 1951) by proposing an assignment scheme for ship telegraph high frequency calling frequencies based upon call sign blocks. By further notice of proposed rule making adopted August 13, 1952, an alternative scheme of assignment was proposed, based upon a "company - by - company" assignment plan, and at the same time the proceeding was enlarged in scope to include all assignable ship telegraph frequencies (working, as well as calling) between 2000 and 23000 kc, and also assignable ship telephone frequencies between 4000 and 23000 kc.

The prompt adoption of one plan or the other, or some modification thereof, is essential to the full implementation of Article 33 of the Atlantic City Radio Regulations, which among other things requires that ship radio-telegraph frequencies be assigned "in accordance with an orderly system of rotation", thus assuring a uniform dispersion of assignments throughout the high frequency ship bands.

Under the "company-by-company" assignment plan, as set forth in the Appendix to the Commission's further notice of proposed rule making in Docket 10209, ship telegraph calling frequencies, together with passenger and cargo ship working frequencies, were arranged in harmonically related series, and each column headed by a symbol to be used in applying for and licensing these series of frequencies. All ship telephone frequencies between 4 and 22 Mc were listed under one symbol, for the reason that all HF radiotelephone ships will be licensed for the same frequencies, and the particular frequency used at any time will be determined by the coast station with which communication is established. The essence of the "company-by-company" assignment plan is to set aside for each major licensee a number of frequency columns roughly proportional to the number of ships served by that licensee, frequency columns normally to be applied for in rotation, but only as to those columns reserved for the particular licensee.

It is the Commission's belief that the "company-by-company" assignment plan comes as close to meeting the principle of rotational assignment as any other administratively workable plan, and in addition has certain distinct advantages both to licensees and to the Commission. Ship licensees will be able to predict with certainty which columns of frequencies will be assigned to them, and as a result future orders for crystals and other equipment can be placed well in advance of the frequency changes required. Moreover, equipment could be installed, set up, and tested by the licensee on dummy antennas prior to receipt of license. The Commission, on the other hand, can simplify its licensing procedures by the use of frequency column symbols, in lieu of the actual listing of frequencies that would otherwise be necessary on each license.

In response to its notice and further notice of proposed rule making in Docket 10209, written comments were submitted by the following persons:

National Federation of American Shipping, Inc., hereinafter identified as the Federation.
R. A. Gartman, co-owner, Mobile Marine Radio (WLO).
Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company, Inc., hereinafter identified as Mackay.

In a letter dated June 26, 1952, the Federation requested that consideration be given to the inclusion of 2 Mc band calling frequencies in the overall assignment plan for the reason that those frequencies are harmonically related to ship calling frequencies in the bands between 4 and 23 Mc. Because the issues raised in Docket 10209 were subsequently broadened to include an orderly assignment plan for all ship telegraph frequencies between 2 and 23 Mc, that request is presumed to have been met.

However, in response to the Commission's further notice of proposed rule making the Federation, while expressing agreement with the "general approach" as set forth in the "company-by-company" assignment plan, asserted that the "complete division" of passenger ship frequencies among various licensees "may not meet the needs of certain vessels . . . We (therefore) request that the Commission hold open this portion of its rule making for an additional thirty (30) days." This request was followed up by a statement expressing the opinion that the Commission's plan will not provide a sufficient number of passenger ship working frequencies for large vessels operated by licensees to whom only a limited number of frequencies has been made available. The Commission sees little merit in this contention, since experience shows that the largest vessels are normally licensed in the names of companies to whom the largest number of frequencies has been allocated under the plan. Moreover, it is difficult, in the Commission's judgment, to reconcile the Federation's proposal with the principle of rotational assignment mandated in Article 33 of the Atlantic City Radio Regulations. This matter will be reexamined by the Commission from time to time as circumstances warrant. In the meantime, there appears to be no compelling reason for delaying the adoption of the report and order merely to permit a more extended consideration of this particular problem.

The Federation also desires that frequency assignments be considered "permanent" to each particular vessel, regardless of changes in the identity of the licensee, unless a specific change of frequency is requested by the owner. In this connection, the "company-by-company" assignment plan, as originally proposed, sought only to provide an initial framework within which assignments could be made. The plan was not necessarily intended to require vessels subsequently relicensed in the name of a different communications company to be compelled thereby to operate on different frequencies. In order to assure the uniform dispersion of assignments throughout all assignable bands, the Commission will periodically re-examine the actual assignment pattern, with a view to taking whatever corrective action may become necessary.

The Federation also stresses the "operational necessity" of some steamship companies for high frequency ship-to-ship intercommunication on a common working frequency among vessels of the same fleet. In support of this request, it is said that the comparative absence of high frequency coast stations in South America and elsewhere sometimes necessitates ship-to-ship "relaying" of essential messages to shore points by means of frequencies in the intermediate band. In this connection, the Federation claims that the Commission's plan discriminates against shipping companies who buy radio service from the major radio licensees, and in favor of companies who obtain licenses in their own names and who will "automatically receive what amounts to a common or fleet frequency." In answer to this contention, it might be observed that so long as each licensee keeps an approximately equal distribution of its vessels on each of the frequencies set aside for it in the assignment plan, the licensee is at liberty to group vessels of one line on one or more frequency series. In other words, the Commission has no objection to a reasonable degree of administrative latitude in the selection of frequencies within the assignment plan, provided that the principle of rotation is generally observed. The language of the Appendix set forth below embodying the plan has been modified accordingly to clarify this point.

Finally, it is urged that at least two cargo working frequencies should be made common to the two major marine licensees, RMCA and Mackay, for the benefit of those few steamship companies requiring a common fleet frequency, but whose vessels are divided between the two radio companies. In this connection, it is believed that in view of the small number of shipping companies in this category, the public interest would not be served by disturbing the overall assignment pattern merely to meet the operating convenience of shippers who, it appears, could achieve the same result by the cooperative designation of adjacent working frequencies.

The Federation also directed the Commission's attention to certain typographical errors in the plan as originally proposed. The attached frequency tables have been accordingly amended.

Written comments by R. A. Gartman, received by the Commission on September 30, 1952, puts forward an alternative plan under which ship calling frequency columns would be assigned geographically in a manner roughly proportional to the known volume of traffic handled in each region (viz., Atlantic, Gulf and Pacific). In support of this proposal, the respondent states that coast station operators, presently overworked in some areas, would be relieved of maintaining watch on as many frequencies as will otherwise be necessary. (Coast stations manned by only one operator must normally rely either on gang tuning or the use of numerous receivers to maintain a proper watch on ship telegraph calling frequencies.)

While the geographic concept of assigning calling frequency columns is not without merit, the adoption of such a plan would have to be worked out in detail and coordinated with foreign administrations prior to implementation by any single power. Such coordination would be necessary by reason of the fact that ships of United States registry work foreign coast stations routinely; conversely, ships of foreign registration will seek to establish communication with United States coast stations on the new HF telegraph frequencies upon the effective dates of the Atlantic City and Geneva Agreements. The necessity of timely implementation of these agreements does not permit a more extended consideration of this proposal at this time.

Mackay indicated no objection to the Commission's "company-by-company" assignment plan, provided that "once frequencies have been assigned to a particular vessel it will be optional with any new licensee whether or not new frequencies shall be applied for and (assigned)." As has already been pointed out in connection with the Federation's comments in this proceeding, the Commission has no objection to the retention of frequencies assigned under this plan by vessels eventually relicensed to a different licensee. On the contrary, it is believed that in such instances the retention of the frequencies first assigned will tend more to preserve the initial balancing of assignments under the plan than if different frequencies were assigned. As hereinbefore suggested, the Commission's proposed assignment plan was somewhat ambiguous in this respect, and Appendix set forth below has been modified accordingly.

Information reaching the Commission subsequent to issuance of its further notice of proposed rule making necessitates the designation of certain frequencies for occupancy by United States Government stations. Frequency columns identified by the following symbols are therefore deleted in their entirety from the assignment plan as originally set forth:

P–1, P–14, P–15—Passenger working.
F–49—Cargo working, A and B.
C–1—Calling.

These deletions are reflected in Table 2 set forth below.

In view of the foregoing considerations and determinations, and pursuant to the authority contained in sections 4 (i), 301 and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended: It is ordered, This 3d day of November 1952, that:

(1) The foregoing report is adopted.

(2) Part 8—Stations on Shipboard in the Maritime Services, is amended by inclusion of the Appendix set forth below and all tables appended thereto, effective January 1, 1953.

(3) The proceedings in Docket 10209 are hereby terminated and concluded.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies secs. 301, 303, 48 Stat. 1081, 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 301, 303)

Released: November 10, 1952.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

Amend Part 8, Stations on Shipboard in the Maritime Services, to add Appendix III:

APPENDIX III—TABLES OF SHIP RADIOTELEGRAPH FREQUENCIES FROM 2000 KC TO 23,000 KC AND SHIP RADIOTELEPHONE FREQUENCIES FROM 4000 KC TO 23,000 KC

Table 1–a—Passenger ship radiotelegraph working frequencies between 2 Mc and 23 Mc.

Table 1–b—Ship radiotelegraph calling frequencies between 2 Mc and 23 Mc.

Table 1–c—Cargo ship [telegraph] working frequencies between 2 Mc and 23 Mc.

Table 2—Ship radiotelegraph frequency assignment plan.

Table 3—Ship radiotelephone frequencies between 4 Mc and 23 Mc.

The following procedures and tables may be used in applying for license for the frequencies listed in Tables 1 and 3 only insofar as the frequencies listed therein are consistent with the implementation and the effective dates of the Geneva Agreement (1951) and the other provisions of the Commission's rules which make frequencies available for assignment to Ship stations. Frequencies assigned in accordance with this Appendix to a station on a particular vessel may be retained at the option of the applicant despite subsequent relicensing of the station to a different licensee. Frequencies appearing in the attached tables may only be used in the manner and to the extent permitted elsewhere in this part.

Ship radiotelegraph frequency columns appearing in Tables 1–a, 1–b, and 1–c designated by the symbols P1, P14, P15, C1 and F49 contain frequencies in the 4, 6, 8, 12, 16 and 22 Mc bands which are not available for assignment by the Commission. These frequencies are required for assignment exclusively to U. S. Government ship stations. The remaining 2 Mc frequencies (2067.5, 2085, 2087.5, 2089, and 2106 kc), when assigned, will not be designated by frequency column symbols.

Radiotelegraph, 2000 kc to 23,000 kc. The applicant must consult Table 2, below to find out which frequency column symbols have been allocated for ships licensed to him. The frequencies designated by the symbols shown in Table 2 may be determined from Table 1, which lists all of the frequencies in each series, designated by a frequency column symbol.

Calling frequencies. Application may be made for one calling frequency column symbol from the "C" series, which represents one frequency in each of the 2, 4, 6, 8, 12, 16, and 22 Mc bands, for each ship. If more than one symbol of the "C" series is allocated for a particular licensee, the general principle to follow is to apply for the first vessel under the first symbol, the second symbol for the second vessel, etc., until the allocated symbols are exhausted. The procedure is then repeated, beginning again with the first symbol. Application for frequency column symbol C5 may additionally be made for vessels having life boats or other survival craft equipped for high frequency radio transmission for use of those frequencies by equipment aboard such lifeboats or survival craft.

Cargo ship working frequencies. Application may be made for one cargo working frequency column symbol, from the "F" series, for each cargo ship, which will include one frequency from the 2 Mc and two frequencies each from the 4, 6, 8, 12, 16 and 22 Mc bands. If more than one symbol of the "F" series is allocated for a particular licensee, the frequency symbols should be applied for in rotation for successive vessels as for calling frequencies.

Passenger ship working frequencies. Application may be made for the number of passenger ship working frequencies which, in the best judgment of the applicant, will be essential for the traffic volume of the particular vessel. The frequency column symbols shall be taken from the "P" series, with a minimum of two symbols. If more than two symbols of the "P" series are allocated for a particular licensee, the frequency symbols should be applied for in rotation for successive vessels as for calling frequencies, except that the first symbol for each vessel must be the one after the last of the series of two or more symbols of the previous vessel.

High frequency (Long distance) radiotelephone. Application for all frequencies contained in Table 3 may be made for vessels capable of radiotelephone transmissions on any of these frequencies by designating the frequency column symbol "R1" in the application.

[1] See footnotes [1] and [2] in Table 1–b, "Ship Radiotelegraph Calling Frequencies", above.

[2] Applicants other than the above listed companies must apply for the frequency column symbols shown, in alphabetic groups according to the first letter of their name. As an example, if the applicant's name begins with A, B, or C, he may apply only for frequency column symbols C8, P5, and P9, for a passenger ship, or C8 and F22 for a cargo ship. (Frequency symbol C5 may also be requested if lifeboats or other survival craft are radio equipped.) For this purpose, the alphabetic group of first letters of the name will be selected by using the first word of a trade name omitting "The"; the last name of a personal name; or the last name of the first person appearing in a series of personal names. As examples, the following names would all apply for the third, or "M" group; C8 P5 and P9 or F30. Marine Communications, Inc.; A. B. Miller and Co.; C. D. Munsey, E. F. Murphy, Alfred Abrams, et al.

NOTE: The frequencies represented by Symbols C1, P1, P14, P15 and F49 are not available for assignment under this plan.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR Part 925]

[Docket No. AO-226-A3]

HANDLING OF MILK IN PUGET SOUND, WASHINGTON, MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND A PROPOSED ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Seattle, Washington, on March 11-14, 1952.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on July 21, 1952, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision. Notice of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 24, 1952 (17 F. R. 6777).

The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision (F. R. Doc. 52-8131, 17 F. R. 6777) are hereby approved and adopted as the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein subject to the following revisions:

1. Delete the words "September-December" in line 11 of the first paragraph beginning in column 3, 17 F. R. 6778 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) and substitute therefor the words "August-December."

2. Delete the last sentence of the first paragraph beginning in column 3, 17 F. R. 6778 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) and substitute therefor the following: "Bases so computed would be in effect from February through July of the following year. The addition of August to the base-forming period should reduce the possibility, as referred to by producer representatives, that a substantial decrease in production might result during the month of August from the efforts of producers to increase late fall deliveries, causing a market shortage in such month."

3. Delete in the second paragraph beginning in column 3, 17 F. R. 6778 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) the words "February through August" and substitute therefor the words "February through July."

4. Delete from the last sentence beginning in column 2, 17 F. R. 6779 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) the word "seven" and substitute therefor the word "six."

5. Delete the first paragraph beginning in column 2, 17 F. R. 6781 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) and substitute therefor the following:

As a corollary change the provisions of the order governing the movements of skim milk and butterfat among plants have been revised.

6. Add at the end of the second paragraph beginning in column 3, 17 F. R. 6782 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) the following: "However, the record indicates the propriety of including in Class I milk the fluid products known as concentrated milk, concentrated flavored milk and concentrated flavored milk drink when distributed without sterilization. Milk for such uses must be produced under the same health requirements as whole milk for consumption in fluid form. The subject products are primarily intended as beverages and the costs attendant to the production of the milk used therein are similar to those incurred in the production of whole milk for fluid consumption. They are a ready substitute for the latter. Class I milk, on the other hand, should not include the products commonly known as evaporated milk, condensed milk, and condensed skim milk which may be manufactured from milk not meeting such inspection standards."

7. Delete from line 28 of the first paragraph beginning in column 1, 17 F. R. 6783 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) the figure "1.5" and substitute therefor the figure "2".

8. Delete the second and third paragraphs beginning in column 2, 17 F. R. 6784 (F. R. Doc. 52-8131) and substitute therefor the following:

The "farm tank" system for the delivery of milk from farms to plants is expected by both producers and handlers to grow rapidly in the next several months. Such growth undoubtedly would have strong impact on past methods of milk delivery from farm to market and would require further review of the regulatory procedure with respect to such handling. The present record reveals little concerning the effects on present methods of delivery or on producer returns which may reasonably be expected to occur from more general use of the system. It will be appropriate to reconsider in hearing the effects of this method of handling milk on the marketing program as soon as a more mature stage of development has been reached.

Rulings on exceptions. Exceptions relating to the findings, conclusions and amendment action recommended by the Assistant Administrator were filed by the Lynden Dairy Products Co., the Handlers Committee, the Arden Farms Co., and ten cooperative associations of producers jointly through the United Dairymen's Association. In arriving at the findings, conclusions and amendment action decided in this decision, each of these exceptions was carefully and fully considered in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto. Some revisions of the recommended decision have resulted therefrom. To the extent that the findings, conclusions, and amendment action decided upon herein are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are overruled.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the tentative marketing agreement and in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(c) The order, as amended and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, the said marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Determination of representative period. The month of July 1952 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached amending order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order, as amended.

Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area," and "Order, as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered that all of this decision, except the attached marketing agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order, as amended, which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of November 1952.

[SEAL] K. T. HUTCHINSON,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

Order,[1] as Amended, Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area

§ 925.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendmenst thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "act") (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900) a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the prices of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which hearings have been held.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the following terms and conditions:

DEFINITIONS

§ 925.1 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 925.2 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture, or other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 925.3 Department. "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this subpart.

§ 925.4 Person. "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 925.5 Cooperative association. "Cooperative association" means any cooperative marketing association of producers, duly organized as such under the laws of any State, which includes members who are producers as defined in § 925.12 and which the Secretary determines, after application by the association:

(a) To be qualified under the standards set forth in the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act";

(b) To have its entire organization and all of its activities under the control of its members; and

(c) To be currently engaged in making collective sales of or marketing milk or its products for its members.

§ 925.6 Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area. "Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area" (hereinafter called the "marketing area") means all territory lying west of range 8E in Whatcom, Skagit, Snohomish, and King Counties; all territory lying within townships 23N and 24N within range 8E in King County; all territory lying west of range 8E and north of township 18N in Pierce County, except Fox, McNeil, and Anderson Islands and the peninsula on which Lake Bay and Gig Harbor are located northward to the Kitsap County line; all territory lying within Thurston County; all territory, except the town of Vader, lying west of range 5E in Lewis County; all territory lying east of range 10W and north of township 12N in Pacific County; and all territory lying south of township 19N in Grays Harbor County; all in the State of Washington. As used in this section, "territory" shall include all municipal corporations, Federal military reservations, facilities and installations, and state institutions lying wholly or partly within the above-described area. "District No. 1" of the marketing area shall include that part of the marketing area lying within the counties of King, Pierce, Snohomish, Thurston, and Grays Harbor. "District No. 2" of the marketing area shall include that part of the marketing area lying within the counties of Skagit and Whatcom, and "District No. 3" of the marketing area shall include that part of the marketing area lying within the counties of Lewis and Pacific.

§ 925.7 Plant. "Plant" means the land, buildings, surroundings, facilities and equipment, whether owned or operated by one or more persons, constituting a single operating unit or establishment which is maintained and operated primarily for the receiving, handling and processing of milk or milk products.

§ 925.8 Fluid milk plant. "Fluid milk plant" means any plant, other than the plant of a producer-handler, located in the marketing area which is approved by any health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area as a plant from which milk may be distributed for consumption as fluid milk in the marketing area, and from which during the month Class I milk pursuant to § 925.41 (a) (1) is disposed of (including sales at such plant, plant store or eating place) within the marketing area.

§ 925.9 Country plant. "Country plant" means any plant, other than a fluid milk plant or the plant of a producer-handler, which is approved by any health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area for the receiving of milk qualified for consumption as fluid milk within the marketing area: Provided, That any such plant located outside of the marketing area other than the plant at Sequim operated by the Kristoferson Dairy, Inc., (or its successor), and the plant of the Dungeness-Sequim Cooperative Creameries at Dungeness shall not be a country plant if the percentage of either butterfat or skim milk in milk so qualified which is received at the plant from dairy farmers and moved in fluid form as milk to a fluid milk plant, or disposed of within the marketing area as Class I milk pursuant to § 925.41 (a) (1), is less than:

(a) 50 percent in the current month during the period October through December; or

(b) 20 percent in the current month during the period January through September, except that if the percentage was more than 50 percent for the entire period of October through December immediately preceding no percentage shall be required for such months of January through September:

And provided further, That any plant which otherwise meets the requirements of this section may withdraw from country plant status for any month in the January–September period if the operator of the plant files with the market administrator, prior to the first day of such month, a written request for such withdrawal.

§ 925.10 Nonpool plant. "Nonpool plant" means any plant other than a fluid milk plant or a country plant.

§ 925.11 Dairy farmer. "Dairy farmer" means any person who is engaged in the production of milk.

§ 925.12 Producer. "Producer" means any dairy farmer, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk of dairy cows under a dairy farm permit or rating issued by an appropriate health authority having jurisdiction in the marketing area, for the production of milk qualified for disposition to consumers in fluid form within the marketing area.

§ 925.13 Producer milk. "Producer milk" or "milk received from producers" means milk qualified as described in § 925.12 and either received directly from a farm at a fluid plant or country plant or caused to be diverted by a handler for his account from such a plant to a nonpool plant: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 925.14 Other source milk. "Other source milk" means (a) all skim milk and butterfat received from a producer-handler (or the plant of a producer-handler) in any form (including bottled products), and (b) all other skim milk and butterfat other than in (1) producer milk, and (2) milk and milk products received from fluid milk plants and country plants.

§ 925.15 Handler. "Handler" means:

(a) Any person engaged in the handling of milk in his capacity as the operator of a fluid milk plant, a country plant or any other plant from which milk in any of the forms specified in § 925.41 (a) is disposed of to any place or establishment within the marketing area other than a plant: Provided, That this paragraph shall not be deemed to include any such person with respect to any of the items specified in § 925.41 (a) disposed of to military or other ocean transport vessels leaving the marketing area if the items so disposed of originated at a plant located outside the marketing area and were not received or processed at any fluid milk plant or country plant; and

(b) Any cooperative association, which is not a handler pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, with respect to producer milk caused to be diverted for the account of such cooperative association from a fluid milk plant or a country plant to a nonpool plant.

§ 925.16 Producer-handler. "Producer-handler" means any person who is both a dairy farmer and a handler, and who processes milk from his own farm production and distributes all or a portion of such milk within the marketing area in any of the forms specified in § 925.41 (a), but who received no milk from producers: Provided, That (a) the maintenance, care and management of the dairy animals and other resources necessary to produce milk is the personal enterprise of and at the personal risk of such person in his capacity as a dairy farmer, and (b) the processing, packaging, and distribution of the milk is the personal risk of such person in his capacity as a handler.

§ 925.17 Base. "Base" means a quantity of milk, expressed in pounds per day or per month, computed pursuant to § 925.60 (a) and (b) respectively.

§ 925.18 Base milk. "Base milk" means: (a) Milk delivered by a producer during a month in the period February through July, inclusive, of each year beginning with 1954, and during each month in the period March through July 1953, inclusive, which is (1) not in excess of his daily base computed pursuant to § 925.60 (a), multiplied by the number of days of delivery in such month, or (2) not in excess of his base computed pursuant to § 925.60 (b): Provided, That with respect to any producer on "every-other-day" delivery to a fluid milk plant or country plant, the days of nondelivery shall be considered as days of delivery for the purposes of this paragraph; and (b) all milk delivered by a producer in each of the months of August, September, October, November, December, and January of each year effective August 1, 1953, and during the months of October 1952 through February 1953.

§ 925.19 Excess milk. "Excess milk" means milk delivered by a producer in excess of base milk.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 925.20 Designation. The agency for the administration of this subpart shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be designated by, and shall be subject to removal at the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 925.21 Powers. The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this subpart:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 925.22 Duties. The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this subpart, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 30 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond effective as of the date on which he enters upon such duties and conditioned upon the faithful performance of such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer its terms and provisions;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of funds provided by § 925.88 the cost of his bond and of the bonds of his employees, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 925.87) necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for in this subpart, and upon request by the Secretary surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Audit all reports and payments by each handler by inspection of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends;

(h) Publicly announce, at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the day upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not:

(1) Made reports pursuant to §§ 925.30 to 925.32, inclusive; or

(2) Made one or more of the payments pursuant to §§ 925.80 to 925.88, inclusive.

(i) On or before the 13th day after the end of each month, report to each cooperative association (or its duly designated agent) which so requests the class utilization of milk caused to be delivered by such cooperative association directly from farms of producers who are members of such cooperative association to each handler to whom the cooperative association sells milk. For the purpose of this report, the milk caused to be so delivered by such a cooperative association shall be prorated to each class in the proportion that the total receipts of producer milk by such handler were used in each class;

(j) On or before the 13th day after the end of each month, notify:

(1) Each handler whose total value of milk is computed pursuant to § 925.70 (a) of:

(i) The amounts and values of his producer milk in each class and the totals of such amounts and values;

(ii) The amount of any charge made pursuant to § 925.70 (a) (6);

(iii) The uniform prices for base milk and excess milk;

(iv) The totals of the amounts computed in the manner provided by § 925.80 (a);

(v) The amount due such handler from the producer-settlement fund or the amount to be paid by such handler to the producer-settlement fund, as the case may be; and

(vi) The totals of the amounts required to be paid by such handler pursuant to §§ 925.87 and 925.88.

(2) Each handler whose total value of milk is computed pursuant to § 925.70 (b) of the pounds of other source milk on which payment is required to be made and the amount due the producer-settlement fund from such handler.

(k) Publicly announce by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 5th day of each month the minimum price for Class I milk pursuant to § 925.51 (a) and the Class I butterfat differential pursuant to § 925.52 (a), both for the current month; and the minimum price for Class II milk pursuant to § 925.51 (b) and the Class II butterfat differential pursuant to § 925.52 (b), both for the preceding month; and

(2) On or before the 13th day of each month, the uniform price(s) computed pursuant to § 925.71 and the butterfat differential(s) computed pursuant to § 925.82, both applicable to producer milk received during the preceding month; and

(l) Prepare and disseminate to the public such statistics and information as he deems advisable and as do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS AND FACILITIES

§ 925.30 Monthly reports of receipts and utilization. On or before the 8th day of each month and in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, each person who is a handler pursuant to § 925.15 (a), except a producer-handler, shall report for the preceding month to the market administrator with respect to milk and milk products received at each of such handler's fluid milk plants and country plants, and at each of his plants where milk or milk products subject to payments required under § 925.70 (b) were handled, and each cooperative association which is a handler pursuant to § 925.15 (b) shall report with respect to milk diverted on its account during the preceding month, as follows:

(a) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk received from producers;

(b) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in milk and milk products received from other handlers;

(c) The quantities of skim milk and butterfat contained in other source milk received (except manufactured Class II milk products (1) disposed of in the form in which received without further processing by the handler, or (2) used to produce other Class II milk products).

(d) The utilization of all skim milk and butterfat required to be reported pursuant to this section, including the pounds of skim milk and butterfat on hand at the beginning and end of each month as milk and milk products;

(e) The aggregate quantities of base milk and excess milk received; and

(f) Such other information with respect to such receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 925.31 Payroll reports. On or before the 20th day of each month, each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for deliveries of the preceding month which shall show:

(a) The total pounds of base milk and the total pounds of excess milk received from each producer, the pounds of butterfat contained in such milk, and the number of days on which milk was delivered by such producer in such month;

(b) The amount of payment to each producer and cooperative association; and

(c) The nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments.

§ 925.32 Other reports. At such times and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe:

(a) Each handler shall report to the market administrator such information in addition to that required under § 925.30 as may be requested by the market administrator with respect to milk and milk products handled by him;

(b) Each producer-handler shall report to the market administrator relative to his receipts and utilization of milk and milk products.

§ 925.33 Records and facilities. Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative during the usual hours of business such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify or to establish the correct data with respect to the information required to be reported pursuant to §§ 925.30, 925.31, and 925.32 and to payments required to be made pursuant to §§ 925.80 through 925.88.

§ 925.34 Retention of records. All books and records required under this subpart to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records, is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c (15) (A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

§ 925.35 Handler report to producers. (a) In making payments to producers pursuant to § 925.80, each handler, on or before the 19th day of each month, shall furnish each producer with a supporting statement in such form that it may be retained by the producer, which shall show for the preceding month (1) the identification of the handler and the producer; (2) the total pounds of milk delivered by the producer and the average butterfat test thereof, the pounds of base and excess milk, and the pounds per shipment if such information is not furnished to the producer each day of delivery; (3) the minimum rate(s) at which payment to the producer is required under the provisions of § 925.80; (4) the rate per hundredweight and amount of any premiums or payments above the minimum prices provided by the order; (5) the amount or rate per hundredweight of each deduction claimed by the handler, together with a description of the respective deductions; and (6) the net amount of payment to the producer.

(b) In making payment to a cooperative association in aggregate each handler upon request shall furnish to the cooperative association with respect to each producer for whom such payment is made, any or all of the above information specified in paragraph (a) of this section.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 925.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified. All skim milk and butterfat received within the month by a handler which is required to be reported pursuant to § 925.30 shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 925.41 to 925.45, inclusive.

§ 925.41 Classes of utilization. Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 925.42, 925.43 and 925.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk shall be all skim milk (including reconstituted skim milk) and butterfat (1) disposed of in fluid or frozen form as milk, skim milk, skim milk drinks, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drink, and cream (sweet or sour), and used in the production of concentrated milk, flavored milk and flavored milk drinks not sterilized (but not including (i) those products commonly known as evaporated milk, condensed milk, and condensed skim milk (ii) flavored milk or flavored milk drink in hermetically sealed containers; and (iii) any item named in this subparagraph disposed of pursuant to paragraph (b) (3) of this section), (2) disposed of as any fluid mixture containing cream and milk or skim milk (but not including ice cream and other frozen dessert mixes disposed of to a commercial processor, any mixture disposed of in containers or dispensers under pressure for the purpose of dispensing a whipped or aerated product, evaporated or condensed products, eggnog and yogurt, (3) contained in monthly inventory variations (4) shrinkage of producer milk in excess of that pursuant to paragraph (b) (4) of this section and shrinkage allocated to receipts from other handlers pursuant to § 925.42 (b), and (5) not specifically accounted for under paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Class II milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of as (or used to produce, in the case of ice cream and frozen desserts and mixes for such products (liquid or powder), cottage cheese and aerated cream products) any product other than those included under paragraph (a) (1) and (2) of this section, (2) disposed of for livestock feed, (3) disposed of in bulk in any of the forms specified in paragraph (a) (1) of this section to bakeries, soup companies and candy manufacturing establishments in their capacity as such and to nonpool plants subject to the conditions of § 925.44 (c) (2), (4) in actual shrinkage of producer milk computed pursuant to § 925.42 but not in excess of 2 percent of the quantities of skim and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk, and (5) in actual shrinkage of other source milk computed pursuant to § 925.42.

§ 925.42 Shrinkage. The market administrator shall determine the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk and in other source milk in the following manner:

(a) Compute the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, for each handler; and

(b) Prorate the total shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, among the pounds of producer milk, other source milk, and receipts from other handlers: Provided, That if milk is transferred from a fluid milk plant or a country plant to a nonpool plant located on the same premises as the transferor plant, the transfer to the nonpool plant shall be reduced by an amount determined by multiplying the total shrinkage in such nonpool plant by the percentage which the amount so transferred is to the total receipts at such nonpool plant.

§ 925.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk. (a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I milk unless the handler who first received such milk or butterfat proves that such skim milk and butterfat should be classified as Class II milk.

(b) The burden shall rest upon each handler to establish the sources of milk and milk products required to be reported by him pursuant to § 925.30.

(c) Except as provided in § 925.44 (c) (1), any skim milk or butterfat classified in one class shall be reclassified if used or reused by any handler in another class.

§ 925.44 Transfers. Skim milk and butterfat moved in any of the forms specified in § 925.41 (a) (1) from one plant to another shall be assigned (separately) to each class in the following manner:

(a) From a country plant or fluid milk plant to a fluid milk plant: As Class I milk to the extent Class I milk is available at the transferee plant, subject to the following conditions:

(1) In the event the quantity transferred exceeds the total of receipts from producers and other handlers at the transferor plant, such excess shall be assigned last to the Class I available at the transferee plant:

(2) If more than one transferor plant is involved, the available Class I milk shall be assigned to the transferor plants in the following order:

(i) To fluid milk plants located in District No. 1;

(ii) To country plants located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason;

(iii) To fluid milk plants not located in District No. 1; and

(iv) To country plants not located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason.

(3) If Class I is not available in amounts equal to the sum of transfers in the manner indicated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the receiving handler may designate to which plant the available Class I milk shall be assigned; and

(4) If at a plant located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason any receipts of skim milk or butterfat from any fluid milk plant(s) or country plant(s) similarly located are assigned to Class II milk, they shall be allocated to the uses stated in § 925.54 (a) (1) insofar as such uses are available after allocating to such uses the other source milk at such plant.

(b) From a country plant or fluid milk plant to a country plant: As Class II milk, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The skim milk or butterfat so assigned to Class II milk shall be limited to the amount thereof remaining in Class II milk in the transferee plant after the subtraction pursuant to § 925.45 (b) (2) of other source milk at such plant and after the subtraction of producer shrinkage, and any additional amounts of such skim milk or butterfat shall be assigned to Class I milk;

(2) If more than one transferor plant is involved, the available Class II milk shall be assigned to the transferor plants in the following order:

(i) To country plants not located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason;

(ii) To fluid milk plants not located in District No. 1;

(iii) To country plants located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason; and

(iv) To fluid milk plants located in District No. 1;

(3) If Class II milk is not available in amounts equal to the sum of transfers in the manner indicated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the receiving handler may designate to which plant the available Class II milk shall be assigned.

(4) If at a plant located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason any receipts of skim milk or butterfat from any fluid milk plant(s) or country plant(s) similarly located are assigned to Class II milk, they shall be allocated to the uses stated in § 925.54 (a) (1) insofar as such uses are available after allocating to such uses the other source milk at such plant.

(c) From a country plant or fluid milk plant to a nonpool plant:

(1) As Class I milk if the transfer is to a nonpool plant located outside the marketing area or to the plant of a producer-handler, except as provided for in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) As Class II milk if the transfer is to a nonpool plant located in the marketing area or within any of the counties of Clallam, Jefferson, Grays Harbor Island, Kitsap and Mason, in the State of Washington, which is not engaged in the distribution of milk for consumption in fluid form: Provided, That if such nonpool plant disposes of skim milk or butterfat in any of the forms specified in § 925.41 (a) (1) to any other nonpool plant distributing milk in fluid form which is not located in the marketing area, such disposition up to the quantity of producer milk transferred to the first nonpool plant shall be classified as Class I milk: Provided further, That if the preceding proviso does not apply the transferred quantity shall be deemed to have been utilized first for the manufacture of Class II milk products other than evaporated milk in hermetically sealed cans, butter, nonfat dry milk solids, powdered whole milk, and cheddar cheese to the extent that such other Class II milk products were manufactured at such nonpool plant: And provided also, That if the market administrator is not permitted to audit the records of such nonpool plant for the purpose of use verification, the entire transfer shall be classified as Class I milk.

§ 925.45 Computation of the quantity of producer milk in each class. For each handler the market administrator shall:

(a) Correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the monthly report submitted by such handler and compute the total pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class;

(b) Allocate skim milk in the following manner;

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk shrinkage allowed pursuant to § 925.41 (b) (4);

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk in Class II milk the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received and in overage allocated to other source milk (§ 925.70 (a) (5)): Provided, That if the receipts of skim milk in other source milk plus the overage allocated to other source milk are greater than the pounds of skim milk in Class II milk, an amount equal to the difference shall be subtracted from the pounds of skim milk in Class I milk;

(3) Subtract from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class, respectively, the skim milk received from other fluid milk plants and country plants and assigned to such class pursuant to § 925.44;

(4) Add to the remaining pounds of Class II milk, the amount subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(5) If the remaining pounds of skim milk in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers, subtract such excess (hereinafter referred to as "overage") from the remaining pounds of skim milk in each class beginning with Class II milk.

(c) Allocate butterfat in accordance with the procedure prescribed for skim milk in paragraph (b) of this section.

(d) Add together for each class the quantities of skim milk and butterfat in such class computed pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section and compute the weighted average butterfat content of such class.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 925.50 Basic formula price to be used in determining Class I prices. The basic formula price to be used in computing the price per hundredweight of Class I milk for the current month shall be the highest of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section for the preceding month.

(a) Divide by 3.5 and then multiply by 4.0 the average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight reported to have been paid, or to be paid, for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from dairy farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the market administrator or to the Department:

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by the market administrator from the following formula:

(1) Multiply the simple average of the daily average wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month, by 6;

(2) Add 2.4 times the simple average, as published by the Department, of the prices determined per pound of "Cheddars" on the Wisconsin Cheese Exchange at Plymouth, Wisconsin, for the trading days that fall within the month;

(3) Divide by 7;

(4) Add 30 percent thereof; and

(5) Multiply by 4.

(c) The price per hundredweight computed by the market administrator from the following formula:

(1) Multiply by 4.8 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month: Provided, That, if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the prices reported for Grade A (92-score) butter for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter;

(2) Multiply by 8.2 the simple average of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pounds for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department; and

(3) From the sum of the results arrived at under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, subtract 67 cents.

§ 925.51 Class prices. Subject to the differentials provided in § 925.52 the following are the minimum prices per hundredweight to handlers for Class I milk and Class II milk:

(a) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price plus $1.65: Provided, That the price for Class I milk for the months of April through June, inclusive, of any year shall not be higher than the price computed pursuant to the above provisions of this paragraph for the month of March immediately preceding, and the price for Class I milk for any October through January period, inclusive, shall not be lower than the price computed pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph for the month of September immediately preceding.

(b) Class II milk. The price for Class II milk shall be that computed by the market administrator from the following formula:

(1) Multiply by 4.8 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade AA (93-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at San Francisco, as reported by the Department during the month: Provided, That, if no price is reported for Grade AA (93-score) butter, the highest of the prices reported for Grade A (92-score) butter for that day shall be used in lieu of the price for Grade AA (93-score) butter;

(2) Multiply by 8.2 the simple average of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pounds for nonfat dry milk solids, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department; and

(3) From the sum of the results arrived at under subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, subtract 67 cents.

§ 925.52 Butterfat differentials to handlers. If the average butterfat content of Class I milk or Class II milk, computed pursuant to § 925.45, for any handler for any month differs from 4.0 percent, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, the applicable class price (§ 925.51) for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of such class is respectively above, or below, 4.0 percent, a butterfat differential computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Class I milk: Multiply by 1.25 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at San Francisco, as reported by the Department during the preceding month, divide the result by 10, and round to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) Class II milk: Multiply by 1.15 the simple average of the daily wholesale selling prices per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at San Francisco, as reported by the Department during the month, divide the result by 10, and round to the nearest tenth of a cent.

§ 925.53 Location adjustment to handlers on Class I milk. In computing the value of each handler's milk there shall be credited with respect to skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in producer milk received at a plant not located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason and classified as Class I milk, 40 cents per hundredweight: Provided, That an additional 10 cents shall be credited with respect to skim milk and butterfat so received and classified at any plant located in Clallam or Jefferson Counties.

§ 925.54 Location adjustment to handlers on Class II milk. In computing each handler's value of milk there shall be added with respect to each fluid milk plant and country plant located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason, an amount of money computed as follows:

(a) Compute the sum (in pounds) of: (1) The total utilization at such plant (including any disposition of skim milk and butterfat from such plant for similar uses at nonpool plants) of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, in evaporated milk in hermetically sealed cans, butter, nonfat dry milk solids, powdered whole milk, cheddar cheese, shrinkage allowable as Class II milk pursuant to § 925.41 (b) (4) and (5), and (2) the total quantity of skim milk and butterfat transferred to other fluid milk plants and country plants located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason and allocated to the uses specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (as provided in § 925.44 (a) (4) and (b) (4));

(b) Subtract such sum from the total quantity of Class II milk for such plant, including that resulting from the disposition of skim milk or butterfat from such plant to nonpool plants;

(c) Subtract from the net amounts of skim milk and butterfat, respectively, resulting from paragraph (b) of this section to the extent of such amounts, the amounts of skim milk and butterfat received at such plant from fluid milk plants and country plants not located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason and assigned to Class II milk pursuant to § 925.44 (but exclusive of the quantity by which transfers received from a transferor plant exceeds the total of receipts from producers and other handlers at such transferor plant); and

(d) Multiply by 25 cents per hundredweight the lesser of the following quantities: (i) The net amount resulting from paragraph (c) of this section, or (ii) the total amount of producer milk received at such plant directly from farms which is available for Class II milk after the assignment of transfers pursuant to § 925.44.

DETERMINATION OF BASE

§ 925.60 Computation of producer bases. Subject to the rules set forth in § 925.61, the market administrator shall determine bases for producers in the manner provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section:

(a) During each of the months of February through July, inclusive, of each year beginning with 1954, the daily base of each producer whose milk was received by a handler(s) on not less than one hundred twenty (120) days during the immediately preceding months of August through December, inclusive, shall be a quantity computed by dividing such producer's total pounds of milk delivered in such five-month period by the number of days from the date of first delivery to the end of such five-month period, and during each of the months of March through July 1953, inclusive, the daily base of each producer whose milk was received by a handler(s) on not less than ninety (90) days during the immediately preceding months of October through January, inclusive, shall be a quantity computed by dividing such producer's total pounds of milk delivered in such four-month period by the number of days from the date of first delivery to the end of such four-month period: Provided, That with respect to any producer on "every-other-day" delivery the days of non-delivery intervening days of delivery shall be considered as days of delivery for the purpose of ascertaining whether delivery was made on not less than the minimum number of days required pursuant to this paragraph.

(b) Any producer who is not eligible to receive a base computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, shall have beginning with March 1953 a monthly base in the months of February through July, inclusive, computed by applying the appropriate monthly percentage in the following table to his deliveries to a handler(s):

February	70	May	45
March	65	June	50
April	55	July	55

§ 925.61 Base rules. The following rules shall be observed in determination of bases:

(a) A base may be transferred during the period of February through July, inclusive, upon written notice to the market administrator on or before the last day of the month of transfer, but only under the following circumstances:

(1) Upon the death, retirement or entry into military service of a producer, the entire base may be transferred to a member (or members) of his immediate family who continues to supply producer milk from the same farm.

(2) If a base is held jointly and such joint holding is terminated the entire base may be transferred as a unit to one of the joint holders or to a new joint holding in which at least one of the original joint holders is a participant.

(b) A producer who ceases deliveries to a fluid milk plant or country plant for more than 45 days shall lose his base if computed pursuant to § 925.60 (a) and if he resumes deliveries to such a plant he shall be paid on a base determined pursuant to § 925.60 (b) until he can establish a new base under § 925.60 (a) to begin the next February 1.

(c) By notifying the market administrator in writing on or before the 15th day of any month in the period February through July, inclusive, a producer holding a base established pursuant to § 925.60 (a) may relinquish such base by cancellation, and effective from the first day of the month in which notice is received by the market administrator until the end of such six-month period such producer's base shall be computed in the manner provided by § 925.60 (b).

(d) As soon as bases computed by the market administrator are allotted, notice of the amount of each producer's base shall be given by the market administrator to the handler receiving such producer's milk and to the cooperative association of which the producer is a member. Each handler, following receipt of such notice, shall promply post in a conspicuous place at each of his plants a list or lists showing the base of each producer whose milk is received at such plant.

(e) If a producer operates more than one farm he shall establish a separate base with respect to producer milk delivered from each such farm.

(f) Only producers as defined in § 925.12 may establish or earn a base pursuant to the provisions of §925.60, and only one base shall be allotted with respect to milk produced by one or more persons where the land, buildings, and equipment used are jointly owned or operated.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 925.70 Computation of value of milk. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the total value of milk received during any month by each handler including a cooperative association, shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(1) Multiply the pounds of producer milk in each class for such month by the class price (§ 925.51) and add together the resulting amounts;

(2) Deduct the total amount of all location adjustment credits computed in accordance with § 925.53;

(3) Add the total amount of all location adjustments computed pursuant to § 925.54;

(4) Add or subtract, as the case may be, the amount necessary to correct errors as disclosed by the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat in previous months for which payment has not been made;

(5) Add, if such handler had overage, an amount computed by multiplying the pounds of such overage (except overage prorated to other source milk) deducted from each class pursuant to § 925.45 by the applicable class price: Provided, That if (i) overage results in a fluid milk plant or country plant having receipts of other source milk, the total overage shall be prorated between other source milk and all other receipts, and (ii) overage results in a nonpool plant located on the same premises as a fluid milk plant or country plant, such overage shall be prorated between the quantity transferred from the fluid milk plant or country plant and other source milk in such nonpool plant, and the transferor handler shall be charged at the applicable class price for the amount of overage allocated to the transferred quantity.

(6) Add, with respect to other source milk received at each fluid milk plant and country plant of such handler in excess of the total volume of his Class II milk (except allowable shrinkage) at such plant an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of such other source milk by the difference between the Class I milk and Class II milk prices adjusted, respectively, by the butterfat differentials provided in § 925.52 (based on the butterfat test of such other source milk), and in the case of a fluid milk plant or country plant not located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap or Mason, such difference shall be reduced by 40 cents per hundredweight: Provided, That with respect to skim milk and butterfat so received and classified at any plant located in Clallam and Jefferson Counties, there shall be a further reduction of 10 cents per hundredweight.

(b) The value of milk of each handler at any plant where only other source milk was received and from which, during the month, some other source milk was disposed of within the marketing area as Class I milk pursuant to § 925.41 (a) (1) shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator by multiplying the hundredweight of such other source milk so disposed of by the difference between the Class I milk and Class II milk prices adjusted, respectively, by the butterfat differentials provided in § 925.52 (based on the butterfat test of such other source milk), and, in the event disposition within the marketing area was only within Districts Nos. 2 and 3, such difference shall be reduced by 40 cents per hundredweight.

§ 925.71 Computation of uniform price. For each month the market administrator shall compute the uniform prices per hundredweight for base milk and excess milk received from producers as follows:

(a) Combine into one total the values computed pursuant to § 925.70 for all handlers who made the reports prescribed in § 925.30 and who made the payments pursuant to § 925.84 for the preceding month;

(b) Add the aggregate of the values of the location adjustments on base milk allowable pursuant to § 925.81 (a);

(c) Deduct the aggregate of the values of the location adjustments on excess milk computed pursuant to § 925.81 (b);

(d) Add an amount representing not less than one-half the unobligated cash balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(e) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of the milk represented by the values included under paragraph (a) of this section is greater than 4.0 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4.0 percent, an amount computed by multiplying the amount by which the average butterfat content of such milk varies from 4.0 percent by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 925.82 and multiplying the resulting figure by the total hundredweight of such milk;

(f) Multiply the hundredweight of excess milk by the Class II price for 4.0 percent milk, rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent;

(g) Compute the total value of base milk by subtracting the amount computed pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section from the net amount computed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section: Provided, That if such result is greater than an amount computed by multiplying the hundredweight of base milk by the Class I milk price (for 4.0 percent milk) plus 4 cents such amount in excess thereof shall be subtracted from the result obtained prior to this proviso;

(h) Divide the net amount obtained in paragraph (g) of this section by the total hundredweight of base milk and subtract not less than 4 cents but less than 5 cents. This result shall be known as the uniform price per hundredweight of base milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content; and

(i) Divide the amount obtained in paragraph (f) of this section plus any amount subtracted pursuant to the proviso of paragraph (g) of this section by the hundredweight of excess milk, and subtract any fractional part of one cent. This result shall be known as the uniform price per hundredweight of excess milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content.

PAYMENTS

§ 925.80 Time and method of payment to producers and to cooperative associations. (a) On or before the 19th day after the end of each month, each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, shall make payment to each producer, for milk received at his plant from such producer during such month pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph: Provided, That such payment shall be made, upon request, to a cooperative association, or to its duly authorized agent, qualified under § 925.5 with respect to milk received from each producer who has given such association authorization by contract or by other written instrument to collect the proceeds from the sale of his milk, and any payment made pursuant to this proviso shall be made on or before the 17th day after the end of such month: And provided further, That if by such date such handler has not received full payment for such month pursuant to § 925.85, he shall not be deemed to be in violation of this paragraph if he reduces uniformly for all producers his payments per hundredweight pursuant to this paragraph by a total amount not in excess of the reduction in payment from the market administrator; however, the handler shall make such balance of payment uniformly to those producers to whom it is due on or before the date for making payments pursuant to this paragraph next following that on which such balance of payment is received from the market administrator:

(1) At not less than the uniform price for base milk for the quantity of base milk received, adjusted by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 925.82 and by any location adjustment applicable under § 925.81; and

(2) At not less than the uniform price for excess milk for the quantity of excess milk received, adjusted by the butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 925.82 and by any location adjustment applicable under § 925.81.

(b) On or before the 17th day after the end of each month each handler shall pay to each cooperative association which operates a fluid milk plant or country plant, for skim milk and butterfat received from such cooperative association during such month, an amount of money computed by multiplying the total pounds of such skim milk and butterfat in each class (pursuant to § 925.41) by the class price adjusted by the amounts of any location adjustments applicable pursuant to §§ 925.53 and 925.54.

(c) None of the provisions of this section shall be construed to restrict any cooperative association qualified under section 8c (5) (F) of the act from making payment for milk to its producers in accordance with such provision of the act.

§ 925.81 Location adjustments to producers. In making payments to producers pursuant to § 925.80 (a) (1) the following adjustments for location are applicable:

(a) Deductions may be made per hundredweight of base milk received from producers as follows: 50 cents at plants located in Clallam and Jefferson Counties, and 40 cents at other plants not located in District No. 1 or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason.

(b) Beginning with March 1953, 25 cents per hundredweight shall be added for the months of February through July, inclusive, to the uniform price for excess milk received from producers at plants located in District No. 1, or in the counties of Kitsap and Mason.

§ 925.82 Producer butterfat differential. In making payments pursuant to § 925.80 (a) for base milk and for excess milk, there shall be added to, or subtracted from, the uniform prices thereof for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the average butterfat content of the milk received from the producer is above or below 4.0 percent, a butterfat differential computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) The butterfat differential for base milk shall be computed by multiplying the butterfat differential for Class I milk by the percentage of the butterfat contained in base milk that is allocated to Class I, and by multiplying the remaining percentage of butterfat within base milk by the butterfat differential for Class II milk, adding together the resulting amounts, and rounding to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) The butterfat differential for excess milk shall be the same as the butterfat differential for Class II milk.

§ 925.83 Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund," into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to § 925.84 and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to § 925.85.

§ 925.84 Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 15th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, shall pay to the market administrator the amount, if any, by which the total value of such handler's milk as determined pursuant to § 925.70 is greater than the value of such handler's producer milk computed at the minimum uniform prices as specified in § 925.80 (a).

§ 925.85 Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 17th day after the end of the month during which the milk was received, the market administrator shall pay to each handler, including a cooperative association which is a handler, the amount, if any, by which the total value of such handler's milk as determined pursuant to § 925.70 is less than the value of such handler's producer milk computed at the minimum uniform prices as specified in § 925.80 (a), and less any unpaid obligations of such handler to the market administrator pursuant to §§ 925.84, 925.86, 925.87 and 925.88: Provided, That if the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available.

§ 925.86 Adjustments of accounts. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payment of any handler discloses errors resulting in money due (a) the market administrator from such handler, (b) such handler from the market administrator, or (c) any producer or cooperative association from such handler, the market administrator shall promptly notify such handler of any amount so due and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred following the 5th day after such notice.

§ 925.87 Marketing services. (a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers (other than with respect to milk of such handler's own production) pursuant to § 925.80 (a), shall make a deduction of 5 cents per hundredweight of milk, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to the following:

(1) All milk received from producers at a plant not operated by a cooperative association; and

(2) All milk received at a plant operated by a cooperatiue association from producers who are not members of such association.

Such deduction shall be paid by the handler to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month. Such moneys shall be expended by the market administrator for the verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk received from producers and in providing for market information to producers; such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator or by an agent engaged by and responsible to him.

(b) In the case of each producer (1) who is a member of, or who has given written authorization for the rendering of marketing services and the taking of deduction therefore to, a cooperative association, (2) whose milk is received at a plant not operated by such association, and (3) for whom the market administrator determines that such association is performing the services described in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall deduct, in lieu of the deduction specified under paragraph (a) of this section, from the payments made pursuant to § 925.80 (a) the amount per hundredweight on milk authorized by such producer and shall pay over, on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, such deduction to the association entitled to receive it under this paragraph.

§ 925.88 Expense of administration. As his prorata share of the expense of administration of this order, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of each month 4 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all receipts within such month of (a) other source milk classified as Class I milk, and (b) milk received from producers, including such handler's own production.

§ 925.89 Termination of obligations. The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this subpart for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this subpart shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation, unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last-known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk, with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administration, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this subpart, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this order to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this subpart to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this order shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claims was received if an underpayment is claimed, or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed, unless such handler, within the applicable period of time, files, pursuant to section 8c (15) (A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 925.90 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart or any amendment to this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 925.91.

§ 925.91. Suspension or termination. The Secretary may suspend or terminate this subpart or any provision of this subpart whenever he finds this subpart or any provision of this subpart obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This subpart shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 925.92 Continuing obligations. If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this subpart, there are any obligations thereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 925.93 Liquidation. Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this subpart, except this section, the market administrator, or such other liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall if so directed by the Secretary liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expense of liquidation and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 925.100 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this subpart.

§ 925.101 Separability of provisions. If any provision of this subpart, or its application to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this subpart, to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

§ 925.102 Producers-handlers. Sections 925.40 to 925.45, inclusive, 925.50 to 925.54, inclusive, 925.70 to 925.71, inclusive, and 925.80 to 925.89, inclusive, shall not apply to a producer-handler.

Order of the Secretary Directing That a Referendum Be Conducted Among the Producers Supplying Milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, Marketing Area, and Designation of an Agent To Conduct Such Referendum

Pursuant to section 8c (19) of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 608c (19)), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among the producers (as defined in the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Puget Sound, Washington, marketing area) who, during the month of July 1952 were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in the aforesaid order to determine whether such producers favor the issuance of the order which is a part of the decision of the Secretary of Agriculture filed simultaneously herewith.

Nicholas L. Keyock is hereby designated agent of the Secretary to conduct such referendum in accordance with the procedure for the conduct of referenda to determine producer approval of milk marketing orders as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 10, 1950 (15 F. R. 5177).

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 10310]

CLASS B FM BROADCAST STATIONS

REVISED TENTATIVE ALLOCATION PLAN; AMENDMENT

1. Notice is hereby given of further proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. It was previously proposed to amend the Revised Tentative Allocation Plan for Class B FM Broadcast Stations to allocate Channel No. 254 to Cullman, Alabama. It is now proposed to change the original proposal so as to amend the Allocation Plan as follows:

General area	Channels
	Delete	Add
Cullman, Ala.	----	266
Chattanooga, Tenn.	266	----
Tuscaloosa, Ala.	267	280

3. The purpose of the proposed amendment is to provide a Class B channel in Cullman, Alabama, thereby facilitating consideration of a pending application requesting a Class B assignment there.

4. Authority for the adoption of the proposed amendment is contained in sections 4 (i), 301, 303 (c), (d), (f), and (r), and 307 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934 as amended.

5. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted or should not be adopted in the form set forth herein may file with the Commission on or before December 8, 1952, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendment may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments may be filed within 10 days from the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. The Commission will consider all such comments that are submitted before taking action in this matter, and if any comments appear to warrant the holding of a hearing or oral argument, notice of the time and place of such hearing or oral argument will be given.

6 In accordance with the provisions of § 1.784 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: November 5, 1952.

Released: November 7, 1952.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR Parts 230, 240, 260, 270, 275]

REQUIRING NON-RESIDENT BROKERS OR DEALERS TO FILE CONSENT TO SERVICE OF PROCESS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal to adopt a rule which would require each non-resident broker or dealer registered with the Commission, and each non-resident general partner or managing agent of a registered unincorporated broker or dealer, to file a written irrevocable consent and power of attorney appointing the Secretary of the Commission as agent to receive process and other papers in any civil action arising out of or founded upon the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, the Investment Company Act of 1940, or the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and brought because of any activity, in any place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, which occurs in the conduct of business as a broker or dealer. The Secretary of the Commission would be required to forward copies of all papers, by registered mail, to each of the persons on whose behalf they were received by him.

Applicable provisions of the various acts administered by the Commission authorize it to institute injunctive actions in cases involving violations of the respective acts, and violations of some of the provisions of these acts may result in civil liabilities. The statutes contain broad venue provisions for suits or actions brought to enforce liabilities or duties created thereunder, and the service of process provisions are also broad. As a practical matter, however, rights arising because of violations of these acts may prove unenforceable against many non-resident brokers or dealers whose activities are subject to such acts, since it is frequently impossible to obtain service upon all the persons who should be joined as parties to the action, particularly where the broker or dealer is an unincorporated organization or association. The proposed rule is intended to give full effect to the provisions of the acts mentioned, and to preserve for and afford to the Commission and others the same opportunity to enforce such rights or duties against non-resident brokers or dealers as they have in the case of resident brokers or dealers.

The proposed rule would read as follows:

Consent to service of process to be furnished by non-resident brokers or dealers and by non-resident general partners or managing agents of registered brokers or dealers. (a) Each non-resident broker or dealer registered or applying for registration pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, each non-resident general partner of a broker or dealer partnership which is registered or applying for registration, and each non-resident managing agent of any other unincorporated broker or dealer which is registered or applying for registration, shall furnish to the Commission, in a form prescribed by it, a written irrevocable consent and power of attorney which (1) designates the Secretary of the Securities and Exchange Commission as an agent upon whom may be served any process, pleadings, or other papers in any civil suit or action arising out of or founded upon the provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, the Investment Company Act of 1940, or the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, or any rule or regulation under any of said acts, which suit or action is brought because of any activity in any place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, which activity occurs in connection with the conduct of business as a broker or dealer; and (2) stipulates and agrees that any such civil suit or action may be commenced in any appropriate court in any place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, by the service of process upon the Secretary of the Commission and the forwarding of a copy thereof as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, and that the service as aforesaid of any such process, pleadings, and other papers upon the Secretary of the Commission shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due personal service thereof had been made.

(b) The required consent and power of attorney shall be furnished to the Commission within the following period of time:

(1) Each non-resident broker or dealer registered at the time this section becomes effective, and each non-resident general partner or managing agent of an unincorporated broker or dealer registered at the time this section becomes effective, shall furnish such consent and power of attorney within 60 days after such date;

(2) Each broker or dealer applying for registration after the effective date of this section shall furnish, at the time of filing such application, all the consents and powers of attorney required to be furnished by such broker or dealer and by each general partner or managing agent thereof: Provided, however, That where an application for registration of a broker or dealer is pending at the time this section becomes effective such consents and powers of attorney shall be furnished within 30 days after this section becomes effective.

(3) Each broker or dealer registered or applying for registration who or which becomes a non-resident broker or dealer after the effective date of this section, and each general partner or managing agent, of an unincorporated broker or dealer registered or applying for registration, who becomes a non-resident after the effective date of this section, shall furnish such consent and power of attorney within 30 days thereafter.

(c) Whenever any process, pleading, or other paper, as aforesaid, is served upon the Secretary of the Commission in accordance with this section, he shall promptly forward a copy thereof by registered mail to each of the persons on whose behalf it was received by him. The Secretary shall be furnished a sufficient number of copies for such purpose, including one copy for his file.

(d) For purposes of this section the following definitions shall apply:

(1) The term "broker" shall have the meaning set out in section 3 (a) (4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(2) The term "dealer" shall have the meaning set out in section 3 (a) (5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(3) The term "managing agent" shall mean any person, including a trustee, who directs or manages or who participates in the directing or managing of the affairs of any unincorporated organization or association which is not a partnership.

(4) The term "non-resident broker or dealer" shall mean (i) in the case of an individual, one who resides in or has his principal place of business in any place not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States; (ii) in the case of a corporation, one incorporated in or having its principal place of business in any place not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States; (iii) in the case of a partnership or other unincorporated organization, one having its principal place of business in any place not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(5) A general partner or managing agent of a broker or dealer shall be deemed to be a non-resident if he resides in any place not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

The rule would be adopted by the Commission pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly section 23 (a) thereof, the Securities Act of 1933, particularly section 19 (a) thereof, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, particularly section 319 (a) thereof, the Investment Company Act of 1940, particularly section 38 (a) thereof, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, particularly section 211 (a) thereof.

The Commission invites comments and suggestions on the proposed regulation from all interested persons. Comments and suggestions should be submitted in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before December 15, 1952.

By the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

Civil Aeronautics Administration

[Amdt. 14]

ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

REASSIGNMENT OF FUNCTIONS

This amendment abolishes the Office of Aviation Development and reassigns its functions and responsibilities to other offices within the Civil Aeronautics Administration as follows:

(a) The Assistant Administrator for Program Coordination will plan, coordinate, and evaluate the general aviation program of the Civil Aeronautics Administration and formulate basic policies to govern its administration with specific reference to agricultural, industrial, executive and corporate, instructional, and personal flying; develop plans and policies designed to foster the development of civil aviation through educational means and approve publications and films or other visual aids relating to the aviation education program; and serve as the Civil Aeronautics Administration's primary point of liaison on general aviation matters with the civil aviation industry and with other governmental agencies.

(b) The Aviation Information Office will publish and distribute literature and visual aids approved by the Assistant Administrator for Program Coordination for use in the general aviation and aviation education programs.

(c) The Office of Aviation Safety will provide technical engineering advice and assistance to the civil aviation industry, the Assistant Administrator for Program Coordination, and other offices of the Civil Aeronautics Administration in connection with the development of improved aircraft and equipment for agricultural, industrial, executive and corporate, instructional, and personal flying.

The description of the Organization and Functions of the Civil Aeronautics Administration is amended as follows:

1. Section 12 (d) (2) published on August 29, 1952, in 17 F. R. 7900, is amended by adding the words: "including the general aviation program for agricultural, industrial, executive and corporate, instructional, and personal flying and the development of civil aviation through educational means."

2. Section 21 (a) published on April 5, 1951, in 16 F. R. 2975, and amended on September 10, 1952, in 17 F. R. 8163 is amended by adding a new subparagraph (6) at the end to read:

(6) Publishes and distributes literature and visual aids approved by the Assistant Administrator for Program Coordination for use in the general aviation and aviation education programs.

3. Section 32 published on April 5, 1951, in 16 F. R. 2973, and amended on September 10, 1952, in 17 F. R. 8163, is revoked.

4. Section 33 (a) (3) published on August 9, 1952, in 17 F. R. 7305, is amended to read:

(3) Provides technical assistance and advice on the technical regulation and improvement of aviation safety to the Office of the Administrator, other CAA offices, and other organizations, as appropriate; provides technical engineering advice and assistance to the civil aviation industry, to the Assistant Administrator for Program Coordination, and to other offices of the Civil Aeronautics Administration in connection with the development of improved aircraft and equipment for agricultural, industrial, executive and corporate, instructional, and personal flying.

This amendment shall become effective November 13, 1952.

National Production Authority

[Suspension Order 43; Docket No. 24]

FILLSIDE METAL PRODUCTS, INC., ET AL.

SUSPENSION ORDER

A hearing having been held in the above-entitled matter on the 16th day of October 1952, before Hon. James M. Fawcett, a hearing commissioner of the National Production Authority, on a statement of charges made by the General Counsel, National Production Authority, in accordance with the National Production Authority General Administrative Order 16-06 (16 F. R. 6628), dated July 21, 1951, and National Production Authority Rules of Practice 1, Revised September 8, 1952; and

The respondents, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., of 129-02 Hillside Avenue, Richmond Hill, N. Y., and 270 Passaic Street, Newark, N. J., Carrier Steel Corporation of 1819 Broadway, New York 23, N. Y., Philip J. Kurens of 129-02 Hillside Avenue, Richmond Hill, N. Y., and Irving Cooperstein of 129-02 Hillside Avenue, Richmond Hill, N. Y., having been duly apprised of the specific violations charged, and having been fully informed of the rules and procedures which govern these proceedings and the administrative action which may be taken; and

The aforementioned respondents having appeared herein by their attorney, Arthur S. Lowell, Esq., of 1819 Broadway, New York 23, N. Y.; and

The aforementioned respondents and each of them having stipulated on the 14th day of October 1952 to a statement of facts to be filed in these proceedings in lieu of the presentation of other evidence in support of and in opposition to the statement of charges, it is hereby determined:

Findings of fact. 1. During the period from January 5, 1951, to July 25, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed acts prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 11.4 (b), as amended November 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 7875), and as amended January 11, 1951 (16 F. R. 352), and section 4 (b), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), and section 4 (c), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., placed rated orders for, to wit, 2,174,839 pounds (1,087½ tons) of sheet steel, which was 1,757,145 pounds (878½ tons) more of said material than said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., was authorized to rate. Of the aforementioned rated orders, orders equal to 500 tons of the said material were cancelled by Hillside Metal Products, Inc.

2. During the period from January 5, 1951, to July 25, 1951, Philip J. Kurens and Irving Cooperstein committed acts prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 11.4 (b), as amended November 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 7875), and as amended January 11, 1951 (16 F. R. 352), and section 4 (b), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), and section 4 (c), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that the said individual respondents, owning, dominating, managing, and controlling Hillside Metal Products, Inc., during the time the alleged violations were committed, directed, supervised, and participated in the commision of the acts set forth in paragraph 1 hereof.

3. On or about June 20, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation used and disposed of 148,680 pounds (74 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

4. On or about June 25, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 100,590 pounds (50 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

5. On or about June 25, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation used and disposed of 5,010 pounds (2½ tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

6. On or about June 27, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 151,830 pounds (76 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

7. On or about July 2, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 41,630 pounds (21 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

8. On or about August 2, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 2,480 pounds (1 ton) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

9. On or about August 2, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 46,585 pounds (23 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

10. On or about July 17, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by the National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 6,000 pounds (3 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

11. On or about July 19, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951, (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 42,350 pounds (21 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

12. On or about August 2, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 48,800 pounds (24 tons) of sheet steel obtained by use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

13. On or about August 2, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 43,300 pounds (21½ tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

14. On or about July 30, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation used and disposed of 12,160 pounds (6 tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

15. On or about August 2, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed an act prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., used and disposed of 33,260 pounds (16½ tons) of sheet steel obtained by the use of DO ratings for a purpose other than that for which the rating assistance was given.

16. During the period from June 20, 1951, to August 2, 1951, Philip J. Kurens and Irving Cooperstein committed acts prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 17 (a), as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), and as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), in that the said individual respondents, owning, dominating, managing, and controlling Hillside Metal Products, Inc., and Carrier Steel Corporation during the time the alleged violations were committed, directed, supervised, and participated in the commission of the acts set forth in paragraphs 3 through 15 hereof.

17. During the period from October 3, 1950, to October 3, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., committed acts prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 11.23, as issued October 3, 1950 (15 F. R. 6632), and as amended October 12, 1950 (15 F. R. 6911), and as amended November 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 7875), and as amended January 11, 1951 (16 F. R. 352), and section 23 as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), and as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), and as amended September 13, 1951 (16 F. R. 9413), in that said Hillside Metal Products, Inc., failed to retain in its possession sufficient records of its receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use of sheet steel, and of such transactions in sheet steel as were covered by National Production Authority Reg. 2.

18. During the period from October 3, 1950, to October 3, 1951, Carrier Steel Corporation committed acts prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 11.23, as issued October 3, 1950 (15 F. R. 6632), and as amended October 12, 1950 (15 F. R. 6911), and as amended November 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 7875), and as amended January 11, 1951 (16 F. R. 352), and section 23 as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), and as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), and as amended September 13, 1951 (16 F. R. 9413), in that said Carrier Steel Corporation failed to retain in its possession sufficient records of its receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use of sheet steel, and of such transactions in sheet steel as were covered by National Production Authority Reg. 2.

19. During the period from October 3, 1950, to October 3, 1951, Philip J. Kurens and Irving Cooperstein committed acts prohibited by National Production Authority Reg. 2, section 11.23, as issued October 3, 1950 (15 F. R. 6632), and as amended October 12, 1950 (15 F. R. 6911), and as amended November 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 7875), and as amended January 11, 1951 (16 F. R. 352), and section 23, as amended February 27, 1951 (16 F. R. 1953), and as amended July 17, 1951 (16 F. R. 6944), and as amended September 13, 1951 (16 F. R. 9413), in that said respondents, owning, dominating, managing, and controlling Hillside Metal Products, Inc. and Carrier Steel Corporation during the time the alleged violations were committed, directed, supervised, and participated in the commission of the acts set forth in paragraphs 17 and 18 hereof.

Conclusion. During the period beginning on or about October 3, 1950, and ending on or about October 3, 1951, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., Carrier Steel Corporation, Philip J. Kurens, and Irving Cooperstein, violated the provisions of National Production Authority regulations, orders, and directives as hereinabove cited by unlawfully placing rated orders for 878½ tons of sheet steel more than it was authorized to rate, and unlawfully diverted 341 tons of steel.

In order to correct the unauthorized use of defense order ratings and the diversion of steel received under the said defense order ratings, and in order to prevent future violations of National Production Authority regulations, orders, and directives by Hillside Metal Products, Inc., Carrier Steel Corporation, Philip J. Kurens, and Irving Cooperstein,

It is accordingly ordered:

1. That all priority assistance be withdrawn and withheld from Hillside Metal Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, Carrier Steel Corporation, its successors and assigns, Philip J. Kurens, and Irving Cooperstein, while the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, or as hereafter amended or extended, remains in effect.

2. That all allocations and allotments of controlled materials and materials under control of the National Production Authority be withdrawn and withheld from Hillside Metal Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, Carrier Steel Corporation, its successors and assigns, Philip J. Kurens, and Irving Cooperstein, while the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, or as hereafter amended or extended, remains in effect.

3. That all privileges of self-certification granted by the National Production Authority with respect to controlled materials, and materials under control of the National Production Authority, be withdrawn and withheld from Hillside Metal Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, Carrier Steel Corporation, its successors and assigns, Philip J. Kurens, and Irving Cooperstein, while the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, or as hereafter amended or extended, remains in effect.

4. That respondents, Hillside Metal Products, Inc., its successors and assigns, Carrier Steel Corporation, its successors and assigns, Philip J. TEXAS STAR BROADCASTING CO.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR FURTHER HEARING

In re application of Roy Hofheinz and W. N. Hooper, d/b as Texas Star Broadcasting Company, Dallas, Texas, Docket No. 8258, File No. BP-5820; for construction permit.

1. By a decision of January 27, 1950, released February 2, 1950, the Commission granted the above-entitled application of Roy Hofheinz and W. N. Hooper, a partnership doing business as Texas Star Broadcasting Company, for a permit to construct a new AM broadcast station in Dallas, Texas, to be operated on the frequency 740 kc, with power of 5 kw night and 10 kw day, unlimited time, employing a directional antenna during both daytime and nighttime hours of operation. Petitions for reconsideration and rehearing were filed by (1) KTRH Broadcasting Company, the licensee of Station KTRH, Houston, Texas, whose mutually conflicting application for a construction permit to change its daytime directional antenna system, which had been heard in a consolidated proceeding with the Texas Star application, was denied by that decision, and (2) Democrat Printing Company, licensee of Station KSEO, Durant, Oklahoma, an intervenor in the proceeding who alleged objectionable adjacent channel interference to it from the Texas Star proposal. The petitions for reconsideration and rehearing were denied by memorandum opinion and order of June 1, 1950, released June 2, 1950. Democrat Printing Company filed a Notice of Appeal from the Commission's decision in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit on June 21, 1950. KTRH Broadcasting Company did not appeal from the denial of its application, and did not join in the appeal taken by Democrat Printing Company. Texas Star Broadcasting Company participated in the appeal as an intervenor. The Court handed down its decision on June 12, 1952, Democrat Printing Company v. Federal Communications Commission, — F. 2d —, 7 Pike & Fischer, R. R. 2137, reversing the Commission's decision with respect to the grant to Texas Star because of errors committed by the Commission in reaching its decision that a grant to Texas Star was in the public interest, and remanding the matter to the Commission for further proceedings in accordance with its opinion. The Court's mandate was received on July 30, 1952.

2. The Court found that the Commission had committed error in failing to consider the nature of the program service to KSEO in the area of interference for the purpose of determining the comparative merits of its service with that of Texas Star. It will, therefore, be necessary to reopen the hearing for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to KSEO's program service. The issues designated for the previous hearing included one with respect to the "type and character of program service proposed to be rendered (by Texas Star) and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served." There was, however, no issue relating to the program service of KSEO.[1] Accordingly, in accordance with the Court's opinion, an additional issue with respect to KSEO's program service will be included.

3. The Court also found error in the grant to Texas Star because the Commission permitted a deviation from the normal requirements of the so-called "blanketing" standard of its Standards of Good Engineering Practice[2] without having any evidence that consideration was given to other transmitter sites, one of the conditions set forth by the standard for permitting a deviation, and without suggesting why, in the public interest, the showing of no alternative site should not be required in this case. We believe that in the light of the Court's opinion, the parties should be given an opportunity in this proceeding to make a further showing with respect to compliance with the "blanketing" standard, or justification for non-compliance. That issue will also be designated for further hearing.

4. One other matter requires mention. The Court's opinion states that there was no substantial evidence to support the Commission's finding that "the grant to Texas Star will not impair the ability of KSEO to continue to serve the local Durant area." It is clear from the opinion that the Court interpreted this finding as one pertaining to the continuing financial ability of KSEO to operate in the public interest in the event of a grant to Texas Star. We believe that the ambiguous wording of our finding, and its proximity to a finding that considerations of equitable distribution of service between the respective communities warranted a grant to Texas Star, led the Court to misunderstand the meaning of the finding. The Commission's finding was intended as one that KSEO's ability to serve the local Durant area in a technical sense would not be impaired, i. e., that KSEO would continue to render a satisfactory signal in that area. There is clearly record evidence to support that conclusion. It is true that there is no evidence in the record on financial injury to KSEO, but no finding on this matter was intended and no issue on financial injury was included.

5. Nor do we believe that it would be appropriate for the Commission on its own motion to include an issue, in the further proceedings in this case, relating to the financial effect of a grant upon an existing station which will receive objectionable interference. The question of whether any showing of financial injury under such circumstances would be relevant to a determination of whether the interfering grant would be in the public interest, is a very complex one which the Commission has not hitherto been called upon to consider. Since financial injury obviously does not necessarily flow from the fact that an existing station will receive electrical interference from a pending grant, and since no allegation of financial injury has been made to the Commission in this proceeding and no motion to enlarge the issues has been made based upon such a claim, we believe that it would be both unnecessary and improper to attempt to resolve the question at this time.[3]

6. For the foregoing reasons: It is ordered, That the grant of a construction permit to Texas Star Broadcasting Company, dated January 27, 1950, is vacated, the application (BMP-5900) of Texas Star Broadcasting Company for modification of construction permit to extend the completion date is dismissed as moot, and the above-entitled application for construction permit is designated for further hearing to be held at Washington, D. C., before Hugh B. Hutchison, Hearing Examiner, at a date to be announced, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the type and character of program service rendered by Station KSEO, Durant, Oklahoma, to the area in which KSEO would receive objectionable interference from the proposed operation of Texas Star Broadcasting Company.

2. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations relating to "blanket area" interference and, if not, whether the public interest warrants a departure from such standards.

3. To determine, on the basis of the above issues and the record heretofore had in those proceedings, whether a grant of the above-entitled application is in the public interest.

ARCTIC TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO. AND AERONAUTICAL RADIO, INC.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of Arctic Telephone & Telegraph Company, for construction permit for an aeronautical and aeronautical fixed station to be located at the International Airport, Spenard, Alaska; Docket No. 10199, File No. 8107-A3-P-F; and Aeronautical Radio, Inc., for construction permit to relocate aeronautical and aeronautical fixed stations KWH2/KWC99 from Elmendorf Field to the International Airport, Spenard, Alaska, Docket No. 10204, File No. 14572-A3-P-G. In the matter of Arctic Telephone & Telegraph Company, application for modification of construction permit to change location of a fixed public point-to-point telephone station from Fourth of July Creek, Alaska to Anchorage, Alaska, to add frequencies and to increase the maximum power, Docket No. 10230, File No. 11330-F4-MP-D.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of November 1952;

The Commission having under consideration the designation of time and place for hearings in the above-captioned matters;

It appearing, that by an order dated May 21, 1952, the proceedings in Dockets 10199 and 10204 were designated for a consolidated hearing in Washington, D. C., at a time to be specified later and by an order dated July 9, 1952, the proceeding in Docket 10230 was designated for hearing in Washington, D. C., to be held on August 26, 1952, and subsequently adjourned; and

It further appearing, that Arctic Telephone & Telegraph Company requested that the hearing location in both proceedings be changed from Washington, D. C. to Anchorage, Alaska, for the reason, among other things, that the applicant and all its witnesses reside in Alaska and it would not be possible for it effectively to present its case in Washington; and

It further appearing, that the foregoing request was denied by the Commission on July 23, 1952, but Arctic Telephone & Telegraph Company was advised that the hearings on the above applications might be held either in Seattle, Washington or Portland, Oregon, at a time which would coincide with the then anticipated hearings on other matters which were expected to be held in the Pacific Northwest in the near future; and

It further appearing, that Arctic Telephone & Telegraph Company filed a written appearance indicating that it would appear at a hearing held in either one of the above-mentioned cities; and

It further appearing, that although considerations which arose after the Commission's action of July 23, 1952, was taken make, at present, indefinite the time when other proceedings may be scheduled for hearings in the Pacific Northwest, the Commission desires to afford Arctic Telephone & Telegraph Company the opportunity to be heard at a place which would more practicably enable the applicant to appear and present its cases than if the place of hearing were Washington, D. C.;

It is ordered, That the above-mentioned orders of May 21, 1952, and July 9, 1952, are amended by changing the hearing location from Washington, D. C. to a place in the Pacific Northwest to be determined, together with the time for such hearings, by a subsequent order.

[F. R. Doc. 52-12344; Filed, Nov. 18, 1952; 8:54 a. m.]

[1] KSEO had contended that the issues designated by the Commission required it to show only that Texas Star's proposed signal would interfere with the existing KSEO signal in order to defeat Texas Star's application. The Court stated that this interpretation of the issues was too restrictive, since issue number four was "To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with any existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations." (Emphasis added.) The Court's opinion then states "Unless we are to ignore the italicized portion, we think the issue clear notice that the public interest might require an award to Texas Star even though the signal of other stations might suffer interference, and that any evidence showing that such interference would not be in the public interest would be relevant. The Federal Communications Act and the Commission's rules leave no doubt that in appropriate cases, licenses may be granted despite resulting interference to existing stations." The question there decided by the Court was one of notice, and we do not construe the Court's language as changing the scope of the Commission's issues. The Commission has never construed the issue referred to by the Court as including evidence of program service, and the evidence of KSEO's program service offered at the hearing was rejected as immaterial under the issues.

[3] We recognize that the Court by dictum in a footnote to its opinion included language suggesting that if the matter were properly raised, economic injury to an existing station might, under certain circumstances, be relevant. It seems doubtful that this dictum, written in the absence of any Commission consideration of the problem, was intended to prejudge Commission determination of the question should it be properly raised in any case. In any event, we need not consider, in the present posture of this case, the applicability of the principle stated in circumstances where a party timely raised the issue.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 5th day of November 1952;

The Commission, having under consideration the above-entitled application of W. S. Butterfield Theatres, Inc., requesting a construction permit for a new television broadcast station to operate on Channel 12 in Flint, Michigan; and

It appearing, that the said application is mutually exclusive with the above-entitled applications of WJR, the Goodwill Station, Inc., and Trebit Corporation, both of which also request construction permits for television stations to operate on Channel 12 in Flint, Michigan; and

It further appearing, that the applicant W. S. Butterfield Theatres, Inc., was advised on October 30, 1952, that its proposal was mutually exclusive with those of the other above-entitled applications and was requested to file any reply within five days, and that this time has now expired and the said conflict has not been resolved:

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above-entitled application of W. S. Butterfield Theatres, Inc., be designated for hearing in the same consolidated proceeding with the other above-entitled applications to commence at 10:00 a. m., on November 17, 1952, in Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicants to construct and operate the proposed stations.

2. To determine the type and character of the program services proposed to be rendered and whether they would meet the needs of the communities and areas within the Grade A and Grade B field intensity contours.

3. To determine whether the construction and operation of the proposed stations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and regulations governing television broadcast stations.

4. To determine whether the installation and operation of any of the stations proposed in the above-entitled applications would constitute a hazard to air navigation.

5. To determine on a comparative basis which, if any, of the above-entitled applications should be granted.

PUBLIC SERVICE CO. OF COLORADO

ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

NOVEMBER 12, 1952.

On November 3, 1952, counsel for Public Service Company of Colorado requested that the public hearing now set to commence on December 8, 1952, in the above entitled docket be postponed until a date agreeable to the Commission subsequent to January 1, 1953. Counsel states that they are presently engaged in a case pending in the United States District Court in which Public Service Company of Colorado is a defendant and will be engaged in other cases to be tried during November and December.

The Commission finds: Good cause exists for postponement of the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding.

The Commission orders: The hearing now set for December 8, 1952, at 10:00 a. m., be and the same is hereby postponed until January 12, 1953, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington 25, D. C.

Date of issuance: November 13, 1952.

APPLICATION FOR RELIEF

NOVEMBER 14, 1952.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: H. R. Hinsch, Alternate Agent, for carriers parties to schedule listed below.

Commodities involved: Anhydrous ammonia, carloads.

From: South Point, Ohio.

To: Chicago and Streator, Ill.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers and circuitous routes.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: N. & W. Ry. tariff I. C. C. No. 9424, Supp. 44.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

GEORGIA RAILROAD ET AL.

REROUTING OR DIVERSION OF TRAFFIC

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, the Georgia Rail Road & Banking Company, Operated as the Georgia Railroad by lessees: Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, account work stoppage, is unable to transport traffic routed over this line. It is ordered, that:

(a) Rerouting traffic: The Georgia Rail Road & Banking Company, operated as the Georgia Railroad by lessees: Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, account work stoppage, is unable to transport traffic in accordance with shippers' routing, and is hereby authorized to divert such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of the routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroads desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: Each carrier rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of such Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., November 13, 1952.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p. m., November 28, 1952, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, that this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D. C., November 12, 1952.

WACHUSETT GAS CO. AND NEW ENGLAND ELECTRIC SYSTEM

ORDER AUTHORIZING ISSUANCE AND SALE OF CAPITAL STOCK

NOVEMBER 12, 1952.

New England Electric System ("NEES"), a registered holding company, and its public-utility subsidiary company, Wachusett Gas Company ("Wachusett"), having filed with this Commission an application-declaration, pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9 (a) and 10 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act") and Rules U-23 and U-42 (b) (2) thereunder, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Wachusett proposes to issue and sell, for cash, 5,000 shares of additional capital stock, $100 par value, at a price of $100 per share, aggregating $500,000. NEES, the sole stockholder of Wachusett, proposes to acquire such shares and will use available cash for such purpose.

Pursuant to a bank loan agreement with The National City Bank of New York, Wachusett presently has outstanding $430,000 principal amount of unsecured promissory notes, due April 1, 1953. The proceeds from the proposed issuance and sale of capital stock will be used by Wachusett to pay its outstanding note indebtedness under its loan agreement and the balance of the proceeds will be used to pay for construction.

The application-declaration states that the total expenses to Wachusett and NEES in connection with the proposed transactions, including services rendered by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, at the actual cost thereof, are estimated at $1,500 and $300, respectively.

The Department of Public Utilities of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts has approved the proposed issuance and sale of capital stock by Wachusett and, according to the application-declaration, no other State commission or Federal commission, other than this Commission, has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

It is requested that the Commission's order herein become effective upon issuance.

Notice of the filing of the application-declaration having been given in the manner and form provided by Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, and a hearing not having been requested or ordered by the Commission within the time specified in said notice; and the Commission finding that the applicable provisions of the act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said application-declaration be, and hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, and that this order shall become effective upon its issuance.

By the Commission.

PART 672—WOOL

SUBPART—1952 WOOL PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM (SHORN WOOL)

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

In order to extend the 1952 Wool Price Support Program to make price support available on all eligible wool shorn before January 1, 1953, the bulletin stating the requirements with respect to the 1952 Wool Price Support Program for shorn wool (17 F. R. 7261) is amended as follows:

1. Delete the date "November 30, 1952" appearing in § 672.303 (h) and substitute therefor the date "February 28, 1953."

2. Delete the date "December 31, 1952" appearing in § 672.303 (k) and substitute therefor the date "March 31, 1953."

3. Delete the date "December 15, 1952" appearing in § 672.305 (a) and substitute therefor the date "April 30, 1953."

4. Delete the date "November 30, 1952" appearing in the first sentence of § 672.306 and substitute therefor the date "February 28, 1953."

5. Delete the date "November 30, 1952" appearing in the last sentence of § 672.308 and substitute therefor the date "February 28, 1953."

6. Delete paragraphs (a) and (c) of § 672.309 and substitute the following therefor:

§ 672.309 Nonrecourse loans—(a) Application. At any time after wool has been appraised, but not later than March 31, 1953, and after such wool has been packed in bags or bales, the handler may make application for a nonrecourse loan (i. e., a nonrecourse loan with a maturity date not later than April 30, 1953, which CCC will make, under the terms and conditions set forth in this subpart, on wool that has been appraised) on such wool by executing and delivering to the PMA Commodity Office a note, in form prescribed by CCC, accompanied by warehouse receipts representing the wool, Appraisal Certificates, and such other documents as CCC may specify.

* * * * *

(c) Disbursement by CCC and maturity date. Upon receipt of the documents specified in this subpart, in proper form and properly executed by the handler, the PMA Commodity Office shall promptly pay to the handler the gross loan proceeds computed in accordance with paragraph (b) of § 672.310, less any amount previously paid to the handler in accordance with § 672.305 as an advance loan with respect to such wool. The note covering any nonrecourse loan made under the program after the agreement between the handler and CCC is amended to extend the period during which price support will be available will be payable on or before April 30, 1953, together with interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum. Any note covering a nonrecourse loan made under the program which is payable on or before January 31, 1953, may be extended to become payable on or before April 30, 1953, together with interest at the rate of 3½ percent per annum: Provided, That the handler shall save CCC harmless from any storage charges which accrue on or before April 30, 1953, on wool pledged as security for such nonrecourse loan.

7. Delete the first sentence of § 672.314 (d) and substitute the following therefor:

(d) Charge for storage. A storage charge for any period after the date of the grower's or pool manager's authorization of the handler to pledge such wool to CCC during which the handler has provided storage through the maturity date of the note covering the nonrecourse loan: Provided, That, if the nonrecourse loan is repaid before the maturity date, the handler shall refund to each grower or pool manager any storage charges deducted for the period from the date of repayment of the loan through the maturity date of such note. * * *

8. Delete § 672.314 (f) and substitute the following therefor:

(f) Advance. Any cash payments previously advanced by the handler to the grower or pool manager or any transportation charges paid on such wool by the handler for the account of the grower or pool manager.

9. Delete § 672.315 and substitute the following therefor:

§ 672.315 Limitation on charges by handler. The handler shall make no charges on wool on which CCC makes a nonrecourse loan which are not authorized by this subpart without the written approval of CCC unless the charge is authorized in writing by the grower entitled to the loan proceeds. In determining the amount due the grower, any charges in addition to those specified in §§ 672.310 and 672.314 shall be clearly itemized on the Account of Loan Settlement and shall be identified as charges specifically authorized by the grower. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, in any case where the maturity date of a nonrecourse loan made under the program is extended from January 31, 1953, to April 30, 1953, the handler may, without written approval of the grower, charge to the grower and deduct from any amount due the grower under the program, storage charges for the period of such extension at rates not in excess of those specified in § 672.314 (d).

10. Delete the date "January 31, 1953" in each place where it appears in the last sentence of § 672.316 and substitute therefor the words "the maturity date of such note."

11. Delete the date "December 31, 1952" in each place where it appears in § 672.319 (b) and substitute therefor the date "March 31, 1953."

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Production and Marketing Administration (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

PART 726—FIRE-CURED, DARK AIR-CURED, AND VIRGINIA SUN-CURED TOBACCO

PROCLAMATION OF THE NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1953–54 MARKETING YEAR, AND APPORTIONMENT OF QUOTAS AMONG THE SEVERAL STATES

Sec.
726.403 Basis and purpose.
726.404 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952.
726.405 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952.

AUTHORITY: §§ 726.403 to 726.405 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 301, 312, 313, 52 Stat. 38, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1301, 1312, 1313.

§ 726.403 Basis and purpose. Sections 726.403 to 726.405 are issued to announce the reserve supply level and the total supply of fire-cured tobacco and dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, to establish the amounts of the national marketing quotas for fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, and to apportion the quotas among the several States. The findings and determinations contained in §§ 726.403, 726.404, and 726.405 have been made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, and after due consideration of the data, views, and recommendations received from fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco producers and others as provided in a notice (17 F. R. 8922) given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003).

§ 726.404 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for fire-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953[1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for fire-cured tobacco is 179,000,000 pounds calculated as provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, from a normal year's domestic consumption of 38,000,000 pounds and a normal year's exports of 40,000,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of fire-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, is 198,600,000 pounds consisting of carry-over of 142,200,000 pounds and estimated 1952 production of 56,400,000 pounds.

(c) Carry-over. The estimated carry-over of fire-cured tobacco at the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1953, is 124,600,000 pounds calculated by subtracting the estimated disappearance for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, of 74,000,000 pounds from the total supply of such tobacco.

[1] Rounded to the nearest tenth of a million pounds.

(d) National marketing quota. The amount of fire-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, a supply of fire-cured tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 54,400,000 pounds and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed. It is determined, however, that a national marketing quota in the amount of 54,400,000 pounds would result in undue restriction of marketings during the 1953–54 marketing year and such amount is hereby increased by 20 percent. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for the fire-cured tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, is 65,300,000 pounds.

(e) Apportionment of the quota. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted into State acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	22,760
Tennessee	23,638
Virginia	10,670
Reserve [1]	286

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no fire-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

§ 726.405 Findings and determinations with respect to the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953 [1]—(a) Reserve supply level. The reserve supply level for dark air-cured tobacco is 85,100,000 pounds calculated as provided in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, from a normal year's domestic consumption of 25,000,000 pounds and a normal year's exports of 8,000,000 pounds.

(b) Total supply. The total supply of dark air-cured tobacco for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, is 93,600,000 pounds consisting of carryover of 67,500,000 pounds and estimated 1952 production of 26,100,000 pounds.

(c) Carry-over. The estimated carryover of dark air-cured tobacco at the beginning of the marketing year for such tobacco beginning October 1, 1953, is 61,300,000 pounds calculated by subtracting the estimated disappearance for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1952, of 32,300,000 pounds from the total supply of such tobacco.

(d) National marketing quota. The amount of dark air-cured tobacco which will make available during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, a supply of dark air-cured tobacco equal to the reserve supply level of such tobacco is 24,800,000 pounds and a national marketing quota of such amount is hereby proclaimed. It is determined, however, that a national marketing quota in the amount of 24,800,000 pounds would result in undue restriction of marketings during the 1953–54 marketing year and such amount is hereby increased by 20 percent. Therefore, the amount of the national marketing quota for dark air-cured tobacco in terms of the total quantity of such tobacco which may be marketed during the marketing year beginning October 1, 1953, is 29,800,000 pounds.

(e) Apportionment of the quota. The national marketing quota proclaimed in paragraph (d) of this section is hereby apportioned among the several States pursuant to section 313 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and converted into State acreage allotments in accordance with section 313 (g) of the act as follows:

State:	Acreage allotment
Kentucky	22,832
Tennessee	3,562
Indiana	107
Missouri	1
Reserve [1]	133

[1] Acreage reserved for establishing allotments for farms upon which no dark air-cured tobacco has been grown during the past five years.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 726—FIRE-CURED, DARK AIR-CURED AND VIRGINIA SUN-CURED TOBACCO

MARKETING QUOTA REGULATIONS, 1953–54 MARKETING YEAR

The amendment herein is based on the marketing quota provisions of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, applicable to tobacco (7 U. S. C. 1311–1314), and is made for the purpose of amending § 726.416 of the Fire-cured, Dark Air-cured and Virginia Sun-cured marketing quota regulations, 1953–54 marketing year, relating to determination of 1953 preliminary acreage allotments for old tobacco farms. Since the amendment will affect the size of individual farm fire-cured tobacco acreage allotments and since it is imperative that farmers be notified of their tobacco acreage allotments at an early date in order to be able to complete their 1953 farming arrangements, it is necessary that the amendment become effective at the earliest possible date. Therefore, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act with respect to notice, public procedure, and effective date is impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and that the amendment made herein shall become effective upon the date it is filed with the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Fire-cured, Dark Air-cured and Virginia Sun-cured Tobacco Marketing Quota Regulations, 1953–54 Marketing Year, are amended by adding the following paragraph (g):

(g) In the case of fire-cured tobacco the 1953 preliminary allotment for an old farm may be increased if the community and county committees find that such increase is necessary to establish a preliminary allotment for such farm which is fair and equitable in relation to the preliminary allotments for other old farms in the community, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the total of the preliminary allotments as increased for all old tobacco farms in the State shall not exceed the total acreage allotted to all farms in the State in 1952: And provided further, That no preliminary allotment shall be increased above the acreage capacity of curing barns located on the farm and suitable for curing tobacco or the limitation contained in paragraph (f) of this section.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interprets or applies sec. 313, 52 Stat. 47, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1313)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of November 1952. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

PART 955—GRAPEFRUIT GROWN IN ARIZONA; IN IMPERIAL COUNTY, CALIFORNIA; AND IN THAT PART OF RIVERSIDE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SITUATED SOUTH AND EAST OF THE SAN GORGONIO PASS

DETERMINATION RELATIVE TO EXPENSES AND FIXING OF RATE OF ASSESSMENT FOR 1952–1953 FISCAL PERIOD

On October 23, 1952, notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (17 F. R. 9604) regarding the expenses and rate of assessment for the 1952–53 fiscal period under Marketing Agreement No. 96, as amended, and Order No. 55, as amended (7 CFR Part 955) regulating the handling of grapefruit grown in the State of Arizona; in Imperial County, California; and in that part of Riverside County, California, situated south and east of the San Gorgonio Pass. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.). After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice which were submitted by the Administrative Committee (established pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found and determined that:

§ 955.206 Expenses and rate of assessment for the 1952–1953 fiscal period. (a) (1) The expenses necessary to be incurred by the Administrative Committee, established pursuant to the provisions of the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, for its maintenance and functioning during the fiscal period beginning August 1, 1952, will amount to $18,225.00, and the rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who first ships grapefruit shall be one and one-quarter cents ($0.0125) per standard box of fruit shipped by such handler as the first handler thereof during the said fiscal period. Such rate of assessment is hereby fixed as each such handler's pro rata share of the aforesaid expenses.

(2) Notwithstanding the approval of the aforesaid expenses, none of such funds may be used to pay any wage or salary that is inconsistent with the Defense Production Act of 1950, as amended, Executive Order No. 10161, or any supplementary order, directive, or regulation pursuant thereto.

(b) As used in this section, "handler," "ship," "fruit," "fiscal period," and "standard box" shall each have the same meaning as is given to each such term in said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 14th day of November 1952, to be effective 30 days after the date of publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 578—DECORATIONS, MEDALS, RIBBONS, AND SIMILAR DEVICES

DECORATIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS

A new § 578.23a is added as follows:

§ 578.23a Gold Star Lapel Button. Established by act of August 1, 1947 (61 Stat. 710; 36 U. S. C. Sup. 182a–182d) as amended by act of August 21, 1951 (65 Stat. 195).

(a) The Gold Star Lapel Button consists of a gold star on a purple circular background, bordered in gold and surrounded by gold laurel leaves. On the reverse is the inscription "United States of America, Act of Congress, August 1947," with space for engraving the initials of the recipient.

(b) One Gold Star Lapel Button will be furnished without cost to the widow or widower and to each of the parents of a member of the Armed Forces who lost his life while in the active military service during the periods indicated in acts cited above. The term "widow or widower" includes those who have since remarried, and the term "parents" includes mother, father, stepmother, stepfather, mother through adoption, father through adoption, and foster parents who stood in loco parentis.

(c) One Gold Star Lapel Button will be furnished at cost price to each child, stepchild, child through adoption, brother, half brother, sister, and half sister of a member of the Armed Forces who lost his life during any period indicated herein.

(d) Applications for Gold Star Lapel Buttons may be submitted to The Adjutant General by eligible next of kin of deceased Army personnel enumerated in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(e) Only one Gold Star Lapel Button will be furnished to eligible individuals, except whenever a Gold Star Lapel Button furnished to an eligible individual indicated in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall have been lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the person to whom it was furnished, such button may be replaced, upon application, at cost price. Private manufacture and/or sale of the Gold Star Lapel Button is prohibited and this design will not be incorporated in any manner in any article manufactured commercially or privately.

DERIVATION: Sec. X, AFM 70–6.

SUBPART A—BONDS

§ 1009.101 Definitions—(a) Annual bid bonds. A single bond which secures all bids submitted by a contractor to a procuring activity, or to such contracting officers of a procuring activity as may be designated by that activity, during a specific fiscal year in response to formal advertising. Such bond is furnished in lieu of separate bid bonds. It is used only in connection with contracts other than construction contracts.

(b) Annual performance bond. A single bond which secures the performance and fulfillment of all undertakings, covenants, terms, conditions, and agreements of all contracts of a contractor entered into with and submitted to a procuring activity, or to such contracting officers of a procuring activity as may be designated by that activity, during a specific fiscal year. Such a bond is executed in lieu of executing separate performance bonds for each contract. It is used only in connection with contracts other than construction contracts.

(c) Fidelity bond (blanket). A bond under which the obligor agrees to indemnify an employer up to an amount stated in the bond for losses caused by dishonesty on the part of all employees except those expressly excluded by written endorsement on the bond.

(d) Forgery bond or policy (depositor's form). A bond or policy under which the obligor agrees to reimburse a purchaser and others named in the bond or policy (the insureds) to an amount stated in the bond or policy:

(1) For losses caused by the forging or altering of a check, draft, or similar instrument issued by or purported to have been issued by any of the insureds named in the bond or policy; and

(2) For losses resulting from the fact that a check or draft has been obtained from the insureds through the device of impersonation.

(e) License or permit bond. A bond which secures to a municipality or other public authority the payment of fines or the amount of any losses sustained as a result of action taken, or omitted to be taken, in violation of the terms of a license or permit. The indemnity sometimes runs to third persons in addition to the municipality.

(f) Consent of surety. An instrument by which the surety or sureties on a bond or bonds supporting a contract consent(s) to a supplemental agreement which modifies or amends the contract, or a change order which grants an extension of performance time or which has the effect of increasing the contract price by more than $25,000, and agree(s) that the bond or bonds previously given to support the basic contract shall apply to the contract as modified.

CROSS REFERENCE: For section of Armed Services Procurement Regulation which this section implements see § 409.101 of this title.

§ 1009.102 Performance bonds—(a) Contracts other than construction. Authority is granted to the head of the procuring activity concerned, and to such other person or classes of persons as he shall designate, to determine whether a performance bond shall be required in connection with a contract other than a construction contract.

(b) Construction contracts. The penalty of the performance bond required in connection with a construction contract shall be at least in an amount equal of 50 percent of the contract price. Setting forth of a minimum percentage herein shall not be construed as a bar to fixing a penalty in a greater percentage, up to 100 percent of the contract price, in a case where a greater penalty is deemed advisable for the protection of the United States, and where fixing such greater penalty will not eliminate small, otherwise potentially, acceptable contractors.

(c) Additional performance bonds. (1) If a performance bond has been required in connection with a contract other than a construction contract, and there is executed a change order in excess of $25,000 or a supplemental agreement providing for any increase in the contract price, an additional performance bond to cover the increase shall be furnished unless it is waived in accordance with law. In lieu of an additional bond, a consent of surety in the form set forth in § 1009.202 (a) may be furnished.

(2) When, in connection with a construction contract, there is executed a change order in excess of $25,000, or a supplemental agreement providing for any increase in the contract price, an additional performance bond to cover the increase will be furnished. In lieu of an additional bond, a consent of surety in the form set forth in § 1009.202 (a) may be furnished.

CROSS REFERENCE: For section of Armed Services Procurement Regulation which this section implements see § 409.103 of this title.

§ 1009.103 Payment bonds—(a) Contracts other than construction contracts. As a general rule, payment bonds shall not be required in connection with contracts other than construction contracts. Authority is granted to the head of the procuring activity concerned, and to such other person or classes of persons as he may designate, to determine whether a payment bond will be required to support any such contract.

(b) Additional payment bonds. (1) If a payment bond has been required in connection with a contract other than a construction contract, and there is executed a change order in excess of $25,000, or a supplemental agreement providing for any increase in the contract price, an additional payment bond to cover the increase shall be furnished, unless it is waived in accordance with law. In lieu of an additional bond, a consent of surety in the form set forth in § 1009.202 (a) may be furnished.

(2) When, in connection with a construction contract, there is executed a change order in excess of $25,000 or a supplemental agreement providing for any increase in the contract price, an additional payment bond to cover the increase shall be furnished. In lieu of an additional bond, a consent of surety in the form set forth in § 1009.202 (a) may be furnished.

CROSS REFERENCE: For section of Armed Services Procurement Regulation which this section implements see § 409.104 of this title.

§ 1009.104 Advance payment bonds. Authority to make determinations with respect to advance payment bonds is with the Secretary. The head of the procuring activity, or his delegee, shall make recommendations to the Secretary as to the type and extent of advance payment bonds desired when requests for advance payments are under consideration.

CROSS REFERENCE: For section of Armed Services Procurement Regulation which this section implements see § 409.105 of this title.

§ 1009.105 Patent infringement bonds. (a) A patent infringement bond will not be required with respect to any contract in connection with which a performance bond has been executed.

(b) Even if a performance bond has not been executed, the requirement of a patent infringement bond will be the exception rather than the rule. Where, however, a supply contract or construction contract contains a patent clause of the type set forth in Part 408 of this title, and the financial responsibility of the contractor is unknown or doubtful, a patent infringement bond may, in the discretion of the head of the procuring activity concerned, or his delegee, be required.

(c) On such bonds as are required, the penal sum will be the lowest which, in the exercise of sound judgment, is deemed adequate for the protection of the interests of the United States.

CROSS REFERENCE: For section of Armed Services Procurement Regulation which this section implements see § 409.106 of this title.
